RESIGNATIONS.

I have received and accepted the resignations of Hon. W. I. Babb, of Mount Pleasant, and Hon. Joseph H. Allen, of Pocahontas, Regents of the State University. These resignations came to me so recently that I believed it to be unnecessary to fill the vacancies by appointments. I bring them to your attention to the end that you may fill them by election, in the manner provided by law.

PARDONS AND PAROLES.

I submit to you herewith a statement of all pardons and suspensions of sentences issued during the year 1906. It will disclose fully the ground upon which the action was based in each instance. The files of my office, with respect to these matters, are open for the examination of any person who may desire to be more fully informed.

In a former message, I explained at some length the system of paroles which was handed down to me by my predecessor, and which I have endeavored to perpetuate; and I therefore need not enlarge upon the subject at this time. I have, during the year named, issued two pardons, and suspended the operation of sixty-three penitentiary sentences and nineteen jail sentences. Thirty-eight persons have been restored to citizenship. Ten commutations have been granted, four of them for the mere purpose of restoring good time, upon the recommendation of the Wardens, and the others mainly for a few days only, in order to accomplish some special purpose. Twenty-two fines have been remitted, almost invariably upon the application of the Board of Supervisors, the County Attorney, the Auditor, the Clerk, and the Treasurer. I have, during the year, revoked eight of the suspensions, commonly called "paroles." There are at this time about two hundred men under parole making regular monthly reports to my office. The average amount earned by each man is $46.12 per month. Substantially all the persons who have been paroled are, in so far as I am able to ascertain, living upright, decent, and industrious lives, and I have no reason to change the opinion heretofore expressed with regard to the efficiency of the parole system in building up character and in making good citizens.

I am more than ever impressed with the advantages that would be derived from the indeterminate sentence; and I know that it would be both humane and helpful to convert the penitentiary at Anamosa into a reformatory, and to establish a separate reformatory for women. It is easy to pass these subjects, for most of you do not come into contact with the suffering and sorrow which follow crime, but if you cherish the belief, as I am sure you do, that reformation is one of the objects of the administration of the criminal law, you can not render your State better service than to give these things the best thought of your minds and the best impulses of your hearts.

There were filed in my office during the year 1906 twenty-three applications for pardons on the part of persons who have been convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to life imprisonment. Publication has been made as required by law, in each case, and I herewith transmit these applications, together with the proofs of publication, for such investigation and recommendations as you may be pleased to make.

ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION.

There is to be held in the summer of 1909, at Seattle, in the State of Washington, an exposition which has been named the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. Its primary purpose is to exhibit the resources and capacities of the Alaska and Yukon territories in the United States and Dominion of Canada, with a view to the development of the trade between the United States and these territories. I have received a communication from the officers of the exposition, inviting the State of Iowa to participate in it, and I submit the invitation to you, recommending its acceptance.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

At the last session of the General Assembly, there was extended to the State an invitation to join in a celebration commemorating the first settlement at Jamestown, to be held during the summer of 1907. No action was taken upon it, and therefore nothing has been done with respect to a representation on the part of the State in the Exposition. I still believe that it would be wise and patriotic for the State to make a small appropriation for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a modest Iowa home upon the grounds at Jamestown where our people could concentrate, and in an appropriate way do honor to the event which the Exposition is to memorialize.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

One of the most gratifying developments of the State has been the wonderful growth of the State Fair, under the efficient management of its Board of Trustees. Its entire cost to the State, including the donation by the City of Des Moines, has been $179,509.25, whereas the present value of the grounds and buildings, conservatively estimated, is $353,530.00. The annual exhibition has not only become a source of pride to the people of the State, but its educational effect can hardly be exaggerated. Like all other such institutions, it needs multiply, and it will deserve liberal assistance from the General Assembly.

During the year there arose an imperative demand for an extension of the fair grounds toward the south, in the vicinity of the present railway station. Additional buildings are required for cattle, horses, hogs and sheep. These buildings must be situated proximate to the buildings already in existence, and therefore the Board of Trustees believed that six or seven acres of land (which had been divided into lots) lying immediately south of the present line, ought to be acquired. There was no authority to make any such purchase, except upon condition of a sale of a part of the ground already owned. In this situation, the Board of Trustees, after carefully considering the matter, unanimously recommended to the Executive Council the sale of forty acres of the wood land in the eastern part of the grounds, not now in use, and with the proceeds of such sale a purchase of the lots heretofore mentioned. The Council, which had the power under the statute to make the sale and purchase, was deeply impressed with the showing made by the Board, and felt that the further development of the State fair depended upon the proposed enlargement. At this juncture, certain public-spirited citizens of Des Moines, who felt that it would be unwise to sell any part of the grounds now owned, came to the rescue, and themselves purchased the land and lots needed, for a very reasonable price ($5,875.00) and deeded them to the State of Iowa, with no other agreement than this: that I would bring the subject to the attention of the General Assembly, and recommend an appropriation that would reimburse them for the expenditure which they have made. I do recommend the reimbursement earnestly. There is no reason why these men should make a donation to the State of Iowa, and they entered into the matter solely because the Board of Trustees and the Executive Council believed that the additional land was imperatively necessary, and that it must be acquired in time to permit the management of the fair to make arrangements for its use during the exhibition of 1907.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

There is nothing in the present law that authorizes the State Board of Health to establish proper regulations respecting the transportation of dead human bodies. In view of the legislation and practice of other states, it has become very important that our Board of Health shall have additional power. I need not enlarge upon the subject, for the need of being in harmony with modern practices will be obvious to the most casual observer. Closely connected with regulations relating to such transportation, is the qualification of undertakers and embalmers to prepare bodies for shipment, and the Board of Health should be authorized to examine persons who expect to perform such work, to issue permits to those who are found to be competent, and to impose and collect such fees as may be necessary to cover the expenses of examination and such other expenses as may be incidental to the added function of the Board.

Having spoken of the Board of Health, I trust you will not look upon it as inappropriate if I mention in this public way the retirement of Dr. J. F. Kennedy, who has been its Secretary for twenty-two years. He has been a zealous, faithful and efficient public servant, and he carries with him, as he leaves the office which he has so ably filled, the respect and esteem of all who know him.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

The experience of the last year in all the institutions has been most gratifying. They are at this moment more prosperous, more efficient, more distinguished, than ever before. The liberal spirit manifested in the generous appropriations of the half decade just closed is bearing rich and abundant fruit. The fathers and mothers of Iowa who have boys and girls to educate have more confidence in these schools than they had in former years, and therefore the attendance of students is rapidly increasing.

As I have more than once said, our young people are worthy of the best educational facilities that genius, learning, and money can establish and maintain, and we are swiftly nearing the point at which it can be truthfully said that they have as good as the country affords.

Speaking specifically of the institutions, it gives me unqualified pleasure to note that the University has added, during the year, to its student body, a larger percentage than any other university in the country. Its course of instruction has not only been broadened, but at the same time has been made more practical. It is applying more effectually the abstractions of learning to the actual things of life. The fidelity of the Board of Regents, the leadership of its President, and the earnest, capable work of its instructional force, are all to be commended. I sincerely hope that you will make it possible for the institution to grow until it fully occupies the field which it was established to occupy.

The College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts is not only maintaining the high standard which was attained under a former President, but the inspiration of its present distinguished head is constantly lifting it up into loftier altitudes of excellence. The conduct of all its departments is efficient in a marked degree, but its agricultural department is especially notable. Every year adds to its victories and makes its supremacy among agricultural colleges still more secure. I sincerely believe that the farms of Iowa have produced, during the past year, an added value, directly traceable to the work of the College, far exceeding all the appropriations ever made for both buildings and support. When material dividends of such magnitude can be declared upon an investment, there ought to be no hesitancy in generously supplying its needs. I do not mention the ordinary requirements for its enlarged functions, but I must be permitted to refer to one matter which I think you may well consider. There are certain fundamental truths in the science of agriculture, of constant application in farming, that can be taught with a fair degree of success by written communication. There are a great many of our boys who can not attend personally upon the courses of instruction given at the college. There are a great many men of mature age who ought to know these things, but who can not leave their work and enroll themselves as students. I believe that a bureau of communication ought to be attached to the Department of Agriculture so as to give these boys and these men an opportunity to learn the common principles of their avocation. If this is done, there will not be a single year in which the wealth added to the State, through the information thus imparted, will not return, by a hundred fold, the money required to maintain the bureau. I hope that no one will construe my recommendation into a desire to lower the standards of education. I understand perfectly that a course of instruction through correspondence must be somewhat superficial and very inadequate, but there is a pressing need for even moderate learning in agriculture, and the subject is peculiarly adapted to courses pursued in correspondence.

The State Normal School, under the supervision of its unexcelled leader, is pressing forward, year by year, and it challenges the just pride of every citizen. It is furnishing to the State and to the country, teachers of the highest qualifications.

CORN GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

This Association desires a small appropriation to enable it to carry forward more successfully the work in which it is engaged. If I looked upon it as a private affair, I could not be brought to favor the request, but it is really a part of the Agricultural College, and it may fairly be viewed as a branch of our educational system. I believe that the amount it asks would be returned over and over again every year to the farmers, in their increased corn crop.

STATE FISH AND GAME WARDEN.

In his report to me, the State Fish and Game Warden has strongly recommended a radical amendment to our law with reference to hunters' licenses. I have not been able to examine the subject with the care that would warrant me in adopting his opinion and giving it to you as my own. I do, however, bring the matter to your special attention, and ask that you give his recommendation the most careful consideration.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

I have been much impressed with the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. He presents many subjects and proposes many changes of the first importance. His recommendations are supported by clear and persuasive argument, and I earnestly hope that every member of the General Assembly will become familiar with his report and carefully think upon the changes he suggests.

INSTITUTIONS UNDER THE MANAGEMENT OF THE BOARD OF CONTROL.

I have no especial recommendation to make with respect to these institutions. I desire only to commend the faithful and efficient administration of the Board during the past year, as in each previous year of its existence. It has, I believe, done everything that could be done for the welfare of those who have been committed to its care.

BACTERIOLOGICAL LABORATORY.

I have taken some pains to become familiar with the work done in the bacteriological laboratory at Iowa City, and its needs for the future. It is my opinion that the General Assembly never made an appropriation of greater benefit to the people of the State than the one which established and which now maintains this laboratory. In the development of medical science, such laboratories have become imperative for the proper treatment of disease, and the preservation of life. The demands upon the laboratory at Iowa City are far greater than it can meet, with its present equipment and appropriation. I recommend an increase in the appropriation for this work.

HISTORICAL BUILDING.

When the contracts now outstanding have been performed, the appropriation made by the last General Assembly for the Historical Building will have been expended. It was known when this appropriation was made that it would not complete the building. I have taken some pains to secure the most reliable estimates for finishing the work, and I am informed that it will require $78,000.00 to bring the building and grounds to completion. This estimate does not include passenger elevators, furniture, or decoration. The furniture will not require a large expenditure, and upon the decoration you may exhaust a large or a small amount, according to your pleasure. It is most important, however, that the building be finished, so that it can be fully occupied.

In this connection, I desire to call your attention to the Hall of Archives, which has already been set apart in the building, and the work of selecting, classifying, and removing to their new location the archives which are to be taken from the Capitol. The preparation of the new room, you will naturally consider in arranging for the completion and furnishing of the building, but the work incident to placing the archives in the room may be overlooked. The statute of the Thirty-first General Assembly upon this subject, I assume was intended simply as a beginning, for if you place at the disposal of the director no greater force than is now employed, none of you will live long enough to witness the end of the undertaking. It will require several men several years to do what you contemplate, and I therefore earnestly recommend such an appropriation as may be necessary to carry on the project with reasonable celerity.

DIRECT INHERITANCE TAX.

We now have a statute which levies, under certain conditions, a collateral inheritance tax. The propriety of levying also a direct inheritance tax may well engage your attention. I do not look upon a tax of that character as a method for the reduction of swollen fortunes. I view it solely as another effort to equalize the burdens of society. It ought not to be levied upon small inheritances; but after the proper limit is passed, there is no reason which justifies a collateral inheritance tax which will not also vindicate one upon direct inheritances. I earnestly hope that you will interest yourselves in the subject, and take such action upon it as the best interest of the State requires.

ROSTER OF IOWA SOLDIERS.

I am sure that the failure of the Thirty-first General Assembly to enact a law authorizing the compilation and publication of what is commonly called a roster of Iowa soldiers was a mere mischance. It is a little humiliating to remember that Iowa is one of a very few northern States in which this sacred duty has not been performed. The material out of which such a publication must be compiled is each year disappearing, and it will not be long until it will be impossible to render this acknowledgment to the men whose valor and patriotism are the choicest possessions of the commonwealth.

DESERTION AND NON-SUPPORT.

I repeat my recommendation of a year ago, with increased emphasis, if that be possible, in favor of a law that will make it a crime for a man to desert his family without cause, and to refuse to support, without good reason, his wife and children. We ought to do something to check the rapidly growing habit of repudiating the most sacred obligations which a man ever assumes.

VOTING MACHINE COMMISSION.

While voting machines are not as yet being used in this State to any great extent, the experience of other states has shown that our law ought to be amended in at least one particular. As the statute now is, when the Voting Machine Commission has passed favorably upon any machine, it stands as approved, and may be sold anywhere in the State. It is not always possible for the Commission to discover defects in such a machine, and when such defects are made to appear by use, there is no power on the part of the Commission or on the part of any other officer to revoke the certificate of approval. There should be an amendment giving either the Commission or some other board the authority to cancel the approval, if, in use, the machine is found to be worthless.

CIVIL SERVICE.

The time has come when Iowa should establish such civil service regulations as will insure the appointment of such employes as properly fall within the scope of a civil service system, upon competitive examinations, with advancements and promotions earned by faithful and efficient service. It is not necessary for me to repeat the argument so well known to you for this plan of appointments to public place. We are all pledged to it, so far as the government of the United States is concerned, and why should we not stand for it in our own commonwealth?

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

One of the propositions upon which all persons and all parties seem to agree is that the established system of government in our larger cities is hopelessly inefficient. In these days, when franchises to public service corporations have become so important, when the sums expended for public improvements have become so vast, and the expense of administration has so multiplied, the form of municipal government ought to receive the best thought of the General Assembly. I believe there should be a thorough-going revision of our statutes upon this subject. There are wide differences respecting the changes that should be made. My own view is that the representative form of government ought to be preserved. Aldermen should be elected at large, and the city council confined strictly to legislative duties. Power should be concentrated in the mayor, and he should be the responsible administrative head of city affairs. He should appoint the officers who are to administer the law. The protection of civil service should be extended. The compensation of the mayor should be sufficient to call men of the best type and strongest character to the office, and the term be made long enough to enable him to accomplish something. If, however, the term be lengthened, it should be accompanied with the power on the part of the people to remove him from office, through an election called for that purpose upon proper petition.

CLAIM AGAINST THE GENERAL GOVERNMENT.

For many years, there has been pending at Washington a claim on the part of the State of Iowa against the general government, arising out of the sale of public lands within our limits, wherein the consideration was other than money. Other states have similar claims, and the agents who have been appointed by the several states have been vainly attempting to secure such legislation as will result in the adjustment and payment of the demands. I have given the subject sufficient investigation to warrant the conclusion that our claim is a just one, and that the resistance is not to its merit. The difficulty is that, in the multitude of things which Congress has to do, it is easy to secure delay, and this method of preventing the payment of an honest debt has now been successful for many years. I recommend the passage of a resolution calling the subject specifically to the attention of our members of Congress, and asking them to see to it that the matter is decisively determined, either for or against us, at the earliest practicable moment.

AN ENLARGEMENT OF THE PURE FOOD LAW.

Last year the General Assembly adopted a measure intended to protect the people from fraud and imposition in the sale of adulterated and wholesome foods. It is now in operation and I believe that it will accomplish great good.

Those who are vitally interested in the live-stock industry feel that similar protection should be extended to live-stock foods. I have examined the subject with as much care as has been possible under the circumstances, and have reached the conclusion that their views are sound. I therefore recommend the enactment of a law with respect to such foods, having the general scope and purpose of the act of the Thirty-first General Assembly relating to pure food.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES PROVIDING FOR THE ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS BY DIRECT VOTE.

In obedience to the direction of the Thirty-first General Assembly, I invited the Governors of the several States of the Union to appoint delegates to a convention to be held in Des Moines for the purpose of furthering the application of sufficient States to require Congress to call a Constitutional Convention, to the end that an amendment may be submitted providing for the election of United States Senators by direct vote. In response to the invitation, the Governors of twenty-five States appointed delegates, and the convention assembled in Des Moines on the fifth day of last December. Thirteen of these States are represented by delegates in person, and the remainder through correspondence. The convention was composed of earnest, high-minded, thoughtful men, and the debates, which consumed two full days, were interesting, instructive, and patriotic. The outcome of the convention was the adoption of a preamble and resolutions, as follows:

"Whereas, It is the judgment of this convention that the legislative branch of the general government should be placed more directly under the control of the people of the several States, and

"Whereas, There exists and has long existed a strong popular demand for the election of United States Senators by the vote of the people, and said demand is, in the opinion of this convention, well founded, and

"Whereas, The Constitution of the United States provides only two methods whereby the provision respecting the election of United States Senators may be changed, and

"Whereas, The method ordinarily adopted, of Congress on its own initiative submitting to the several States a proposed amendment, has heretofore been ineffective, owing to the refusal of the United States Senate to submit such proposed amendment to the several States, and

"Whereas, There is no alternative for accomplishing the desired reform save by an appeal by at least two-thirds of the States to Congress asking that a Constitutional Convention be called; be it therefore

"Resolved, That while this convention would much prefer that Congress should submit to the several States a proposed amendment to the Constitution for the election of Senators by direct vote of the people, so that the States might pass upon it as a single question, yet inasmuch as the Senate persistently refuses to submit such amendment, it therefore earnestly recommends that the legislatures of the several States do, in pursuance of Article V of the Constitution of the United States, make application to Congress to call a convention for the purpose of proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States; be it further

"Resolved, That the President and Secretary of this Convention be and the same are hereby instructed to transmit duly certified copies of these resolutions to the Chairman of the National Committee, and of the several State committees of the two leading political parties, also to the Governors of the respective States, to each member of Congress, and to the President. That in transmitting the copies to the Governors of the States, the President and Secretary of this Convention shall enclose a letter urging each of them to lay these resolutions before the legislature of his State."

The Executive Committee will present the subject to the States as rapidly as their legislatures convene, and its members believe that two-thirds of all the States will make the application to Congress for a Constitutional Convention. It will be observed that the resolution does not limit the scope of the Constitutional Convention finally to be called. This is because it was believed that it is not in the power of Congress to limit the convention to a single amendment.

I am profoundly convinced that Senators of the United States should be elected by direct vote. If there ever were reasons for interposing a secondary elective body between the people and their Senators, they have long ago ceased to exist, and in this age there are affirmative and potential reasons for restoring to the voters the full privileges to which they are indisputably entitled. Four times the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States has passed a resolution for the submission of an amendment upon this subject to the States, but the Senate has persistently ignored the subject. There is no hope that it ever will take the step necessary to give the States the opportunity to express their desires. Therefore, it has become necessary to pursue the other alternative of the Constitution, and call a Constitutional Convention. I know that there are men who fear such a convention, but their fear is groundless, for it can not be believed that the Constitution will be unwisely amended when it is remembered that the members of the Convention, who will themselves be the choicest examples of our civilization, must first agree before any amendment can be submitted to the States, and then thirty-five of the forty-six States must concur before the proposed amendment can become a part of the Constitution. If this be not a sufficient safeguard, we are not fit to live in a free country.

I strongly recommend the passage of a resolution that will be an application to Congress, under Article V of the Constitution of the United States, for the calling of a Constitutional Convention to propose amendments to the Constitution.

CORPORATIONS.

My observation and experience intensify the conclusions I have twice announced to the General Assembly relative to the organization of corporations. I take one step further and say that it seems to me that one of the imperative demands of the time is to require the articles of incorporation of every corporation hereafter organized to be approved by some tribunal, such as the Executive Council, with the Attorney General added, before they are permitted to be filed. Even this measure of supervision would prevent the establishment of a large number of associations either unlawful and fraudulent in their purpose or imperfect in their plan of organization.

I reiterate my recommendation that no capital stock should be allowed to be issued until some state authority had made examination, and until it had been satisfactorily shown that it had been paid for, either in money or in property, at a fair value. The universal practice of issuing capital stock without any regard to the value paid for it is the fruitful source of more injustice and oppression than any other in which corporations indulge. To permit corporations to issue stock as they now do is no more defensible than it would be to license a pirate to prey upon a defenseless people.

It is believed by many of the most thoughtful students of governmental affairs that the time has come for an annual franchise corporation tax. I concur in that belief. You could add greatly to the revenues of the State, and at the same time place some of the burdens of maintaining the government where they belong, by providing for such a tax.

INSURANCE.

The developments of the year have not changed my opinions with respect to life insurance. My message to the Thirty-first General Assembly is as full and complete upon the subject as I could make it. I beg to refer to it as a whole, but take the liberty of now repeating and emphasizing certain parts of it. I then said, among other things:

"Another grave defect in the methods of life insurance developed by the recent study of the subject is the accumulation of a so-called surplus, which, in a great measure at least, represents deferred dividends; that is to say, the sum which the company, in a vague way, promises to distribute at a future time to its policyholders, but concerning which there is no specific agreement fixing the amount of the distribution. The surplus so existing is not reckoned as a liability, for the reason that no policy, so far as I have been able to ascertain, contains any more positive assurance of distribution than that the policyholder shall be entitled to such share of the surplus as the directors of the company may determine. The whole scheme of deferred dividends has a tendency to lead the business away from the field of indemnity into the field of investment—a tendency which is altogether too prominent, and which should be checked by such reasonable regulations as can be prescribed without injuring the legitimate enterprise of insurance; but there is a still more potent objection to the practice.

As is well known, the premium charged by a legal reserve company is made up of two parts: First, mortality; second, the loading for expense. The actual mortality is considerably less than the theoretical mortality, and it might happen that the share allotted to expense is not altogether consumed. From these overcharges in the premium, together with a portion of the interest earned, the surplus is crated, and the general promise is to return this surplus to the policyholder in the form of dividends. I am speaking now of a mutual company, although it is likewise true of a company having capital stock, with the one exception of the diminution in the earnings caused by whatever claim the capital stock may have upon them. No company can safely make any definite promise with respect to the surplus so acquired, for the obvious reason that its extent must always be uncertain. One of the issues in the insurance business therefore is, shall this surplus be ascertained and apportioned and disposed of in some manner at short intervals, or shall it be allowed to accumulate during long periods, and then be paid to the policyholders in such proportions as the board of directors of the company may think best? It seems to me that every consideration of safety and fair dealing requires that the surplus to be credited or paid to participating policyholders shall be ascertained and paid, or otherwise disposed of, every year. In so saying, I do not mean, necessarily, that the first or second years of a policy shall be so treated, because the expense of getting the business, with the mortality, quite consumes the premium for those years. If the dividends are deferred for a long period, the policyholder is absolutely at the mercy of the company. Even if he could overrule, by a judicial proceeding, the discretion of the board of directors in apportioning the surplus then due him (and the courts have decided that he can not) the cost of procuring the proof necessary to establish his rights would far exceed any benefit that he could derive from the litigation. If, however, the law imposes upon the company an imperative obligation to ascertain and apportion the amount of the surplus due to each participating policyholder at the end of each year, then the natural forces of competition between companies, together with the option on the part of the policyholder to surrender his policy if the dividend be not fair and satisfactory, will protect the policyholder from any serious wrong.

I therefore recommend that the law be so strengthened as to require an annual accounting between each company and its policyholders so that at the close of each year the policyholders will be notified of their respective shares in the surplus of the preceding year. The amendment would also provide for the options which at that time may be exercised by the policyholder: namely, to withdraw the dividend in cash or to use it for the purpose of purchasing further insurance. In so recommending, it must not be understood that I advocate the distribution, annually, of the entire surplus. It would be unwise to insist that the assets of the company shall at all times be no more than its liabilities. There must be a margin of safety to cover unexpected and extraordinary conditions. There are widely differing opinions with respect to the amount of percentage that should be reserved as the margin of safety, and this divergence of judgment can only be adjusted by your good common sense, to which I confidently submit the whole controversy."

And again:

"There is more fraud and deception, sometimes intentional and sometimes unintentional, practiced upon policyholders by reason of the variety in the forms of life insurance contracts than in any other way. There are hundreds of these forms, differing oftentimes but slightly from each other, and these differences are, in my opinion, in many instances created for no other purpose than to enable the agent to found upon them an argument, the fallacy of which can not be detected by the unskilled mind, and the effect of which is to create an atmosphere of mystery about the entire business. There are but few kinds of legitimate life insurance contracts. You can certainly number them on the fingers of your two hands. There is no sense in the almost infinite multiplicity of forms. I believe that there should be standard forms of policies. They should be uniform with all companies. They should be plain, simple, and direct. The obligations should be understood. If we had such uniformity, the people would soon come to know what insurance is, and what the insurance companies agree to do in each of the several forms of contract issued."

I believe that in the end it will be found wise to prohibit life insurance companies having capital stock from issuing participating policies in any form. The partnership thus created between the stockholders and the policyholders will always be unsatisfactory. I believe, also, that all the policies issued by a mutual life insurance company should be participating policies, and they should be of such form that any dividends made would be in exact proportion to the contributions out of which the dividends arose. We will never reach the real remedy for the evils which are so manifest until the business is thus simplified.

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY.

The rules of law which in this State govern the liability of an employer to employees are, in many respects, flagrantly unjust to the employees. They need careful revision. At the last session of Congress, a statute was passed which gave expression to an enlightened view of one phase of the subject, so far as interstate commerce is concerned. This statute has recently been declared unconstitutional, solely because the Court believed that the States, and not the general Government, had the power to deal with the matter. Without going into detail, I recommend the passage of a law which shall be the substantial equivalent of the act adopted by Congress.

LOBBYING AND THE LOBBYIST.

My views upon lobbying and the lobbyist are fairly well known, but I venture once more to express them. Corporations, as well as individuals, oftentimes have a direct pecuniary or property interest in measures that are proposed before legislative bodies. When such measures arise, it is fundamental that they have the right to be heard. To deny them the privilege of submitting either fact or argument to the men who make the laws would be intolerable in an enlightened government. Manifestly, however, the privileges of such representatives should be limited to the submission of such matters as touch the merit or demerit of the legislation proposed, and whenever and wherever any corporation or individual attempts to influence a member by any other consideration, no matter what it is, he commits a crime against morals, and the punishment should be swift, sure, and severe. I understand perfectly that such offenses are not easily discovered, but that is no reason for immunity when they are discovered.

The lobbyist is not and ought not to be in good repute, and therefore I make this distinction. He who comes before you, fairly argues the case given to him, submits his case honestly, and goes his way, is not a lobbyist, and the term, which has become one of reproach, ought not to be applied to him. The real lobbyist is the man who has no concern for the merit of the law which he advocates or the demerit of the law which he opposes. He is the man who attempts to create personal obligations which will influence votes. He is the man who intrigues for combinations in which votes for or against one measure are traded for votes for or against another measure. He is the man who pursues his avocation behind locked doors, and in dark corners. He is the man who wants to win, right or wrong, and puts his desire to accomplish his purpose above his duty as a citizen. Such a lobbyist ought not to be registered anywhere. He ought to be abolished everywhere.

I am glad to say that in Iowa these men are growing every year less conspicuous and less numerous. I hope to see the species wholly disappear, and that the historian of the future may be able to write that about this time the race became extinct.

CONTRIBUTIONS BY CORPORATIONS FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES.

That it has become a custom with corporations of various kinds to make contributions to accomplish or defeat the nomination of candidates for public office, and to assist in the election of candidates for public office, is so well known and has been so completely many reasons, of the weightiest character, which demand an immediate prohibition against such misuse of corporate funds, coupled with a penalty of imprisonment for the violation of the law: First, the growing tendency to use money in political campaigns is subversive of the fundamental principles of good government, for it not only destroys purity of motive, but it overthrows the safety which is always found in individual and independent action. Second, it is a plain theft from every stockholder who does not give his assent to the contribution, and the misappropriation is peculiarly obnoxious because it oftentimes puts the money of a stockholder at work for a candidate whose success the stockholder does not desire. Third, the practice gives to the corporation an influence in public affairs simply because of the money contributed—an influence which is necessarily both selfish and vicious. Corporations should, of their own motion, rigorously exclude themselves from politics, and the most effective way in which to give them strength to resist temptation is to fix a penalty for participation, so severe that the honest course will be the most attractive one. I recommend with all my earnestness, the enactment of a measure upon this subject that will stop, at once and forever, so odious a misuse of corporate property.

In this connection, I desire to submit another suggestion. I recognize that there must be some expenditure of money in every political campaign, whether for nomination or for election. There are legitimate purposes for which money can be expended, and to this extent, when contributed by individuals, there can be no criticism of the practice. We will all agree, however, that the expenditure of money in political controversies has passed beyond a fair and reasonable limit. Other countries and other states have attempted to restrict the use of money within honest bounds through that very efficient corrective—publicity. I think the State of Iowa should do likewise, and I strongly recommend a law that will require not only political committees, but candidates for nomination and for election, to publish their expenditures.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

The wisdom of establishing a system for the nomination of candidates for elective offices has not only been thoroughly debated in prior General assemblies, but has been maturely considered by the people of the State. Declarations upon the subject will be found in the platforms of the two principal political parties which preclude doubt with respect to the opinions of an overwhelming majority of the voters. The experience of each year, as it passes, emphasizes the imperative need of a thorough-going reform in the methods of nominating candidates.

We have long tried the plan of unregulated caucuses and conventions, and the defects discovered in this system have been so manifest that there is a universal demand for something better. I therefore earnestly recommend, as I have recommended before, an efficient primary election law. I recognize that there are differences of opinion with respect not only to the scope but the details of such a law, but I sincerely hope that these differences may not be so broad or so fundamental that they cannot be reconciled. I have given much thought to the subject, but shall not impose upon you at this time more than a statement of the essential features which a primary election law should contain.

First, it should embrace the nominations of candidates for all elective offices, whether state, county, municipal or district, including the office of Senator of the United States. Second, it should provide for the nomination of candidates for these offices by the primary vote, and should not remit nominations, under any circumstances, to a convention, except in the event of a tie. Third, the primary election for all political parties should be held throughout the State on the same day and at the same places. Fourth, there should be some fair test of party affiliation.

I know that there are some thoughtful students of the subject who believe that a nomination by a mere plurality is unwise, and I grant that there may be instances in which the concurrence of a majority would be better, but to require a majority in all cases would be to make no substantial change in the present system, for conventions would still be compelled to nominate candidates. If, therefore, we are to advance at all, it seems to me that we must adopt nominations by pluralities.

I am aware, also, that there are many persons who, with the utmost sincerity, believe that certain offices, such as Judges of the Supreme and District Courts, Attorney General, Clerk and Reporter of the Supreme Court, and Superintendent of Public Instruction, should not be included. I do not share the fears which lead to this conclusion, and yet I am quite willing to concede that if there are to be exceptions to the full and complete operation of the law, they should be along this line rather than any other.

I leave the subject with you, confident that you will deal with it as becomes its vast importance, and in accordance with the spirit which so universally prevails.

EXPRESS AND TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.

The Twenty-eighth General Assembly passed an act providing for the taxation of the property of express companies, which the Executive Council has, since its passage, been attempting to apply. The object of the statute is to ascertain a taxable mileage value of all the routes of a given express company, and then take the proportion in this State as a basis for taxation within the State. Unquestionably, the General Assembly had in mind the ordinary railway lines over which express companies do their business on land. The fact is, however, that some of the express companies have ocean routes, of tremendous distances but of little value, and it is contended, year after year, that in ascertaining the value of the routes in Iowa the Council must take into consideration the ocean lines as well as the land lines. To do so would be to reduce the taxable value of the lines in Iowa to an absurd point, but the letter of the law gives some strength to the argument. I recommend a careful revision of this statute, so that all doubt respecting its interpretation will be removed, and a fair valuation clearly imposed.

I can see no good reason why the general policy that the legislature has applied to express companies should not also be applied to telegraph companies. If it is equitable to ascertain the value of express routes by ascertaining the value of the property as a whole, and then taking a mileage proportion of it, it would be no less equitable to determine the value of the telegraph lines in the same manner. The mere cost of constructing a telegraph line is no criterion of its worth for the purpose of taxation. I recommend the passage of a law that will set up the same criterion for telegraph property that you have established for express property.

I have long believed that both express companies and telegraph companies should be brought within the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission, and that the Commission should be given the same authority to prescribe rates for telegraphic messages and for the carrying of express matter, and to supervise the management of telegraph and express companies, that it now has with respect to railroads. I commend this subject to you as one well worthy of your attention.

RAILROADS.

Inasmuch as I feel compelled to make a series of recommendations that touch, directly or indirectly, the railroads within the State, I must be allowed a brief preface. There has been, within the last three or four years, so much discussion concerning the relations of the railroads to the people, that those who manage railroad property and those who own railroad stocks and bonds seem to fear that there exists a violent prejudice which will result in unjust legislation. I cannot believe that the fear is well founded. The discussion has been the natural outcome of the marvelous increase in commerce, and the plain attempt of railway managers to reap the largest possible profit from the unparalleled traffic of the time. These managers, while they admit as a mere abstraction the proposition that a railroad has not the liberty or license of private property, cannot and will not accept it as a rule of conduct. They still believe, apparently, that they have a right to capitalize not only present earnings, but hopes for the future. They cannot and will not, save theoretically, recognize that all persons and all localities must be given the use of transportation facilities upon like terms under like conditions.

There is no disposition upon the part of the people generally or of any legislative body to take away from railway corporations the management of their property, or to deny them full and adequate compensation for the service they render. I say to you, and I hope you will bear it in mind when you come to consider the recommendations I shall make, that you could not inflict a more fatal blow upon the people of this State than to adopt such legislation as would deprive our railroads of the opportunity to earn a fair profit. We are as dependent for our material well being upon the transportation afforded by the railroads as we are upon the air we breathe for the continuance of life. Railroads will not and cannot serve the people efficiently unless they are reasonably compensated for the work they do. The spirit of confiscation is not in the people of Iowa, and it is not in this General Assembly. The railway companies may dismiss all fear of injury. It is incredible that the calm wisdom of this or any other legislative body in a country like ours will impose such restrictions upon the use of railroad property as will render it either unprofitable in operation or unfairly interfere with the control of its owners. The whole history of legislation upon this subject proves conclusively the truth of my assertion. Notwithstanding all the acts that have been passed regulating the operation and limiting the compensation of railroads, whether by the states or the United States, the railroads have steadily grown in mileage and increased in revenue until they pay dividends and interest upon stocks and bonds aggregating nearly one-seventh of the entire wealth of the nation. Experience has abundantly shown that, with the privileges granted to them by the law, they can take care of themselves much more effectually than legislatures and congresses can take care of the people.

Concluding this general review, I come to specific things.

PASSENGER FARES.

In my message delivered to the Thirty-first General Assembly, I had the honor to recommend the passage of a law that would require railway companies to "sell mileage books good for 1,000 miles and upwards, at a flat rate of two cents per mile, good until used"; and I said in that connection "if purchased by the head of a family, there is no reason why it should not be used by any member of the family"; and again, "The man who travels little is at present at too great a disadvantage as compared with the man who travels much".

A bill embodying this recommendation passed the House of Representatives, but in the committee of the Senate, counsel for the railways contended that it was unconstitutional, because it authorized discrimination. The argument seemed to be convincing, and although I do not concur in the conclusion, I feel impelled to lay aside the remedy then proposed. It must be assumed, therefore, that if those who travel little are to be relieved of the unjust burden which they now bear, the relief must come through a general reduction of all passenger fares. There is much reason to believe that, in the Western country at least, passenger traffic at the present rates is less profitable than freight traffic at the present rates. The representatives of the railway companies, during the last session, insisted that the average actual rate paid by passengers in Iowa was not more than two cents per mile, some of the roads showing a fraction higher and some a fraction lower than two cents. In making this computation an arbitrary division of certain large expenses was assumed, and as I understand it, free transportation was not included.

This condition has been brought about by the railroads themselves, through mileage books, credentials, and other reduced rates to privileged classes. When it is remembered that the vast majority of those who travel a great deal pay but two cents per mile, and that the travel of all those of our people who pay three cents per mile is necessary to bring the average up to two cents per mile, the extent of travel which pays less than two cents per mile assumes tremendous proportions. Granting, for the moment, that it would be unfair to reduce the revenue from passenger service a single penny, it is still manifest that the adjustment is hopelessly wrong. It costs the railway company just as much to carry a passenger who has purchased a 2000-mile book, per mile, as it does to carry a passenger who has bought a single ticket for 100 miles; indeed, I think the former costs a little more, for the use of the mileage book entails more expense in the maintenance of extensive bureaus for identification, auditing and rebating, than the sale of tickets at stations. The only advantage derived by the railway company is the interest upon the payment in advance, and this does not warrant any appreciable reduction in the rate.

If the practice of making low rates for excursions, conventions, meetings of associations, and the like, is unprofitable, the railway companies can easily abolish it. For my part, I can see no justice in the custom which compels the farmer and his family, or the merchant and his family, as they go from place to place, either for pleasure or for business, to pay a part of the cost of carrying men to conventions or to gatherings of any kind; and much less can I perceive the wisdom of making our people pay, as they move about engaged in their ordinary affairs, for losses incurred in taking train load after train load of pleasure seekers to points of entertainment or amusement, or land seekers, as they journey to distant states in the hope of finding riches that they could more easily discover at home.

These things, however, are entirely within the control of the railway companies. If we give them an opportunity to take two cents per mile from everyone who rides upon their trains in Iowa, and they avail themselves of the opportunity, as they can, their revenue from the passenger traffic will not be reduced a single dollar; on the contrary, according to universal experience, it will be increased. If, on the other hand, the railway companies, with the right to demand two cents per mile from all who travel, find it advantageous, by reason of ulterior and extrinsic benefits, to reduce the rates under certain circumstances below the maximum, and thus diminish the average rate actually received, they can not assert that the law has done them an injustice. I stand firmly upon the proposition that the travellers who are now paying three cents per mile are paying the fares of other travellers who are abundantly able to pay their own; and moreover the burden is laid upon the people who are least able to bear it. It is a discrimination which can not be defended, and which ought not to continue. It will not be forgotten, either, that the prohibition against passes already in force, and an enlargement of the prohibition of which I shall speak presently, and which I hope will shortly be in force, will add materially to the revenue of the railway companies, and will help greatly in maintaining the average at or above its present point.

What I have said has been upon the hypothesis of a strict division between the earnings of the passenger and freight traffic. I do not concede, however, that the proposal for two-cent passenger fares is to be tested wholly by any such criterion. I prefer to look at the earnings of the railroads in Iowa as a whole, and if they are found to be more than they should be, it is not very material to inquire whether a two-cent passenger rate will or will not be, in and of itself, profitable. The chief business of railroads in this State is the transportation of freight, and it clearly appears from the arguments laid before you last winter that they regard passenger traffic as incidental, and do not attempt to make it the source of any considerable net earning.

The gross earnings of all the railroads upon business done in Iowa for the year 1905, not including interurban railways, was $62,792,307.00. In ascertaining these earnings, Iowa is given a mileage proportion upon all inter-state traffic. It is not safe to accept the report of any particular railway company respecting the amount expended for maintenance and operation, inasmuch as the variety in the methods of bookkeeping destroys the value of any one report. It is fair, however, to resort to averages, and according to the computations made by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, the average percentage of gross earnings for maintenance and operation throughout the United States is a little less than 68 per cent. If we assume 68 per cent as the fair proportion (and I am of the opinion that the assumption will do the railway companies no injustice) the net earnings of our railroads upon business done in Iowa for the year 1905 were $20,093,538.24. This sum will pay 6 per cent interest upon $334,892,304.00. It will pay 7 per cent interest upon $287,050,546.00. The last assessment fixed the actual value of the railroads in the State at $249,348,780.00. The Executive Council, however, chose to apply the same proportion of value as it believed had been applied to farm property; namely, about four-fifths. Increasing the value by the addition of one-fifth, the result is an actual value of $299,218,536.00. It will be remembered, however, that in reaching this value the Executive Council was largely influenced by the gross and net earnings, and in a less degree by the amount which had been expended in the construction of the properties. It is manifest that when you come to determine whether the net earnings are too great, you cannot take as a basis a valuation founded upon such earnings, but must adopt some other method. If it be asserted that it is unfair to take the gross and net earnings of a single year, it may be of interest to inquire what these earnings have been during the last five years.

In 1901, the gross earnings were $55,079,943.00; in 1902, $56,466,305.00; in 1903, $58,466,340.00; in 1904, $57,396,848.00; and in 1905, as before stated, $62,792,307.00. The average gross earnings for these five years are $58,240,348.00. Using the percentage for ascertaining net earnings heretofore mentioned, the result is $18,636,911.36, for the average net earnings per year during the last five years. This sum will pay 6 per cent interest upon $310,615,189.00. It will pay 7 per cent interest upon $266,241,591.00. These rates of interest are sufficiently liberal when you take into consideration the fact that practically one-half the capitalization of railway properties is represented in bonds, the average interest upon which is about 4 per cent. The ascertainment of the sum upon which the earnings of railway companies should make a reasonable return is not easy. If you accept the basis presented by the actual investment you can approximate the proper capitalization very quickly. I have heard it stated by the representatives of railway companies before the Executive Council, over and over again, that the average actual cost of the railroads in Iowa did not exceed $20,000.00 per mile. There are now 9,827 main track miles in the State, which, tested by this theory of value, are worth $196,540,000.00. The net earnings of 1905, as you will observe, were sufficient to pay more than 10 per cent upon such a valuation. The average yearly net earnings for five years would pay 9 48-100 per cent upon this valuation. If you take the cost of reproduction as the proper test, an average of $25,000 per mile is about right. Upon this basis, the railroads are worth $245,675,000.00. You can compute in a moment the percentage of interest which the net earnings would pay upon this sum. It will not be overlooked, of course, that any considerable reduction in earnings would, in all probability, result, and ought to result, in a reduction in the value of the property for taxation.

I submit these suggestions to you to be reviewed by your mature judgment, and to be used for the purpose of beginning an inquiry as to the justice or injustice of any action that you may take that will lessen the income of the railway companies, whether from the passenger or the freight service. It is a subject which invokes a high sense of responsibility, and it demands for its consideration all the obligations of an official oath. I know that you will examine it, and act upon it without fear, favor, prejudice or oppression. For my own part, I am deeply convinced that a reduction in the passenger rate is fully warranted, and I therefore earnestly recommend the substitution of a two-cent rate for the existing three-cent rate.

FREIGHT RATES.

What I have already said is sufficient in so far as the income of railway companies is concerned. The Railroad Commission has already adequate power to fix schedules of maximum freight rates. The schedules and classifications announced in 1889 have not been changed essentially during the eighteen years that have since intervened. In the meanwhile, the manufacture and commerce of the country have been revolutionized; and I believe it to be true that the present adjustment of rates is grossly unfair to the manufacturers, farmers, stock producers, and distributors of the State. They do not have a fair and even chance in the struggle for business. It may be worth your while to institute an investigation, which, with your plenary powers, might develop many things which the Railroad Commission cannot discover, and which would greatly aid in the readjustment of rates. As you know, it is the almost invariable custom of railway companies, in bringing shipments of any kind into the State, to make rates to the State line, and then add the rate of the Iowa distance tariff to the point of destination. This practice results in great hardship to our manufacturers and distributors in their effort to compete with their rivals situated beyond the State. To give point to this phase of the intricate subject, I take the liberty of giving you the substance of two letters which I received during the time I was writing this part of my message:

"In 1906 there was shipped from Chicago to Fairfield for the Loudon Machinery Company, 29 cars of bar steel, having a total weight of 980,741 pounds.

Distance from Chicago to Fairfield, 256 miles.

Distance from Chicago to Burlington, 206 miles.

Distance from Burlington to Fairfield, 50 miles.

Rate from Chicago to Fairfield, 13 cents per 100 pounds.

Rate from Chicago to Burlington, 5 cents per 100 pounds.

Rate from Burlington to Fairfield, 8 cents per 100 pounds.

Freight charges for hauling these 23 cars 206 miles, $490.3.

Freight charges for hauling these 23 cars 50 miles, $784.59.

In this particular case, the freight for one-fifth of the entire distance—the part in Iowa—is $294.22 more than for the other four-fifths of the distance—the part in Illinois.

In 1906, the Iowa Malleable Iron Company, of this city, shipped in 1,597 long tons of pig iron. Most of this, if not all, came from Chicago.

Rate from Chicago to Fairfield, $2.40 per long ton.

Rate from Chicago to Burlington, $1.00 per long ton.

Freight from Chicago to Fairfield on 1,597 long tons.....	$3,832.80
Freight from Chicago to Burlington on 1,597 long tons.....	1,597.00
Freight charged from Burlington to Fairfield on 1,597 long tons	2,235.80
Freight on 1,597 tons for hauling 50 miles in Iowa.....	2,235.80
Freight on 1,597 tons for hauling 206 miles in Illinois.....	1,597.00

In other words, the freight charges for hauling 1,597 tons of pig iron 50 miles in Iowa are $638.80 more than for hauling the same tonnage 206 miles in Illinois.

I understand perfectly that nothing that you could do would affect a through rate, but if it is to be the settled policy of the railroads to make the inter-state rate, so far as Iowa people are concerned, by adding the local distance tariff from the State line to the point of destination, it is possible to so adjust our rates that less injustice would follow their application in that manner.

At the present time, there are no joint rates upon local traffic. The law gives to the Railroad Commission the authority, upon special application, to establish a joint rate, but there is no authority to prescribe a general schedule of joint rates. The constitutionality of the existing statute was at one time questioned, but the case in which it arose was determined upon another issue, and therefore the validity of the law is still undecided. I recommend the subject to you as one worthy of the most careful consideration. It is believed by very many of our manufacturers, as well as by a large proportion of our general shippers, that the law should be amended so as to confer upon the Commission as complete power to establish a schedule of joint rates, embracing all railroads and all traffic, as it now has to promulgate a schedule of rates over single lines.

DEMURRAGE.

Two propositions will be admitted without controversy: First, that it is the duty of every railroad company to provide itself with sufficient motive power and enough cars to carry the freight offered to it with reasonable promptitude, and to furnish these facilities without discrimination to the shippers who ask for them; second, it is the duty of shippers and consignees to load and unload cars with reasonable promptitude, to the end that each car may perform the maximum of service. Shippers complain, and in recent times the complaint has been emphatic, that the railways do not furnish cars as they should with reasonable diligence, and do not move them, when loaded, with sufficient speed; and that they do discriminate between their patrons. The railways complain that shippers and consignees are not careful in loading and unloading cars when furnished, and to correct the latter evil they impose a penalty for detention, which is called, in railway parlance, "demurrage."

It seems to me consistent with good policy that the penalty should be imposed upon both sides. If the railway companies are remiss in their duty of furnishing cars and moving them, they should pay for their delinquency, and if the shippers and consignees are negligent in returning cars to service, they should pay for their fault. I recommend the enactment of a law that will create a sufficient motive in both carriers and shippers to do their full duty in this regard.

FREE TRANSPORTATION.

A year ago, I gave to the General Assembly my views upon this subject, and I beg leave to refer to my former message for a full expression of the evils which attend the practice of granting free transportation to favored persons and classes. The act which was passed by the Thirty-first General Assembly was a step in the right direction, but I respectfully submit that it did not reach the end toward which the public judgment so firmly advances. Its prohibition is not broad enough to abolish some of the most objectionable phases of the custom. Since its passage, ongress has legislated upon the subject, in so far as it relates to interstate carriage of passengers, much more effectually. I believe that the law of Iowa should be amended so as to conform to the law of the United States, and I recommend the enlargement of our statute so that what is unlawful for a railway company to do as between the States will also be unlawful to do within the State. I recommend further that you make such a definition of bona fide employes as will preclude the issuance of passes to persons whose connection with the company is either formal or created chiefly to give opportunity for free transportation.

HOURS OF CONTINUOUS LABOR IN RAILWAY SERVICE.

I invite your earnest attention to the danger incident to the practice of allowing or requiring men in the railway service to work continuously so long that they cannot exercise the care essential to their own safety and to the safety of the traveling public. The history of railroad accidents is full of warning upon this subject. The operation of railway trains demands a vision not dulled by loss of sleep, a memory not impaired by physical weariness. It demands that all the senses be alive and keen. It is well established that many of the most deplorable accidents have resulted from the failure of men who were at their posts for twenty-four, thirty, thirty-six and even forty-eight hours without the cahnce for adequate recuperation.

To require such continuous work is inhuman to employes; to permit it is an offense against the public. The fault is not with the railway companies alone, for there are employes who seek an opportunity to thus increase their wages; but whoever desires it, there is a higher consideration than either profit to the employer or compensation to the employe. The public safety overrules them both.

I recommend the enactment of a law that will fairly and reasonably limit continuous service of employes engaged in the movement of railway trains.

Gentlemen, I have now performed as best I could the duty which the law imposes upon me. My responsibility ceases and yours begins. I transfer these subjects to you in the full confidence that in so far as I am right my recommendations will find approval at the seat of your judgment, and with the consciousness that in so far as I am wrong they will fall under the weapons of your fair debate.

Respectfully submitted.

On motion the joint convention was dissolved.

The Senate returned from joint session.

Senator Dowell offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

I move that the Custodian of the Capitol be instructed to place at the President's desk at once the proper chair for that officer.

Adopted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

The following message was received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following concurrent resolution in which the concurrence of the House was asked:

GOVERNOR CUMMINS' INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Senators and Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly,

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: For the third time I have taken the oath just administered in your presence. I have done my best to keep it in the years that have gone. I will do my best to keep it in the years that are to come. I have tried faithfully to understand the sacred obligations it creates, with the consciousness that my vow to preserve it, inviolate, is registered, not alone upon the records of an earthly government, but is written also upon the eternal tablets of a Divine Master, whose infinite vision sees not alone the act, but the motive which inspires the deed. Remember, however, that this oath binds me to perform my duty as I see the right. It does not bind me to perform my duty as anybody else may see the right. I may not do the thing or say the word that you believe I ought to do or say; but if I do the thing and say the word that I believe I ought to do or say, I will have kept the faith. Judge me, therefore, with that breadth of view, that righteous toleration which recognizes that men may honestly reach varying conclusions upon many of the subjects involved in the administration of public affairs, and I will be content.

A few days ago I had the honor to deliver to the members of the General Assembly a message which contained my specific recommendations touching the legislation of the State, and upon this occasion I may be permitted to deal with some phases of our public problems from a more general standpoint.

But first I must congratulate you upon the character of the people you represent. A kind Providence has bestowed upon them unequalled opportunities for the truest happiness and most enduring prosperity that mortals can enjoy. Our sources of wealth, while prolific and inexhaustible will not create fortunes so vast as to excite discontent, or become a menace to the public good. Our civilization is of the highest type known to the world, for it blends, in perfect proportion, the best qualities of the mind and the noblest virtues of the heart. If our people cannot reach the summit of true greatness, it may well be concluded that the top of the mountain is to be forever inaccessible. There is not another community of two millions of human beings upon the face of the earth so well fitted to accomplish the mighty purposes of the Ruler of all things as is the community which we call the State of Iowa. It is a distinguished honor to represent these people. As the chief executive, I acknowledge the honor, and I extend to you the heartiest felicitations upon the admirable constituency in whose service you are engaged.

This is an age of discussion—of calm, riotous, philosophical, foolish, sincere, hypocritical discussion. It is an age of fine eulogy and slashing criticism. It is an age of serene confidence and deep despair. There are persons who deplore rest, and some who deplore unrest; but I think the crushing discord is the salvation of our civilization and our institutions. Nearly everybody wants a change in some thing, and to most of us the agitator or demagogue is the man who wants to make a change that we think ought not to be made. We are all for some reform; and the hypocrite or pretender is the man who wants to reform something that we think ought not to be reformed. Undoubtedly there are agitators, demagogues, hypocrites and pretenders, but when we attempt to point them out, we are usurping the exclusive privileges of the Almighty. The sheep will be separated from the goats some time, but the man who tries to do it in this world will make a great many mistakes. I say, let the discussion—wise or unwise, honest or dishonest—go on. Let the lightnings of criticism strike. Let the thunders of condemnation roll. Let the sharp scream of anger and discontent be heard. Let the songs of praise swell out. In these things lies the real hope of finding our way through the tangled labyrinth through which we must pass. The truth is, and we may as well confess it, that we are a somewhat bewildered people. Our forefathers made for us a government, national and state, putting into it a genius that dwarfs every other effort of its kind; but the country to be governed has escaped from the government established to manage it, and is running wild. These thousands of voices that fill the air are only endeavoring to tell in a variety of tongue that there has been an escape and should be a recapture; but just how to put the harness of justice upon these mighty and new forces that we call our country—Ah! "There's the rub."

The conditions under which we live are utterly unlike the conditions that gave form to our institutions and which prescribed the scope of ancient laws. Forces have come into existence which were unknown to the men who made our constitutions. Not only are the conditions new and the forces unfamiliar, but they have developed so rapidly that we have not yet had time to do much but talk about them. With a wealth that in a very few years has whirled us out of obscurity to the very pinnacle of financial greatness; with this wealth organized in the hands of powerful men, multiplying itself with amazing rapidity, establishing monopolies, crushing and grinding its way without any instinct of fairness or any emotion of sympathy, toward the complete extinction of competition and independence; with forests in its grasp; with ore beds occupied; with its reach and strength drawing together the manufactories of the country; with the packing houses and live stock markets joining into one vast combination; with 220,000 miles of main track railway gradually taken from the ownership of a thousand companies and connected into a half-dozen systems all dominated by a few men, and oftentimes by the same men, serving with might and main these masters of finance, bent on paying interest and dividends upon stocks and bonds that aggregate twice the original capital invested, as well as laying aside immense sums for extensions and additions that ought to be constructed from independent capital; with labor unions that are trying to mass the power of the workingman against the associated strength of employers—these things present a situation never before presented to organized society. The farmers and the retail merchants are about the only people remaining to exhibit the force of competition, and the latter are shivering lest the mail order house shall soon make way with them.

When we add the riotous extravagances and the shameful inefficiency of municipal administration, both arising largely from the prodigality of prosperity, we have the picture upon which the American people are now looking. No wonder we are bewildered, and that we are a little nervous, as well as very proud. No wonder that magazines and newspapers are filled with discussion, suggestion, criticism and denunciation. No wonder that the patriot and demagogue, the wise man and the fool, the philosopher and the agitator, the radical and the conservative, are abroad in the land. Understand me. I am not complaining of the conditions I have described. All of them are natural, and many of them are unavoidable. I am not even prepared to say that, essentially, they can be changed. I am, however, sure that they require of government something that has never been done before, and that if we cling too closely to the wisdom of the forefathers and fail to exercise a little wisdom of our own, the history of our forefathers will be the only part of the history of this country worth preserving.

Herein lies the application of my former statement. No man knows just what to do, although all men know that something ought to be done. It is impossible to set forth an orderly plan that will embrace remedies for all the defects in our customs and laws, but this much is certain: that out of all the babel of argument and assertion, denunciation and eulogy, criticism and praise, there will come, little by little, the truth, and the truth will make us free. I have no fear that the people will adopt error or inflict injustice. I have some fear that, with the inertia begotten of over-reverence for the past, they will allow the truth to stand idle too long, and that they will be unjust, not in what they do, but in what they fail to do.

I was reading the other night the last published chapter of Mark Twain's autobiography. I do not know whether he intended it to be serious, satirical, or humorous, but whatever the state of his mind, he hit the bull's eye so often that the bell rang in my ears for hours. He was writing of Secretary Root's famous speech, lately delivered in New York, which was unfairly construed to advocate the practical abolition of state governments and the concentration of all power in the general government. I quote from Twain:

"He (Root) did not say in so many words that we are proceeding in a steady march toward eventual and unavoidable replacement of the republic by monarchy; but I suppose that he was aware that that is the case. He notes the several steps—the customary steps—which in all the ages have led to the consolidation of loose and scattered governmental forces into formidable centralizations of authority, but he stops there and doesn't add up that sum. He is not aware that heretofore the sum has been ultimate monarchy, and that the same figures can fairly be depended upon to furnish the same sum whenever and wherever they can be produced, so long as human nature shall remain as it is; but it was not needful that he do the adding, since anyone can do it; neither would it have been gracious in him to do it.

"In observing the changed conditions which in the course of time have made certain and sure the eventful seizure by the Washington government of a number of State duties and prerogatives which have been betrayed and neglected by several states, he does not attribute those changes and the vast results which are to fall from them to any thought-out policy of any party, or of any body of dreamers or schemers, but properly and rightly attributes them to that stupendous power---Circumstance—which moves by laws of its own, regardless of parties and policies, and whose decrees are final and must be obeyed by all, and will be. The railway is a Circumstance, the steamship is a Circumstance, the telegraph is a Circumstance. They were mere happenings, and to the whole world, the wise and foolish alike, they were entirely trivial, wholly inconsequential; indeed, silly, comical, grotesque. No man and no party and no thought-out policy said, 'Behold, we will build railways and steamships and telegraphs, and presently you will see the condition and the way of life of every man and woman and child in the nation totally changed.' Unimaginable changes of the law and custom will follow, in spite of anything that anybody can do to prevent it. The changed conditions have come, and Circumstance knows what is following and will follow. So does Mr. Root. His language is not clear; it is crystal."

And then he quotes a few sentences from the speech, among them:

"Our whole life has swung away from the old state centers, and is crystallizing about national centers."

"That (State) power of regulation and control is gradually passing into the hands of the National government."

"Sometimes by an assertion of the inter-state commerce power, sometimes by an assertion of the taxing power, the national government is taking up the performance of duties which, under the changed conditions, the separate states are no longer capable of adequately performing."

"Constructions of the Constitution will be found to vest the power where it will be exercised—in the national government."

And then Twain concludes—

"I do not know whether that has a sinister meaning or not, and so I will not enlarge upon it, lest I should chance to be in the wrong. It sounds like ship money come again, but it may not be so intended."

If this be satire, it is grim and gloomy. If it be humor, it is sharp and dangerous. I intend to touch the subject boldly. There is a truth here that needs to be brought out into the light, so that we may see it and understand it, and better still, so that we may acknowledge it. To adequately meet the revolution which we have witnessed in wealth, transportation, commerce and business, to adequately guard and protect the people from the piracies of the powerful, you know and I know that the National government ought to have some powers that are not bestowed upon it, either in the letter or in the spirit of the Constitution. You know and I know that in the manner of selecting the President and Vice-President and Senators of the United States, there are lurking dangers which ought to be removed. You know and I know that for years every department that interprets the Constitution has strained it and tortured it and perverted it so that its makers would not recognize it as the instrument which they produced, in order to enable it to answer the demands of the time. This has not been done with any ill intent, but only to make the swaddling clothes of an infant cover the stalwart limbs of a giant; and it is just as true as fate that this process will continue until the Constitution is a mere shadowy name, without force or authority, unless it is so enlarged and strengthened that it will accomplish for us what it accomplished for our forefathers. The inquiry I propound, therefore, is this: Which shall we do: break the Constitution or better it? What do you think the consequences of stretching and shattering the Constitution will, in the end, be? I grant you that the Supreme Court of the United States will, slowly and reluctantly, make the Constitution whatever the imperious needs of the people require it to be, but when that spirit wins its final victory, what will your government be? Then, indeed, when we have forgotten the limitations of constitutions, then and then only may we fear that monarchy will supplant the republic. A land with an unwritten constitution is a monarchy, I care not how it may be disguised with forms.

Do not imagine that I am clearing the way for the conclusion that the powers of the states should be either abolished or curtailed. On the contrary, I believe that the authority which must be exercised by the states has increased, rather than diminished. My proposition is that the development of the country has made it necessary to exercise governmental functions which cannot be exerted by the states and never has been; and which cannot be employed by the general government because the Constitution does not create them. The interstate commerce clause of the Constitution is not broad enough for these days, simply because we have an interstate commerce, the character of which was not dreamed of when the clause was written. The corporations carrying on interstate commerce cannot be adequately regulated by the states for the obvious reason that the jurisdiction of a state, even in the absence of the present prohibition in the Constitution, ceases at its border. We take nothing away from the States when we enlarge these grants to the United States. We only bring into existence a new power, to meet a new condition, and bestow it upon the only hand that can use it. The interstate commerce clause has already been strained to the point of breaking. The taxing authority has already been wrested from its true purpose, and still the courts halt upon the hither side of adequate law. Why should we hesitate to call a Constitutional convention and make our organic law as great and broad and strong as the subjects it is to control? There are two reasons, each of which moves a class of it own.

The first class is composed of those persons who worship the past, have no faith in the present, and little hope for the future. They seem to believe that while the men of 1787 had wisdom and virtue enough to frame a Constitution that would preserve the liberties of the people and protect the interests of the Nation, the men of 1907 are incapable of dealing with subjects so important and vital. They shiver with the fear that a Constitutional Convention would be made up of wild-eyed, crazy-minded iconoclasts, who would delight in destroying all the idols of the patriot and lay the country waste, to be preyed upon by all the forces of disorder and injustice. They even assert that the thirty-five States which must adopt the work of the Constitutional Convention before it becomes effective would be ruled by the same reckless indifference to the ancient landmarks. I cannot think that there is the shadow of merit in their opposition. While I am conscious of intense pride and great reverence for the ancestry of the present generation, I believe that the men who are now studying the problems of government can be trusted as implicitly to do the right thing as could the men of a former time. We love our country as deeply as they did. We cherish the flag of our sovereignty with more love and affection than they ever felt. We are face to face with questions which were never propounded to them. We can take the multitude of remedies now proposed, and when they have passed through the crucible of full debate and of mature consideration, nothing will emerge but the pure gold of truth, justice and uprightness.

The second class is composed of persons dominated by the excessive selfishness of the human heart. Out of the incapacity of the government to do the things which ought to be done, they are daily coining inordinate profit. They are the beneficiaries of a species of anarchy which it is their interest to perpetuate. They have become mad in the pursuit of wealth, and they are unable to perceive that a country has any destiny except to grow rich. In their economy the science of production is the crowning glory of a nation's progress. It never occurs to them that the science of distribution is just as vital as the learning of production, and that the happiness of the people will depend quite as much upon fairness in the latter as upon the magnitude of the former. These persons make the air ring with praises for the established order of things, and their constant argument is that reform is the unrelenting enemy of business; that the capitalist will not invest his money when changes in the Constitution and amendments in the laws are under consideration. This is a ghost summoned for the occasion, which frightens many a timid man, and it ought to be banished from the vision of the American people.

I do not counsel precipitation. I do not favor hazardous experiments. Mature thought should precede action. We must not permit, however, either the trembling apprehension of the devotee who is always kneeling at the shrine of antiquity, nor the avarice that finds its opportunity in the incapacity of the Government, to say or thwart our purpose.

I, for one, stand clearly and unequivocally for amendments to the Constitution of the United States; for an amendment that will give the voters a chance to say, directly, who their Senators shall be; for an amendment that will give the voters a chance to say, directly, who their President and Vice-President shall be; for an amendment that will give the interstate commerce clause scope enough to enable Congress to control and regulate things which the developments of commerce have nationalized; for an amendment that will allow Congress to unify our marriage and divorce laws.

I recur to a suggestion made a few months ago that nothing proposed in the way of enlarging the power of the United States reduces the real authority of the several States. I believe, with Secretary Root, that the failure on the part of the various commonwealths to do their full duty in bringing their legislation into harmony with existing conditions will necessarily result in the usurpation of functions by the general government. Certain things must be done. Certain manifest evils must be removed. After all, Congress can justly occupy but a very small part of the field of legislation, and it is impossible to exaggerate the responsibility which rests upon you, Gentlemen of the Assembly.

You have the insurance problem to solve. The business in Iowa has attained tremendous proportions. We are all gratified to witness the prominence that the growth of this interest has given our State. Additional regulations are required, and some are proposed. Instantly, the cry goes up from the companies: "If you touch us we will perish." What I have said about the Constitution, I repeat here. It is this persistent command, "Hands off," and the feeling of danger that it implies, that retard much needed reforms. It goes without saying that nothing should be done that will hurt our insurance companies. After all, there is no great mystery about the business. It is simply an agency to collect money, keep it for a time, diminish it by expenses, increase it by interest, and pay it out again in equitable proportions. Your predecessors made the law under which these companies were organized. They made it to help them, and if you amend it you will amend it to help them. I do not disparage the assistance that men who are engaged in the business can give you through fact and argument; but I do deprecate the idea that the interests involved are imperilled simply because changes are thought to be necessary. In all progress there is some risk of going wrong, but you are not more apt, indeed you are less apt, to go wrong than those who have gone before you, for you have the light of further experience. The officers of insurance companies and legislators are trustees for the policy-holders, and their welfare should be a common object. I would like to see Iowa lead all the other States in the extent of its insurance business, and the only safe and sure path to this eminence is to better guard the interest of the policy-holder here than anywhere else in the Union.

You also have the railway question to answer. In my message, I considered the subject from one point of view—specific recommendations;—allow me, now, to look at it from another.

I emphasize every caution ever uttered about proceeding with care and deliberation, to the end that railway property shall receive the full measure of protection, but I repudiate here, as everywhere, that frayed out, puerile maxim of paralysis, "Let well enough alone." I reject the appeal that you cannot touch the management of this public servant without impairing its efficiency. I deny the implication that while your forefathers had sense, you have none.

I read last night the letter written by the king of railway policy and the prophet of railway destiny to Governor Johnson, of Minnesota. It was probably intended for consumption in Iowa as well as Minnesota, and therefore I may, with propriety, refer to it. He begins by admitting the incapacity of the railroads to carry the traffic offered to them; admits shortage of cars and inadequacy of tracks. His remedy is to buy more cars and build more tracks. His analysis of the situation may be accepted, for we all know that the railroads have more than they can do at the present time; but Mr. Hill did not publish this communication to state so obvious a fact. The lash of the letter was in the warning that if Congresses and Legislatures did not cease meddling or proposing to meddle with railway property and railway service, capital could not be found to build the needed tracks and buy the needed cars. So we have it again: "Interfere with the magnificent, wonderful structure of prosperity, and it will crumble to pieces before your eyes." The logic is, "If you want good service, you can get it, and only get it by letting the railway companies severely alone." The pity of it is that Mr. Hill really believes what he says, and so do other princes of finance who have grown fabulously rich through the mere manipulation of stocks and bonds. It never occurs to them that an enterprise is worth fostering that will not offer an opportunity to double, treble and quadruple securities without the contribution of a single dollar. I agree that neither Hill nor Harriman would put a penny of their money into the construction of railroads if they believed that they would only secure in return a fair interest upon their investment, even though the investment was as stable as a government bond. It never occurs to them, however, apparently, that there are thousands and tens of thousands of men who do not expect to make an hundred per cent in a single night, or reap a harvest of millions in a single day; and who are willing, nay, anxious, to so invest their capital that they will be rewarded with a remunerative, but reasonable profit. If railroads can not be built upon any other plan than the one hitherto adopted, I concede freely that when you have done your duty, enlargement would be exceedingly slow.

The whole argument, however, is fallacious to the last extreme. The men who in fact have their money in our railroads are paid a very moderate interest upon their investments, and the men who are making the outcry are the men who never invested their honestly earned dollars in the construction of our transportation system.

We ought to stand as resolutely against any invasion of the real rights of capital as we do against the unfair aggressions upon the privileges of the people; but we ought not to be frightened by the scarecrow set up by those who have already possessed a field to which they have no honest title. When you give the investors of the United States a fair chance to put their money into railroads, knowing that the amount actually put in will measure the amount upon which interest and dividends are paid, and knowing that the man who has made no investment can have no profit, you will find that there will be no difficulty in obtaining all the funds that are required to either construct new railroads or increase the trackage of old ones. It takes some courage, I know, to resist the insidious and insistent appeal, but it is cheering to observe that it is becoming less persuasive every day.

I have referred to but two of all the subjects which are challenging the ripest, best thought of the people. I have referred to them as illustrations, for the spirit which animates us in examining them should move us along every path of reform. We should emancipate ourselves from idolatry with respect to things that are. We should emancipate ourselves from the desire to change simply to effect a change. Because there is much good in the existing order, we should not be turned away from the effort to make it better; but we should not overthrow what has been done simply to prove that we can overthrow it.

We have a great country. It is now, and always should be, the greatest on earth. Whether it will be or not depends upon the fidelity with which the duties of each hour are performed. With the profound hope that Iowa may always lead the march of true progress, and with the confident belief that the banners of righteous reform will never be furled so long as they are borne in your hands, I enter again upon the fulfillment of the trust which the people have committed to my care.

Minutes of joint convention read and approved.

On motion of Senator Crossley of Madison the joint convention was dissolved.

The Senate returned to its chamber and resumed its sitting.

On motion of Senator Smith of Mitchell a committee of two was appointed to escort Lieutenant Governor Warren Garst to the chair.

President Herriott appointed as such committee Senators Smith of Mitchell and Stirton.

The committee escorted President Garst to the chair.

President Herriott presented Lieutenant Governor Garst and surrendering the gavel, spoke of the pleasant relations which always existed between the Senators and himself, and asked for the same consideration for his successor.

President Garst on assuming the chair addressed the Senators as follows:

SENATORS—In assuming the position of President of the Senate I realize my limitations and ask your indulgence.

I congratulate you upon the auspicious circumstances under which you meet. In the whole history of the State, I think there never has been a General Assembly whose members have represented such a happy, contented and intelligent people.

I predict that your record this year will be one that will stand out in the annals of Iowa as the session that has done most along those lines that will tend to the upbuilding of the best interests of the State, morally, financially and intellectually.

I hope it will not be considered out of place for me to urge that the several committees of the Senate take up those recommendations of the Governor that especially pertain to the work of these committees, with a view to investigating, and if thought wise, incorporating such recommendations into the laws of the State.

Many of you are new at the work you are about to engage in. As one having had some experience, I predict for you a pleasant and profitable session, knowing as I do that there is no service of the State that will bring such large returns for good, conscientious service.

In presenting to you the list of committees I again crave your indulgence, realizing that there must of necessity be some disappointments. However, I feel that there has been ample work assigned to each member to insure him a good session's work. I submit the committees.

The list of standing committees of the Senate was then read by the Secretary as follows:

Total expenditures for all purposes.....		$512,778.57
--	--	--------------

SUMMARY.

Funds available	$653,814.95
Expenditures	512,778.57

The law requires that Hospital Fees and Sales of Departments shall be listed separately. The following shows the receipts and expenditures for these accounts for the year:

RECEIPTS.

Receipts from sales.....	$	38,312.13
Hospital fees	3,535.50	$	41,847.63

EXPENDITURES.

Proceeds of sales reinvested by departments.....	$	38,312.13
Expenses of Hospital.....	3,172.70	$	41,484.38

The proceeds of sales are reinvested by the departments, thus constituting a revolving fund which represents, as it comes and goes, simply a change in the form of department assets.

The Hospital Fee does not go to the support of any educational department. It simply insures to the student, without expense, the privileges of the Hospital in case of sickness.

III. BALANCES AT CLOSE OF FISCAL YEAR, JUNE 30, 1906.

In the hands of the College Treasurer—

College support, including student funds.....	$	23,788.59
Agricultural Experiment Station.....	10,194.62
Engineer Experiment Station.....	1,288.14
Highway Commission.....	460.34
Special building tax.....	.56

Repairs and improvements.....	323.19
Central Heating Plant.....	20
Railroad damages, trust fund.....	88.00	$ 36,143.64

In State Treasury—

Building tax	$ 38,039.55
Completing and furnishing Central Building....	28,371.79
Dairy Farm and equipment.....	4,699.69
Central Heating Plant appropriation.....	33,782.27
Pure Bred Stock appropriation.....	.44	$104,892.74
Total balances		$141,036.38

It is the policy of the college not to draw funds from the State Treasury until needed. Only a small working balance is carried by the College Treasurer. In order, however, to avoid any legal question regarding the reversion of funds, support fund balances were drawn at the close of the year, thus making the balance in the College Treasurer's hands temporarily large.

The following report of the Iowa State Normal School was presented and ordered printed in the Journal:

IOWA STATE NORMAL SCHOOL SPECIAL FINANCIAL REPORT, GIVING A SUMMARIZED STATEMENT FOR THE FISCAL YEAR JULY 1, 1905, to JUNE 30, 1906, AND THE ESTIMATED INCOME AND EXPENSES FOR THE BIENNIAL PERIOD JULY 1, 1907, TO JUNE 30, 1909.

To the Members of the Thirty-second General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

GENTLEMEN—The officers of the State Normal School have already filed the following reports concerning the fiscal affairs of this Educational Institution. They are as follows: (1) Report to the Governor (Code 1897, Sec. 2680 and (2) Report to the Executive Council (Chapter 6, Acts of the Twenty-eighth General Assembly). It is necessary to refer to these for additional details should they be desired. This report is a special one and is in conformity to Chapter 104, Laws of the thirtieth General Assembly. It contains (1) Summaries of the several funds for the fiscal year and (2) an estimate of the income and expenses that may be anticipated for the biennial period 1907-1909. The endeavor is hereby made to fully comply with the requirements of the law and also to give such additional information as will aid the members of the General Assembly in properly and economically providing for the support and development of this Special Educational Institution.

1. Permanent fund now granted annually.....		$ 77,500.00
2. Salaries of teachers, 1906-1907.....	$ 80,000.00
3. Necessary readjustments of salaries of next biennial period	2,500.00
4. Necessary new teachers.....	4,000.00
5. Shortage to be supplied from students fees...		9,000.00
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$ 86,500.00	$ 86,500.00

NOTE.—The readjustments of salaries contemplated by Item 3 reaches twenty-one teachers who are deserving of a small addition being made to their respective salaries since it has been the policy for two decades to start with a minimum and make advances from year to year as merit and strength of service are established. By this means a maximum is probably obtainable after five years of service. At the same time this maximum is kept within the amount able to be generally earned for equivalent successful service in other places as compared with the quantity of service demanded at the Normal School. If present conditions continue in the financial world it will be entirely impossible for the Normal School to maintain a reputable faculty of instructors on the maximum salaries now paid.

II. Contingent Fund.	Expense.	Income.
1. Permanent fund, now granted annually.....		$ 34,000.00
2. Estimated receipts from contracts with school districts and from sales of material.....		5,000.00
3. Salaries of employes, 1906-1907.....	$ 16,418.00

4. Necessary increase to salaries of present employees	380.00
5. Necessary new employees.....	1,570.00
6. Fuel estimated	8,000.00
7. Departments supplies estimated.....	7,000.00
8. Office expenses—postage, printing, telegraph, telephone, estimated	1,000.00
9. Quarterly Bulletin estimated.....	3,000.00
10. Water, estimated	900.00
11. Superintendent's department, express freight sundries, estimated	4,000.00
12. Electric light, estimated	400.00
13. Shortage to be supplied from students' fees..		3,668.00
	$42,668.00	$ 42,668.00

NOTE.—The opening of the New Laboratory and the Music Hall necessitates additions to the force of janitors. It is also economy to have an employe who is an experienced workman, capable of doing work as a plumber, steam fitter, tinner, etc., as called for in item 4 of this estimate.

III. Summer Term Fund.	Expense.	Income.
1. Permanent fund now granted annually.....		$ 8,000.00
2. Salaries of teachers paid, summer of 1906...$	14,177.00
3. Lectures and other expenses estimated.....	500.00
4. Shortage to be paid from student fees.....		6,677.00
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$ 14,677.00	$ 14,677.00

IV. Library Fund.	Expense.	Income.
1. Annual appropriation requested of the General Assembly		$ 5,000.00
2. Annual necessary expenditure for new books periodicals, binding, to meet the demands of the work	$ 5,000.00
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$ 5,000.00	$ 5,000.00

NOTE.—This is a very moderate expenditure to be annually made for the support and development of the library.

V. Librarian Salary Fund.	Expense.	Income.
1. Annual Appropriation requested of the General Assembly		$ 5,000.00
2. Amount paid for library service, 1906-1907..$	3,200.00
3. Amount needed to secure additional service needed	1,800.00
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$ 5,000.00	$ 5,000.00

4. NOTE.—The management of the library needs to be much strengthened and the opportunities to use the same should be much extended. The estimate here made is based upon the most rigid economy, provided good service and capability is the standard.

VI. Paving and Permanent Walk Fund.	Expense.	Income.
1. Appropriation requested to continue the permanent improvement being made as the plant is being completed for two years....		$ 5,000.00
2. Amount needed to accomplish the work as planned on the most moderate basis of good material and good work.....	$ 5,000.00
	<hr/> $ 5,000.00	<hr/> $ 5,000.00

NOTE.—For the protection of the present property, including the floor and interior of the building as well as for the maintaining of a clean and sanitary condition, insuring the health of the students, it is necessary to permanently pave certain drives and also complete the walks and curbing as now planned. Part of this work has been done and this appropriation is asked to continue as the new buildings of the plant are completed during the biennial period.

SUGGESTIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. It is to be noted that the Board of Trustees has decided to endeavor to pass a biennial period without asking for additional teachers' fund or contingent fund. It will take the most rigid economy to do this, but such a course seems possible if prudent management encounters no unexpected emergencies. This makes imperative the granting of the full special appropriations asked, as without them the work of the Normal School will be severely crippled in its efficiency. This policy of endeavoring to get along with the present income does not mean that the Board of Trustees could not profitably put into the work a larger income should it be possessed; but it does mean to say that the Board of Trustees thinks that a school should be managed as carefully and as prudently as a business concern would be managed, and with this purpose in view this policy has been adopted. It remains to be said that the patronage of the school is assumed as promising to be about 2,500 students a year and on such basis and from experience of the past five years this conclusion was reached.

2. The efficiency and the capability of the Faculty of Instruction is of the greatest importance in a successful Normal School. All its teachers must possess (1) expert ability as instructors, (2) accurate and sensible scholarship of a kind that means fitness for giving practical instruction, and (3) special qualifications in personality and scholarship that make them masters of the branches to which they are assigned. Other schools need not be as careful as a normal school because their students do not necessarily become servants and teachers of the public. The representatives of the Normal School go at once to the people's schools and should be most thoroughly and efficiently instructed. To meet these standards has been the constant effort of the Board of Trustees in selecting the members of the Faculty of Instruction.

3. The Commencement Contingent Fund is obtained from diploma fees, receipts from dramatic programs at commencement and is disbursed in payment for diplomas granted to graduates and for the entertainment of the members of the graduating classes and their friends at the annual commencement dinner given by the alumni. This avoids the necessity to make any appropriation for such functions and expenses from the regular funds of the School.

It will give the Board of Trustees pleasure to have an opportunity to give any additional information that may be wanted by any committee or any member of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Senator Frudden, Senate File No. 60, a bill for an act to validate and legalize the consolidation of the Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company, a corporation created under the laws of the State of Illinois, with the Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company, a corporation created under the laws of the State of Iowa, and validating and legalizing all rights and franchises exercised under said consolidation by said Iowa corporation and all corporate acts and proceedings of the said Iowa corporation since the consolidation of the said Illinois corporation with it.

WHEREAS, On the 25th day of July, 1866, the Congress of the United States passed an act authorizing the construction and maintenance of a bridge across the Mississippi River, between Dunleith, in the State of Illinois, and Dubuque, in the State of Iowa, and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Illinois, by an act approved February 14th, 1857, granted a charter to the Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company, a corporation created under the laws of the State of Illinois, and which corporation was by its charter given power to unite and consolidate its franchises and property with any and all bridge and railroad companies in the State of Illinois, or State of Iowa, and

WHEREAS, There was organized and created under the laws of the State of Iowa, on the 3d day of June, 1867, a corporation known as the Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company, for the purposes of constructing a railroad bridge across the Mississippi River from the city of Dubuque, Iowa, to the city then known as Dunleith, in the State of Illinois, and

WHEREAS, Section 1322 of the revision of 1860 of the laws of Iowa, granted the power to railroad companies to join and unite their said road to and with a railroad in an adjoining state, and to merge and consolidate the stock of such company with other railroad companies, and to thereby make one joint stock company of the railroads thus connected, and

WHEREAS, It is provided in Section 2036 of the Code of Iowa of 1897, that a railroad corporation has the power to join, intersect and unite, and to consolidate with any other corporation, and

WHEREAS, On the 6th day of July, 1867, the Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company, a corporation created under the laws of the State of Illinois, executed articles of consolidation with the Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Iowa; and

WHEREAS, The said corporation was operated as a consolidated company, and said consolidation has been in force and effective since the 6th day of July, 1867, and all corporate powers of said two corporations have been assumed and exercised by the said Dunleith and Dubuque Bridge Company, the Iowa Corporation, under and by virtue of said articles of consolidation, and which last named corporation has transacted all business of said two corporations, and exercised all the franchises and rights of the said two corporations, under the name of said Iowa corporation, with which said Illinois corporation was so consolidated.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

By Senator Jackson, Senate File No. 61, a bill for an act to authorize the bringing of ordinary suits at law for the collection of delinquent taxes and for the issuance of writs of attachment in certain cases, and to amend section one thousand four hundred fourteen (1414) of the Code.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

By Senator Elerick, Senate File No. 62, a bill for an act to legalize the acts and resolutions passed by the Board of Supervisors of Van Buren county, Iowa, making a final settlement with H. L. McGrew, county treasurer of said county, and releasing said H. L. McGrew and his bondsmen from liability on account of loss by reason of the deposit of county and other funds in the private banking house of E. H. Skinner & Co.

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of Van Buren County, Iowa, at their January meeting, 1899, passed a resolution authorizing and permitting the then county treasurer, D H. Moore, to deposit county and other funds to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars at any one time in the private bank of E. H. Skinner & Co.; and

WHEREAS, The said E. H. Skinner & Co. did on the 12th day of January, 1899, execute a bond as security for such deposits as provided by Section 1457 of the Code; and

WHEREAS, the said D. H. Moore died on the 7th day of July, A. D. 1900, and H. L. McGrew was appointed by the Board of Supervisors as the successor, and was subsequently, at the general election in November, elected to fill out the remainder of said term and has since been re-elected twice to additional terms as such county treasurer; and

WHEREAS, Immediately after his appointment to succeed the said D. H. Moore as such treasurer, the said H. L. McGrew submitted to the then County Attorney of Van Buren County, Iowa, the question whether or not the said bond aforesaid was sufficient security for deposits to be continued to be made in said bank, and was advised by the said County Attorney that the said bond was sufficient, and that he as County Treasurer need not demand or require a new or additional bond. That the conditions therein ran to and in favor of him as the successor of D. H. Moore; and

WHEREAS, After his election by the people of said county as Treasurer, the said H. L. McGrew again submitted the same question to the County Attorney and Board of Supervisors; and

WHEREAS. The said County Attorney in a written opinion, and the Board of Supervisors verbally advised the said H. L. McGrew that said bond was sufficient, and that he need not procure a new additional bond, but would have the right to deposit in said bank under and by virtue of the former resolution of said board and the security of said bond; and

WHEREAS, In pursuance of the advice of the County Attorney and members of the Board of Supervisors, the said H. L. McGrew as such County Treasurer continued to deposit county and other funds in the said bank of E. H. Skinner & Co.; and

WHEREAS, On the 8th day of November, 1904, the said E. H. Skinner & Co. filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, and was subsequently adjudged a bankrupt in the Federal Courts, and after payment by the trustee in bankruptcy appointed on said bankrupt's estate of the per cent which said estate paid on its indebtedness, there remained due and unpaid of the deposits therein by said County Treasurer the sum of $2,091.09; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of said county passed a resolution directing that the said H. L. McGrew, County Treasurer, should prosecute an action thereon in his name as such County Treasurer against the sureties on said bond to recover such balance; and

WHEREAS, Such action was brought and prosecuted to final judgment in the District Court of Van Buren County, Iowa, resulting in a final judgment by said court that said bondsmen or sureties thereon were not liable on said bond for such deposits; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of said county, believing that it would be inequitable and unjust that said H. L. McGrew should bear said loss and it not being the fault or negligence of said H. L. McGrew that said deposits were made in said bank or said loss occasioned but the same being occasioned by reason of the advice of the County Attorney and the members of the Board of Supervisors, and believing that the loss occasioned thereby should and ought to be sustained by the county and not by the said H. L. McGrew, did at their regular meeting on the 7th day of January, A. D. 1907, make a full and complete settlement with said H. L. McGrew as County Treasurer, and receipted him in full for all monies and property coming into his hands as treasurer of said county and passed a resolution releasing said H. L. McGrew and his bondsmen from any and all liability growing out of the deposit of county and other funds in said bank, or on account of the failure of said bank; and

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen as to whether or not said Board of Supervisors had the authority to release said County Treasurer and his bondsmen from liability on account thereof.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of Appanoose County, Iowa, after due and legal service as to the pendency of the petition and as to the appraisal of damages and the assessment of the costs, established Drainage District No. 1 of said county and fixed the amount of damages to be paid to each of the parties entitled thereto on account of the construction of the improvement therein, and apportioned the costs, expenses, costs of construction and fees as provided by law; and also

WHEREAS, Said Board of Supervisors afterwards, after advertising as required by law and receiving sealed bids, awarded contracts to the lowest bidders; and also

WHEREAS, The work on said contracts has been commended and a great portion thereof completed; and also

WHEREAS, For some reasons unknown to said Board of Supervisors, the said board has been unable to sell the bonds and provide money for the carrying on of said construction; and also

WHEREAS, Unless said construction is completed at an early date the unfinished condition of said improvement will cause great damage to the lands affected at the time of the spring overflows, and said spring overflows will greatly damage said improvement and cause great loss to said district; and also

WHEREAS, The said work of construction can be completed before said spring overflow if the said bonds can be sold.

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS.

Senator Smith of Des Moines presented the following petition of 271 residents of West Burlington, Iowa:

WEST BURLINGTON, IOWA, JANUARY 15, 1907.

To the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

DES MOINES, IOWA.

We, the undersigned citizens of West Burlington, Iowa, would respectfully petition the General Assembly that Chapter Ninety (90) of the Laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly of the State of Iowa, be repealed in so far as said law prohibits a steam or interurban railway from extending, granting or giving the employes thereof free transportation on and over the lines of road owned or controlled by the company when such employe is holding a city or town office.

As a reason for making this request, your petitioners beg to state, that the town of West Burlington, is owned and its population is made up almost exclusively, of men and their families employed by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad company, in that company's shops, located in said town, and are therefore obliged to accept and fill the various town offices. That before the passage of said law the said railroad company granted all of its employes, including such as were holding and filling the town offices, free transportation, which transportation was, by the men, regarded as a part of their compensation. Since the passage of said law this transportation, so far as the town officials are concerned, has been withdrawn. The welfare of the town demands that these men should be free to hold and fill these offices, but they cannot afford so to do if it means so great a sacrifice to them. We, the citizens of West Burlington, Iowa, respectfully request the members of the Thirty-second General Assembly to repeal so much of said law as will restore to our people their original rights and leave said railroad company free to furnish such transportation to the officers of said town.

Referred to Committee on Railroads.

Senator Stuckslager presented petition of residents of Center Point urging the passage of a law providing for two-cent railroad fare.

Referred to Committee on Railroads.

PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate File No. 64, a bill for an act to legalize certain actions of the Board of Supervisors of Appanoose County, Iowa, relating to Drainage District No. 1 of said county and the issuance of bonds for the payment of the expenses, costs, costs of construction and fees, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 64.

A BILL for an act to legalize certain actions of the Board of Supervisors of Appanoose County, Iowa, relating to Drainage District No. 1 of said county, and the issuance of bonds for the payment of the expenses, costs, costs of construction and fees.

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors of Appanoose County, Iowa, after due and legal service as to the pendency of the petition and as to the appraisalment of damages and the assessment of the costs, established Drainage District No 1 of said county and fixed the amount of damages to be paid to each of the parties entitled thereto on account of the construction of the improvement therein, and apportioned the costs, expenses, costs of construction and fees as provided by law; and, also,

WHEREAS, Said Board of Supervisors afterwards, after advertising as required by law and receiving sealed bids, awarded contracts to the lowest bidders; and, also,

WHEREAS, The work on said contracts has been commenced and a great portion thereof completed; and, also,

WHEREAS, The said Board of Supervisors changed the size of the ditch to be constructed from six (6) feet wide at the bottom to twenty (20) feet wide at the bottom, said change being made after the establishment of said district and the advertising and receiving bids, and being made on the recommendation of the engineer in charge and a new advertisement published for the receiving of bids for the construction of a ditch twenty feet wide at the bottom; and, also,

WHEREAS, The said Board has been unable to sell the bonds and procure the money necessary to complete said improvements; and, also,

WHEREAS, Unless said construction is completed at an early date the unfinished condition of said improvement will cause great damage to the lands affected at the time of the spring overflows, and said spring overflows will greatly damage said improvement and cause great loss to the said district; and, also,

WHEREAS, The said work of construction can be completed before said spring overflow if the said bonds can be sold; now, therefore,

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all the actions of the Board of Supervisors of Appanoose County, Iowa, in establishing Drainage District No. 1 of said county, and in appraising the damages to the property owners therein, and in awarding the contracts for the construction of the improvements therein, and in making the levy of the special assessments against the lands and property benefited, and in the order for the issuance of drainage bonds and issuance thereof to the extent of Thirty Thousand ($30,000) Dollars, be and the same are hereby legalized and declared to be legal, valid and binding on the Drainage District No. 1 to the same extent as though the law had been technically complied with in every respect. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect pending legislation.

SEC. 2. This act being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Semi-Weekly Iowegian, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa, and Centerville, Iowa, said publications to be without expense to the State.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate File No. 5, a bill for an act entitled "An act defining wife desertion and failure to support wife or family, providing punishment therefor, and permitting a husband or wife to be a witness in such cases," beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

1. By striking out Section 1 and substituting the following:

"SECTION 1. Every person who shall, without good cause, willfully neglect or refuse to maintain or provide for his wife, she being in a destitute condition, or who shall, without good cause, abandon his or her legitimate or illegitimate child or children under the age of sixteen years, leaving such child or children in a destitute condition, or shall, without good cause, willfully neglect or refuse to provide for such child or children they being in a destitute condition, shall be deemed guilty of desertion and, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months."

2. Amend Section 2 of said bill by striking out the period at the end of said section, and adding thereto the following: "Provided, however, that no husband or wife shall be called or compelled to testify against the other under this act, except upon consent of such witness."

3. Amend Section 3 by striking from lines one (1) and two (2) the words "with defendant's consent," and the comma after the word "consent."

4. Amend Section 3 of said bill by striking from lines six (6) and seven (7) thereof, the words "with sureties to be approved by the clerk of said court," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "with or without sureties as may be determined by the court."

5. Amend Section 3 by inserting before the word "child" and after the word "his" in the tenth line thereof, the words "or her."

6. Amend Section 5 by placing a comma after the word "shall" in the first line thereof, and follow with the words "unless otherwise ordered by the court," and placing after the word "court" a comma.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

C. C. DOWELL,

SHIRLEY GILLILLAND,
Chairman.

The substitute was read first and second time and ordered passed on file.

Senator Gilliland, from the Committee on Cities and Towns, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Cities and Towns, to whom was referred Senate File No. 121, a bill for an act to provide that Chapter Eight (8) of Title VI (6) of the Code, relating to removal of municipal officers be made applicable to special charter cities, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same do pass.

SHIRLEY GILLILLAND,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Gilliland, from the Committee on Cities and Towns, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Cities and Towns, to whom was referred Senate File No. 48, a bill for an act to amend Section Seven Hundred and Ninety-two (792) of the Code, relating to street improvements and special assessments and conferring upon incorporated towns the same powers possessed by cities in respect thereto, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be indefinitely postponed.

SHIRLEY GILLILLAND,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

The President announced that he had signed, in the presence of the Senate, Senate File No. 32.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Senator Gilliland, from the Committee on Cities and Towns, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Cities and Towns, to whom was referred Senate File No. 119, a bill for an act to amend Chapter Fourteen (14) of Title Five (5) of the Code, relating to the management of waterworks in special charter cities having a population of thirty-five thousand (35,000) or more, and all acts and parts of acts in so far as they conflict with this act shall not be applicable to any such cities, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows: By inserting in the first line of the title following the word "chapter" and before the figures "14" the word "fourteen," and by inserting after the word "title" in the same line and before the letter "V" the word "five"; also by inserting in line fifteen of Section One (1), after the word "chapter" and before the figure "8" the word "eight"; and after the word "title" in the same line and before the letters "VI" the word "six"; also by inserting in line two (2) of Section Three (3), after the word "of" and before the figures "35,000" the words "thirty-five thousand," and when so amended the bill do pass.

SHIRLEY GILLILLAND,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

On motion of Senator Peterson, Senate File No. 38, a bill for an act prohibiting any corporation doing business within the state or any officer, agent or representative thereof acting for such corporation, from giving or contributing any money, property, labor or thing of value, to any member of any political committee, party or employe thereof, or to any candidate for any office, for campaign expenses or political purpose whatsoever. And prohibiting any member of any political committee, party or employe thereof, or any candidate for any office from soliciting, requesting or knowingly receiving any such contribution from any corporation for campaign expenses or political purpose whatsoever, and providing a penalty for the violation thereof, with report of committee recommending amendments and passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Peterson moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend Section One (1) by inserting the word "public" after the word "any" in the sixth line and before the word "office" in the seventh line thereof and by inserting after the word "office" and before the word "or" in the seventh line thereof the following: "Or candidate for nomination to any public office," and by striking out the period at the end of the section and inserting a comma in lieu thereof, and adding thereto the following: "or to any person, partnership, or corporation for the purpose of influencing or causing such person, partnership or corporation to influence any elector of the State to vote for or against any candidate for nomination for public office, or to any public officer, for the purpose of influencing his official action."

Adopted.

Senator Peterson moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend Section Three (3) of the bill by striking out of the last line thereof the words "or produce any documentary evidence" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "provided that he shall not be exempted from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying," and by inserting a comma after the word "testimony" in said line.

Adopted.

Senator Peterson moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend the title by striking out the period following the word "whatsoever" in the seventh line thereof and inserting a comma in lieu thereof and adding after the word "whatsoever" and before the word "and" in the seventh line the following: "or to any person, partnership or corporation for the purpose of influencing or causing said person, partnership or corporation to influence any elector of the State to vote for or against any candidate for public office or candidate for nomination for any public office, or to any public officer, for the purpose of influencing his official action."

Adopted.

Senator Dowell moved that further consideration of this bill be deferred for the present.

Carried.

Senator Peterson asked unanimous consent that the consideration of this bill be made a special order for next Tuesday at 10:30 o'clock A.M.

Consent granted.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House File No. 29, a bill for an act to amend Section Seven (7) of Chapter One Hundred and Nine (109) of the laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to registration of births and deaths.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House asks the recall of the following bill in which the concurrence of the Senate was asked:

House File No. 70, a bill for an act to amend Section Fourteen Hundred and Thirty-two (1432) of the Code, relative to issuing duplicates of lost or destroyed tax sale certificates.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

HOUSE MESSAGES CONSIDERED.

House File No. 81, a bill for an act to amend Section Five Hundred and Twenty (520) of the Code in relation to the examination of witnesses by the coroner and to provide a reporter to be appointed by the coroner at inquests and investigations.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

House File No. 95, a bill for an act to amend Section One (1), Chapter One Hundred and Twenty-two (122) of the laws of the Twenty-ninth General Assembly, relating to support of the Iowa School for the Deaf at Council Bluffs.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Appropriations.

House File No. 29, a bill for an act to amend Section Seven (7) of Chapter One Hundred and Nine (109) of the laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to registration of births and deaths.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Public Health.

House asks the recall of House File No. 70, a bill for an act to amend Section One Thousand Four Hundred and Thirty-two of the Code, relative to issuing duplicates of lost or destroyed tax sale certificates.

Senator Dunham moved that the House request be granted.

Carried.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

On motion of Senator Eckles, Senate File No. 154, a bill for an act to amend the law as it appears in Section Two Thousand Six Hundred and Eight (2608) of the Supplement to the Code, relating to the Soldiers' Home at Marshalltown, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Mattes moved that the bill be referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

The motion was lost.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Mattes raised the point of order that the bill should have been referred to the Committee on Appropriations instead of the Committee on Military.

The President ruled that the point of order was not well taken for the reason that the objection should have been made when the bill was introduced.

Senator Eckles moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—43.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Foley, Gale, Jackson, Maytag, Lambert, Wade—7.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

On motion of Senator Frudden, Senate File No. 121, a bill for an act to provide that Chapter Eight (8) of Title VI (6) of the Code, relating to removal of municipal officers, be made applicable to special charter cities, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Frudden moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Dowell, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—39.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeArmand, DeWolf, Dunham, Foley, Gale, Jackson, Lambert, Maytag, Moon, Nichols, Smith of Mitchell—11.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

On motion of Senator Frudden, Senate File No. 120, a bill for an act to repeal Chapter Fifty-one (51) of the acts of the Twenty-ninth General Assembly, relating to compensation of waterworks trustees in special charter cities having a population of thirty thousand (30,000) or more, with report of committee recommending passage as amended by substitute, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

The substitute was read for information.

Senator Frudden moved that the committee substitute be substituted for the original bill.

Carried.

Senator Frudden moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Frudden, Gilliland, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—43.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeArmand, DeWolf, Foley, Gale, Hopkins, Jackson, Maytag—7.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

On motion of Senator Frudden, Senate File No. 119, a bill for an act to amend Chapter Fourteen (14) of Title V (5) of the Code, relating to the management of waterworks in special charter cities having a population of thirty-five thousand (35,000) or more, and all acts or parts of acts in so far as they conflict with this act shall not be applicable to any such cities, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Frudden moved the adoption of the following committee amendments:

Amend as follows: By inserting in the first line of the title following the word "chapter" and before the figures "14" the word "fourteen," and by inserting after the word "title" in the same line and before the letter "V" the word "five"; also by inserting in line fifteen of Section One (1), after the word "chapter" and before the figure "8" the word "eight" and after the the word "title" in the same line and before the letters "VI" the word "six," also by inserting in line two (2) of Section Three (3), after the word "of" and before the figures "35,000" the words "thirty-five thousand."

Adopted.

The bill as amended was read for information.

Senator Frudden moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dunham, Elerick, Ericson, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton—40.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Dowell, Eckles, Foley, Gale, Jackson, Maytag, Moon, Wade, Young—10.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

Senator Dunham offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to provide a calendar as soon as practicable and from time to time thereafter of all bills on third reading and all joint and concurrent resolutions in the order in which they are reported from the standing committees.

Adopted.

The Journal of yesterday was taken up, corrected and approved.

Senator Hughes moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Carried.

Senate adjourned.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Elerick, McManus, Nichols, Whipple—4.

So the joint resolution having received a constitutional majority, was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

The following explanations of vote were filed:

MR. PRESIDENT—I wish to have incorporated in the Journal the following, as an explanation of my vote upon the joint resolution for a Constitutional Convention:

I vote "No" upon that proposition for the following reasons:

First: Because I am not in sympathy with the proposition to remove from the choice of the United States Senator the safeguard devised by the framers of the Constitution to insure the cool judgment of the people in choosing the members for the smaller body of the National Congress.

Second: I believe it is bad policy, if not unsafe, to call a convention to amend or revise the Constitution with no check upon its deliberation at a time when the country is unsettled on so many important questions or varying interests to its different sections.

Third: Because the Senators representing the State of Iowa have always been an honor to the State and the action of the State in taking the lead in this matter, if not considered as a criticism of its representation in the Senate, will appear as unsolicited intermeddling with the affairs of our sister States, and Iowa, under all existing circumstances, should stand as guarding rather than attacking the Constitution.

GEO. W. DUNHAM.

I am in favor of election of United States Senators by the people, but not in favor of Constitutional Convention as proposed.

W. G. JONES.

I vote "No" upon the joint resolution for the following reasons:

First: I cannot subscribe to the statement contained in the first paragraph of the preamble.

Second: Such a demand coming from the General Assembly of the State of Iowa may be construed as a reflection upon the quality of the men which the present system has sent from this State to the upper house of the National Congress.

Third: I am not ready to concede that better material would be selected by a direct vote of the people than that which has been chosen by the present method.

Fourth: I am opposed to the calling of conventions to amend the Constitution except in cases of the most urgent necessity. In my opinion no such "urgent necessity" now exists.

JOHN L. BLEAKLY.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

The following message was received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 78—BY YOUNG.

A BILL for an Act to Provide for the Examination and Regulation of Graduate Nurses. Also to Regulate the Practicing of Nursing by Graduate Nurses and to Provide a Penalty for the Violation Thereof.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice professional nursing or publicly profess to practice such nursing without first obtaining from the State Board of Health a certificate authorizing him or her to practice nursing in this State.

SEC. 2. At the annual meeting of the State Board of Health it shall select two physicians from its own membership, and two graduate nurses, residents of this State, actively engaged in the practice of nursing, who, together with the Secretary of the State Board of Health, shall constitute the examining committee for the year. The examinations provided for in this act shall be held in the city of Des Moines in July of each year and at such other times as the Board of Health shall direct. All applicants for certificate to practice nursing shall have attained the age of twenty-three (23) years and shall be of good moral character. They shall be graduates of training schools recognized as being in good standing by the State Board of Health of Iowa, and shall have received at least three (3) years' instruction in general hospital practice. After July 1st, 1910, no training school shall be accredited by the State Board of Health as a school of recognized standing which is not attached to a general hospital and which does not have a course of study of at least three (3) years. All graduate nurses who are residents of the State and who have been engaged in the practice of nursing for one (1) year prior to the passage of this act shall be granted a certificate without examination upon the payment of the registration fee, and the same rule shall apply to all nurses who graduate from a recognized school prior to July 1st, 1907. Nurses holding diplomas from hospital training schools of recognized standing, upon application to the Secretary of the State Board of Health, shall be granted a permit to practice until the first examination of the Board following the issuance of the said permit.

SEC. 3. After the passage of this act, any person who is not exempt from examination by Section Two (2) of this act and who shall apply for a certificate to practice nursing shall be examined in the following subjects: Elementary hygiene, anatomy, physiology, materia medica, dietetics, and also practical nursing, medical and surgical nursing, obstetrics, nursing of children and the rules and regulations of the State Board of Health relating to infectious diseases and quarantine and such other subjects as the Examining Board may require from time to time. Each applicant shall pay the Secretary of the State Board of Health a fee of five dollars ($5.00). If the examination be satisfactory to three members of said committee, it shall so report to the State Board of Health; if the Board find the report and ratings correct, it shall authorize its President and Secretary to issue a certificate to the successful candidate for which such candidate shall pay an additional fee of one dollar ($1.00). This certificate shall confer upon the holder the right to practice as a registered nurse, and be conclusive evidence thereof. The State Board of Health is empowered to recognize certificates issued to nurses under the laws of other States having substantially similar requirements to those existing in this State; provided, that such States recognize certificates issued by the State of Iowa; then certificates issued by authority of such other States may be deemed sufficient evidence of qualifications of the licentiate without further examination for certificate in this State; the fee for such certificate shall be ten dollars ($10.00). The holder of such certificate provided for in this act, shall cause the same to be registered in the office of the County Recorder of the county wherein he intends to reside.

SEC. 4. No person, after January 1st, 1908, except one holding a certificate under authority of this act shall advertise to be or assume the title of graduate or registered nurse or use the abbreviation "G. N." or

"R. N." or any other words, letters or figures to indicate that the person using the same is a graduate or registered nurse and it shall be unlawful for any graduate nurse to practice professional nursing in the State of Iowa without first having registered under this act.

SEC. 5. This act shall not apply to any person nursing the sick with or without pay who does not in any way assume to be a registered or graduate nurse.

SEC. 6. The Board of Health may refuse to grant, or renew any certificate provided for in this act, to a person otherwise qualified, who obtained said certificate by false or fraudulent representation, or for immoral or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, or for willful or repeated violation of the rules or regulations of the State Board of Health; and the Board may revoke any certificate issued by it, for any such or similar cause; provided, that before the revocation of any certificate issued under the provision of this act, the licentiate shall have been afforded an opportunity for a hearing before the Board. At least twenty (20) days prior to the date set for such hearing, the Secretary of the State Board of Health shall cause written notice, under registered mail, to be sent to the licentiate at his last known place of residence; said notice shall contain a statement of the charges, and the date and place set for the hearing before the Board. If the party thus notified fails to appear, either in person or by counsel, at the time and place designated in said notice, the Board may, after receiving satisfactory evidence of the truth of the charges and the proper issuance of the notice, revoke said certificate. If the licentiate appear, either in person or by counsel, the Board shall proceed with the hearing as herein provided. The Board may receive and consider affidavits and oral statements, and shall cause stenographic report of the oral testimony to be taken, which, together with all other papers pertaining thereto, shall be preserved for one (1) year. If five (5) members of the Board present at the hearing are satisfied that the licentiate is guilty of any of the offenses charged, the certificate shall be revoked, for such time as the State Board of Health may determine.

SEC. 7. Each member of the examining committee, except the Secretary, shall receive for his services out of the funds created by the payment of fees by applicants for examination such compensation as is allowed to the members of the State Board of Medical Examiners for like services and the Secretary shall receive the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per annum and his necessary expenses incurred for services which cannot be performed at the Capitol. All printing, postage and other contingent expenses, necessarily incurred under the provisions of this act shall be paid from said fund. All expenses incurred under the provisions of this act shall be itemized, verified, and audited and a warrant drawn therefor on the nurses' fund in the same manner as other expenses of the State Board of Health.

SEC. 8. Any person who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) or imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed thirty (30) days.

SEC. 9. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

HENRY YOUNG,
Chairman.

Substitute read first and second time and passed on file.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

On motion of Senator Frudden, Senate File No. 25, a bill for an act to repeal Section Three (3) of Chapter One Hundred and One (101) of the laws of the Thirtieth (30th) General Assembly, and Sections One (1) and Two (2) of Chapter One Hundred and Thirteen (113) of the laws of the Thirty-first (31st) General Assembly, relative to establishing and maintaining a State Board of Health Laboratory at Iowa City, and enacting in lieu thereof the following, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Frudden moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend by striking out the words and figures "Sections One (1) and Two (2) of" in lines three and four of the title.

Adopted.

The bill as amended was read for information.

Senator Frudden moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clark, Jones, Kimmel, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Young—46.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Kinne, Stuckslager, Whipple, Wilson of Clinton—4.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

Senate File No. 118, a bill for an act to empower county agricultural societies to condemn and take private property for the use and accommodation of the public in attendance at fairs, with report of committee recommending indefinite postponement, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Senator Saunders moved that the vote by which House File No. 42 was indefinitely postponed be reconsidered.

Carried.

Senate File No. 35, a bill for an act limiting the commencement of actions for the recovery of real estate, with report of committee recommending indefinite postponement, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Senator Saunders asked unanimous consent that House File No. 42 be re-referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Consent granted.

Senate File No. 103, a bill for an act to amend Section Five Hundred and Ninety-one (591) of the Code, relative to compensation of township clerks, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

The bill was read for information.

Further consideration of the bill was deferred at this time.

REPORTS OF VISITING COMMITTEES.

The following reports of special committees appointed to visit State institutions were presented:

SOLDIERS' HOME AT MARSHALLTOWN.

To the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House, and Members of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your joint committee, appointed to visit the Soldiers' Home at Marshalltown, beg leave to submit the following report:

We visited the Home on Thursday, January 24th, and were accorded every possible courtesy by the Commandant and his subordinates on our tour of investigation.

We were especially impressed with the management of the Hospital and the old people's home departments and cannot too highly commend those in immediate charge, and members of the Board of Control, under whose direction the Soldiers' Home for Iowa has reached high rank, if not the highest in the country.

We reiterate the recommendation made by the committee one year ago that this General Assembly should furnish means for the erection of a coal house with a capacity sufficient for the needs of the institution.

We are of the opinion that appropriations should be made in accordance with the suggestion of the Commandant, namely:

Quartermaster's building, storeroom and equipment, light, heat, and sewerage connection.....	$ 10,000.00
Coal house	4,500.00
Enlargement of pump room	1,200.00
Grand Army hall, in basement of chapel, and equipment.....	1,000.00
Improvements of grounds	2,000.00
Hose house	800.00
Two new hose carts ($100 each)	200.00
Five hundred feet 2½-inch fire hose	350.00
Total	$ 20,050.00

Respectfully submitted,

O. K. MABEN,

COLLEGE FOR THE BLIND AT VINTON.

To the President of the Senate:

Your committee, appointed to visit, investigate and report the needs of the College for the Blind at Vinton, beg leave to submit the following report:

The committee met in the College at Vinton on Friday, January 25th, and were deeply impressed with the candid, sincere and earnest interest manifested by Superintendent Vance in every phase of the work and department of the institution, and feel that the thanks of this committee are justly due him for the many courtesies shown and information given us.

The committee visited every department and listened with interest to the recitations and instructions as they came and went from the pupils and teachers, almost or all totally blind, and must admit that the committee were surprised in the thorough organization and construction of the different departments

We also visited all the rooms, bath, lavatories, halls, cloak rooms and sleeping apartments of all the inmates of that institution. They were models of neatness and order, the sleeping rooms being decorated with pictures and ornaments to a surprising extent, and really created an impression of contentment and happiness. At the noon hour we were present at the dining room and watched the maneuvers of the inmates of that institution in marching to their places at the different tables. It was surprising to us as to the accuracy, order and decorum under which the students took their places at their tables. We took dinner with the superintendent, after having visited the culinary department. We noticed that our table was furnished with the same menu as that which was furnished to the inmates and which was on a bill of fare duly printed and posted at the entries of the dining room. The committee could not ask for anything more complete in that dinner.

In the afternoon we visited the hospital and the factories of the institution, found everything complete, neat and in the most perfect order. In the hospital were three patients, two of them who said they had the "chicken-pox," and the third one was afflicted, she said, with a disease that was more prevalent in our boyhood days than at present, technically called, "scabies."

Mr. Vance, the superintendent, has been in his position but a short time, but it was evident to this committee that he was a person eminently fitted for his place, and we could see that he was beloved by all of his wards to an unusual degree.

We also found that the things to be done as recommended by the committee at the last session of the Legislature have been carried out, except an appropriation for a gymnasium, etc., for which the Legislature failed to make an appropriation. We, your committee, are unanimous in our recommendation of an appropriation of $20,000 for a gymnasium. We think it of the greatest importance in view of the peculiar condition of the inmates of this school. The students, being blind, need exercise and recreation as much, and in our judgment, more than any of the inmates of other institutions of the State, for then their recreation could be reduced to a system suitable to their condition. We further recommend an addition to the contingent fund asked by the Board of Control the sum of $500.00 for repairs needed, so our recommendations are as follows:

For Contingent Fund	$ 2,500.00
For Oculist Fund	500.00
For Gymnasium	20,000.00

All of which is respectfully submitted this 2d day of February, 1907.

JOHN FOLEY,
D. W. DOW,
A. W. KENDALL,
D. D. WEBSTER,

INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AT COUNCIL BLUFFS.

To the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Your committee, appointed to visit the Institution for the Deaf, which is located at Council Bluffs, begs leave to submit the following report:

We arrived at the institution on the evening of January 24th, and the committee, as a whole, spent all the following day in visiting the schools, visiting every department, and in inspecting the various buildings on the premises, together with all live stock owned and kept there by the State. We have no hesitancy in saying that we were very much impressed with the great importance of the School for the Deaf, among the other State institutions. There is a general air of prosperity, contentment and cleanliness about the place and its inmates that impressed your committee at once, that it is an excellently managed institution throughout, and we are a unit in the opinion that the Iowa Institution for the Deaf is one of the most deserving in our State. It is here that the child who has never heard the sound of his own voice, is being taught by self-sacrificing young men and women to do things that are the wonder and admiration of all visitors.

We take it that the one sole and sacred purpose of the establishment and maintenance of this institution by the State, is to make self-supporting citizens of its inmates, and with that idea in view, we would respectfully recommend that the "Domestic Science Department" (once in operation there, and for the continuance of which we found every necessary equipment), be resumed, with the object in mind that all young women who attend this school may avail themselves of an opportunity to learn the things which will enable them to earn an honest livelihood and live respectable lives after leaving the school.

The law of courtesy forbids criticism, but we believe that the State was extravagant in trying to be economical, when it discontinued the Domestic Science Department of this school. We believe also that the Manual Training Department should be supervised by a person in every way competent to direct such work, with the end in view that these boys may, upon leaving the school, obtain positions in the various shops and factories, at living wages.

We would respectfully recommend that our laws be enacted so that children who are county charges may be allowed to remain at the institution during the whole of the year, instead of nine months, the period prescribed by the law at present in force.

After carefully considering existing needs of the institution, your committee recommends the following appropriations for the purposes therein mentioned, namely:

For improvement of grounds, grading, walks, trees and shrubbery	$ 5,000.00
For storage and refrigerating plant.....	3,500.00
For wrecking and removing old and temporary buildings....	2,000.00
For plastering and completing basement of main building....	2,000.00
For blackboard wall slating.....	1,500.00
For fencing	500.00

For library and binding.....	500.00
For tools and machinery for industrial schools.....	300.00
For tombstones	100.00
For contingent and repair fund.....	3,500.00
New heating and lighting plant.....	10,000.00
Total	$ 28,900.00

Your committee further recommends that an additional three thousand dollars ($3,000) be appropriated for the purpose of plastering and completing the basement of the main building, in the event funds are available for such purpose.

We unhesitatingly commend the able, painstaking and efficient administration of the affairs of this institution by its superintendent, Mr. Henry W. Rothert.

Respectfully submitted,

MARION F. STOOKEY,

J. L. WARREN,

Senate Committee.

INSTITUTION FOR FEEBLE-MINDED CHILDREN AT GLENWOOD.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your committee, appointed to investigate the condition of affairs at the Institution for the Feeble-Minded Children, located at Glenwood, beg leave to submit the following:

The entire committee visited this institution on January 24 and 25, 1907. While there, we examined the buildings and grounds and visited the various departments, witnessing the care taken for the temporal comfort of the inmates, as well as the infinite patience displayed in the effort of teachers to develop, according to the varying degrees of capacity, the minds committed to their charge.

We have only words of commendation for the efficient manner in which Dr. Mogridge and his able corps of assistants are administering the affairs of this institution. The capacity of this home is placed at 950, while the present enrollment reaches 1,104, with a large number of applicants still awaiting admission. Viewed aside from its philanthropic features, we believe this institution saves, in the aggregate, a large amount to the State, by relieving parents and others of an unremitting care, and enabling them to remain in the ranks of industry, supporting the other members of their families, and in contributing to the general welfare of their respective communities. We believe the State should, so far as possible, provide for certain needs of this institution, which to your committee seems of vital importance.

For years the water supply has been entirely inadequate. This has been obtained from two sources, viz: Keg Creek and a deep well located on the grounds. Over a year ago an epidemic of typhoid fever occurred. On examination, it was found that both sources of water supply were thoroughly contaminated. Every analysis since has shown the deadly germ present in a dangerous degree. The drinking water for the institution has been boiled since the time of the epidemic, a process which must continue until some form of relief is obtained.

The Thirty-first General Assembly appropriated $25,000 for water supply, etc. Under direction of the Board of Control, another deep well has been started. At a depth of about 800 feet the contractor lost the drill, and the last three months have been spent in a vain endeavor to recover it. Your committee is of the belief that at present, the paramount need of this institution is an adequate supply of pure water.

We recommend the abandonment of the deep well project for the following reasons:

1. The infection of the deep well now in use.
2. The unreliability of the supply, as the depth of the water in the well on the grounds, and in the well in the town of Glenwood, presumably supplied from the same level, has materially diminished, at times the supply having become alarmingly low.
3. The great expense in operating the pumps connected with the deep wells.
4. The deep well water is not good for cooking or laundry purposes.

Your committee further recommends that a sufficient appropriation be made, which, in connection with the unexpended balance of the amount appropriated by the Thirty-first General Assembly for water supply, will enable the Board of Control to establish a pumping station, with all necessary equipment, at a convenient location on the river bottom, from which water shall be conducted to the institution.

We are led to recommend this action by our belief, based on reliable experiments, analyses and estimates, to us submitted, that in this way an abundant supply of pure water, good for all purposes, may be obtained, and that when established, such a plant could be operated at much less expense than the pumps at the deep wells. The Board of Control has asked for an appropriation to build two wings to the new Custodial building. While recognizing the pressing need of such additions, we have felt that the need of an adequate water supply was imperative. We would therefore recommend that provision be made for only one of the proposed wings at this time.

We believe the Board of Control's request for special appropriations is reasonable and should be complied with, so far as consistent with existing conditions. The changes we indicate are mainly based upon the hypothesis that our suggestion that appropriation be made for one wing to the new Custodial building be adopted.

We recommend that appropriations be made as follows:

Wing for new Custodial building.....	$30,000
Furniture and furnishings for new Custodial building.....	7,000
New boilers	10,000
Engine and generator	8,000
Tunnel to new Custodial building for boys.....	3,000
Paints and painting	1,500
Beds and bedding	1,500
Furniture and furnishings.....	1,500

Contingent and repair fund	10,000
Water supply	25,000
Total	$97,500

Respectfully submitted,

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR BOYS AT ELDORA.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your joint committee, to visit and examine into the needs of the Iowa Industrial School for Boys, beg leave to submit the following report:

On the 24th inst. we visited said institution and spent the entire day examining the same. We found Assistant Superintendent Kuser in charge, Superintendent Drake being temporarily absent on account of sickness. We were very courteously received, and very kindly and hospitably entertained by Mr. Kuser and his good wife. In passing through the different departments of the school, its present condition and future needs were freely and frankly discussed by the officers and employes; and information desired by the committee, or that was deemed beneficial thereto, was promptly and truthfully given.

The institution is kept in good condition, and all its affairs are well and economically administered. There are about 475 boys kept there, ranging in age from nine to twenty-one years—the bad, the vicious and worst mingling with the better and the good. The discipline and order maintained is good; the studies and employment provided, suitable and very appropriate. The people of Iowa hardly realize that 85 per cent of the boys who pass through this institution become honorable, useful and law-abiding citizens.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We are constrained to suggest that the bad or worst be kept separate, for a while at least, from the better or good. We realize that this is a hard problem; but the necessity for keeping temptation and wickedness from those who are liable to yield thereto, and be influenced thereby, is great, and demands our interest. Just how this is to be accomplished we leave to the hands of the Board of Control.

HOSPITAL.

Your committee is of the opinion that there is plenty of room in the large, or administration, building for all hospital purposes needed in connection with the institution. Suitable rooms could be obtained for such purpose upon the third floor thereof. We recommend that a proper operating room be prepared and equipped therein, and one for dispensing and storing apothecary supplies.

RAILWAY SWITCH.

The institution ought to be connected by a switch or siding with the railways of Eldora. Your committee believes that by reason of the large amount of freight received in car-load lots, aggregating 250 to 300 cars per annum, it is folly to transfer it by team from the different freight yards of the town. In this connection, the loss to the State in demurrage charges and by theft must be considered. The grading and right of way required in this instance would not be unusual or expensive; and we urge that such proceedings be at once commenced as will result in giving the institution railway connections.

THE FARM.

The premises pertaining to this institution consist of 840 acres, parts of which are sandy, with some gravel banks. Other portions are low and subject to overflow. The low land is being tiled, and is expected to be, when so tiled, very productive.

The heifer calves should be raised and added to the herd whence the dairy supplies are obtained, that the same may be maintained at its proper size without buying cows thereafter from time to time. We believe that a farm that size should produce stock sufficient for all purposes of such an institution.

The teams, harness and wagons the inmates used did not impress your committee as being in such a state of repair as is befitting the State of Iowa.

We trust that the scientific knowledge the State has at Ames be applied to the farming of these premises, and if possible make them more productive. We believe the great agricultural institute of the State should produce stock for use at the State institutions, and that the farms operated by the State should be brought under the influence thereof and become models of scientific agricultural operations, as well as a source of greater income.

THE TRADES.

There is an attempt to teach some of the trades, not so elaborate nor on such a scale as in the judgment of the committee they should be taught. They have a very neat printing plant and were doing some very good work there. The report of the superintendent was printed there and it speaks well for the boys who did it. Why the plant is not utilized more by the State, and thus save large sums annually, is one of those puzzling questions that cannot be harmonized with economy and ordinary business principles. A better use of the results of the manual training in the institution should be had.

RELATING TO FURNISHINGS.

Your committee insists that out of the sum recommended herein for "furniture and furnishings," there be taken a sufficient amount to provide feather pillows for all the beds of the institution, and that this be done immediately.

APPROPRIATIONS RECOMMENDED.

Operating room and medical supplies.....	$ 1,000.00
Drain tile	2,000.00
Repairs to barn	500.00
Fencing	500.00
Greenhouse and connections	3,000.00
Furniture and furnishings	1,000.00
Live stock—horses, cattle etc.	1,000.00
Poultry house	600.00
Band and orchestra	300.00
Agricultural implements	300.00
Lectures and entertainments	300.00
Contingent and repair fund	5,000.00
Total	$ 15,500.00

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AT MITCHELLVILLE.

To the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your joint committee appointed to visit the Industrial School for Girls at Mitchellville, beg leave to submit the following report as the result of their investigation.

First, we found an overcrowded condition in the School, as will be seen from the following:

There are two hundred and forty (240) girls in this School, they are divided up in four families (each in charge of a Matron) which are called Homes.

Home No. 1 intended to accommodate	40	has	54
Home No. 2 intended to accommodate	40	has	52
Home No. 3 intended to accommodate	40	has	61
Home No. 4 intended to accommodate	50	has	68
	170		235
In Hospital			5
Total			240

This shows a total of seventy persons more than they can accommodate, or care for carefully. And notwithstanding this overcrowded condition, the discipline and mannerism is most excellent. Most of the buildings should be painted, exterior and interior, and many of the floors relaid. Some of the old board walks have been replaced by permanent cement walks. This should be continued until all the walks in the Campus, and about the grounds, are made of cement, which would make them permanent and not perishable.

There is some stock on the farm, both horses and cattle, that should be disposed of, because of age. These should be sold and younger animals put in their place that would be more profitable.

The Administration Building asked for in the report of the Superintendent of June 30, 1906, we do not think is so urgently needed at this time, as a building for another Home, so that the girls may be properly cared for.

There is a grand work being done in this School by the Superintendent, his wife and their assistants, and that the cause demands, and ought to have a liberal appropriation by the State.

We therefore recommend that the sum of thirty-five thousand ($35,000.00) dollars be appropriated, for the immediate needs of this School. And that it be applied as follows:

For the Erection of a New Home.....	$25,000.00
For the Painting of Buildings.....	1,800.00
For the Making of Permanent Walks.....	1,500.00
For the Horses and Cattle.....	1,000.00
For the Repairing Superintendent's Cottage.	1,000.00
For the Books and Periodicals.....	500.00
For the Chaplain's Fund	300.00
For the Dental Equipment	200.00
For the Contingent and Repairs.....	3,700.00

Total$35,000.00

INSANE HOSPITAL AT MOUNT PLEASANT.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your committee, appointed to visit the State Hospital at Mount Pleasant, beg leave to submit the following report:

We visited the above named institution on Thursday, January 24, 1907, and made as thorough an examination of the buildings and investigation of the conditions surrounding the inmates as was possible in the limited time at our disposal. Several hours were spent in going through the different wards of the Hospital, each ward being visited, after which we made a trip over the farm connected with the institution, looking over the farm buildings, live stock, and later visiting the machine shops and kitchens.

Your committee has no hesitancy in saying that the management of this institution is excellent. The State is to be congratulated on having a superintendent at Mount Pleasant of such capabilities as has been shown by Dr. C. F. Applegate, and both he and the members of his staff deserve the highest praise for the efficiency with which they have administered the affairs of this Hospital. In each ward and in all departments there were abundant evidences of thorough and smooth working system.

We are convinced that the patients are treated with every possible consideration.

At the time of our visit, there were between 1,000 and 1,100 inmates in the Mount Pleasant Hospital. The main building was not intended to accommodate this number of patients, and as a consequence, some of the wards were badly crowded, the lack of room for proper sleeping accommodations in many of the wards being very apparent. In all parts of the building, order and quiet prevailed, and the extreme neatness of the wards and patients was noticeable. In most cases, the patients seemed submissive to, and fond of, the nurses and physicians in attendance, and a general air of contentment was marked throughout the institution.

The main building of the Hospital is in good physical condition, though new repairs, especially in the way of repairs to the inside walls and ceilings, are needed.

The farm in connection with the Hospital consists of 917 acres. It is in a good state of cultivation, and the superintendent informed us that the products of this farm in the way of stock, grain and vegetables raised during the past year, amounted to $28,000, the price of products being based on local market values. Most of the labor on the farm is performed by the inmates, though the amount of labor they perform is, we understand, optional with the patients. The wisdom of operating large farms in connection with the State institutions of this character has been fully demonstrated, and the policy of the Board of Control to enlarge the State farms by the purchase of adjacent land, meets with our approval.

The following is a list of the appropriations asked by the Board of Control for the biennial period. Opposite each amount is the amount recommended by your committee:

	Amount Asked by Board of Control.	Amount Recom- mended by Committee.
For women's infirmary and equipment.....	$ 65,000.00	$ 65,000.00
For hospital switch	15,000.00
For converting hay barn to farmers' lodge..	10,000.00	10,000.00
For tunnels	7,500.00	7,500.00
For land	4,700.00	4,700.00
For furniture and furnishings.....	4,000.00	2,000.00
For painting	3,000.00
For tiling land	1,000.00	500.00
For fencing	1,000.00	500.00
For books and periodicals	500.00	500.00
For kitchen equipment	500.00	500.00
For contingent and repair fund	10,000.00	10,000.00
Total	$122,200.00	$101,200.00

Your committee, owing to the crowded condition of the women's section of the Hospital, and the almost total lack of facilities to care for sickness, would earnestly recommend that the sum of $65,000 be appropriated for the Women's Infirmary. There should be no delay in the erection of this building. There is an infirmary for men, and during our visit we found it filled with patients who need special medical attention, but there is nothing of this kind for the women who are sick. Various wards in the women's section of the main building are at present devoted to bedridden cases at great inconvenience to the inmates. We respectfully urge that an appropriation of sufficient amount to build this infirmary be made during the present session of the Legislature.

The sum of $7,500 is asked by the Board of Control to complete the tunneling. In case of the erection of the infirmary, the full amount asked should be granted.

For converting a hay barn to a farmers' lodge, $10,000 is asked. This is a first-class brick building in good condition, being used at present for the storage of hay, grain and vegetables. The Board of Control estimates that for the sum of $10,000, this barn may be converted into a farmers' lodge, making a suitable place to care for at least one hundred inmates of the institution of the class who do farm work, and thus reducing the congested condition at this time prevailing in the wards of the main building. A lodge or cottage of this character is needed and your committee deems that this appropriation is advisable. A new building for this purpose of proper size would cost the State at least $35,000.

The Board recommends an appropriation of $4,700 to purchase additional land and your committee concurs in this recommendation. The intention is to purchase an additional seventy-five acres adjoining the farm connected with the institution. The Board have had on hand for some years in an unexpended balance of $2,800, originally appropriated for the purchase of land. This amount, together with the sum asked for, will be sufficient to make the above purchase. The land is needed for additional pasture and for farming purposes.

There is need for additional furniture in most of the wards. Your committee realizes the impossibility of granting in full all of the askings, and have seen fit to cut the item of $4,000 asked for this purpose to $2,000. This amount will not purchase the furniture that is needed, but will be something toward relieving the most pressing needs.

Much has been done in the way of tiling the land. The Board asked for $1,000 to do additional work in this direction. Your committee has reduced this amount to $500; a like amount is recommended by the Board for fencing, and a similar cut in this item has been made by your committee.

For books and periodicals, recommended that the appropriation of $500 asked for, be granted. The patients find much pleasure in the books, newspapers and periodicals about the institution. This is practically the only thing in the way of luxury that they have.

We recommend that $500, the full amount asked for by the Board, be granted for kitchen equipment.

For contingent and repair fund, we recommend that $10,000, the full amount asked for, be appropriated. Under no circumstances should this amount be reduced, covering as it does, the contingent expenses and repairs of the institution for two years.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. JACKSON,
J. H. DARRAH,

HOSPITAL FOR INSANE AT CLARINDA.

To the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Your committee, appointed to visit the State Hospital at Clarinda, beg leave to submit the following report:

We arrived in Clarinda on the evening of Wednesday, January 22d, and after supper were driven to the hospital in carriages provided by the institution, accompanied by Dr. Max E. Witte, the superintendent. We spent a very pleasant and profitable evening in the office of the superintendent, talking over matters of interest to the institution and becoming somewhat acquainted with the work it is doing and its wants for the next biennial period.

Thursday morning we began the work of inspection, which was continued during the entire day, and with such a degree of thoroughness as was possible in so short a time as we had to devote to the work.

We made special effort to ascertain for ourselves, by personal observation and inquiry, the actual condition of the patients, the facilities for properly caring for them, and the methods employed for the comfort and relief of this most unfortunate class of wards of the State. We spent most of our time in passing through and inspecting the various wards, and noted with much satisfaction the splendid sanitary condition of the same, and the facilities for administering to the sick and those unable to be up and about.

The hospital wards in both the male and female departments are in good condition, and it is our judgment that the patients are receiving the very best of medical attention. The men's wards are not overcrowded, owing to the fact that but recently a cottage was built by the State, which relieved the heretofore crowded condition, and will prove ample for the needs of the institution for some years to come. We found some of the ladies' wards crowded, and, in many instances, the connecting corridors were utilized for sleeping apartments, some containing from eight to ten beds. We discovered that under the existing conditions this is absolutely essential, as there is no other means at hand for the relief of the over-crowded wards.

We visited the kitchen department and saw the food being prepared for the noon-day meal. This is prepared in as cleanly and sanitary a manner as it is possible to be done anywhere or under any conditions. The food is wholesome and supplied in liberal quantities. We believe the Board of Control follows the policy of purchasing only the best of everything, and doubtless in the end this is the more economical plan.

After having made a thorough inspection of the kitchen, laundry, bakery, cold storage department and the store, all of which we find in first class condition, we then turned our attention to the outbuildings. We found an excellent workshop equipped with suitable machinery for the manufacture and repair of such articles as are needed in and about the institution.

A splendid greenhouse, in which were numerous plants and flowers in bloom, a fire department equipped with the necessary carts, hose, ladders, etc., for use about the premises.

We then were conducted into the engine room of the power plant. Here we found a condition prevailing which we consider needs immediate relief. The smokestack, being of small dimensions and of inferior capacity, was not carrying off the smoke and gas, a great deal of which came back into the engine room, causing a condition which rendered it almost impossible for any one to remain longer than thirty minutes to an hour without going to the fresh air.

Upon inquiry, we learned that the State owns about 860 acres of land, which is connected with or adjacent to the institution. Upon this land during the last year, we gleaned from the report of the superintendent, there was raised more than $25,000 worth of grain, fruits and vegetables, all of which has been or will be consumed in the institution, thereby materially reducing the cost of support.

Superintendent Dr. Max E. Witte afforded us every facility possible, and was ready with any necessary information, in order that we might obtain thorough and complete knowledge with reference to the condition of affairs, and the situation as it actually is. We believe Dr. Witte and his estimable wife to be the right people in the right place. We also highly commend his assistants, Doctors Mackin, Moon and Leader, the latter a woman physician, who are ably assisting him in the important work of caring for the unfortunate.

On Thursday evening we attended an entertainment given for the benefit of the patients, in the large auditorium. This was given by some of the attendants and was participated in by a few of the patients, and seemed to give unlimited pleasure to those who were well enough to be present. Some such program as this is given two or three times a week during the winter season, and in the summer, band concerts and other forms of amusement are employed to interest, amuse and divert the minds of the patients.

The Board of Control is asking and recommends the following appropriations for the next biennial period:

1. For cottage for women	$ 75,000.00
2. For engine and generator	8,000.00
3. For sewer, tunnel and connections	4,000.00
4. For painting	4,000.00
5. For plumbing and fixtures	2,000.00
6. For contingent and repair fund	10,000.00
7. For smokestack	7,500.00

As will be seen by the foregoing report, the women's wards are seriously congested, and if item No. 1 is allowed and the appropriation made, it will be at least two years before the building could be completed and ready for occupancy, and by that time, with the natural increase in the population, the condition would be very serious. We therefore recommend item No. 1.

The engine and generator in use at present is sufficient under ordinary conditions, but as the old engine which has been used on former occasions in cases of emergency, is now absolutely useless except for scrap iron, we believe it is necessary to the safety of the institution that another engine and generator be installed at once. We recommend item No. 2.

Should item No. 1 be allowed and appropriation made therefor, item No. 3 would immediately become a necessity, as this item is intended to connect the proposed new cottage with the heating and light plant. Therefore we recommend item No. 3.

As is always the case in a large institution of this kind, there must necessarily be a great deal of painting done every year, in order to keep the buildings in a proper condition and state of preservation. Upon inquiry, we learn that it takes about $2,000 every year for this item. Therefore we recommend for the biennial period the amount opposite Item No. 4.

Two thousand dollars is not considered too much to anticipate as the amount for plumbing and fixtures during the next biennial period. This item, if allowed, would undoubtedly be used in the repair of the natural wear and tear of the plumbing already installed. We recommend item No. 5.

Item No. 6 is the amount that is usually needed by institutions of this kind to keep up the natural wear and tear of the buildings, and to provide also against contingencies which may arise and are not generally foreseen or anticipated. We have inquired of the Board of Control, and are informed that this item is not too large and therefore we recommend same.

Item No. 7, as stated elsewhere in the report, is an absolute necessity, and the amount asked for is the estimate of the State architect for such a chimney which would furnish sufficient capacity for the work required of it. We therefore earnestly recommend item No. 7.

We were impressed with this thought, while inspecting the institution, that the management is not asking for anything that is not actually needed. We believe that the success and the future efficiency of this institution will depend largely upon the liberal manner in which the Appropriations Committees may deal with this recommendation.

We cannot close our report without a word of congratulation to the State upon the able manner in which this institution is conducted, both as to the superintendent and assistants and the Board of Control. Their methods are strictly up-to-date and business-like and we believe that no more economically administered State institution can be found anywhere in the United States.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN L. BLEAKLY,
EDWIN G. MOON,
THOMAS GENEVA,
J. R. SMITH,

Committee.

INSANE HOSPITAL AT INDEPENDENCE.

To the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your joint committee to visit the State Hospital for the Insane at Independence begs leave to submit the following report:

Your committee, with Senator Turner and Representative Springer, visited the Hospital February 1, 1907, and inspected the institution as well as possible in the limited time we were there. We found the buildings and grounds in far better condition than we had expected to find them, considering that some of the buildings were erected nearly forty years ago.

The institution is asking for the following appropriations:

For Infirmary and Equipment.....$125,000

For Deep Well and Pump.....	12,000
For Engine and Generator.....	8,000
For Electrical Re-wiring.....	8,000
For Tunnel to Grove Hall.....	4,000
For Completion of Ventilating System.....	5,000
For Painting.....	3,000
For Tiling Farm	3,000
For Addition to Dry Room.....	2,000
For Repairing Greenhouse, Add'l.....	1,500
For Laundry Washers.....	1,500
For Iron Working Lathe.....	500
For Contingent Repair Fund.....	10,000

Total$183,500

Regarding the appropriations asked for, your committee would make the following recommendations:

Item 1. While the needs of an Infirmary Building would be desirable, yet, its establishment at this time is not absolutely necessary, and owing to the limited amount available for extraordinary appropriations we can not approve an appropriation for this item at this time.

Item 2. After carefully considering the water supply, your committee were unanimous in their opinion that the quality of water furnished by the City of Independence is as good as would be procured from a deep well, and that the price charged, viz., six cents per thousand gallons, is cheaper than it would be possible to pump the same from a deep well. We make this latter statement after consulting some of the best engineers in the State who are familiar with this class of wells, and we do not approve an appropriation for this purpose.

Item 3. Engine and Generator. This item we recommend should be granted.

Item 4. Electrical Re-wiring. This item, while desirable, yet it is not absolutely necessary at this time, and we would recommend that no appropriation be made for this purpose.

Item 5. Tunnel to Grove Hall. This item can be dispensed with until some future time.

Item 6. Completing Ventilating system. This your committee would recommend be granted.

Item 7. Painting. We would recommend that two thousand dollars ($2,000) be appropriated for this item.

Item 8. Tiling Farm. Owing to the inclemency of the weather your committee did not inspect the needs of this item, but believe that an appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500), at this time for tiling such lands as most need tiling would be advisable, and recommend the sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) for this purpose.

Item 9. Addition to Dry Room. We would recommend that the entire amount, viz., two thousand dollars ($2,000), asked for this purpose, also, the entire amount, fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500), asked for Item Number 11, laundry washers, be granted.

Item 10. Repairing Greenhouse. The Thirty-first General Assembly appropriated one thousand dollars ($1,000) for this work, but this amount was wholly inadequate to do the work as it should be done. The amount estimated necessary to rebuild the Greenhouse and addition will be twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500), and we would recommend that the amount asked, fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500), be granted.

Item 12. Iron Working Lathe. This item is not necessary at this time.

Item 13. Contingent Fund. We recommend that the full amount asked for be granted.

In concluding our report we can not but feel that the Board of Control and the State are to be congratulated on having so able and competent a Superintendent as Dr. W. P. Crumbacker at the head of this, one of the largest and most important of the State Institutions.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

INSANE HOSPITAL AT CHEROKEE.

To the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives:

Your joint committee, appointed to visit the Hospital for Insane at Cherokee, met at the institution on January 24, 1907, and begs leave to make the following report:

The committee would say that while the appropriation for every item recommended by the Board of Control could in our judgment be profitably used, we still think that several of the items may be omitted from the appropriation without discommoding the comfort of the inmates of the institution.

We commend the cleanly and orderly manner in which the institution is conducted.

We were impressed with one feature in the hospital which we consider on the basis of a necessity, and that is the overcrowding of its capacity. It seems to us, with the rapid annual addition of inmates, the time has come when the State should make the necessary arrangements for their proper accommodation. The institution has been overcrowded, and has been so reported by examining committees of the General Assembly. A committee reported to the Thirty-first General Assembly that an appropriation be made to begin a building to relieve the congested condition then existing. We recommend that an appropriation now be made large enough to complete and furnish such a building. We are convinced that by the time this building is completed the population of the hospital will have increased to a number sufficient to fill this new building to its capacity. In this connection we think it proper to state that the plant is abundantly equipped to furnish a new building with the necessary heat and water without extra expense on account of these items

There are, however, minor items which we regard as necessary, as follows:

Concerning the item of painting, we regard that inside painting is necessary, but can be dispensed with at this time. The outside painting of the metal portions of the building we deem necessary, as the same have not been painted since the buildings were completed. This is imperative on account of the present condition.

We found the institution fairly accommodated with carpets and rugs, which have been in use in nearly every instance for about five years and which are, so far as we examined, in a worn and unsatisfactory condition. We believe a small appropriation should be made for this item at this time.

We believe that the amount asked for by the Board should be allowed for books and periodicals.

After having examined the institution and its needs as thoroughly as possible in the time at our command, we unhesitatingly recommend the following appropriations for the institution as being in our judgment urgently necessary at this time:

	Amount Recommended.
For infirmary and equipment.....	$125,000.00
For painting	2,000.00
For carpets and rugs	500.00
For books and periodicals	500.00
For contingent and repair fund	10,000.00
Total	$138,000.00

HOSPITAL FOR INEBRIATES AT KNOXVILLE.

To the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your joint committee, appointed to visit the State Hospital for Inebriates at Knoxville, begs leave to make the following report:

Dr. W. S. Osborn, superintendent of the hospital, although comparatively a young man, has had extensive experience in some of the charitable institutions of this and other States, and the committee believe he is thoroughly equipped and competent to discharge the duties of superintendent.

We visited the hospital January 24, 1907, and found that the institution invoiced, June 30, 1906, about $150,000, all told. On a tour of inspection of all the buildings, we found them in very excellent sanitary condition. Cleanliness appeared in all quarters and we were especially impressed by the good order of things in general. The old building that was abandoned by the Industrial School for the Blind we found in good repair; it is used for a dining room and kitchen and the Chapel is located in the north wing. It will accommodate about one hundred inmates. Only those who are easily managed are allowed in this part.

We find that the Board of Control have erected an Administration Building which meets all requirements. They have, also, a Detention Building with three floors and a basement, built of brick, stone and cement; it is fireproof. The windows are barred and it makes a very safe retreat for dangerous characters.

They have a substantial power-house constructed of brick, stone and cement. It is equipped with boilers, dynamos and engines ample for the needs of the institution. The new farm barn, just built at a cost of $4,000, has a brick basement and is modern in every respect.

The water question is solved. They have two wells 350 feet deep, finished in the limestone rock. They were started with eight and finished with six-inch casings. The wells test 1,700 gallons of water per hour. It is of good quality, being about neutral. We deem it advisable to erect a standpipe so that sufficient fire protection could be had in case of emergency. The sewage plant installed last year appears to be working satisfactorily.

We find that but little of the land is fenced sufficiently well to turn live stock. We would recommend to the State Board that this improvement be made as soon as possible.

There are one hundred and sixty-three acres of land connected with the hospital. Some of this is very level and needs tile drainage; other parts are somewhat rough, especially the last tract acquired, it having had a race track on it at one time and it will take some work to level it down. The question of more land for agricultural purposes is a vital one. It is our opinion that there should be fields enough to accommodate as much live stock as it is practical for the institution to keep. We believe they should produce their own meats; therefore we recommend the purchase of a tract of land for a hog pasture. It is our opinion that the purchase of more land will be instrumental in the future development of the hospital.

Knoxville is without doubt the Eldorado of Iowa for those who fall by the wayside.

The hospital has a capacity of two hundred and twenty-five. We found about one hundred and fifty inmates, with nothing to do but pass the time away and grow fat at the expense of the State. The superintendent informs us that it costs about $23 per capita per month to maintain it in its present method of procedure. About seventy-five per cent of the inmates are able-bodied men and are capable of doing work enough to pay their way. We would recommend that labor of some kind be furnished to those who are able to work. We would suggest the purchase of a tract of land to the north of the buildings that will afford a stone quarry. Pulverized rock would be merchantable for macadamizing purposes.

The superintendent informs us that about ten per cent of the cases committed receive permanent benefit. There is an element that is sent to the hospital that does not come under its jurisdiction. A great many hardened criminals who have been in the penitentiary, who are termed "sleepers" around the cities, are sent there to be rid of them. The influence these persons have on young fellows who have gone wrong for the first time is not the best, and we recommend that this class of patients be sent to other places.

We, your committee, recognize the fact that the institution is a new one. That all of its departments have not been developed as would seem practical. We have the utmost confidence in the Board of Control to adjust things to a practical business basis as soon as possible.

We would recommend the appropriations asked for by the Board.

For land	$ 10,000.00
For additional fire protection	500.00
For fencing	500.00
For walks and improvements of grounds	500.00
For telephone system, additional	500.00
For contingent and repair fund	2,000.00

Total	$ 14,000.00

PENITENTIARY AT FORT MADISON.

To the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and the Members of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your joint committee, appointed to visit the State Penitentiary at Fort Madison, respectfully submits the following report:

During the day of January 24th, we visited every department of that institution. We found that the State possesses but four acres of ground, which lay in front of the Warden's residence, for the purpose of producing food for the convicts. Another piece of land of the same size and adjoining and lying between it and the river, the Board of Control recommends the State to purchase. This recommendation meets the approval of your committee. It could be used to great advantage to produce vegetables for the convicts and also furnish out-door labor for them. Parties might purchase the property and use it for purposes that would be a great detriment, not only to the appearance of the prison but might become an actual nuisance. We understand this land can be gotten for $4,000.00 which, in our estimation, would be reasonable.

The Board recommends the purchasing of more land and asks $12,000.00 for that purpose. We are informed that land about a mile from the prison could be gotten for $100.00 an acre. We believe such an investment would be economy and bring in good returns. A number of cows could be kept, food raised for them and milk supplied for the convicts. It is now supplied entirely by milk dealers. The farming and care of the stock could all be done by the convicts and give them healthy out-door employment.

The new hospital is completed and in use. It is occupied by five convict patients, who are getting as good care and careful attention as patients in private or public hospitals.

We are much pleased with the water supply furnished from wells less than one hundred feet deep. It is abundant for every want of the institution and is superior for drinking use. We have to say in regard to the cell house what every visiting committee has said for a number of years: it is not what it should be for the conditions of health. It is more than a half century old, except the top row of cells. The cells are narrow, three feet and three inches wide, and scarcely seven feet high. They are built of stone and absorb moisture and at times are necessarily damp. Any material that will absorb moisture will retain the germs of disease and consequently increase the risk of health. The mortar between the stones breaks and crumbles and leaves places for the lodgment of dust that might float in the air or dirt of various kinds could accumulate in such places regardless of the most scrupulous care and cleanliness. We recommend that a new cell house be built. A portion of our committee thinks the amount asked for could not be used for that purpose within the next biennial period, as there is much preparatory work to be done before such an enterprise could be begun. Such a building would have to be built outside the present inclosure, as there is no room for it within the walls as they now stand. So a new wall will have to be built, enlarging the grounds as they now are. And at the north end, there is a hill forty or more feet high, a portion of which has to be removed to give place to the wall. The State architect says that the removing of a sufficient portion of the hill, the building of the wall can be done by the middle of the coming summer. If so, probably the entire amount, $90,000, can be expended for the purpose wanted within the coming biennial period. While we do not wish to impede in any way the construction of this much-needed improvement, probably it would be well to recommend the amount asked for and, if not expended within the biennial period, the remainder could be carried to the next period.

We are surprised at the energy exhibited by the convicts at their work. They are making furniture and farm and garden implements. Each one worked as though financially interested and we soon learned that they were not partners, but sharing in the dividends. They are paid for over work; one convict told us he made $20 per month in that way. A member of the Board of Control said that some of them make as high as $28 per month. Such an arrangement has an admirable effect upon the discipline and morals of the inmates of our penitentiary. The classification as to deportment also goes a great way in stimulating the convict in being obedient and subject to discipline. Those who have the least respect for the rules are obliged to wear the striped suits and are denied privileges that others enjoy. The next are required to dress in checked suits, and the best in plain gray. We were assured that these methods have made the management of the penitentiaries much easier, and we could not but conclude that if the State would adopt the indeterminate sentence, it would again be making a step upward and forward in our criminal management.

We were pleased to have the privilege of attending the night school for the convicts, at which attendance is not compulsory. About a hundred and sixty were enrolled, but the school room is not sufficient to accommodate but sixty. They exhibited more interest in their studies than is exhibited in our public schools. A convict was their teacher, and when a question was asked, many hands went up volunteering an answer. There was no distinction in color; blacks and whites sat side by side, and each seemed equally interested. We think some way should be provided for more school room. What those men store up from their books, while there, will go a long way toward making them better men, and confinement in prison without changing the character for good of the one confined is useless.

The chapel was undergoing repairs and was being enlarged. The Chaplain said the inmates took much interest in the services and that they exerted a healthy influence. They are compelled to attend such services.

An excellent library of over 6,000 volumes is provided for the inmates and they make excellent use of it, we were told.

The State hires about four hundred of its convicts to manufacturing companies at sixty cents per day. To your committee, this does not seem as much as it ought to be. The State feeds, clothes, and lodges the convicts, and the companies employing them get as much work from each one as though they were paying from $1.50 to $3.00 for free labor, which is not easy to get, even at those figures. We see no reason why the State should not get approximately at least what free labor commands.

The Warden, we believe, to be the right man in the right place and we have no criticism to make on the discipline of the institution or the management of the State's property. Warden Jones has had command of the institution for thirteen years and of the various committees that have visited there in that time, each had words of commendation for his services. His annual salary is $2,000 per year, without perquisites. Before the Board of Control came into existence, the Warden had his house help from some handy convict. The Board of Control decided that was a perquisite and that the Warden must afterwards pay for such help. He also is compelled to furnish his own table supplies, if no special appropriation is made for that purpose. The committee of the Twenty-sixth General Assembly recommend that $250 be allowed for that purpose. Other committees recommended that $500 be allowed. These recommendations were made when the Warden was getting his house help from the State, so he really then was getting more for his services than he now is. Your committee recommends that his salary be increased to $3,000 per year and that he furnish his own table and house help. After a limited investigation as to the salaries of Wardens of penitentiaries of other States, we think this recommendation reasonable. The appropriation of $2,000 for transportation of prisoners asked for, we believe is the least that should be allowed. The committee of the Twenty-sixth General Assembly recommended $4,500 for that purpose and $7,500 for contingent fund. The amount for the latter purpose, $5,000, now asked for, should be granted.

PENITENTIARY AT ANAMOSA.

To the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your joint committee, appointed to visit the State Penitentiary at Anamosa, beg leave to submit the following report and recommendations:

Immediately upon our arrival at the penitentiary, Warden Barr took us in charge, and we proceeded to look into the condition, management and requirements of the institution, and we made as thorough an investigation and inspection of the management, grounds, buildings and quarries, as our limited time would permit. We consider the management, system and discipline to be of the very highest order; the grounds, buildings and equipments are in excellent condition. The new cell house is not yet complete, but will be soon. We also found that the floor of the dining room would be completed in a short time; it is of dressed stone, and will last for generations. We find the prison would be admirably adapted for a reformatory, in case the State should adopt the reformatory plan. We think there is sufficient room to accommodate all who might come there. We are also of the opinion that the prisoners should be provided with work, and in order to do this, we would recommend the appropriation for the extension of the printing department, and we would also recommend that the prisoners be taught trades, so that when they are paroled or discharged from the institution, they may be competent to earn a livelihood for themselves.

We found Warden Barr and assistants, gentlemen in every respect, and they are highly esteemed by the prisoners themselves. There seems to be a reciprocal feeling existing between the Warden and those over whom he has charge.

We recommend that the following amount be appropriated as scheduled below:

APPROPRIATIONS ASKED FOR BY THE BOARD OF CONTROL.

	Amount Asked.
For salaries of foreman	$ 8,000.00
For addition to printing and binding outfit.....	5,000.00
For completing cell bank	3,000.00
For Deputy Warden's office	1,500.00
For roof for old boiler room	2,000.00
For derrick supplies	1,200.00
For lime and cement	1,500.00
For transportation of discharged prisoners.....	1,500.00
For tools for shop and quarry	600.00
For freight on stone	1,000.00
For powder and fuse	500.00
For sewer pipe	400.00
For contingent and repair fund	5,000.00
Total	$ 31,200.00

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL AT CEDAR FALLS.

To the Thirty-second General Assembly of Iowa:

Your committee, appointed to visit the State Normal, respectfully report that all the members of the committee met at Cedar Falls on Thursday morning, January 24th, and went immediately to the school. We first visited the auditorium, where we found practically the entire student and faculty membership assembled for chapel exercises. The deep-seated earnestness, the evidence of a purpose to obtain an education rather than to have a "lark of a time" in spending the "Governor's" money, so apparent in the faces of the young people, was an inspiration to the members of the committee. A general air of studiousness and decorum was everywhere manifest, and the notion (now apparently somewhat old foggyish) that education is a matter of labor and discipline and not a matter for purchase or inheritance, seemed to prevail in the school. The affection in which the president of the school is held and the exalted life he lives before and among the young people are important elements in character building.

We found not only in the student body these pleasing evidences of high purpose and good work, but there is about the whole institution a sort of general set or character, a sort of "spick and span" fitness in the arrangement and proportions, the general scheme of the buildings, grounds and equipments, including cleanliness, sanitation, athletics, and calisthenics, that at once strikes the eye and engrosses the thought of the interested observer. A superb plan for a great school seems to have been conceived by somebody and its accomplishment appears to be nearing completion. The present millage allowed the school will doubtless construct and equip the additional buildings necessary to work out this plan.

We found the library and museum in cramped and inadequate quarters. The purpose of the trustees is the immediate construction of a building to cover these two important interests of the school. We examined the plans for the proposed building and they meet with our approval. We therefore recommend that the trustees be authorized to construct the building as contemplated as a new home for the library and museum.

One of the ambitions of the management is to keep all the rooms and hallways as clean as possible, for the health and comfort of all concerned. To accomplish this result, new cement walks and paving are necessary. The location and extent of these proposed walks and paving were pointed out to the committee, and we are of the opinion that the appropriation asked by the trustees for these purposes should be made. The amount asked for library and librarians' salaries is also reasonable and should be allowed.

Respectfully submitted,

STATE UNIVERSITY AT IOWA CITY.

To the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your joint committee, appointed to visit the State University of Iowa at Iowa City, beg leave to submit the following report:

Your committee desires to congratulate the people of the State on the apparent advancement of the University in all lines and departments of its educational work. Its attendance for the year 1904-'05 was 1,560 and for 1905-'06 was 1,815, an increase of eighteen per cent, being a greater per cent of increase than that of any school of like rank and character in the United States. The increase so far this year is over two hundred, the proportionate increase being about the same as that of last year. With this great increase in attendance, the University in all departments is overcrowded, notwithstanding the substantial new buildings that have been erected the past few years. The completion of the new Science building will give relief to some of the departments. The registration, in some instances, has had to be refused on account of lack of room. We think the University is as well managed as the means at command and the system now in vogue will permit, and we feel that the University has become one of the foremost universities of this country. We are particularly gratified with the large and substantial growth of the Graduate College which is the apex of all University work. The enrollment in the Graduate College is larger than that of any of the Western States, exceeding that of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska and Minnesota.

Of the sixty-three leading institutions having different departments in this country, the College of Liberal Arts, as to attendance, stands seventh in size; the College of Law, fourth in size; the College of Medicine, homeopathic and regular combined, stands third in size; the College of Dentistry is first in size; the College of Pharmacy, seventh in size, and the Graduate College, second in size. The summer session, which is a six weeks' term, particularly for high school teachers, principals and superintendents, stands fifth in size in students of Collegiate grade. The summer school last year had two hundred and eighty-two students. The total expenditure for the summer school was $5,546.93. The tuitions received in the summer school was $1,800.00.

The average cost to the State of the education of one student at the University this year will be $97.85. This is calculated on the basis of the annual support fund from the State of $205,500.00 and an attendance of twenty-one hundred, which is the probable number at the end of the year. The average tuition received from students this year will be $28.56, as closely as can be calculated. The average room rent paid by the students is $6.00 per month, approximately. The average rate of board is $2.75 per week.

The Board of Regents of the University have submitted to us an itemized statement of the amounts asked in the way of appropriations, which we herewith insert, and is made a part of this report, namely: Askings from the Thirty-second General Assembly:

Annual appropriations—

Additional annual support.....	$ 60,000	$ 120,000
--------------------------------	-----------	------------

Additional annual, repair and contingent.....	2,500	5,000
Library annual	10,000	20,000
	$ 72,500	$ 145,000
Balance carried over.....		$ 145,000
Special appropriations—
Land for women's dormitory.....	$ 15,000
Land	60,000
Equipment of new Science building, new wing of University hospital, and steam laboratories.....	45,000
Equipment and supplies.....	30,000
Women's building, and equipment of same.....	125,000
Paving and sidewalks.....	5,000
Improvement of grounds.....	8,000
Mechanical stokers, and coal and ash-conveying machinery	10,000
	$ 298,000
Total askings for the biennium.....		$ 443,000

The present annual appropriations already fixed by law for the University amounts to $205,500. We feel that at the present time there should be no additions to the annual appropriations, but whatever appropriations are made by this General Assembly should be special appropriations. We feel that the time is soon at hand when the support of the three educational institutions will be on the millage basis. The Legislature of Michigan, now in session, has increased the millage tax for the support of their Universities from one-fourth mill to one-half mill, thus doubling their appropriation, but we make no recommendations for the millage tax for support by this General Assembly.

The first consideration that the University should receive is that of its support fund; without it, the University would be unable to exist. The large and gratifying growth of the University has necessitated, and will continue to necessitate, a much larger support fund. We feel that the asking of $120,000 additional for support is likely to be all needed before the end of the biennium, but when we take into consideration the many demands on the available funds at the disposal of the General Assembly, we have concluded to recommend a curtailment of this asking of $10,000, and we therefore recommend a special appropriation of $110,000 for support for the ensuing biennium, and we ask that there shall be no curtailment of this amount, as we feel assured that all of this will be needed.

We would recommend a special appropriation of $5,000 for repair and contingent. We would recommend an appropriation of $15,000 for library fund support. (The appropriation last year was $5,000). We find that this appropriation was altogether too small to meet the needs of the University.

As for the special appropriations asked, the first item, "land for women's dormitory," we do not recommend. The second item, "land, $60,000," we find that among the first buildings proposed to be erected out of the millage tax (five years' millage tax voted at last session), is a Law building, which is needed. There is no proper location for such building on the land now owned by the University. To secure the proper site for the Law building will necessitate an expenditure of from $20,000 to $25,000. There are other tracts of land needed by the University in the near future, which at the present time can be purchased at a reasonable price, aggregating about $20,000. This land is situated immediately west of the present campus and is needed to make the campus compact and complete in that direction. We therefore recommend an appropriation of $40,000 for land.

The third item, "equipment of the new Science building, new wing of University Hospital, and steam laboratories, $45,000." The equipment of the new Science building will be extensive. The furnishings for the library will be moved to the Science building when completed. The furnishings for the library, including general library room, shelving and stack room will cost about $10,000. The equipment of the Biology and Natural History Museum and of the Assembly room, having a seating capacity of thirteen hundred, and the equipment for the hospital will greatly exceed the amount asked for, $45,000. We therefore unanimously recommend an appropriation of $45,000.

The next is a request for $30,000 for general equipment throughout the whole University. Under this head will include the equipment of the Law building of $10,000 or $12,000; additional equipment for the different laboratories, and equipment for other departments. We think the request reasonable and would recommend a special appropriation of $30,000.

The next request is for "$125,000 for Women's Building and equipment of same." There are now between six hundred and seven hundred women in attendance at the University. The claim is made that proper accommodations for room and board can not be given to all of this number. The proposed Women's Building would accommodate about one hundred and would render accessible to many others the accommodations as to board in the large dining-room in the proposed building. It is claimed that better care and oversight of the young women attending the University could be made possible by the University. The Regents do not think they have any right, under the provisions of the law, to take any part of the millage tax for the construction of the Women's Building. While there is much to be said in favor of the Women's Building, we feel that the available funds will not permit this appropriation. We therefore do not recommend this appropriation for Women's Building or land therefor at this time.

The next item, "$5,000 Paving and Sidewalks." We think this appropriation necessary and the amount asked very moderate. Provision has been made by the city of Iowa City to pave certain streets on which the University grounds abut, and the work is held up until provision is made by the State to pay its proportionate share of the expense of such paving, amounting to $3,000 and upwards, and about $2,000 will be required for necessary cement walks on the University grounds. We, therefore, recommend that an appropriation of $5,000 be made.

As to the request for $8,000 for the improvement and upkeep of the University grounds, we find that there is considerable grading to be done on the campus, and around the proposed Law Building and on property that has been purchased the past few years, and for the planting and care for shrubbery and trees, that will necessitate a considerable expense. While the amount asked for, $8,000, is probably not excessive and in time will be needed, yet considering the limited funds at the disposal of this General Assembly, your committee would recommend an appropriation of $4,000 for the improvement of the grounds.

The last request, $10,000, for Mechanical Stokers at the general power house. As a business proposition, we feel like recommending this appropriation. The firing is now all done by hand. All experts agree that there is a great material saving in mechanical stoking. The manufacturers will install stokers and guarantee a saving of ten per cent over hand firing, and on this basis the cost would be paid by the saving in the expense in three and one-half years. Many power plants now have mechanical stokers, but we make no recommendation as to this request for $10,000.

PROPOSED NEW BUILDINGS.

The Board of Regents propose to erect the following buildings:

Addition to Engineering Building, estimated cost..	$ 60,000
Law Building	125,000
Physics Building	150,000

These buildings to be erected out of the Millage tax voted at the last session of the Legislature.

The following is a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the University for the year 1905-06, by funds:

Your committee would further report that they visited the site purchased by the Board of Control for the Tuberculosis Hospital, located about six miles north and west of Iowa City. We think the Board of Control should be commended in selecting so favorable a location for the proposed Hospital. The land, consisting of two hundred and eighty acres, is high and dry and easily drained and suitable water available at reasonable depth. The site is located on the Cedar Rapids and Iowa City and Interurban Railway and is easily accessible to the State Bacteriological Laboratory at Iowa City. The service of which Laboratory will be available to the proposed Hospital and a large expense to the State thereby saved.

We would further report that we inspected the Bacteriological Laboratory in connection with the University. During the first year of its existence, the Bacteriological Laboratory examined 3,580 specimens, the second year 5,199, the past quarter 2,625, so that the total number for the third year is likely to be more than 10,000 specimens. Under the efficient direction of the present Bacteriologist the Laboratory has been of great service to all portions of the State. The value of the work done during the quarter amounts to $9,523 based on commercial laboratory rates, or more than $38,000 per year. The Laboratory is receiving $3,500 annually from the State. This amount will be exhausted by April 1, 1907. The increase of work annually is about 100 per cent and as soon as the Tuberculosis Hospital is opened, the work will be greatly increased. We have given the matter careful consideration and would recommend an annual appropriation of $7,000 for the Laboratory. No appropriation can show as great returns as that made to the State Bacteriological Laboratory.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE AT AMES.

To the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House, and Members of the Thirty-second General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Your joint committee, appointed to visit the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, beg leave to submit herewith the following report:

Your committee personally visited the College in a body on January 23, 1907, and spent the entire afternoon and the following day in making an investigation of this great institution.

We found that the institution has made a very gratifying increase in attendance during the present year and that there are nearly two hundred more students enrolled at this time than there were one year ago. The institution has made a most gratifying progress in all lines of work, and it is one that reflects credit not only upon its officers and the management, but the State of Iowa as well.

Your committee was impressed with the fact that while the amount of money already expended upon the institution is large, its immediate demands are great, and that it deserves the cordial support of the citizens of Iowa, and particularly of the General Assembly.

The following is a statement of the amounts requested by the Board of Trustees, and for which appropriations are desired at this time:

ADDITIONS TO ANNUAL SUPPORT FUNDS.

Educational support fund.....	$ 25,000
Equipment fund.....	20,000
Engineering experiment station.....	2,500

DIRECT APPROPRIATIONS.

For completion of heating plants, tunnels, etc.....	$ 100,000
For improvement of water system.....	10,000
For new engineering shop.....	10,000
For remodeling old Engineering Hall for Structural and Hydraulic Laboratory.....	10,000
For General Engineering Laboratory building.....	30,000
For dairy and poultry farm equipment.....	8,000
For Margaret Hall addition.....	45,000
For pure bred stock.....	10,000
For walks and grading.....	10,000

For furnishings for the Hall of Agriculture.....	30,000
For Summer School of the year 1908.....	5,000
Total direct appropriations.....	$ 268,000

EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT FUND.

Your committee found that there has been an increase in attendance of 225 students and that an additional amount is necessary for the educational support fund. We were not able to determine to a nicety just how much of an increase in the support fund is necessary, but your committee concluded after its investigation to recommend that a direct appropriation of $30,000 for the educational support fund be made, $15,000 of it to be available for the school year commencing in the fall of 1907, and the other $15,000 to be available for the school year commencing in the fall of 1908.

EQUIPMENT.

Your committee is of the opinion that it is highly desirable that a large increase in the equipment be made. The wear and tear upon equipment in an institution of this sort is necessarily large and many of the scientific instruments are costly, consequently a thousand dollars does not add very materially to the equipment of the College. Your committee has decided to recommend that a direct appropriation of $20,000 be made for the purpose of purchasing additional equipment.

ENGINEERING EXPERIMENT STATION.

Your committee is of the opinion that in view of the financial condition of the State and the large demands upon the public treasury that no additional appropriation should be made at this time for the Engineering Experiment Station.

HEATING PLANT.

We found that the buildings upon the westerly half of the campus are connected by a tunnel system, in which are placed pipes for the heating of the several buildings. The heat for these buildings is now supplied by a plant at the west end of the campus. This plant also provides the steam for the pumping of the water from the deep well and for the operation of the electric light and power plant. This light plant is of an obsolete type and its use should be abandoned as soon as the same can be done with advantage to the State. The remainder of the large buildings are heated by boilers that are placed in small frame buildings in the rear of the large buildings. The College has recently erected a large building to be used for the purpose of heating all of the College buildings. This building at the present time is supplied with one boiler, and there is in process of installation one electric lighting and power unit. A second unit is highly desirable, as is also an equipment of boilers. It is estimated that about $54,000 will be required for the purpose of completing the tunnel system and installing the pipes and necessary electric wires therein. We find that a second lighting unit will cost about $10,000, and that a system of automatic stokers and conveyers will cost about $10,000. These are both included in the estimate of $100,000 that is presented by the College authorities. Your committee is of the opinion that the present lighting plant can be used for reserve purposes and that the new heating plant can be operated, for the present at least, without the automatic stokers and other appliances that are connected therewith. Under all the circumstances, your committee recommend an appropriation of $75,000, to be used in completing the steam tunnels and supplying the new heating plant with boilers and other appliances. It will become necessary for a future General Assembly to make provision for another lighting unit, and also for automatic stokers.

WATER SYSTEM.

We found that the water supply at the College is inadequate to supply the demands of the College, and that some provision should be made for an increase. The principal source of supply at the present time is the deep well, and the pump that is used in raising the same is subject to frequent breakages, thereby endangering the State's property and subjecting the College management to great embarrassment. It is the purpose of the College authorities to install an air lift, and your committee is of the opinion that this is the most practical way of increasing the water supply. We therefore recommend that the request for $10,000 to be used for this purpose be granted.

NEW ENGINEERING SHOP.

In the old Engineering Hall, we found the equipment of the machine shop installed. We found also that while the Engineering Department has increased several hundred in attendance that the Engineering shop is no larger now than it was when perhaps two hundred students were in the Engineering Department. We are of the opinion that justice to the Engineering Department of the College requires that a new Engineering shop shall be at once erected, and we recommend that $10,000 be appropriated therefor.

REMODELING OF ENGINEERING HALL.

The Engineering Hall should be remodeled at an early date for a Structural and Hydraulic Laboratory, as the building at the present time is not in a good state of repair, and the demands of the College are such as that suitable quarters should be prepared for the structural and hydraulic work. In view of immediate necessities, however, and the great demands of other institutions, we have concluded to recommend that the request of the College authorities be not granted at this time.

GENERAL ENGINEERING LABORATORY BUILDING.

Your committee is of the opinion that this building should hereafter be erected from the millage tax. We do not recommend a general appropriation.

DAIRY AND POULTRY FARM EQUIPMENT.

Your committee is of the opinion that a very considerable amount of equipment should be added to the dairy and poultry farm, and we recommend that an appropriation of $8,000 be made therefor.

MARGARET HALL ADDITION.

Margaret Hall is the dormitory used by the lady students of the College, and the attendance of young ladies has far outgrown the facilities afforded by this building. In the past year, a number of young women have refused to attend the College because of the fact that they could not secure accommodations in the ladies' dormitory. This is a condition of affairs that in the judgment of your committee should not be permitted long to continue. We do not believe, however, that an appropriation should be made at this time from the funds of the State, and we recommend that the College be authorized to hereafter construct the addition to Margaret Hall from the millage tax.

PURE BRED STOCK.

We are of the opinion that a large addition to the pure bred stock of the College is necessary, and we therefore recommend that an appropriation of $10,000 be made for that purpose.

WALKS AND GRADING.

There is a pressing demand for the construction of a very considerable number of walks to connect the various buildings. The present walks in a large part are nothing more than cinder paths, which in bad weather fall into a deplorable state. We recommend an appropriation of $5,000 for the purpose of constructing walks, and $1,000 to be used for the purpose of grading.

FURNISHINGS FOR HALL OF AGRICULTURE.

The management of the College have requested an appropriation of $30,000, to be expended in the purchase of furnishings for the new Hall of Agriculture. This building cannot be completed before the fall of 1908. An itemized statement of the cost of the furnishings has not been provided, and in view of the fact that the building will not likely be opened very much before the session of the Thirty-third General Assembly, we do not feel that an appropriation of more than $20,000 should be made at this time, and we recommend that the appropriation for this purpose be fixed at that amount.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

Your committee is of the opinion that a summer school is desirable, but we do not think, in view of the large appropriations required for other purposes, that an appropriation should be made at this time.

ANNEX TO AGRICULTURAL BUILDING.

The Board of Trustees and Dean of Agriculture presented to your committee plans and specifications for the erection of an annex to the Agricultural Building.

It is proposed to construct this annex so that an addition will be provided, having a seating capacity of about 1,000. The two lower floors of the annex it is planned to use for Laboratory purposes. At the time the contract for the building was let, an option was secured from the contractor, under the terms of which the State was given the right to have the annex erected at the price of $60,000. The College authorities now desire to exercise this option, and have submitted the plans and specifications to your committee. We are of the opinion that the awakening interest in agricultural extension will bring to the College a very considerable increase in the number of students within the very near future. And we are of the opinion that the Agricultural Building will be crowded by the time that it is completed. We are convinced that this annex is a necessity, and we recommend that the College authorities be authorized to proceed under the terms of the contract, and to erect this building at a cost not to exceed $60,000, the same to be paid from the millage tax provided by the act of the Thirty-first General Assembly.

SUMMARY.

For educational support fund.....	$ 30,000
For equipment fund.....	20,000
For completion of heating plant, tunnels, etc.....	75,000
For improvement of water system.....	10,000

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' HOME AT DAVENPORT.

To the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

We, your joint committee appointed to visit the Iowa Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Davenport, submit the following report:

We all met at the Home early on the morning of Thursday, January 24th, and spent the greater portion of the day in looking about the institution and in talking with the superintendent, some of the children, and others connected with the place. The sight was a revelation to all of us, and we were particularly struck with two things—the magnitude and efficiency of this great charity enterprise of the State, and the small amount of appropriation asked by the Board of Control.

There were 520 of these poor little unfortunates in the Home at the time of our visit, ranging in age from less than one year old to ten years. Very few of them were full orphans, and only about half of them half orphaned, and the fact that nearly half were the children of separated parents is a sad commentary on our social condition in this regard. We have only the highest words of praise for Superintendent Sessions and his able corps of helpers; we believe he is the right man for the place, and that he has selected his helpers with great care. The atmosphere about the place was one of kindness—it was evident on every hand. When we went into one cottage where several of the smaller tots were, they came running to the superintendent and showed their affection for him by clasping him around the legs and tugging at his trousers, and one who was hardly old enough to talk held up his chubby little fists and said "Up! Up!" Other matters had to stop until he had taken the little one up in his arms and fondled it a little bit. When we were about the place, the little boys and girls gave him a smiling greeting and showed that they were fond of him. These incidents impressed us that they were being kindly cared for—and kindness is one of the very best things in this world.

All the little folks, so far as we could notice them, acted like little gentlemen and ladies. This is an important part of any child's education. There are seventeen cottages for these little folks, each cottage family being especially cared for by a matron; there are thirty or more, in most cases, in each family, and the matron has almost continuous charge over her family, night and day, and each matron seemed fond of and kind to her little flock. The cottages and the children seemed clean and well kept—much more so, we thought, than the average home. While the children are plainly fed and plainly dressed, yet both food and clothing seemed substantial and good. We visited the main dining room at the noon hour, where all the children, except the sick ones, eat together. We were not a little chagrined to see not a single chair was provided for these little folks at the dinner table—they were compelled to sit on little backless stools. An effort is constantly made to make this home as nearly like a good, private home as possible, but in this regard we thought these little stools were out of place, and we recommend that enough money be spent by this General Assembly to buy these little folks chairs to sit on while they eat their meals.

We commend the idea of the boys and girls being taught to work, and were glad to see the boys in some of the shops and at the engine room and in the bakery and in other places learning some of the practical things of life, which will be helpful to them after a while. There is in connection with the home a big farm, which is tended by the boys. The girls are taught housekeeping, sewing, and ironing, and we believe that this manual training idea in this institution should be carried out just as far as it is possible to carry it; most of the boys and girls will have to go out and fight life's battles alone after a while and their preparation should be thorough, as far as it can be made thorough.

We were glad to see the spirit of happiness all through the home. In the dining hall, as we went about among the tables, the little folks were mostly smiling and laughing with each other and their matrons, who were waiting on them. In the ironing room, the girls were singing, and everywhere we went we came in contact with happy folks.

While we recognize this home as being a great deal better than many of the poorer homes of our State, yet we believe it is much better to get as many of these children as possible out into better homes, where they will be well cared for; while they may not be any happier in such private homes, yet we think their opportunities and development will be better in the long run, and we recommend that the Board of Control make increased effort to find such homes for these little folks, guarding with jealous care, however, that these homes be the right places, and keeping an exceeding watchful eye on the children after they do enter these private homes. If this effort is made, it will result in more room in the Orphans' Home for other children in the State who need such a place. The majority of the children in this home now come from the larger cities of the State and there is quite a large percentage of the counties of the State who do not have any children in the home at all. Without definite knowledge concerning it, yet we believe there are hardly any counties in Iowa who do not have children who would be a great deal better off in this home, and whose conditions are such as to entitle them to the privileges, but the lack of knowledge concerning this institution accounts for their not taking advantage of it. If more room is made for other outside dependent children in the way outlined above, we believe it would be well for the Board of Control to take practical steps toward telling more of the people generally through the State, by means of the newspapers or the teachers or the ministers or in any other way they may deem best, concerning this home, its conditions, and advantages and object. All of the counties of the State pay, through taxation, for this home, and reasonable effort should be made to provide that as many as possible of the dependent children of these counties should be given the advantages of the Home for their development into strong and good men and women—orphans and dependent children have a hard enough time in this world at the best.

The Board of Control has, since the drowning of one of the inmates, several months ago, made a rule forbidding the boys going swimming down at the creek; we would recommend that this rule be withdrawn and the boys given the pleasure of this natural swimming place, rather than that the State should go to the expense of putting in an artificial swimming place. As we recall our own boyish impressions, this swimming hole in the creek would be one of the greatest pleasures after all.

The public is welcome to visit this Home at any time, and we would suggest that those who have not already visited it should take advantage of the first opportunity to do so; it is really a wonderful place, and a visit to it cannot help but make one a little more sympathetic and a little more humane.

As to the appropriations, we should recommend the following, the relative importance of the various items, in our judgment, being in the order in which they are placed:

For contingent and repair fund	$4,000.00
For painting	1,000.00
For books and periodicals	500.00
For gymnasium apparatus	200.00
For permanent walks	300.00
For fences	300.00

And we further suggest that as soon as some of the more pressing needs of some of the other State institutions be taken care of, that the matter of a hospital for this home be taken up.

JOHN L. WILSON,
W. D. JAMIESON,
Committee on Part of Senate.

HENRY DUNN,
HIRAM DEWELL,
J. D. SHAFFER,
Committee on Part of House.

The Journal of yesterday was taken up, corrected and approved.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Pharmacy, to whom was referred Senate File No. 19, a bill for an act requiring manufacturers and dealers to label white lead, paints, mixed paints, varnishes, fillers, stains and similar compounds and linseed oil; defining linseed oil and boiled linseed oil; and fixing the penalties for its violation: and vesting the execution and enforcement of this act in the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that it be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 19.

A BILL for an act requiring manufacturers and dealers to label white lead, paints, mixed paints, varnishes, and similar compounds, and linseed oil; defining linseed oil and boiled linseed oil, and fixing penalties for its violation; and repealing Sections Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-a (2510-a), Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-b (2510-b), Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-c (2510c), Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-d (2510-d) and Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-e (2510-e) of the Supplement to the Code; and vesting the execution and enforcement of this act in the State Food and Dairy Commissioner.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Every person, firm or corporation who shall expose for sale, or sell, within this State, any white lead, paint, varnish, or linseed oil shall accurately label the same as hereinafter required.

SEC. 2. The term "paint," as used in this act, shall include white lead in oil or any compound intended for the same use, paste or semi-pastes, and liquid or mixed paint ready for use, or any compound intended for the same use.

SEC. 3. Labels required by this act shall clearly and distinctly state, in type not smaller than eight-point gothic caps, the name and address of the manufacturer of the article, or the dealer therein, or of the party for whom the same is manufactured and show, with substantial accuracy, the percentage of each ingredient, both solid and liquid, contained therein (in continuous list with no intervening matter of any kind); provided, that in case of paint other than white paint, the ingredients, other than the coloring material, may be treated as one hundred per cent, in which case it shall be necessary to state the description or trade-name of such coloring matter and state, with substantial accuracy, its chemical analysis. The label shall also state, in case of liquid paints, oils, varnishes and other compounds, on packages holding one quart or more, the net measure of contents of each can, package or container. In case of white lead and other paints and compounds, the label shall show on package weighing four pounds or more the net weight of each can, package or container.

SEC. 4. No person, firm or corporation shall manufacture for sale or expose for sale or sell within this State any flaxseed or linseed oil, unless the same answers a chemical test for purity recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia, or any flaxseed or linseed oil as "boiled linseed oil" unless the same shall have been put in its manufacture to a temperature of 225 degrees Fahrenheit.

SEC. 5. No person, firm or corporation shall expose for sale or sell any flaxseed or linseed oil unless it is exposed for sale or sold under its true name, and each tank car, tank, barrel, keg, or vessel containing such oil has distinctly and durably marked thereon the true name of such oil in ordinary bold-faced capital letters not less than five lines pica in size, the words "pure linseed oil—raw," "pure linseed oil—boiled," as the case may be, and the name and address of the manufacturer thereof.

SEC. 6. It is hereby made the duty of the State Food and Dairy Commissioner to enforce the provisions of this act. The inspectors, assistants and chemists appointed by the State Food and Dairy Commissioner shall perform the same duties and have the same authority under this act as are prescribed by Chapter One Hundred and Sixty-six (166), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly. The State Food and Dairy Commissioner shall, from time to time, with the approval of the Executive Council, publish bulletins, giving the results of inspections and analyses, together with such additional information as he may deem suitable.

SEC. 7. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

SEC. 8. Sections Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-a (2510-a), Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-b (2510-b), Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-c (2510-c) Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-d (2510-d) and Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ten-e (2510-e) of the Supplement to the Code are hereby repealed.

SEC. 9. This act shall take effect on and after January 1, 1908.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

J. A. McKLVEEN,
Chairman.

The substitute was read first and second time and passed on file.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Senate File No. 186, a bill for an act to repeal Section Three Hundred and Thirty-four (334) of the Code, relating to excusing persons from jury service and to enact a substitute therefor, with report of committee recommending indefinite postponement, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Senate File No. 174, a bill for an act to repeal Section Twenty-nine Hundred and Thirty-four (2934) of the Code, and to enact a substitute therefor, in relation to filing, indexing and recording deeds and other instruments unconditionally conveying real estate, with report of committee recommending indefinite postponement, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Senate File No. 195, a bill for an act amendatory of and additional to Section Nine Hundred and Twelve (912) of the Code, in relation to the issuance of certificates or bonds in anticipation of special taxes by towns, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Bruce moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend by striking the word "daily" from the publication clause.

Adopted.

Senator Bruce moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frud-den, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Kimmel, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Stirton, Stookey, Stuck-slager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fay-ette—39.

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kinne, Moon, Nichols, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Whipple, Wilson of Clinton, Young—11.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was de-clared to have passed the senate and its title agreed to.

Senate File No. 126, a bill for an act to amend Section Fourteen Hundred and Fifty-seven (1457), Title Seven (7), Chapter Three (3) of the Supplement to the Code, with report of committee rec-ommending indefinite postponement, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Crossley, Senate File No. 169, a bill for an act relating to State documents and publications and amending Section One (1), Chapter Five (5) of the acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly of the State of Iowa, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amend-ment:

Amend the title by inserting after the word "publications" and before the word "and" the words "providing for the appoint-ment of a document librarian and fixing his salary."

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amend-ment:

Amend Section One (1) by striking out of lines three (3) and four (4) the words "Fifteen Hundred" and inserting the words and figures, "Twelve Hundred ($1200)," in lieu thereof.

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the title by striking out the words "of the State of Iowa."

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericsen, Foley, Frud-den, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Stirton, Stookey, Stuck-slager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Young—40.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Jamieson of Page, Kinne, McKlveen, Moon, Nichols, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Whipple, Wilson of Clinton—10.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

HOUSE MESSAGES CONSIDERED.

That Section Nineteen Hundred Eighty-Five (1985) of the Code be, and the same is, hereby amended by adding the following to said section: "If the amount of money required for the improvement under the provisions of this chapter cannot be collected in one year, or if the board of supervisors in their discretion deem it advisable that the taxes shall be paid in installments, or in case it becomes necessary to expend an extraordinary sum for the preservation of the levee in case of an emergency, the Board of Supervisors of the county shall have the power to issue bonds for all which cannot thus be provided for in one year substantially the manner and form as provided in Section Twenty-eight (28) of Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly and acts amendatory thereto, and all acts and proceedings in relation thereto shall conform therewith, except that bonds issued in anticipation of taxes for the maintenance of a levee shall not exceed five years' taxes and shall be due in six years from the date of issue."

SEC. 4. Whenever a levee or drainage district is organized, the Board or Boards of Supervisors, as the case may be, shall have power and authority to audit and allow claims for money and labor expended in the preservation of said levee prior to and since the organization of the said district; all sums so allowed to be payable from the levee or drainage fund. The said board or boards shall also have full power and authority to make an equitable adjustment of and credit for any taxes paid for repairing the levee where the same has been heretofore levied and collected in any manner by one or either Board of Supervisors under any prior proceedings.

SEC. 5. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

Senator Bruce, from the Committee on Agriculture, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred Senate File No. 8, a bill for an act to amend an act of the Thirtieth General Assembly, entitled "an act to promote the public health, convenience and welfare, by leveeing, ditching and draining the lands of the State, and providing for the establishment of levees, drainage districts, or for the changing of natural watercourses to secure better drainage, etc., beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that it be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 8.

A BILL for an act to amend the law as it appears in Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the Thirtieth General Assembly and in Chapter Eighty-five (85) of the acts of the Thirty-first General Assembly in relation to levees, ditches, drains and watercourses.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That the law as it appears in Section Two (2), Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly is hereby amended by striking out all of said Section Two (2), after the word "hands", in line Sixteen (16) and inserting the following in lieu thereof: "And he shall proceed to examine the lands described in said petition and any other lands which would be benefited by said improvement or necessary in the carrying out of said improvement, and survey and locate such drain or drains, ditch or ditches, improvement or improvements, as may be practicable and feasible to carry out the purposes of the petition and which will be of public benefit or utility or conducive to public health, convenience or welfare. He shall make return of his proceedings to the County Auditor, which returns shall set forth the starting point, the route, the terminus or termini of the said ditch or ditches, drain or drains, or other improvements, together with a plat and profile showing the ditches, drains or other improvements, and the course and length of the drain or drains through each tract of land and the elevation of all lakes, ponds and deep depressions in said district and the boundary of the proposed district, and the description of each tract of land therein and name of the owners thereof as shown by the transfer books in the Auditor's office, together with the probable cost, and such other facts and recommendations as he may deem material. The Board of Supervisors may at any time recall the appointment of any engineer made under the provisions of this act, if deemed advisable to do so, and select another to act in his place."

SEC. 2. That Section Three (3) of said Chapter is hereby amended by striking out the period after the word "served" in line Fifteen (15) and insert a comma in lieu thereof and adding thereto the following: "provided, however, no notice shall be served by the Auditor upon any of the persons hereinbefore described who shall file with said Auditor a writing signed by said party entering his appearance at said hearing and waiving any additional notice. The officer or person serving said notice shall receive five cents per mile for the distance actually traveled and not exceeding five dollars per day of eight hours for making said services."

SEC. 3. That Section Four (4) of Chapter Eighty-five (85) of the acts of the Thirty-first General Assembly is hereby amended by adding after the word "located" and before the word "and" in line Six (6) of said section the following: "showing the levels and elevations of each forty acre tract of land."

SEC. 4. That Section Eleven (11) of Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the word "recommend" in line eight

(8) and adding thereto the following: "provided that all persons whose lands shall be taken or who may be damaged by the said change, shall first have been given like notices and like proceedings had as hereinbefore provided for the establishment of the levee or drainage district."

SEC. 5. That said Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly is hereby amended by adding the following thereto:

"The Board of Supervisors of any county or counties in the State in which a drainage or levee district has been or may hereafter be organized as provided in this act may provide as a part of said drainage system for the establishment and maintenance of a pumping station or stations, when and where the same may be necessary to secure a proper outlet for the drainage of the land comprising the said districts, and the cost of construction and maintenance of said pumping station or stations shall be levied upon and collected from the lands in the drainage or levee district in the same manner as provided for in the construction and maintenance of ditches or drains or levees in this act."

SEC. 6. That said chapter is hereby further amended by adding thereto the following:

"Whenever any petition has heretofore been filed and any action thereon has been taken by the Board of Supervisors that is not final, it shall not be necessary that a new petition shall be filed in order to obtain the benefits of this act, but the Board of Supervisors are hereby empowered to proceed with the improvement from the point at which local proceedings thereon were stopped."

SEC. 7. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in full force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Senator Bruce, from the Committee on Agriculture, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred Senate File No. 18, a bill for an act to regulate the sale of agricultural seeds, concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs and materials from which they are manufactured, fixing penalties for its violation and vesting the execution and enforcement in the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, and to enact a substitute therefor, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that it be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 18.

A BILL for an act regulating the sale of agricultural seeds, concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs and the materials from which they are manufactured; defining concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs and what shall constitute purity in various kinds of seeds; prohibiting the adulteration and providing for the correct weighing and marking of agricultural seeds and concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs; and providing for the collection of samples, analyses of the same, and fixing penalties for its violation; and vesting the execution and enforcement of this act in the State Food and Dairy Commissioner.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Every lot in bulk, barrel, bag, pail, parcel or package of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs as defined in Section Three (3) of this act; and every parcel, package or lot of agricultural seeds as defined in Section Nine (9) of this act, and containing one pound or more, offered or exposed for sale in the State of Iowa, for use within this State, shall have affixed thereto, in a conspicuous place on the outside thereof, distinctly printed in the English language, in legible type not smaller than eight-point heavy gothic caps, or plainly written, a statement certifying:

1. In case of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs:

First. The number of net pounds of feeding-stuffs in the package.

Second. The name, brand, or trade-mark under which the article is sold.

Third. The name and address of the manufacturer, importer, dealer or agent.

Fourth. The place of manufacture.

Fifth. The chemical analysis of the feeding-stuffs, stating the percentages of crude protein, crude fat, and crude fiber, allowing one per cent of nitrogen to equal six and twenty-five one-hundredths per cent of protein, all three constituents to be determined by the latest methods adopted by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists of the United States.

2. In the case of agricultural seeds:

First. Name of the seed.

Second. Full name and address of the seedsman, importer, dealer or agent.

Third. A statement of the purity of the seed contained, specifying the kind and percentage of the impurities as defined in Sections Eleven (11) and Twelve (12) hereof, provided that said seeds are below the standards fixed in this act.

Fourth. Locality where seed was grown, when known.

SEC. 2. Every barrel, bag, pail, parcel or package of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, as defined in Section Three (3) of this act, and every feed intended for domestic animals that is compounded from two or more substances, in addition to the requirements of Section One (1), shall have affixed thereto, in a conspicuous place on the outside thereof, a statement in the manner and form prescribed in Section One (1), giving the true and correct names of all the ingredients of which it is composed.

SEC. 3. The term, concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, as used in this act, shall include alfalfa meals and feeds; dried beet refuse; ground beef or fish scraps; bean meals; dried blood; brewers' grains, both wet and dry; cerealine feeds; cocoanut meals; corn feeds; corn and oat feeds; corn, oat and barley feeds; compounds under the name of corn and cob meals; corn bran; clover meal; cotton-seed meal and feeds; germ feeds; distillers' grains; gluten meals; gluten feeds; hominy feeds; linseed meals; malt refuse; malt sprouts; meat meals; meat and bone meals; mixed feeds of all kinds; oil meals of all kinds; oat feeds; oat bran; oat flour; oat middlings; oat shorts; pea meals; poultry foods; rice bran; rice meal; rice polish; rye bran; rye middlings; rye shorts; starch feeds and starch factory by-products; tankage and packing house by-products; wheat bran; wheat middlings; wheat shorts; and low grade wheat flour; and all materials of similar nature used for domestic animals; also condimental stock food; patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock or poultry feeds, claimed to possess medicinal or nutritive properties or both; and all other materials intended for feeding to domestic animals. But it shall not include: Hay; straw; whole seeds; unmixed meals made from the entire grains of wheat, rye, barley, oats, Indian corn, buckwheat, and broomcorn; nor wheat flours nor other flours fit for human consumption.

SEC. 4. Before any concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, as defined in Section (3) of this act, is offered or exposed for sale, the importer, manufacturer, person or party who causes it to be sold or offered for sale within the State of Iowa, for use within this State, for each and every feeding-stuff bearing a distinguishing name or trade-mark, shall file with the State Food and Dairy Commissioner a certified copy of the statement named in Section One (1) of this act, and shall also deposit with the said State Food and Dairy Commissioner a sealed glass jar or bottle containing not less than one pound of the feeding-stuff to be sold or offered for sale, accompanied by an affidavit that it is a fair average sample thereof and corresponds within reasonable limits to the feeding-stuff which it represents.

SEC. 5. Before any manufacturer, importer, dealer or agent shall offer or expose for sale in this State any of the concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs defined in Section Three (3) of this act, he shall pay to the State Food and Dairy Commissioner an inspection fee of ten cents per ton for each ton of such concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs sold or offered for sale in the State of Iowa, for use within this State; except in the case of condimental stock or poultry foods, the fee paid shall be one dollar per ton; and shall affix to each lot shipped in bulk, and to each bag, barrel or package of such concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, a tag, to be furnished by the said State Food and Dairy Commissioner, stating that all charges specified in this section have been paid; provided, that the inspection fee herein required shall not apply to unadulterated wheat, rye and buckwheat bran, nor wheat, rye and buckwheat middlings, nor to wheat, rye and buckwheat shorts manufactured in this State. The said State Food and Dairy Commissioner is hereby empowered to prescribe the form of such tag and adopt such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this act. Tags for use upon concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs shall be issued in denominations suitable for use with twenty-five, fifty and one hundred pounds net, except as hereinafter provided; but tags for use upon packages of condimental stock or poultry foods shall be issued in denominations suitable for use with five, ten, twenty, fifty and one hundred pound packages.

SEC. 6. The State Food and Dairy Commissioner shall cause to be made analyses of all concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs and agricultural seeds sold or offered for sale in this State. Said State Food and Dairy Commissioner is hereby authorized, in person or by deputy, to take for analysis a sample from any lot or package of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs in this State, not exceeding two pounds in weight; and in case of agricultural seeds, a sample not exceeding four ounces in weight; but said sample shall be drawn or taken in the presence of the party or parties in interest, or their representative, and shall be taken from a parcel, lot or number of parcels which shall not be less than five per cent of the whole lot inspected, and shall be thoroughly mixed and divided into two samples and placed in glass or metal vessels carefully sealed and a label placed on each, stating the name or brand of the feeding-stuff, agricultural seeds or material sampled, the name of the party from whose stock the sample is drawn, and the date and place of taking such sample, and said label shall be signed by the said State Food and Dairy Commissioner, or his authorized agent; or said sample may be taken in the presence of two disinterested witnesses. One of said duplicate samples shall be left on the premises of the party whose stock was sampled and the other retained by the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, for analysis and comparison with the certified statements required by Sections One (1) and Four (4) of this act. The result of the analysis of the sample, together with additional information, shall be published from time to time in bulletins issued by the State Food and Dairy Commissioner upon approval of the Executive Council.

SEC. 7. Any person purchasing any concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs or agricultural seeds in this State, for his own use, may submit fair samples of said feeding-stuffs or seeds to the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, who, upon receipt of an analysis fee of fifty cents (50c) for each sample of agricultural seeds and one dollar for each sample of concentrated commercial feeding-stuff, shall cause an analysis of the same to be made.

SEC. 8. No person shall sell in ground form, wheat or rye screenings containing cockle or other poisonous or deleterious substances.

SEC. 9. The term, agricultural seeds, as used in this act, shall include the seeds of the red clover, white clover, alsike clover, alfalfa, Kentucky blue-grass, timothy, brome grass, orchard grass, red top, meadow fescue, oat grass, rye grass, and other grasses and forage plants, flax, rape and cereals.

SEC. 10. No person shall sell, offer, or expose for sale, or distribution, in this State, for the purpose of seeding, any of the agricultural seeds as defined in Section Nine (9) of this act, unless the said seeds are free from the seeds of the following weeds: Wild mustard or charlock (Brassica sinapistrum), quack grass (Agropyron repens), Canada thistle (Cnicus arvensis), wild oats (Avena fatua), clover and alfalfa dodder (Cuscuta epithymum), field dodder (Cuscuta arvensis), and corn cockle (Lychnis githago).

SEC. 11. The seeds of the following weeds shall be considered as impurities in the agricultural seeds, as defined in Section Nine (9) of this act, sold, offered, or exposed for sale, within the State for the purpose of seeding: White cockle (Lychnis vespertina), nightflowering catchfly (Silene noctiflora), curled dock (Rumex crispus), smooth dock (Rumex altissimus), sheep sorrel (Rumex acetosella), yellow trefoil (Medicago lupulina), burr clover (Medicago denticulata), sweet clover (Melilotus alba and officinalis), black mustard (Brassica nigra), plantain, buckhorn (Plantago lanceolata), bracted plantain (Plantago aristata), bindweed (Convolvulus sepium), smooth crab grass (Panicum glabrum), common chickweed (Stellaria media). When such impurities or any of them are present in quantity exceeding a total of two per cent of the weight of said agricultural seeds, the approximate percentage of each shall be plainly indicated in statement specified in Section One (1) of this act.

SEC. 12. Sand, dirt, chaff and foreign substances and seeds other than those specified in Sections Thirteen (13) and Fourteen (14), or broken seed and seed not capable of germinating, shall be considered impurities when present in agricultural seeds sold, offered, or exposed for sale, in this State, for the purpose of seeding, and when such impurities, or any of them, are present in quantity exceeding the standards of purity and viability authorized in Section Sixteen (16) of this act, the name and approximate percentage of each shall be plainly indicated in the statement specified in Section One (1) of this act.

SEC. 13. For the purposes of this act, seeds shall be deemed to be mixed or adulterated:

First. When orchard grass (Dactylis glomerata) seed contains ten per cent or more by weight of meadow fescue (Festuca elatior pratensis) seed, or Italian rye grass (Lolium italicum) seed, or English rye grass (Lolium perenne) seed.

Second. When blue-grass or Kentucky blue-grass (Poa pratensis) seed contains five per cent or more by weight of Canadian blue-grass (Poa compressa) seed, red top chaff, red top (Agrostis alba) seed, or any other seed or foreign substance.

Third. When red clover (Trifolium pratense), mammoth red clover (Trifolium pratense var.), or alfalfa (Medicago sativa), contains five per cent or more by weight of yellow trefoil (Medicago lupulina), or sweet clover (Melilotus alba and M. officinalis) seed or burr clover (Medicago denticulata) seed.

Fourth. When rape (Brassica rapa) contains five per cent or more of common mustard (Brassica sinapistrum) or black mustard (B. nigra).

SEC. 14. For the purposes of this act, seed shall be deemed to be misbranded:

First. When meadow fescue (Festuca elatior pratensis), English rye grass (Lolium perenne) or Italian rye grass (Lolium italicum) is labeled or sold under the name of orchard grass (Dactylis glomerata) seed.

Second. When Canadian blue-grass (Poa compressa) seed, red top (Agrostis alba) seed, or any other seed not blue-grass seed, is sold under the name of Kentucky blue-grass or blue-grass (Poa pratensis) seed.

Third. When yellow trefoil (Medicago lupulina), burr clover (Medicago denticulata), or sweet clover (Melilotus alba) is sold under the name of clover, June clover, red clover (Trifolium pratense), medium red clover, small red clover, mammoth red clover, sappling clover, peavine clover (T. pratense var.), or alfalfa (Medicago sativa) seed.

Fourth. When the seeds are not true to the name under which they are sold.

SEC. 15. The provisions concerning agricultural seeds contained in this act shall not apply to:

First. Any person or persons growing or selling seeds for food purposes only, or having such seeds in possession for sale for such purposes.

Second. Any person selling seeds direct to merchants, to be cleaned or graded before being offered for sale for the purpose of seeding. This shall not, however, exempt the seller from the restrictions of Section Ten (10) of this act.

Third. Seed that is held in storage for the purpose of being re-cleaned, and which has not been offered, exposed or held in possession of or for sale for the purpose of seeding.

Fourth. Seed marked "not absolutely clean," and held or sold for export outside the State only.

Fifth. The sale of seed that is grown, sold and delivered by any farmer on his own premises for seeding by the purchaser himself, unless the purchaser of said seeds obtains from the seller at the time of the sale thereof a certificate that the said seed is supplied to the purchaser subject to the restrictions of this act.

Sixth. Mixtures of seeds for lawn or pasture purposes. This shall not, however, exempt the seller of such mixtures of seeds from the provisions of Sections Ten (10) and Eleven (11) of this act.

SEC. 16. The following standards of purity (meaning freedom from weed seeds or other seeds) and viability are hereby fixed:

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

House File No. 43, a bill for an act to repeal Section Four Hundred and Sixty-nine (469) of the Code and enacting a substitute therefor, providing for the compensation of county supervisors, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Young moved the adoption of the following amendment :

Strike out the following words in sub-Section Three (3) of Section One (1) in third and fourth lines from the last in said sub-section :

“And the compensation for services in ditch and drainage matters shall be paid from the ditch fund”.

Adopted.

Senator Allen moved the adoption of the following amendment :

Amend by striking out the word “thirty” in line six from the last line of said section and insert the word “fifty”.

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved that the rule be suspended, and the bill be read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, “Shall the bill pass?”

The yeas were :

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stookey, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—41.

The nays were :

None.

Absent or not voting :

Senators Crossley, DeWolf, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Stirton, Stuckslager, Turner, Whipple, Whiting—9.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

The President announced the following communication from the Governor, which was read :

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith a joint report of the Iowa Vicksburg Park Monument Commission, the Iowa Shiloh Battlefield Monument Commission, the Iowa Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge Monument Commission, and the Iowa Andersonville Prison Monument Commission. It relates to the dedication of our monuments at Vicksburg, Andersonville, Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge, and Shiloh. It has been prepared with loving care by the secretaries of the four commissions, and it forms the history of the most interesting, impressive and solemn ceremonies I have ever witnessed. The members of these commissions, as well as every Iowa soldier with whom I have discussed the subject, feel that it is due to the memory of the dead who laid down their lives in this prison and upon these battlefields, to those who have since passed beyond the river, to the heroic few who still survive, and to the present generation which enjoys the blessings of the victories there won, that the report should be published in such form as will make it a lasting part of the annals of the State. I share this feeling, and I earnestly recommend its publication.

In view of the occurrences of the past few days, it is not inappropriate for me, in presenting this report, to say that the soldiers who compose these commissions are men of the best type; that they not only served their country well in the days of its peril, but they served their country well in the times of peace. They have performed the work committed to them with a fidelity never surpassed, and the monuments which they have erected are distinguished for the beauty and felicity of their design and for the economy with which the work has been done. These commissioners have given their time freely, without any compensation whatsoever. There is not one of them but who has expended, in the discharge of his duty, more than the State has ever repaid, or will ever repay, to him. They have earned, and they ought to receive, the gratitude of every loyal citizen of the State.

As the monuments upon the various fields neared completion, each of the commissions invited me, as Governor of the State, to attend the dedicatory ceremonies, to receive the monuments and transfer them to the general Government. I looked upon the invitations as imperative calls of duty. No command ever put upon me by the law was more binding upon my conscience than the obligation to render this last tribute to the gallant soldiery of a patriotic State. If the monuments had been dedicated at different times, it would have involved four independent visits to the south, and the expense would have been very great. Therefore, it was suggested that the commissions join in a single journey; first, because it would make the occasion more significant; second, because it would involve much less expense. The original appropriations did not authorize a joinder, and thereupon the Thirty-first General Assembly appropriated $7,500.00 to be expended for this purpose. The combined commissions organized a committee, of which Captain J. F. Merry, of Manchester, was chairman. This committee planned the dedications, and the commissions executed the plans. I had nothing whatsoever to do with the arrangements, so carefully and adequately made. I was merely an invited guest. The committee originally set aside one car for myself and staff, but inasmuch as I decided to take but a portion of my staff, it authorized me to fill the car with others whom I might invite. I attach hereto a statement showing the expenses incurred in preparing for the dedicatory services and dedicating these monuments. Not one penny of the appropriation of $7,500.00 was paid out for me, for my staff, or for any one who was invited by me. The chairman of the committee requested me to make an arrangement for a band. I did so, reported the arrangement to him, and the payments for the railroad, dining car, sleeping car and boat fare, together with the compensation of $2.50 per day for each member of the band, with $5.00 per day for the leader, were made through me simply because I was a member of the Executive Council, and the payments had to be made by order of the Executive Council. I had nothing whatever to do with the train or with the invitations extended to those who made the journey, save as to the one car of which I have spoken.

The expenses of the dedication were more than $7,500.00, and it happened, as I have been told, in this way: The members of the joint committee, misled by the language of the first section of the act of the Thirty-first General Assembly, proceeded upon the hypothesis that the incidental expense of preparing for the dedications, such as meetings of the members of the commissions, printing, programs, etc., would be paid out of the original appropriation for the construction of the monuments. It is not strange that the misconception arose, and no matter what may be thought should be done under the circumstances, the money was honestly expended. When the bills were all collected in the hands of the Executive Council, it was discovered that they exceeded, by $869.48 the appropriation. The Attorney-General advised the Council that it was its duty to pay, first, all of the expense incurred outside the traveling expenses of the members of the commissions. When this was done, there remained, substantially, enough to pay 70 per centum of the traveling expenses of the members, and this payment has been made. I believe that, notwithstanding the mistake, the members of the commissions ought to be reimbursed. Their work has been done for the people of the State; it has been faithfully done; it has been done without any reward whatever, and I cannot believe that the men of Iowa who revere the memories of the Civil War would be content to allow these old soldiers to bear the loss which their misunderstanding has caused.

It has been reported that the speakers who were invited by the commissions to deliver addresses at the several dedications were paid for their services. The report is atrociously false. Not one of them received more than his actual outlay, and most of them less.

I desire a word with respect to my part in the occasion: The act of the Thirty-first General Assembly provided that the expenses of myself and staff should be paid from my contingent fund. I might have taken all the members of my staff. It would have been fitting to have done so, but I did not. I took with me, at the expense of the State, just five out of the seventeen members of the staff. Four of these five were veterans of the Civil War, and one a veteran of the Spanish War. Three of them could have demanded the pay of their rank while on duty, but they did not. Each of them was paid just his railroad, sleeping car, dining car and boat fare. Each of them expended a considerable sum in addition to these fares, but for such excess no reimbursement has ever been or will be made, for it has not been, nor will it be, asked. Two other members of my staff volunteered to go, and they paid their own expenses. The only money paid out by me from my contingent fund was for these five members of my staff, my own expenses, those of my secretary, and a very small item for meals for my messenger. Under the direction of the joint committee, I invited my associate members of the Executive Council, and two of them accepted the invitation. They paid their own expenses. I invited, also, the Attorney-General-elect. He paid his own expenses. My wife accompanied me, and all her expenses I paid from my own funds. This journey cost me nearly $200.00 more than I drew from the State of Iowa—money that should have been paid by the State of Iowa, but I paid it myself, although I could ill afford to do so, simply because I knew that partisan and personal malice would spill their venom over even such a mission, and I wanted to be far within my rights.

These things are, however, of but little importance compared with the effort to stain the occasion with the epithets that have been applied to it. The man, whether in office or out of office, who describes this solemn, sorrowful and sacred journey as a "junket" is either strangely ignorant of his mother tongue or strikingly indifferent to the purpose of the visit. Ask the men and women who saw the flags lifted from our memorial at Vicksburg, and felt the rush of emotion as they remembered the dead and dying of forty years before, whether they were engaged in merry-making. Ask the men and women who stood amid the graves at Andersonville, with tearful eyes and throbbing hearts, whether they were enjoying the pleasures of a "picnic." Ask the men and women who gathered around the monuments on Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge, and wept as the memories of daring courage swept over them, whether they were parts of a convivial entertainment. Ask the men and women who surrounded the beautiful shaft at Shiloh, and whose very souls were beaten with a storm of sorrow as their eyes fell upon the ground that had been saturated with the blood of Iowa's best boys, whether they were feasting upon the joys of life. For the poisoned arrows directed toward me, I care nothing; they have ceased to sting; but for the sake of the soldiers, whose fame these monuments perpetuate, and for the honor of the State, no man shall, if words of mine can prevent it, degrade this holy journey of dedication to the low level of a "junket."

Respectfully submitted,

Albert B. Cummins

February 25, 1907.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred Senate File No. 37, a bill for an act amendatory to the law as it appears in Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the Thirtieth General Assembly, and amendatory Acts of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to levees, ditches, drains and watercourses, and amending Sections Two (2), Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14), and repealing Sections Eighteen (18) and Nineteen (19) of said chapters, and enacting a substitute for said repealed sections, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 37.

A BILL for an act amendatory of the law as it appears in Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the Thirtieth General Assembly and amendatory Acts of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to levees, ditches, drains and watercourses, and amending Sections Two (2), Fourteen (14), Eighteen (18) and Nineteen (19) of said chapter, and providing for the place where ditches and drains shall be located; how appeals shall be tried in appellate courts; for the employment of counsel to represent the drainage district in appellate courts; for the crossing of railroad rights of way; for the building of culverts and bridges at the place of crossing and payment of the cost thereof; for the assessment of benefits, and making the provisions of this act applicable to Chapter Two (2), Title Ten (10) of the Code.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That Section Two (2) of Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the Acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, as amended by Acts of the Thirty-first General Assembly be, and the same is hereby amended, by adding to said section, at the end thereof, the following:

"That the ditches or drains herein provided for shall be surveyed and located along the general course of the natural streams and watercourses or in the general course of natural drainage of the lands of said district, having due regard for straightening and shortening of such natural streams, watercourses and course of natural drainage. Whenever any such ditch or drain crosses any railroad right of way, it shall be located at the place of the natural water way across such right of way, unless said railroad company shall have provided another place in the construction of the road bed for the flow of the water; and if located at the place provided by the railroad company, such company shall be estopped from afterwards objecting to such location on the ground that it is not at the place of the natural water way".

SEC. 2. That Section Fourteen (14) of said chapter be, and the same is hereby amended, by inserting after the word "damages" and before the word "The", in the fourth line of said section, the following:

"The appeal herein provided for shall be tried in the District Court as an action in equity and the appearance term shall be the trial term; and when several appeals are taken and pending in the District Court by land owners of the same drainage district whose lands have been assessed by the Board, the court may, in its discretion, order the consolidation of such cases, and try the same as one cause of action. When any appeal is taken from any order of the Board made in any drainage proceeding coming before it for action, it shall be the duty of the Board to employ counsel to represent the interests of the drainage district affected by said appeal on the trial thereof in the appellate courts and the expense thereof shall be paid out of the drainage fund in such district".

SEC. 3. That Sections Eighteen (18) and Nineteen (19) of said chapter be amended to read as follows:

"Whenever the Board of Supervisors shall have established any levee, or drainage district, or change of any natural watercourse, and the levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse, as surveyed and located, crosses the right of way of any railroad company, the County Auditor shall immediately cause to be served upon such railroad company, in the manner provided for the service of original notices, a notice in writing stating the nature of the improvement to be constructed, the place where it will cross the right of way of such company, and the full requirements for its complete construction across such right of way as shown by the plans, specifications, plat and profile of the engineer appointed by the Board, and directing such company to construct such improvement according to said plans and specifications at the place designated, across its right of way, and to build and construct or re-build and re-construct the necessary culvert or bridge where any ditch, drain or watercourse crosses its right of way, so as not to obstruct, impede or interfere with the free flow of the water therein, within thirty days from the time of the service of such notice upon it; and upon receiving said notice it shall be the duty of such railroad company to construct the improvement across its right of way according to the plans and specifications furnished in said notice and to build and construct or re-build and re-construct the necessary culvert or bridge above mentioned and complete the same within the time specified in said notice; if such railroad company shall fail, neglect or refuse to do so within the time fixed in said notice, the Auditor shall cause the same to be done under the supervision of the engineer in charge of the improvement and such railroad company shall be liable for the cost thereof, to be collected by the county in any court having jurisdiction; and the cost of constructing the improvement across the right of way of such company, not including the cost of building and constructing or re-building and re-constructing any necessary culvert or bridge, shall be considered as an element of such company's damages by the appraisers thereof; and the cost of building and constructing or re-building and re-constructing any necessary culvert or bridge shall be borne by such railroad company without reimbursement therefor. The commissioners to assess benefits shall fix and determine the benefits to the property of the railroad company within the levee or drainage district and make return thereof with their regular return. Such special assessment shall be a debt due personally from the railroad company, and unless the same is paid by the railroad company as special assessment, it may be collected in the name of the county in any court having jurisdiction".

SEC. 4. That the measure of damages for locating, establishing and constructing a levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse across the right of way of any railroad company provided for in Section Three (3) of this act shall be construed to apply to all cases and proceedings now pending involving such question; and the provisions of this act shall also be applicable to Chapter Two (2), Title Ten (10) of the Code.

SEC. 5. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

JAS. E. BRUCE,
Chairman.

Adopted.

The substitute was read first and second time and passed on file.

Senator Bruce, from the Committee on Agriculture, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred Senate File No. 230, a bill for an act to require a stamp on every ball of binder twine sold, exposed, or offered for sale within this State, and providing a penalty for the violation thereof, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 230.

A BILL for an act to require a stamp or label on every ball of binder twine sold, exposed, or offered for sale within this State, and providing a penalty for the violation thereof.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. No binder twine shall be sold, exposed, or offered for sale within this State, except the same bears upon each ball a stamp or label truly stating the name of the manufacturer or importer and the number of feet to the pound in such ball; provided, that a deficiency not exceeding five per cent in length stated on the stamp or label shall not be a violation hereof.

SEC. 2. Any person, firm or corporation who violates the provisions of Section One (1) hereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00).

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect on September first, Nineteen Hundred and Seven (1907).

And when so amended the bill do pass.

JAS. E. BRUCE,
Chairman.

Adopted.

The substitute was read first and second time and passed on file.

Senator Bruce, from the Committee on Agriculture, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred House File No. 105, a bill for an act to prohibit combination among grain elevator men and to prohibit any person, company, partnership, association or corporation engaged in the business of grain dealing or owning or operating grain elevators, etc., beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adopting the following substitute for the title; title to read as follows:

A BILL for an act to prohibit any person, company, partnership, association, or corporation, engaged in the business of grain dealing, or owning or operating grain elevators, from combining or entering into any agreement, contract, trust, or pool to fix the prices to be paid for grain, or to prevent the free action of competition in the buying of grain, or the selling of grain, and to provide punishment for the violation of this act.

Also, Section One (1) of the bill be amended by striking out all of Section One (1) and by substituting therefor the following, to-wit:

"SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, partnership, association, or corporation owning or operating any grain elevator or engaged in the business of buying, selling, handling, consigning, or transporting grain, to enter into any agreement, contract, or combination with any other grain dealer, or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, whether within or without the State, engaged in like business, for the fixing of prices to be paid for grain by different dealers or buyers; or to divide between said dealers the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such dealers and buyers, or any portion thereof; or to form, enter into, maintain, or contribute money or anything of value to any trust, pool, combination, or association of persons of whatsoever character or name, which has for any of its objects the prevention of full and free competition among buyers, sellers, or dealers in grain; or to do or permit to be done by his or their authority any act or thing whereby the free action of competition in the buying or selling of grain is restrained or prevented."

Also, that Section Thre (3) of the bill be amended by striking out all the words between the period following the word "court" in the 11th line of said Section to and including the period following the word "recovered" in the 16th line of said Section.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

JAS. E. BRUCE,

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Senator Smith of Mitchell, from the Committee on Ways and Means, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred Senate File No. 243, a bill for an act to amend the law as it appears in Section One Thousand Six Hundred and Ten (1610) of the Supplement to the Code, relating to "Articles of incorporation and incorporation fees," beg to leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be indefinitely postponed.

JAS. A. SMITH,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Smith of Mitchell, from the Committee on Ways and Means, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred Senate File No. 152, a bill for an act to repeal Sections Twenty-eight Hundred and Fifty-five (2855) of the Code Supplement and Twenty-eight Hundred and Nine (2809) of the Code and to enact substitutes therefor, and to amend Sections Twenty-eight Hundred and Eight (2808) of the Code Supplement and Twenty-eight Hundred and Fifty (2850) of the Code, relating to the handling of the principal and interest of the permanent school fund, beg to leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

By striking out all of Section One (1) after the word "thereof" in the fourth line of said section and substituting the following in lieu thereof:

When lands have been bid in by the county for the State under foreclosure of school fund mortgages and the time for redemption has expired a sheriff's deed shall be issued to the State for the use and benefit of the permanent school fund. The County Auditor shall thereupon notify the Auditor of State, who shall give the county credit for the amount of principal in the original notes remaining unpaid. All lands hereafter acquired by the State under foreclosure proceedings shall be re-sold within two years from date of foreclosure and all such lands heretofore acquired shall be re-sold on or before January 1, 1909. Such lands shall be appraised, advertised, and sold in the manner provided for the appraisal, advertisement, and sale of the sixteenth section or lands selected in lieu thereof. When a re-sale is made the County Auditor shall notify the Auditor of State, who shall thereupon charge the county with the full amount of the re-sale, except that when the lands are sold for more than the unpaid portion of the principal, the excess shall be applied to reimburse the county for the costs of foreclosure and the interest paid by the county to the State by reason of default of payment of same by the makers of the notes, previous to the time when the right of redemption has expired, not, however, to exceed three years. Any excess over and above the amount of the unpaid portion of the principal, costs of foreclosure, and interest on the principal as above provided, shall inure to the State and be credited to the permanent school fund account. If the lands shall be sold for a less amount than the unpaid portion of the principal, the loss shall be sustained by the county and the Board of Supervisors shall at once order the amount of such loss transferred from the general fund of the county to the permanent school fund account. County Auditors shall, on or before the first day of January of each year, report to the Auditor of State the amount of all sales and re-sales made during the year previous, of the sixteenth section, five hundred thousand acres grant, escheat estates, and lands taken under foreclosure of school fund mortgages, and the Auditor of State shall charge the same to the counties with interest from the date of such sale or re-sale to January first, at the rate of four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. per annum. The Auditor of State shall, also, on the first day of January, charge to each county having permanent school funds under its control, interest thereon at the rate of four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. per annum for the preceding year, or such part thereof as such funds shall have been in the control of the county, which shall be taken as the whole amount of interest due from each county. All interest collected above the four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) per cent. charged by the State shall be transferred to the general county fund. If any county fails or refuses to collect the amount of interest due the State, the deficiency shall be paid to the State from the general county fund. Any county delinquent in the payment of interest due the State shall be charged one (1) per cent. per month on the amount delinquent until paid. County Auditors shall, upon the first day of January of each year, report to the Auditor of State the amount of rents collected during the preceding year on unsold school lands and lands taken under foreclosure of school fund mortgages then in the hands of the County Treasurer, and the Auditor of State shall include the amount so reported in his semi-annual apportionment of interest.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

JAS. A. SMITH,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Maytag, from the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Appropriations, to whom was referred Senate File No. 84, a bill for an act to create a Board of Regents for the State University, the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, and the Normal School, and to prescribe its duties and to provide for the management and control of the State University, the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, and the Normal School, to make appropriations therefor, and to define certain offenses and provide penalties therefor, etc., beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same do pass.

F. L. MAYTAG,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Whipple, from the Committee on Insurance, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Insurance, to whom was referred Senate File No. 42, a bill for an act relating to the capital stock of insurance companies, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 42.

A BILL for an act relating to the capital stock of insurance companies, providing the conditions under which such companies shall operate upon the stock plan, prohibiting the advertising of an authorized capital, and providing penalties for the violation hereof.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. From and after the taking effect of this act, no insurance company shall be incorporated to transact business upon the stock plan, whether life insurance or insurance other than life, with less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) capital, the entire amount of which shall be fully paid up in cash and invested as provided by law. No part of the capital referred to shall be loaned to any officer or stockholder of the company.

SEC. 2. The certificate of authority of any company heretofore organized and transacting business upon the stock plan, shall not be renewed after January 1, 1909, unless said company shall have at said time at least Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) of capital stock paid up in cash and invested according to law, nor after January 1, 1911, unless said company shall have at said time at least Seventy-five Thousand Dollars ($75,000) of capital stock paid up in cash and invested as provided by law, nor after January 1, 1913, unless said company shall have at said time at least One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) of capital stock paid up in cash and invested according to law.

SEC. 3. No insurance company shall, after the taking effect of this act, be permitted to advertise or publish an authorized capital, or to represent in any manner itself as possessed of any greater capital than that actually paid up and invested as above provided.

SEC. 4. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act, or failing to comply with any of its provisions, shall be subjected to the penalties provided in Section Four (4) of Chapter Fifty-six (56), acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

W. P. WHIPPLE,
Chairman.

The substitute was read first and second time and passed on file.

Senator Whipple, from the Committee on Insurance, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Insurance, to whom was referred House File No. 48, a bill for an act to provide a method whereby assessment life associations may re-incorporate as legal reserve life insurance companies, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adding thereto the following:

SEC. 4. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

W. P. WHIPPLE,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Whipple, from the Committee on Insurance, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Insurance, to whom was referred Senate File No. 12, a bill for an act to provide a method whereby assessment life associations may re-incorporate as legal reserve life insurance companies, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be indefinitely postponed for the reason that it is identical with House File No. 48, herewith recommended for passage.

W. P. WHIPPLE,
Chairman.

Adopted.

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

The following messages were received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following concurrent resolution, in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Relative to publishing ten thousand copies each of the annual report of the Iowa State Highway Commission, for the years ending July 1, 1906, and July 1, 1907.

WHEREAS, The law creating the State Highway Commission makes no provision for the printing of its annual reports made to the Governor; and,

WHEREAS, The said reports contain a large amount of information of special interest and value to the farmers and road builders of Iowa, therefore be it

Resolved by the House, the Senate concurring, That ten thousand copies of each of said annual reports, for the year ending July 1st, 1906, and for the year ending July 1st, 1907, be printed in pamphlet form for distribution by said Highway Commission.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Senate resumed consideration of House File No. 50, a bill for an act relating to rates of fraternal beneficiary societies, which was under consideration yesterday.

Senator Bruce moved to amend by adopting the following as a substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE FILE NO. 50.

A BILL for an act regulating fraternal beneficiary societies, orders or associations, establishing a standard mortality table therefor, requiring adequate rates with an annual accounting and distribution, providing for valuation of certificates, designating plans of insurance and beneficiaries, and declaring any contract in conflict herewith void.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. No fraternal beneficiary society shall hereafter be organized in this State which does not provide for the collection from its members for mortality purposes of payments equal to those required by the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at a rate not exceeding $3\frac{1}{2}$ per centum per annum.

SEC. 2. No foreign fraternal beneficiary society not now authorized to transact business in this State shall hereafter be authorized to transact business as a fraternal beneficiary society in this State which does not provide for the collection from its members for mortality purposes of payments equal to those required by the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at a rate not exceeding $3\frac{1}{2}$ per centum per annum.

SEC. 3. No fraternal beneficiary society now authorized to transact business in this State shall be licensed to transact business in this State as a fraternal beneficiary society after the expiration of its license which may be in force on December 31, 1910, which does not provide for the collection of payments from its members admitted after December 31, 1908, for mortality purposes equal to those required by the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at a rate not exceeding $3\frac{1}{2}$ per centum per annum.

SEC. 4. Every fraternal beneficiary society transacting business in this State and collecting payments from its members based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, shall make an accounting with its members on the 31st day of December of each year for the purpose of ascertaining the cost of mortality, expense, and the reserve required upon the insurance granted upon rates based upon said table, and if such accounting shall disclose a surplus after providing for mortality, expense, and necessary reserve, equal to or exceeding one or more periodical or monthly payments from all members who have made periodical or monthly payments for one full year before said December 31st, based upon said mortality table, then such surplus shall be distributed to such members by crediting one or more periodical or monthly payments as the case may be, within three months after December 31st of the year for which the accounting is had, and charging the amount so credited against such surplus, and any surplus not equal to the aggregate of one periodical or monthly payment of those entitled to participate in said accounting shall be retained by the society and disposed of at the next annual accounting. Any member entitled to participate in any accounting shall receive from the society of which he is a member a statement of the accounting as the same may be made under the provisions of this act, which statement shall show in detail the facts upon which said accounting is based.

SEC. 5. Every fraternal beneficiary society transacting business in this State shall keep the funds and properties, books, and accounts of the members paying upon the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality separate from the funds and properties, books, and accounts of the members whose assessments and payments are not based upon said mortality table, and the rights of the members and the liability of the society to the members and their beneficiaries shall be determined accordingly.

SEC. 6. The Auditor of State shall have supervision, direction, and control over all fraternal beneficiary societies, licensed to transact business or organized in this State, and shall have authority, whenever by him deemed expedient or necessary and as often as may be requested by the society, to value all contracts of insurance issued by fraternal beneficiary societies authorized to transact business or organized in this State, the expense thereof to be paid by such society.

SEC. 7. Every fraternal beneficiary society authorized to transact business in this State may admit as members persons between the ages of sixteen and sixty years, and who are otherwise eligible.

SEC. 8. The beneficiaries of members of fraternal beneficiary societies authorized to transact business in this State shall be limited to members of the family of, heirs of, blood relations of, affianced wife, or affianced husband of the members, or to persons dependent upon the member for support, or to the member's estate.

SEC. 9. All fraternal beneficiary societies transacting business in this State and collecting payments from its members based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality shall have authority to issue contracts of life insurance upon the following plan:

1. Level life premiums.
2. Twenty-year payment premium.
3. Step rate or natural premium to age 65, and then level or then terminating.
4. Level to age 65 and then terminating.

SEC. 10. Every fraternal beneficiary society complying with the provisions of Sections One (1), Two (2), or Three (3) hereof shall have authority, but are not required to transfer its members paying premium not in accordance with American Experience Table of Mortality to the classes or plans which do pay premiums based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality without medical examination, provided the transferred member be rated and required to pay premiums at his attained age at the time of transfer based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at not exceeding $3\frac{1}{2}$ per centum per annum.

SEC. 11. All contracts, laws, rules, regulations, or provisions of any fraternal beneficiary society in conflict with the terms of this law shall be null, void, and non-enforceable.

SEC. 12. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Senator Dunham moved the previous question on the amendment and the original bill.

Carried.

The substitute was lost.

Senator Jamison of Clarke moved that the rule be suspended and the bill be read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Foley, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Kimmel, Mattes, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—31.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Insurance, to whom was referred Senate File No. 20, a bill for an act to repeal Chapter Five (5) of Title IX (9) of the Code, and enact a substitute therefor, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

Section One. Line eight. Strike out the word "other" and insert in lieu thereof the word "similar."

Line eight. Insert between the two words "associations," the words "authorized to do business in this State."

Add to the bottom of said Section One (1), the following paragraph:

"Risks or hazards above mentioned shall be classified as follows:

"1. Fire and lightning.

"2. Tornadoes, cyclones and windstorms.

"3. Hailstorms.

"4. Plate glass."

Section Three. Strike out lines one, two and three, and the first six words in line four, to and including the word "received," and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 3. No state mutual assessment association shall issue any policies until at least one hundred and twenty-five (125) applications have been received in any class as shown by Section One (1) hereof, representing the following amount of insurance: Classes one, two and three, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) each; class four, one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

Section Four. Strike out line numbered sixteen and insert the following in its place:

16. Amount and number of claims reported but not adjusted.

Strike from the line numbered seventeen the word "losses" and insert the word "claims" in its place.

Strike out the entire line numbered twenty-two and insert the following in its place:

22. The amount of cash in hands of agents and course of transmission.

Section Seven. Add to line six after the word "No" the words "state mutual."

Add to last line of Section Seven (7), after the word "advance," the words "where such assessment exceeds three (3) mills on each dollar of insurance in force."

Transpose Sections Seven (7) and Eight (8), numbering the present Section Seven (7) as Section Eight (8), and the present Section Eight (8) as Section Seven (7).

Section Nine. Amend line two, by inserting after the word "chapter," the words, "except such associations as confine their business exclusively to dwelling houses and farm buildings."

Amend line six by inserting after the words "forty per cent," the words "but not to exceed fifty (50) per cent."

Section Twelve. Strike out the word "opinion" from line two, and substitute therefor the word "ascertain."

Strike from line twenty-three the words "two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000)" and insert in lieu thereof the words "the amount required by Section Three (3) hereof."

Section 13. Substitute the following for Section Thirteen (13):

SEC. 13. Any policy of insurance issued by an association operating under the provisions of this act all obligations to the association having giving five (5) days' written notice thereof to the insured, or if the insured shall demand in writing or in person, of the association, the cancellation of his policy, the association shall immediately advise him, by letter to address named, the amount, if any, as his pro rata share of losses and expenses incurred since date of his policy. Upon surrender of his policy and payment of all sums due, his membership shall cease, provided, that during the months of June, July and August, hail insurance policies may be cancelled only at the option of the officers of the association carrying the risk.

Upon expiration or cancellation of any policy of insurance issued under the provisions of this act, all obligations to the association having been paid, the member shall be entitled to, and shall be paid by the association, a sum equal to at least seventy-five (75) per cent of the unexpended portion of the amount contributed by him to the reinsurance reserve.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Pharmacy, to whom was referred Senate File No. 31, a bill for an act to prevent the adulteration, misbranding and imitation of drugs; and repealing Sections Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-three (4983), Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-five (4985), Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-six (4986) and Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-eight (4988) of the Code; and vesting the execution and enforcement of this act in the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 31.

A BILL for an act to prevent the adulteration, misbranding and imitation of drugs; and repealing Sections Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-three (4983), Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-five (4985), Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-six (4986) and Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-eight (4988) of the Code, and vesting the execution and enforcement of this act in the State Food and Dairy Commissioner.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. No person, firm or corporation, by himself, officer, servant or agent, or as the officer, servant or agent of any other person, firm or corporation, shall manufacture or introduce into the State or solicit orders for delivery, or sell, exchange, deliver, or have in his possession with the intent to sell, exchange or expose, or offer for sale or exchange, any drug which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act. Provided, that none of the penalties set forth in this act shall be imposed upon any common carrier for introducing into the State, or having in its possession, any adulterated or misbranded drugs, where the same were received by said carrier for transportation in the ordinary course of its business and without actual knowledge of the adulteration or misbranding thereof.

SEC. 2. The term "drug," as used in this act, shall include all medicines and preparations recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary for internal or external use, and any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease of either man or other animals, or for the destruction of parasites.

SEC. 3. For the purposes of this act, a drug shall be deemed to be adulterated:

First. When a drug is sold under or by a name recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary, it differs from the standard of strength, quality or purity as determined by the test laid down in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary official at the time of investigation; provided, that no drug defined in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary shall be deemed to be adulterated under this provision if the standard of strength, quality or purity be plainly stated upon the bottle, box or other container thereof although the standard may differ from that determined by the test laid down in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary.

Second. If its strength or purity fall below the professed standard or quality under which it is sold.

SEC. 4. The term "misbranded," as herein used, shall apply to all drugs the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design or device regarding such article or the ingredients or substances contained therein, which shall be false or misleading in any particular and to any drug which is falsely branded as to state, country or territory in which it is manufactured or produced.

For the purposes of this act, a drug shall also be deemed to be misbranded:

First. If it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the name of another article.

Second. If the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other contents shall have been placed in such package, or if the package shall fail to bear a statement on the label showing the name and the exact quantity or proportion of any alcohol, morphine, opium, heroin, chloroform, cannabis indica, chloral hydrate, acetanilide, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein. The statement herein required shall be plainly printed upon the outside wrapper and also upon a label affixed to the package in type "eight point caps;" provided, that in case the size of the package will not permit the use of eight point caps, the size of the type may be reduced proportionately. There shall be such a contrast between the color of the label and the color of the ink used in printing the label heretofore required, that the printing thereon shall be easily and plainly legible.

SEC. 5. No person, firm or corporation shall sell, offer, or expose for sale, or have in his possession, any preparation or product intended for use of man or domestic animals, either for internal or external use, or for cosmetic purposes, or for inhalation, or for perfumes, which contains methyl (wood) alcohol, crude or refined, or denatured alcohol.

SEC. 6. The Commissioner shall, from time to time, with the approval of the Executive Council, issue a printed bulletin, showing the results of inspections; analyses and prosecutions undertaken under this act, together with such general information as may be deemed suitable. Such bulletins shall be printed in such numbers as may be directed by the Executive Council, and shall be issued to the newspapers of this State and to all interested persons.

SEC. 7. It is hereby made the duty of the State Food and Dairy Commissioner to enforce the provisions of this act. The inspectors, assistants and chemists appointed by the State Food and Dairy Commissioner shall perform the same duties and have the same authority under this act as are prescribed by Chapter One Hundred and Sixty-six (166), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly.

SEC. 8. Any person, firm or corporation, or agent thereof, who refuses to comply, on demand, with any of the requirements of this act, or who shall violate any of its provisions, or who shall obstruct or hinder the said State Food and Dairy Commissioner, or any of his assistants, in the discharge of any duty imposed by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

SEC. 9. All goods purchased or received by either wholesale or retail dealers of this State prior to July first, nineteen hundred and seven (1907) shall be exempt from the provisions of this act to January first, nineteen hundred and eight (1908). The having in possession by any person who manufactures or exposes for sale, any adulterated or misbranded drug, within the meaning of this act, shall be prima facie evidence of having in possession with intent to sell in violation of its provisions; provided, that any manufacturer, wholesaler or jobber may keep goods specifically set apart in his stock for sale in other states, which might otherwise be in violation of the provisions of this act.

SEC. 10. Sections Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-three (4983), Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-five (4985), Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-six (4986) and Four Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighty-eight (4988) of the Code are hereby repealed.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

J. A. MCKLVEEN,
Chairman.

The substitute was read first and second time and passed on file.

The County Auditor shall thereupon notify the Auditor of State, who shall give the county credit for the amount of principal in the original notes remaining unpaid. All lands hereafter acquired by the State under foreclosure proceedings shall be re-sold within two years from date of foreclosure and all such lands heretofore acquired shall be re-sold on or before January 1, 1909. Such lands shall be appraised, advertised, and sold in the manner provided for the appraisal, advertisement, and sale of the sixteenth section or lands selected in lieu thereof. When a re-sale is made the County Auditor shall notify the Auditor of State, who shall thereupon charge the county with the full amount of the re-sale, except that when the lands are sold for more than the unpaid portion of the principal, the excess shall be applied to reimburse the county for the costs of foreclosure and the interest paid by the county to the State by reason of default of payment of same by the makers of the notes, previous to the time when the right of redemption has expired, not, however, to exceed three years. Any excess over and above the amount of the unpaid portion of the principal, costs of foreclosure, and interest on the principal as above provided, shall inure to the State and be credited to the permanent school fund account. If the lands shall be sold for a less amount than the unpaid portion of the principal, the loss shall be sustained by the county and the Board of Supervisors shall at once order the amount of such loss transferred from the general fund of the county to the permanent school fund account. County Auditors shall, on or before the first day of January of each year, report to the Auditor of State the amount of all sales and re-sales made during the year previous, of the sixteenth section, five hundred thousand acres grant, escheat estates, and lands taken under foreclosure of school fund mortgages, and the Auditor of State shall charge the same to the counties with interest from the date of such sale or re-sale to January first, at the rate of four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) per cent per annum. The Auditor of State shall, also, on the first day of January, charge to each county having permanent school funds under its control, interest thereon at the rate of four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) per cent per annum for the preceding year, or such part thereof as such funds shall have been in the control of the county, which shall be taken as the whole amount of interest due from each county. All interest collected above the four and one-half ($4\frac{1}{2}$) per cent charged by the State shall be transferred to the general county fund. If any county fails or refuses to collect the amount of interest due the State, the deficiency shall be paid to the State from the general county fund. Any county delinquent in the payment of interest due the State shall be charged one (1) per cent per month on the amount delinquent until paid. County Auditors shall, upon the first day of January of each year, report to the Auditor of State the amount of rents collected during the preceding year on unsold school lands and lands taken under foreclosure of school fund mortgages then in the hands of the County Treasurer, and the Auditor of State shall include the amount so reported in his semi-annual apportionment of interest.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

By unanimous consent the amendment and the motion was withdrawn, and the bill retained its place on the Calendar.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

The following messages were received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House File No. 128, a bill for an act to amend Sections Twenty-five Hundred and Twenty-nine (2529), Twenty-five Hundred and Thirty (2530) and Twenty-five Hundred and Thirty-four (2534) of the Code, and to repeal and enact substitutes for Sections Twenty-five Hundred and Thirty-three (2533) and Twenty-five Hundred and Thirty-eight (2538) thereof, relating to the State Veterinary Surgeon.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has amended and passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the House was asked:

Senate File No. 55, a bill for an act to prohibit and regulate hospitals, institutions and places created for or maintained and used as lying-in or maternity hospitals, or hospitals or places for the reception, care and treatment of women in labor.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also :

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has indefinitely postponed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the House was asked:

Senate File No. 79, a bill for an act to amend Section Thirty-six Hundred and Eighty-eight (3688) of the Code, relating to challenge of jurors for cause.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Newberry, Senate File No. 204, a bill for an act to amend the law as it appears in Section Two Thousand Five Hundred and Ninety-six-a (2596-a) of the Supplement to the Code, in relation to the sale of cocaine, and restricting the sale of certain other drugs, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend by adding the following to Section One (1): "Provided, that nothing in this act shall prevent the sale thereof to a wholesale or retail dealer in drugs, nor to a registered physician or veterinarian or licensed dentist".

Adopted.

The bill as amended was read for information.

Senator Newberry moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Young—46.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Jamieson of Page, Nichols, Taylor, Wilson of Clinton—4.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

The time having arrived, Senate File No. 280, a bill for an act providing for the nomination, by political parties or organizations, of candidates for various offices, and the election of delegates to conventions of said political parties or organizations, and the election of party committeemen, by a primary election, and for the holding of conventions by such political parties or organizations, and repealing Chapter Forty (40), laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, and Chapters Forty-five (45) and Forty-six (46), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to primary elections, was taken up and considered.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Six (6) by adding at the end thereof the following: "If any primary elector write upon his ticket the name of any person who is a candidate for the same office upon some other party ticket than that upon which his name shall be written, such ballot shall be so counted for such person only as a candidate of the party upon whose ballot his name is written, and shall in no case be counted for such person as a candidate upon any other ticket. In case the person is nominated upon more than one ticket, he shall forthwith file with the proper officer a written declaration indicating the party designation under which his name is to be printed on the official ballot for the general election following such primary election".

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Thirteen (13) by striking out in line one thereof the words "and every".

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Fourteen (14) by inserting after the square and the name J. R. Wayne in the thirteenth line thereof, after the square and the name William Longley in the seventeenth line, after the square and the name James Harlan in the twenty-third line, after the square and the name Robert Thompson in the twenty-seventh line after the square and the name Joseph Raymond in the thirty-ninth line, and after the square and the name H. S. Wilson in the forty-fourth line, a square and a blank space indicated by a dotted line, in each of the above designated places; also by striking out the square and the blank space in the forty-ninth line of said section.

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Sixteen (16) by inserting after the word "ticket" in line eight thereof the word "voted".

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Nineteen (19) by striking out the word "for" in line eight and inserting in lieu thereof the words "or candidates of".

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Twenty-five (25) by striking out of line thirty-three in the printed bill the words "from among the delegates elected to said county convention".

On the adoption of the amendment a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Hopkins, Hughes, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stookey, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—28.

The nays were:

Senators Bleakly, DeWolf, Foley, Gale, Gilliland, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Moon, Nichols, Smith of Des Moines, Stirton, Stuckslager, Wade, Whiting—16.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeArmand, Frudden, Lambert, McManus, Taylor, Wilson of Clinton—6.

So the amendment was adopted.

Senator Crossley moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Also amend Section Twenty-five (25) by striking out of lines thirty-six and thirty-seven of the printed bill the word and figures "twenty-five (25)" and inserting in lieu thereof the word and figures "twenty-six (26)".

Adopted.

Senator Dunham submitted the following amendment, which was laid over:

Move to amend Section Twenty-two (22) by striking therefrom that part of said section beginning with and including the word "such" in the ninth line to and including the word "State" last appearing in eleventh line, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Such canvass and certificate shall be final as to all candidates named therein receiving a majority of all the votes of his party and the candidate of each political party for each office having received the majority of the votes of his party in the State or district of the State".

Senator DeArmand moved that the further consideration of this bill be postponed until Monday, March 18, at 10:30 o'clock A.M.

Senator Warren moved as a substitute for the former motion that Senate File No. 280 be made a special order for Thursday, March 14, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Senator Frudden moved the previous question.

Carried.

On the adoption of the substitution motion, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the motion prevail?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Ericson, Hughes, Kimmel, Kinne, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Turner, Warren, Wilson of Fayette, Young—18.

The nays were:

Senators Bleakly, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles,

Elerick, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gillilland, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jaimson of Clarke, Jones, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Moon, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Wade, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—30.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bruce, Hopkins—2.

So the substitute was lost.

On the adoption of the original motion a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the motion prevail?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Elerick, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gillilland, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Saunders, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—30.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Eckles, Ericsen, Hopkins, Hughes, Kimmel, Kinne, Mattes, Maytag, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Turner, Wilson of Fayette, Young—19.

Absent or not voting:

Senator Bruce—1.

So the motion prevailed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEE.

Senator Gillilland, from the Committee on Cities and Towns, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Cities and Towns, to whom was referred Senate File No. 227, a bill for an act to prohibit the discharge into the open air of dense smoke within the corporate limits of cities which now have or may have hereafter a population of fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants; to declare the discharge into the open air of dense smoke within the corporate limits of such cities a nuisance, and to provide penalties for the violation and enforcement thereof, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

Amend the title by striking from the second, third and fourth lines thereof the words and figures "which now have or may have hereafter a population of fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants" and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "of the first class or special charter cities having twenty thousand (20,000) or more inhabitants".

Amend Section One (1) by striking out the first sentence thereof, following the word and figure "Section 1" and inserting the following in lieu thereof: "The emission or discharge into the open air of dense smoke within the corporate limits of cities of this State of the first class or special charter cities having twenty thousand (20,000) or more inhabitants, is hereby declared a nuisance".

And when so amended the bill do pass.

SHIRLEY GILLILLAND,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Gilliland, from the Committee on Cities and Towns, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Cities and Towns, to whom was referred Senate File No. 290, a bill for an act to amend sub-division sixteen of Section Six Hundred and Sixty-eight (668) of the Code, in relation to the duties of city council and amending said sub-Section Sixteen (16) and making the same apply to cities of the second class, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same do pass.

SHIRLEY GILLILLAND,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Gilliland, from the Committee on Cities and Towns, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Cities and Towns, to whom was referred Senate File No. 111, a bill for an act relating to the organization and officers of cities and towns, amending Chapter Two (2), Title Five (5) of the Code, and of the law as it appears in the Supplement to the Code, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

Amend Section Four (4) by striking out the word "and" following the word "auditor" in the fourth line and inserting after the word "auditor" a comma; also by striking out the period after the word "assessor" in the fourth line of said section, inserting a comma in lieu thereof, and adding thereto the following: "and in cities where there is no superior court a police judge".

Amend sub-Section Two (2) of Section Eight (8) by striking out the comma after the word "commissioner" in the second line thereof, and also by striking out from the second and third lines thereof the words "where there is no superior court, a police judge".

Amend by inserting after Section Twelve (12) the following sections:

SEC. 13. In any city having a population of thirty thousand (30,000) or more the council may, by ordinance, establish a board of public works and in cities having a population of fifty thousand (50,000) or more, there is hereby created a board of public works. Such board of public works shall consist of two members residents of the city, to be appointed by the mayor, and upon the establishment of said board one member shall be appointed for two years, and one for three years, and their successors shall be appointed for three years. The members shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. The mayor shall have the power to remove any member of the board of public works for cause at any time. Vacancies shall be filled by the mayor. No member of the council or city official shall be a member of such board. The provisions of this section shall not affect the terms of those now constituting the board of public works in those cities in which a board of public works has heretofore been established by ordinance, but the successors to such members shall be appointed under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 14. Section Eight Hundred and Sixty-five (865) of the Code is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

The board shall consult the city engineer regarding the plans and specifications and the advisability of doing or making contemplated improvements or work, and he shall, from time to time, furnish it with estimates of the cost of material and plans and specifications for any work to be ordered or advertised to be done, and report to the board whether such improvement or work is made and completed according to contract. Whenever the members of the board of public works are unable to agree upon any matter which is before it for decision, including the appointing of agents and employes, the city engineer shall decide such matter or appointment, and his decision shall be the decision of the board of public works. Such decision shall be rendered in writing and shall be filed in the office of the board of public works, and when so filed shall have the force and effect of a finding or determination by the board of public works.

SEC. 15. Section Eight Hundred and Sixty-seven (867) of the Code is hereby amended by striking out all of such section after the word "used" in the twelfth line thereof.

SEC. 16. Section Eight Hundred and Seventy-one (871) of the Code is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

No claim for any work done or material furnished in the construction of any public improvement shall be allowed by the council, unless the same has first been approved by the board of public works.

SEC. 17. Section Eight Hundred and Seventy-three (873) of the Code is hereby amended by striking out the words "subject to the approval of the council" in the second line thereof, and by striking out all of the said section after the word "work" in the third line thereof.

Amend by changing the numbers of Sections Thirteen (13, Fourteen

(14), Fifteen (15) and Sixteen (16) thereof to Eighteen (18), Nineteen (19), Twenty (20) and Twenty-one (21), respectively.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

SHIRLEY GILLILLAND,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Gillilland, from the Committee on Cities and Towns, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Cities and Towns, to whom was referred House File No. 156, a bill for an act to amend Section Seven Hundred and Seventy-one (771) of the Code Supplement and Section One (1), Chapter Twenty-nine (29) of the Acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, relating to the construction of viaducts, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

Amend by striking out the word "twenty-five" in the twelfth line of Section One (1) and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve".

Also by striking out the word "twenty-five" in the fourth and fifth lines of Section Two (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve".

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred Senate File No. 208, a bill for an act “to repeal Section Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-five (2155) of the Code, relating to joint freight rates over two or more connecting lines of railway between points within this State, and to enact a substitute therefor,” beg leave to report they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the following be substituted therefor, and when so substituted the bill do pass.

F. M. HOPKINS,
Chairman.

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 202.

A BILL for an act to repeal Sections Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-three (2153) and Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-five (2155) of the Code, relating to joint freight rates over two or more connecting lines of railway between points within this State, and to enact substitutes therefor.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That Sections Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-three (2153) of the Code be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Every owner or consignor of freight to be transported by railway from any point within this State to any other point within this State shall have the right to require that the same shall be transported over two or more connecting lines of railway, to be transferred at the connecting point or points without change of car or cars if in carload lots, and with change of car or cars if in less than car lots, whenever the distance from the place of shipment to destination, both being within this State, is less over two or more connecting lines of railway than it is over a single line of railway, or where the initial line does not reach the place of destination; and it shall be the duty, upon the request of any such owner or consignor of freight, made to the initial company, of such railway companies whose lines so connect, to transport the freight without change of car or cars if the shipment be in carload lot or lots, and with change of car or cars if it be in less than carload lots, from the place of shipment to destination, whenever the distance from the place of shipment to destination, both being within this State, is less than the distance over a single line, or when the initial line does not reach the point of destination, for a reasonable joint through rate. This section shall apply to interurban railways and their connection with ordinary steam railways.

SEC. 2. Section Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-five of the Code of 1897 be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

The Board of Railroad Commissioners shall, within ten days after this act takes effect, notify in writing every railway company owning or operating a railway within this State that it will, upon a day named in such notice, which day shall not be more than thirty days after giving said notice, take up for investigation the subject of establishing joint through rates, as herein provided, between the railway lines in this State. It shall also give a similar notice, directed "To whom it may concern," and so publish the same that it will have general circulation throughout the State. All corporations, partnerships and persons interested in the subject may present themselves at the hearing and be heard, under such rules and regulations as the Board may prescribe. At the end of the investigation, which shall be carried on with all due diligence, the said Board of Railroad Commissioners shall make and publish a schedule of joint through railway rates over such routes and for such traffic as in its judgment the fair and reasonable conduct of the business requires shall be done by carriage over two or more lines of railway, and will promote the interests of the people of this state. In the making thereof, and in changing, revising or adding to the same, the Board shall be governed as nearly as may be by the preceding sections of this chapter, and shall take into consideration, among other things, the rates established for shipments within this State for like distances over single lines, the rates charged by the railway companies operating such connecting lines for joint interstate shipments, and the increased cost, if any, of a joint through shipment as compared with a shipment over a single line for like distances. In establishing such rates for shipments in less than car-load lots, in cases where, at the connecting point or points in the line of shipment, the connecting railways have not and are not required to have a common station or stopping place for loading or unloading freight, the Board shall make such lawful regulations as in its judgment will be fair and just respecting the transportation of such freight from the usual unloading place of one railway to the usual loading place of the other. The joint through rates thus established shall be promulgated by mailing a printed copy thereof to each railway company affected thereby, and shall go into effect within ten days after they are so promulgated; and from and after that time an official printed schedule thereof shall be prima facie evidence, in all the courts of this State, that the rates therein fixed are just and reasonable for the joint transportation of such freight between the points and over the lines described therein. The said Board shall deliver a printed copy of said schedule to any person making application therefor.

The share of any railway company of any joint through rate shall not be construed to fix the charge that it may make for transportation for a similar distance over any part of its line for any other shipment than one to be carried over two or more connecting lines. The Board, upon such reasonable notice as it may prescribe, may, upon its own motion or upon the application of any person, firm or corporation interested therein, revise, change or add to any joint through rates fixed or promulgated hereunder; and any such revised, changed or added joint rates shall have the same force and effect as the rate or rates originally established . The said Board is empowered to authorize, upon proper hearing, any railway company whose line connects the point of shipment with the point of destination, but requires a longer haul than the joint haul over which a joint rate has been established, to charge the joint rate without affecting the charge upon any other part of its line, except that the charge for a like kind of property must not be greater for a shorter than for a longer distance over its railroad, all or any portion of the shorter haul being included with the longer. This section shall apply to interurban railways and their connection with ordinary steam railways.

SEC. 3. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall be in full force and effect from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

F. M. HOPKINS,
Chairman.

The substitute was read first and second time and passed on file.

Senator Hopkins, from the Committee on Railroads, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred Senate File No. 4, a bill for an act to repeal Section Two Thousand and Seventy-seven (2077) of the Code, relating to railroad passenger rates, and to enact a substitute therefor, beg leave to report they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be indefinitely postponed.

F. M. HOPKINS,
Chairman.

Adopted. . .

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

Adopted.

The President announced as a Committee of Arrangements: Senators Smith of Mitchell, Maytag and Bruce.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Senator Dowell, from the Committee on Judiciary, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred House File No. 104, a bill for an act to enable courts in counties wherein it has been determined that lawfully constituted juries have not been or cannot be drawn, to provide for the preparation of new jury lists and for the drawing and summoning of jurors therefrom, beg leave to report they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended by adopting the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE FILE NO. 104.

A BILL for an act to provide for the preparation of new jury lists where, for any cause, a lawfully constituted grand jury or petit jury cannot be obtained, or lawfully qualified talesman can not be selected under the law from those persons who are returned by the election officers to serve as jurors.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Wherever it has been or hereafter shall be found or determined by the district court in any county that, for any cause, the lawfully constituted grand jury or a petit jury has not or can not be obtained by drawing from the names returned by the election officers to the county auditor to serve as jurors, or that lawfully qualified talesman can not be selected by drawing from the list of names, the said court may order the board of supervisors of said county to prepare lists of names of persons having the qualifications required by law for grand jurors, petit jurors and talesmen. The court ordering shall fix the time of meeting of said board of supervisors therefor and shall prescribe the time and manner of notice thereof to be given the several members of such board. Said notice may be served by any person and proof of service shall be the same as that of original notice.

SEC. 2. It is hereby made the duty of the members of said board of supervisors to obey the order of the district court made in accordance with the authority granted it in Section One (1) hereof, and they are hereby empowered and authorized to hold a meeting of said board for the said purpose and the preparation of jury lists by said board at said meeting shall have precedence over all other business.

SEC. 3. The names to be drawn for grand jurors, petit jurors and talesmen shall be the number now required by law; they shall be apportioned among the several voting precincts by the county auditor as required by law, and such apportionment shall be certified by the auditor to the board of supervisors.

SEC. 4. In preparing such lists the board of supervisors shall select the names from the qualified electors from the several precincts as shown by the poll lists of the last preceding general election, selecting for grand jury, petit jury and talesmen lists, the number in each precinct shown by the auditor's apportionment provided for in this act. Such lists shall be separately certified by the board of supervisors, in substance and in form, as election officers are now required to certify lists returned by them and the lists shall be filed with the county auditor and recorded by him in the proper record, and shall stand as the regular jury list for the county for the year in which it is selected and shall be used therefor and juries chosen therefrom, in all respects except as to time of selection of list and panel and summoning of the jurors, as is now provided by law; the time of selection of list and panel and summoning of the jurors to be under the order of the court.

SEC. 5. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its publication in the Register and Leader, and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

C. C. DOWELL,
Chairman.

Adopted.

The substitute was read first and second time and placed on file.

Senator Dowell asked unanimous consent that House File No. 104 be considered at this time.

Senator Turner objected.

Senator Dowell moved that the rules be suspended and that House File No. 104, a bill for an act to enable courts in counties wherein it has determined that lawfully constituted juries have not been or cannot be drawn to provide for the preparation of new jury lists and for drawing and summoning of jurors therefrom, be taken up and considered, which motion prevailed.

Senator Kinne moved that the time for adjournment be extended until the bill under consideration be disposed of and for the correction of the Journals of Tuesday and yesterday.

Carried.

Senator Dowell moved that the committee substitute be substituted for the original bill.

Senator Allen moved that further consideration of the bill be deferred until tomorrow.

Senator Stookey moved to amend by making the time 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The amendment was adopted.

The motion as amended prevailed.

Senator Wilson of Fayette moved that 500 extra copies of Senate File No. 280, the Primary Election Bill, be printed.

Carried.

The President expressed gratification for the opportunity of welcoming the Pioneer Law-Makers' Association of Iowa, and in turning over the gavel to the president of the association he announced that he had requested Senator Moon to make the address of welcome on behalf of the Senate.

Mr. President, Pioneer Law-Makers of Iowa and Senators:

Most happy am I to convey the greeting of the Senate to those who, in years gone by, were engaged in the active and honorable service of our beloved State. The commonwealth of Iowa is not old; not old enough to have developed those traditions which render the history of older countries and older states interesting to strangers. But she has history; history of which the people within her borders are proud.

Under a popular government, the history of a state or nation is most accurately written in the laws which the people, from time to time, enact for their own government. The title of your organization, Pioneer Law-Makers of Iowa, discloses and implies an intimate relation between yourselves and the history of Iowa, and, as we are proud of the history of our State, we honor, respect and greet you as the makers of that history, and the Senate and the State of Iowa feels honored at your presence here.

There is another reason why our greeting is most cordial and most sincere and this reason is confidential in its nature. In the whole State of Iowa there are none who better appreciate than do you the perplexities which confront us now in endeavoring to conscientiously discharge the duties which we owe to those whom we represent. None better know than do you how difficult it is to harmonize conflicting interests and to protect one against the encroachments of the other. None better know than you know how difficult it is to be guided by a petition from a constituency and, at the same time, to be governed by a protest regarding the same matter, and none better know than you of the profound doubt which fills our minds, and which filled your minds in years gone by, as to whether the people at home, whom you represent, as they read the record, are preparing to say to us on our return, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," or whether they are even now expressing themselves in other scriptural terms quite as emphatic, quite as full of meaning, yet much less comfortable to listen to, and whether the words of the Litany, "Good Lord, Deliver us; Good Lord, Deliver us," are becoming a household expression, as they read the daily accounts of our doings here. However, that may be, I feel that the best hope which I could express for this Assembly is that when, in after years, if we return to survey the condition prevailing at that time, we may be as well satisfied and content with the record of the Thirty-second General Assembly as you should be at this time in surveying the result of your work years ago.

President Perry then introduced Mrs. Jessie Cheek who sang in a beautiful manner, "The last Rose of Summer," and to an enthusiastic encore responded with an echo song.

The President introduced Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Warren S. Dungan to respond to the address of welcome on behalf of the association.

Senator Gilliland, being called for, delivered a happy address of felicitation to the association.

The president of the association then introduced Judge C. C. Cole as one of the most prominent members of the legal fraternity and educators of the State, who addressed the Assembly at length.

Former Senator Lot Abraham was then introduced and pleased the assemblage by singing two of his characteristic songs.

The president of the association then thanked the Senate for their cordial invitation and pleasing entertainment.

President Garst returned the thanks of the Senate for their visit and spoke in glowing terms of their services rendered to the State and hoped their successors would have the pleasure of receiving many calls of a like nature.

The association then withdrew and the members of the Imperial Za-Ga-Zig Temple of Des Moines were invited to assume the seats just vacated.

President Garst welcomed the Imperial Council to the halls of legislation and turned over the gavel together with all authority to Imperial Potentate Frank O. Evans, and for thirty minutes, wisdom, fun, sarcasm, mingled with good fellowship, prevailed.

The session was heartily enjoyed by all and was a delightful break in the monotony of the legislative grind.

The council then withdrew. The Senate resumed its session, and on motion of Senator Hughes the Senate adjourned until 9 o'clock A. M. tomorrow.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

The following messages were received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House File No. 63, a bill for an act to repeal Section Two Thousand and Fifty-seven (2057) of the Code, relating to fences required to be constructed by railroad companies, and enacting a substitute therefor.

C. R. BENEDICT,

Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House herewith asks the recall of the following bill, in which the concurrence of the Senate was asked:

House File No. 1, a bill for an act to authorize counties to purchase and maintain real estate for the use of county fairs, additional to Section Four Hundred Twenty-two (422) of the Code.

C. R. BENEDICT,

Chief Clerk.

Senator Maytag moved that Senate File No. 219, a bill for an act authorizing the Executive Council to build walks and steps and make necessary repairs around the Capitol building and grounds, and making an appropriation therefor, be indefinitely postponed, for the reason that House File No. 312 is identical.

Carried.

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Mattes, House File No. 105, a bill for an act to prohibit combination among grain elevator men and to prohibit any person, company, partnership, association or corporation engaged in the business of grain dealing or owning or operating grain elevators from combining or entering into any agreement, contract or trust to pool or fix the prices to be paid for grain or to prevent the free action of competition in the buying of grain, or the selling of grain, and to provide punishment for the same, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Mattes moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

A bill for an act to prohibit any person, company, partnership, association, or corporation engaged in the business of grain dealing, or owning or operating grain elevators, from combining or entering into any agreement, contract, trust, or pool to fix the prices to be paid for grain, or to prevent the free action of competition in the buying of grain, or the selling of grain, and to provide punishment for the violation of this act.

Adopted.

Senator Mattes moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Also, Section One (1) of the bill be amended by striking out all of Section One (1) and by substituting therefor the following, to-wit:

"SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, partnership, association, or corporation owning or operating any grain elevator or engaged in the business of buying, selling, handling, consigning, or transporting grain, to enter into any agreement, contract, or combination with any other grain dealer, or grain dealers, partnership, company, corporation, or association of grain dealers, whether within or without the State, engaged in like business, or the fixing of prices to be paid for grain by different dealers or buyers; or to divide between said dealers the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such dealers and buyers, or any portion thereof; or to form, enter into, maintain, or contribute money or anything of value to any trust, pool, combination, or association of persons of whatsoever character or name, which has for any of its objects the prevention of full and free competition among buyers, sellers, or dealers in grain; or to do or permit to be done by his or their authority any act or thing whereby the free action of competition in the buying or selling of grain is restrained or prevented."

Adopted.

Senator Mattes moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Also, that Section Three (3) of the bill be amended by striking out all the words between the period following the word "court" in the eleventh line of said section to and including the period following the word "recovered" in the sixteenth line of said section.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

Adopted.

Senator Mattes moved that the rule be suspended and the bill read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Senator Hopkins, from the Committee on Railroads, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred Senate File No. 287, a bill for an act to aid in the acquisition of terminal facilities and power for interurban railways, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the bill herewith presented be substituted therefor.

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 287.

A BILL for an act to aid in the acquisition of terminal facilities and power for interurban railway companies.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all persons, firms or corporations now or hereafter owning or operating electric street railways in any city or town of this State, are hereby authorized and required to permit the use of their terminals, tracks, poles and wires in the streets, alleys and public places of said cities and towns, and such portions of their tracks, poles and wires as may cross property owned by said street railway companies in such cities and towns, by the passenger and combination baggage cars of interurban railway companies, for the transportation of passengers, mail, express and baggage, and said street railways shall furnish to said interurban railways, electric power for the operation of their cars and the transaction of their said business in said cities and towns; but said street railways shall not be required to furnish electric power except during such hours as their street railway cars may be in operation. Said interurban railways shall pay a reasonable compensation for the privileges above mentioned and the power that may be furnished them under this act. If an agreement for the use of the facilities so furnished and the compensation for the same cannot be made between the interested parties, the question as to the amount of such compensation and the conditions under which said facilities shall be furnished, used and operated, shall be heard and determined by the Board of Railway Commissioners of the State of Iowa, on application to the said Board by either party to the controversy, ten days' notice in writing of such application being served upon the opposite party, and any order entered by said Board of Railway Commissioners shall be subject to modification or review by said Board of Railway Commissioners upon notice being given as herein provided.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act shall not affect any pending litigation.

SEC. 4. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

F. M. HOPKINS,
Chairman.

F. M. HOPKINS,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Hopkins, from the Committee on Railroads, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred Senate File No. 202 and the substitute therefor, a bill for an act to repeal Sections Twenty-one Hundred and Fifty-three (2153) and Twenty-one Hundred and Fifty-five (2155) of the Code, relating to joint freight rates over two or more connecting lines of railway between points within this State, and to enact a substitute therefor, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows: Strike all of the substitute after the enacting clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 202.

SECTION 1. That Section Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-three (2153) of the Code be and the same is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

Every owner or consignor of freight to be transported by railway from any point within this State to any other point within this State shall have the right to require that the same shall be transported over two or more connecting lines of railway, to be transferred at the connecting point or points without change of car or cars if in carload lots, and with or without change of car or cars if in less than carload lots, whenever the distance from the place of shipment to destination, both being within this State, is less over two or more connecting lines of railway than it is over a single line of railway, or where the initial line does not reach the place of destination; and it shall be the duty, upon the request of any such owner or consignor of freight, made to the initial company, of such railway companies whose lines so connect, to transport the freight without change of car or cars if the shipment be in a carload lot or lots, and with change of car or cars if it be in less than carload lots, from the place of shipment to destination, whenever the distance from the place of shipment to destination, being within this State, is less than the distance over a single line, or when the initial line does not reach the point of destination, for a reasonable joint through rate. This section shall apply to inter-urban railways and their connection with ordinary steam railways.

SEC. 2. Section Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-five (2155) of the Code is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

The Board of Railroad Commissioners shall, within ten days after this act takes effect, notify in writing every railway company owning or operating a railway within this State that it will, upon a day named in such notice, which day shall not be more than thirty days after giving said notice, take up for investigation the subject of establishing joint through rates, as herein provided, between the railway lines in this State. It shall also give a similar notice, directed "To whom it may concern," and so publish the same that it will have general circulation throughout the State. All corporations, partnerships and persons interested in the subject may present themselves at the hearing and be heard, under such rules and regulations as the Board may prescribe. At the end of the investigation, which shall be carried on with all due diligence, the said Board of Railroad Commissioners shall make and publish a schedule of joint through railway rates over such routes and for such traffic as in its judgment the fair and reasonable conduct of business requires shall be done by carriage over two or more lines of railway, and will promote the interests of the people of this State. In the making thereof, and in changing, revising or adding to the same, the Board shall be governed as nearly as may be by the preceding sections of this chapter, and shall take into consideration, among other things, the rates established for shipments within this State for like distances over single lines, the rates charged by the railway companies operating such connecting lines for joint interstate shipments, and the increased cost, if any, of a joint through shipment as compared with a shipment over a single line for like distances. In establishing such rates for shipments in less than carload lots, in cases where at the connecting point or points in the line of shipment the connecting railways have not and are not required to have a common station or stopping place for loading or unloading freight, the Board shall make such lawful regulations as in its judgment will be fair and just respecting the transportation of such freight from the usual unloading place of one railway to the usual loading place of the other. The joint through rates thus established shall be promulgated by mailing a printed copy thereof to each railway company affected thereby, and shall go into effect within ten days after they are so promulgated; and from and after that time an official printed schedule thereof shall be prima facie evidence, in all the courts of this State, that the rates therein fixed are just and reasonable for the joint transportation of such freight between the points and over the lines described therein. The said Board shall deliver a printed copy of said schedule to any person making application therefor.

The share of any railway company of any joint through rate shall not be construed to fix the charge that it may make for transportation for a similar distance over any part of its line for single rate shipment or the share of any other joint rate. The Board, upon such reasonable notice as it may prescribe, may, upon its own motion or upon the application of any person, firm or corporation interested therein, revise, change or add to any joint through rates fixed or promulgated hereunder; and any such revised, changed or added joint rates shall have the same force and effect as the rate or rates originally established. The said Board is empowered to authorize, upon proper hearing, any railway company whose line connects the point of shipment with the point of destination, but requires a longer haul than the joint haul over which a joint rate has been established, to charge the joint rate without affecting the charge upon any other part of its line, except that the charge for a like kind of property must not be greater for a shorter than for a longer distance over its railroad, all of the shorter haul being included within the longer. This section shall apply to interurban railways and their connection with ordinary steam railways.

SEC. 3. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall be in full force and effect from after its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Appropriations, to whom was referred substitute for Senate File No. 18, a bill for an act regulating the sale of agricultural seeds, concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs and the materials from which they are manufactured; defining concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, and what shall constitute purity in various kinds of seeds; prohibiting the adulteration and providing for the correct weighing and marking of agricultural seeds and concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs; and providing for the collection of samples, analyses of the same, and fixing penalties for its violation; and vesting the execution and enforcement of this act in the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

Amend Section One (1) Number One (1) fifth item, of the substitute bill, by inserting after the word "fifth" the following: "except in the case of condimental stock food; patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock and poultry foods, claimed to possess medicinal or nutritive properties, or both".

Amend Section Two (2) of the substitute bill by adding thereto the following:

"Except condimental stock food; patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock or poultry foods, claimed to possess medicinal or nutritive properties, or both; and these shall be labeled or branded so as not to deceive or mislead the purchaser in any way, and the contents of any such package shall not be substituted in whole or in part for any other contents.

"Any statement, design or device upon the label or package regarding the substances contained therein, shall be true and correct, and any claim made for the feeding, condimental, tonic or medicinal value shall not be false or misleading in any particular.

"The name and percentage of any deleterious or poisonous ingredient or ingredients shall be plainly stated upon the outside of the package or container".

Amend Section Five (5) of the substitute bill as follows: Strike out of Section Five (5) of the substitute as it appears in the Journal, after the semicolon in the sixth line thereof, the words: "except in the case of condimental stock or poultry foods, the fee paid shall be one dollar ($1.00) per ton", and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Every manufacturer, importer, dealer or agent for any condimental, patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock or poultry foods, or both, shall pay to the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, on or before the fifteenth day of July of each year, a license fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). Whenever the manufacturer or importer of such foods shall have paid the fee herein required, no other person or agent of such manufacturer or importer shall be required to pay such license fee".

Also strike out of Section Five (5) of the substitute bill, as it appears in the Journal, after the word "provided", the semicolon and the remainder of the section, and insert a period.

Amend Section Five (5) of the substitute bill by adding: "provided, that any dealer who sells at one time to any other person one ton or more of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs shall be held to have complied with the provisions of this section if he delivers to the purchaser the tax tags herein required, even though they may not be attached to the various packages".

Amend Section Sixteen (16), line eleven, by striking out the figures "95" in the substitute bill, and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "94".

Amend Section Eighteen (18) of the substitute bill by adding thereto the following: "provided, that no one shall be convicted for violation of the provisions of Section Ten (10) of this act if he is able to show that the weed seeds named in Section Ten (10) are present in quantities not more than one in ten thousand, and that due diligence has been used to find and remove said seeds".

Amend Section Nineteen (19) of the substitute bill by striking out of the second and third lines thereof the words: "a sum not exceeding the amount of fees collected under its provisions", and inserting in lieu thereof the words "a sum not exceeding three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) annually".

Senator Gilliland moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend by inserting after Section Twelve (12) the following sections:

SEC. 13. In any city having a population of thirty thousand (30,000) or more the council may, by ordinance, establish a board of public works and in cities having a population of fifty thousand (50,000) or more, there is hereby created a board of public works. Such board of public works shall consist of two members residents of the city, to be appointed by the mayor, and upon the establishment of said board one member shall be appointed for two years, and one for three years, and their successors shall be appointed for three years. The members shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. The mayor shall have the power to remove any member of the board of public works for cause at any time. Vacancies shall be filled by the mayor. No member of the council or city official shall be a member of such board. The provisions of this section shall not affect the terms of those now constituting the board of public works in those cities in which a board of public works has heretofore been established by ordinance, but the successors to such members shall be appointed under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 14. Section Eight Hundred and Sixty-five (865) of the Code is hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

The board shall consult the city engineer regarding the plans and specifications and the advisability of doing or making contemplated improvements or work, and he shall, from time to time, furnish it with estimates of the cost of material and plans and specifications for any work to be ordered or advertised to be done, and report to the board whether such improvement or work is made and completed according to contract. Whenever the members of the board of public works are unable to agree upon any matter which is before it for decision, including the appointing of agents and employees, the city engineer shall decide such matter or appointment, and his decision shall be the decision of the board of public works. Such decision shall be rendered in writing and shall be filed in the office of the board of public works, and when so filed shall have the force and effect of a finding or determination by the board of public works.

SEC. 15. Section Eight Hundred and Sixty-seven (867) of the Code is hereby amended by striking out all of such section after the word "used" in the twelfth line thereof.

SEC. 16. Section Eight Hundred and Seventy-one (871) of the Code is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

No claim for any work done or material furnished in the construction of any public improvement shall be allowed by the council unless the same has first been approved by the board of public works.

SEC. 17. Section Eight Hundred and Seventy-three (873) of the Code is hereby amended by striking out the words "subject to the approval of the council" in the second line thereof, and by striking out all of the said section after the word "work" in the third line thereof.

Amend by changing the numbers of Sections Thirteen (13), Fourteen (14), Fifteen (15) and Sixteen (16) thereof to Eighteen (18), Nineteen (19), Twenty (20) and Twenty-one (21), respectively.

Adopted.

Senator Gilliland moved that the bill under consideration be made a special order for Wednesday at 9:30 o'clock A.M.

Carried.

Senator Bruce, from the Committee on Agriculture, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Agriculture, to whom was referred Senate File No. 318, a bill for an act to amend Chapter One Hundred and Sixty-six (166), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to definition of adulterated foods, and fixing standard for certain food products, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same do pass.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

The following message was received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House herewith asks to recall Senate File No. 77, a bill for an act making appropriations for the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, the State University and the State Normal School.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Senate resumed consideration of Senate File No. 76, a bill for an act repealing Sections One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-two (1872) and One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-three (1873) of the Code, relating to quarterly statements of state and savings banks and examinations by the Auditor of State and providing substitutes therefor.

Senator Jackson moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the bill by inserting in Section One (1) as sub-division fourteen (14) the following: "The total amount of liabilities to such association on the part of the directors thereof".

Senator Allen moved that further consideration of the bill be postponed.

Carried.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Whiting, Senate File No. 314, a bill for an act to legalize certain ordinances and official acts of the town council of Mondamin, Harrison county, Iowa, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Whiting moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend the bill by striking out the figures "1897" in the fourth line of the paragraph marked "2d", before the enacting clause; also in the same line the words "of Iowa".

Adopted.

The bill as amended was read for information.

Senator Whiting moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, Dowell, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Kinne, Lambert, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Taylor, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette—35.

Senators Crossley, DeWolf, Dunham, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, McKlveen, McManus, Saunders, Stuckslager, Turner, Wade, Wilson of Clinton, Young—15.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

Senator Dunham asked unanimous consent that Senate File No. 223 be made a special order for Wednesday at 10 o'clock A.M.

Consent granted.

Senator Dunham asked unanimous consent that Senate File No. 255 be made a special order to follow the special orders already made for Monday forenoon and that consideration of Senate Files No. 257 and 256 follow.

Consent granted.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Gilliland, Senate File No. 227, a bill for an act to prohibit the discharge into open air of dense smoke within the corporate limits of cities which now have or may have hereafter a population of fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants; to declare the discharge into the open air of dense smoke within the corporate limits of such cities a public nuisance, and to provide penalties for the violation and enforcement thereof, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Gilliland moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend the title by striking from the second, third and fourth lines thereof the words and figures "which now have or may have hereafter a population of fifty thousand (50,000) inhabitants" and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "of the first class or special charter cities having twenty thousand (20,000) or more inhabitants".

Adopted.

Senator Gilliland moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend Section One (1) by striking out the first sentence thereof, following the word and figure "Section 1" and inserting the following in lieu thereof: "The emission or discharge into the open air of dense smoke within the corporate limits of cities of this State of the first class or special charter cities having twenty thousand (20,000) or more inhabitants, is hereby declared a public nuisance".

Adopted.

The bill as amended was read for information.

Senator Gilliland moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Wade, Senate File No. 239, a bill for an act amending Section Thirteen Hundred and Thirty-three (1333) of the Code Supplement, in relation to taxes paid by insurance companies other than those organized under the laws of the State of Iowa, with report of committee recommending passage as amended by substitute, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Wade moved that the substitute be substituted for the original bill.

Adopted.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Wade moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—40.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, Dowell, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, Stuckslager, Turner, Whiting—10.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Maytag, Senate File No. 183, a bill for an act providing for placing a statue in bronze of James Harlan, ex-Senator of Iowa, in the National Statuary Hall in the Capitol building of Washington, D. C., and appropriating money to pay therefor, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Maytag moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton, Young—43.

The nays were :

None.

Absent or not voting :

Senators Crossley, Dowell, Elerick, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, Wilson of Fayette—7.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

Senator Seeley spoke as follows:

Statuary Hall, at the National Capitol, was originally the House of Representatives, and occupied as such prior to 1857. In this historic hall, Madison and Monroe were inaugurated Presidents. Here John Quincy Adams was elected President and here he died at his post of duty.

This historic hall was wisely set apart for a National Hall of Statuary in 1864 and each State invited to contribute to its adornment, statues of two of their most distinguished citizens.

Connecticut was the first to avail herself of this privilege. Others followed in rapid succession, until now many of the States from New York to Oregon have filled the niches there provided for them.

You who were members of the Thirty-first General Assembly very wisely made provision for our noted war Governor, Samuel J. Kirkwood's statue to be placed in this historic hall by appropriating $5,000 for this purpose.

The history of James Harlan, who was born August 25, 1820, is well known to all of you.

For nearly eighteen years did he faithfully serve this State in the United States Senate, during which time he was frequently counseled by President Lincoln and finally called to his cabinet about a month before his assassination, which position he filled with great credit to his State.

Prior to his service in Congress, he was closely identified with educational development in this new country, having served the State as Superintendent of Public Instruction and, at one time, principal of the Iowa City College, which has now grown to our great State University.

To any one coming to his home city of Mount Pleasant, on one of the main trunk lines, the first sound that greets your ear, is the familiar call, "Harlan Hotel," built by him and where he spent many pleasant hours with his friends around him. As we stroll to another part of the city, we come to the quiet "Harlan home," where his only daughter, Mrs. Robert Lincoln, spends a part of each summer.

Visit our University, of which James Harlan was its first President, and over one of the halls we find the words, "Harlan Literary Society."

Go with me to "Camp Harlan," adjoining the city, where Senator Harlan organized the Fourth Iowa Cavalry and the Twenty-fifth Iowa

Infantry and where they were encamped for several months until the call came for them to march to the field of battle. This place still bears his name. Here the old soldiers love to visit and drink from the same spring as they did in the early '60's with James Harlan.

To know him was to love him. His home life is well illustrated by a few words from the pen of ex-Congressman Sam Clark, when he says:

"Him we loved because he first loved us. Our friend. The friend of humanity. Like Moses of old—a born leader. Great, gray and grand. Great, because of the success of his achievements; Gray, because the years have come and gone and left thin tracing in white on face and brow. Grand, because of his character. The friend of God, whom the Lord knew face to face."

James Harlan died at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, October 6, 1899, but he still lives in our memory.

When this bill was under consideration in the Appropriations Committee of the House a few days ago, a very touching incident transpired, when a gentleman from Harlan (a city named for Senator Harlan), rose to second the motion to report the bill out for passage, which with many moistened eyes, was made unanimous by a rising vote.

Senators, I trust when the roll is called on this bill there will not be a dissenting vote, but that every member of this Chamber will help to honor another of their most distinguished citizens, by making the statue of James Harlan a companion to that of Samuel J. Kirkwood.

Senator Hughes also addressed the Senate with feeling words, favoring the bill.

Senator Gilliland moved that the remarks made by Senator Seeley be printed in the Journal.

Carried.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Hughes, House File No. 228, a bill for an act to amend the law as it appears in Section 4999-B of the Supplement to the Code, relating to the safeguarding of machinery, with report of committee recommending passage was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Stookey moved the adoption of the following amendment:

I move to amend by inserting after the word "remove" in line four of the printed bill the words "except temporarily."

By consent the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Gilliland moved the adoption of the following amendment:

I move to amend by inserting the words "or maliciously" after the word "willfully" in line five of the bill.

Senator Young was called to the chair at 10:20 o'clock.

President Garst resumed the chair at 10:25 o'clock.

Senator Peterson offered the following as a substitute for the amendment of Senator Gilliland:

I move to substitute for the amendment of the Senator from Mills as follows:

Amend Section One (1) by adding after the word "same" in the fifth line of the printed bill the following words: "and use or permit the same to be used without such safeguarding device."

By consent the amendment of Senator Gilliland was withdrawn.

Further consideration of the bill was postponed.

Senator Saunders moved that when the Senate adjourn this forenoon it be to reconvene at 1:15 o'clock P.M. and that the Senate adjourn this afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, in honor of the late Major R. C. Hubbard, long an honored and faithful employe of the State, and to give those desiring an opportunity of attending the funeral services.

Carried.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

The time having arrived, Senate File No. 280, a bill for an act providing for the nomination, by political parties or organizations, of candidates for various offices, and the election of delegates to conventions of said political parties or organizations, and the election of party committeemen by a primary election, and for the holding of conventions by such political parties or organizations, and repealing Chapter Forty (40), laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, and Chapters Forty-five (45) and Forty-six (46), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to primary elections, was taken up and considered.

Senator Gilliland offered the following as a substitute for the pending amendment of Senator Dunham:

I move as a substitute for the amendment proposed by the Senator from Delaware, that Section Twenty-two (22) be amended by inserting after the word "be," first appearing in the eleventh line of the printed bill, the words "provided he received not less than thirty-five per centum of all the votes cast by the party for such office."

Senator DeArmand offered a substitute for the bill and pending amendments.

The President ruled that the substitute was not in order at this time but would be recognized after the pending amendments have been disposed of.

Further consideration of the bill was postponed.

Senator Newberry moved that the time for adjournment be extended for the correction of the Journal and until the amendment under consideration be disposed of.

Senator Whipple moved to amend by striking out the words, "and until the amendment under consideration be disposed of."

The amendment prevailed.

The motion as amended prevailed.

The Journal of Saturday was taken up, corrected and approved.

Senator Smith of Mitchell moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Carried.

Senate adjourned until 1:15 o'clock P.M.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House File No. 360, a bill for an act to regulate the soliciting and using of proxies by insurance companies.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

House File No. 238, a bill for an act to legalize county certificates issued by County Superintendents prior to October 1, 1906, and to declare the rights of the holders thereof.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the House was asked:

Senate File No. 69, a bill for an act to amend Section Thirty-five Hundred and Twenty-nine (3529) of the Supplement to the Code, relating to the service of original notice upon any corporation or person owning, or operating any railway, or canal, steamboat or other river craft, or any telegraph, telephone, stage, coach or car line, express company or foreign corporation.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Senate resumed consideration of Senate File No. 280, a bill for an act providing for the nomination, by political parties, or organizations, of candidates for various offices, and the election of delegates to conventions of said political parties or organizations, and the election of party committeemen, by a primary election, and for the holding of conventions by such political parties or organizations, and repealing Chapter Forty (40), laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly and Chapters Forty-five (45) and Forty-six (46), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to primary elections.

Senator Hopkins moved the previous question on the substitute and the amendment.

Carried.

On the adoption of the substitute amendment of Senator Gilliland, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the substitute be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Kimmel, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—32.

The nays were:

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, DeWolf, Kinne—3.

So the substitute was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

MR. PRESIDENT—I vote "no" on the substitute because I favor the original motion, requiring a majority vote to nominate.

THOS. LAMBERT.

On request of Senator Crossley, who was absent on account of quarantine, Senator Dunham moved that the Journal show that had Senator Crossley been present he would have voted yea on the substitute offered by Senator Gilliland, and also would have voted yea on the amendment as amended.

Carried.

On the adoption of the amendment as substituted a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Kimmel, Lambert, McKlveen, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren,

The nays were:

Senators Gale, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones,
Smith of Des Moines, Taylor, Wade—7.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, DeWolf, Kinne Nichols—4.

So the amendment was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

MR. PRESIDENT—I vote “yea” on the motion as amended because I believe a thirty-five per cent vote preferable to a plurality nomination.

THOS. LAMBERT.

Senator DeArmand offered a substitute for the original bill, of which the following is a synopsis:

1. The elimination of the declaration of party affiliation.
2. The exception of judges of the courts, from the provisions of the bill.
3. Extending the benefits of the primary to cities of the first class.
4. Allowing party workers in the employ of party organizations to be exempt from the restrictions making all interest in elections gratuitous or criminal.

Senator DeArmand moved that the substitute be substituted for the original bill.

The motion was lost.

Senator Peterson moved that the bill now be read by sections for the purpose of amendment.

Carried.

Senator Peterson offered the following amendment to Section One (1), and moved its adoption.

I move to amend Section One (1) by inserting after the word “offices,” in the second line, the words “except judges of the supreme, district and superior courts.”

Adopted.

Senator Jones moved the adoption of the following amendment to Section One (1):

Move to amend Section One (1) by inserting after the figure “1” in line one the following:

At the regular September meeting of the Board of Supervisors of any county in this State prior to a general election, on petition of five hundred (500) of the qualified electors of said county, not more than one-half of whom shall reside in the same precinct, said Board of Supervisors shall order submitted to the voters of said county at the ensuing general election the question whether the provisions of this act shall apply to said county. The form of ballot which may be printed on the general official ballot shall be:

For the primary election law.

Against the primary election law.

And if a majority of the votes cast for and against said proposition shall be for the primary election law, then, and not otherwise, shall the provisions of this act be in full force in said county in thirty days after said election if it shall have been decided by a majority in favor of said proposition.

On the adoption of the amendment a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, DeWolf, Elerick, Gale, Gilliland, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Nichols, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Stuckslager, Whiting, Wilson, of Clinton—13.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Kimmel, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Taylor, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—31.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bruce, Crossley, DeArmand, Jamieson of Page, Kinne, Wade—6.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Maytag asked unanimous consent that Senate File No. 80 be withdrawn and re-referred to Committee on Appropriations.

Consent granted.

The time having arrived, the President declared the Senate adjourned until 9 o'clock A. M. tomorrow.

W. B. SEELEY,

Chairman Senate Committee.

PAUL E. STILLMAN,

Chairman House Committee.

Ordered passed on file.

Senate resumed consideration of Senate File No. 280, a bill for an act providing for the nomination, by political parties, or organizations, of candidates for various offices, and the election of delegates to conventions of said political parties or organizations, and the election of party committeemen, by a primary election, and for the holding of conventions by such political parties or organizations, and repealing Chapter Forty (40), laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, and Chapters Forty-five (45) and Forty-six (46), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to primary elections.

Senator Stookey moved the adoption of the following amendment:

I move to amend Section Five (5) by striking out of lines six and seven of the printed bill, the following words: "one-half by the county in which the said primary election is held, and one-half".

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators DeArmand, DeWolf, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Nichols, Stookey, Wade, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—10.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Gale, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Kimmel, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Turner, Wilson of Fayette—21.

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, Clark, Crossley, Elerick, Foley, Frudden, Gillilland, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Saunders, Smith of Des Moines, Stuckslager, Taylor, Warren, Whipple, Young—19.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Jackson offered the following as a substitute for the amendment offered by him to Section Twenty-five (25) :

Amend Section Twenty-five' (25) by striking out the words "second Saturday" in the fourth line, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "third Wednesday".

On the adoption of the substitute, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were :

Senators Bleakly, Burgess, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Kimmel, Saunders, Stookey—7.

The nays were :

Senators Allen, Clark, Dowell, Dunham, Ericson, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kinne, McKlveen, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Nichols, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Taylor, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—26.

Absent or not voting :

Senators Bruce, Crossley, DeArmand, DeWolf, Eckles, Elerick, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gillilland, Lambert, McManus, Newberry, Smith of Des Moines, Stuckslager, Turner, Wade—17.

So the amendment was lost.

On the adoption of the amendment offered by Senator Moon, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were :

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Burgess, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Elerick, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gillilland, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Moon, Nichols, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Stirton, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton, Young—31.

The nays were:

Senators Clark, Dunham, Ericson, Hopkins, Saunders, Turner, Wilson of Fayette—7.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bruce, Crossley, Eckles, Jackson, Jones, Maytag, Newberry, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Stookey, Stuckslager, Whipple—12.

So the amendment was adopted.

Senator Frudden moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Add as Section Thirty-six (36) the following:

Move to amend Section Ten (10) by striking out all of said section from and after the period after the word "candidate" in line 40 and down to and including all of line fifty-nine and insert the following: "Each and every candidate shall file in the same office where his petition for nomination is to be filed, his written statement that he is eligible to the office for which he is nominated and will qualify if elected."

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators DeWolf, Foley, Frudden, Jamieson of Page, Lambert, McManus, Moon, Smith of Des Moines, Taylor, Wade, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—12.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Clark, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Gale, Gilliland, Hughes, Jackson, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, Mattes, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Smith of Mitchell, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—30.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Burgess, Crossley, Hopkins, Jamison of Clarke, Maytag, Newberry, Seeley, Stirton—8.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Gale moved the adoption of the following amendments:

SEC. 36. At the general election of 1908 and at each succeeding general election up to and including that of the year 1912 as a guide to the legislatures to sit respectively thereafter, there shall be submitted to the voters as a part of the official ballot the following question:

Do you favor a State-wide primary?

Yes.

No.

Senator Bruce moved to amend the amendment by striking out the figures 1908 and 1912.

The amendment to the amendment was lost.

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bruce, DeArmand, DeWolf, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Lambert, McManus, Moon, Nichols, Smith of Des Moines, Wade, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—18.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Burgess, Clark, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—29.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, Seeley, Taylor—3.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Lambert moved the adoption of the following amendment:

I move to insert the following as Section Twenty-four (24):

"SEC. 24. If any state, county or district convention assembled under this act shall ascertain upon a canvass of the votes cast at the preceding primary election that the voters of the political party holding such convention had failed to nominate a candidate or candidates for any office or offices to be filled by the voters at the general election in November following, such convention may proceed to the nomination of such candidate or candidates whose nomination shall be certified and the name or names shall be printed on the ballots for the general election in November, under the proper party heading, the same as if such nominations were made at the primary election."

Re-number Section Twenty-four and all subsequent sections of the bill to conform herewith.

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators DeArmand, DeWolf, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Jamieson of Page, Lambert, McManus, Moon, Smith of Des Moines, Stirton, Taylor, Wade, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—15.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Clark, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Smith of Mitchell, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Whipple, Young—28.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Burgess, Crossley, Elerick, Jones, Seeley, Warren, Wilson of Fayette—7.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Hopkins moved the previous question.

Carried.

Senator Peterson moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—46.

The nays were:

Senators DeArmand, Nichols—2.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, Jones—2.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

Senator Dunham offered the following statement and motion:

MR. PRESIDENT—Senator Crossley has been for his entire legislative term of several sessions, earnestly striving to have primary legislation enacted, and he anxiously looked forward to voting for such a law. Today he is quarantined because of diphtheria in his family, and cannot be here. At his request I bear to you his desire that the Journal should show the cause of his absence and further show that had he been present he would have voted "aye" on the passage of the bill. With his consent I present a letter from him on the subject:

DES MOINES, IOWA, MARCH 18, 1907.

Senator Geo. W. Dunham, Des Moines, Iowa:

MY DEAR SENATOR DUNHAM—I regret that on account of being quarantined at my rooms for diphtheria, I cannot be present when the primary election measure comes up this morning before the Senate. I hope the bill will pass as it now stands, but since we do not all agree upon the same, I am willing to have the bill amended so that a candidate to be nominated must receive at least 35 per cent of the total vote cast for the office, otherwise the convention to nominate the candidate; also that the judges of our supreme, district, and superior courts be omitted from the provisions of the bill. As to other provisions of the bill, you know my views concerning the same.

It is a measure that I have been deeply interested in for the past six years, and I sincerely hope that you and other members of the Senate who favor the primary election law, will be able to secure its passage at this session of the Legislature.

Thanking you for anything you may do to have the measure passed in accordance with the foregoing, I am,

Most sincerely yours,

JAMES. J. CROSSLEY.

And I move that the Senator's request be granted and the Journal show that had Senator Crossley been present he would have voted "aye" on the passage of Senate File No. 280.

GEO. W. DUNHAM.

The motion prevailed.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE.

MR. PRESIDENT—I vote "no" on this bill for the reason that its main provisions are in direct violation of democratic principles and agrees with the democratic idea of a primary only in name.

J. A. DEARMAND.

The following Senators voting aye upon Senate File No. 280, known as the "Primary Election Bill," wish to explain their vote by saying that while they are not satisfied with the present bill in many particulars, it not being such a bill as they would have themselves prepared in the interest of the people of the State of Iowa, and in fairness to all political parties, but in view of the fact that there seems to be a general demand for a primary law, and for the reason that the democratic party has declared in its convention in favor of a primary law, and for the further reason that the democratic party is in favor of keeping all departments of the government as close to the people as possible, and that the proposed bill seems to be the best obtainable at the present time, we have voted for the same.

Sherman W. DeWolf, Thirty-eighth Senatorial District.

E. P. McManus, First Senatorial District.

Thos. Lambert, Twenty-third Senatorial District.

Fred N. Smith, Ninth Senatorial District.

Edwin G. Moon, Thirteenth Senatorial District.

J. L. Wilson, Twenty-second Senatorial District.

W. D. Jamieson, Seventh Senatorial District.

John Foley, Forty-fourth Senatorial District.

Will C. Whiting, Thirty-fourth Senatorial District.

John F. Wade, Thirty-ninth Senatorial District.

L. L. Taylor, Third Senatorial District.

Senator Saunders asked unanimous consent to have two hundred extra copies of Senate File No. 30 printed.

Consent granted.

The President announced that he had signed, in the presence of the Senate, House Files No. 27, 48, 105, 150, 312 and 363.

Senator Bruce moved that the consideration of Senate File No. 18 be postponed, and that it be made a special order for Thursday at 9:30 o'clock A.M.

Carried.

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 203.

A BILL for an act providing for reports from corporations to the Secretary of State.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. All corporations, whether organized under the laws of this State, or under the laws of any other State, Territory or any foreign country, which has heretofore complied with the laws of this State, relating to organization as a corporation, and secured a certificate of incorporation, or permit to transact business in this State, and all corporations that may hereafter organize and become incorporated under the laws of this State and shall secure a certificate of incorporation or permit to transact business therein, or, any foreign corporation that may hereafter comply with the laws of this State relating to foreign corporations, and secure a permit to transact business within this State, shall, upon demand by the Secretary of State, which demand shall not be made oftener than every six months, furnish the following information to the Secretary of State:

1. The name and postoffice address of the corporation.
2. The amount of capital stock authorized.
3. The amount of capital stock actually issued and outstanding.
4. The names and postoffice address of the officers and directors of the corporation.
5. Whether any change of the place of business of such corporation has been made since its last report to the Secretary of State.
6. Whether the corporation is actively engaged in business and, if so, the general character of the business which it is then actively conducting.

SEC. 2. The report herein provided for shall be executed by an officer of the corporation and duly verified under oath.

SEC. 3. Any corporation which shall fail or refuse to make such report to the Secretary of State, within thirty days after demand therefor, shall be subject to a fine of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each offense, to be recovered in a suit brought by and in the name of the State of Iowa, and the proceeds derived from such suits shall, after collection, be paid to the Secretary of State. As an additional and further penalty, the charter of such corporation shall be subject to forfeiture, and any County Attorney shall, upon instructions from the State so to do, bring suit in the name of the State against such corporation to forfeit its charter; provided, however, that no forfeiture shall be decreed if, before the decree of forfeiture, the corporation shall pay to the Secretary of State all amounts which may be due the State for fine theretofore accrued by reason of the failure of such corporation to make the reports herein provided.

SEC. 4. This act shall not apply to corporations organized for religious, educational, scientific or charitable purposes, or corporations organized under Chapter Two (2) of Title Nine (9) of the Code, or to corporations which, under existing laws, are now required to make annual reports to the Executive Council or the Auditor of State.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

Senator Whipple, from the Committee on Insurance, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Insurance, to whom was referred Senate File No. 20, a bill for an act to repeal Chapter Fifty (50) of Title Nine (9) of the Code, and enact a substitute therefor, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

Section One. Line eight. Strike out the word "other" and insert in lieu thereof the word "similar."

Add to the bottom of the said Section One (1) the following paragraph:

Risks or hazards above mentioned shall be classified as follows:

1. Fire and lightning.
2. Tornadoes, cyclones and windstorms.
3. Hailstorms.
4. Plate glass.

Section Three. Strike out lines one, two and three, and the first six words of line four, to and including the word "received," and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 3. No State mutual assessment association shall issue any policies until at least one hundred and twenty-five (125) applications have been received in any class as shown by Section One (1) hereof, representing the following amount of insurance: Classes one, two and three, Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) each; class four, One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00).

Section Four. Strike out line numbered sixteen and insert the following in its place:

16. Amount and number of claims reported but not adjusted.

Strike from the line numbered seventeen the word "losses" and insert the word "claims" in its place.

Strike the entire line numbered twenty-two and insert the following in its place:

22. The amount of cash in hands of agents and in course of transmission.

Section Seven. Add to line six after the word "no" the words "state mutual."

Add to last line of Section Seven (7), after the word "advance," the words "where such assessment exceeds three (3) mills on each dollar of insurance in force."

Transpose Sections Seven (7) and Eight (8), numbering the present Section Seven (7) as Section Eight (8) and the present Section Eight (8) as Section Seven (7).

Section Nine. Amend line two by inserting after the word "chapter" the words "except such associations as confine their business exclusively to dwelling houses, barns, farm buildings, and contents."

Amend line six by inserting after the words "forty (40) per cent" the words "but not to exceed fifty (50) per cent."

Section Twelve. Strike the words "be of the opinion" from line two and substitute the word "ascertain."

Strike from line twenty-three the words "Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00)" and insert in lieu thereof the words "the amount required by Section Three (3) hereof."

Section Thirteen. Substitute the following for Section Thirteen (13):

SEC. 13. Any policy of insurance issued by an association operating under the provisions of this chapter may be cancelled by the association giving five (5) days' written notice thereof to the insured, or if the insured shall demand, in writing or in person, of the association, the cancellation of his policy, the association shall immediately advise him, by letter to address named, the amount, if any, due, as his pro rata share of losses and expenses incurred since date of his policy. Upon surrender of his policy and payment of all sums due, his membership shall cease: provided, that during the months of June, July and August, hail insurance policies may be cancelled only at the option of the officers of the association carrying the risk.

Upon the expiration or cancellation of any policy of insurance issued under the provisions of this act, all obligations to the association having been paid, the member shall be entitled to, and shall be paid by the association, a sum equal to at least seventy-five (75) per cent of the unexpended portion of the amount contributed by him to the reinsurance reserve.

Strike from the bill, wherever they occur, the words "insurance department" or the words "Insurance Commissioner," and substitute therefor the words "State Auditor," and in conformity with this provision, change the word "it" to "his" in line two of Section Five (5).

And when so amended the bill do pass.

W. P. WHIPPLE,
Chairman.

Adopted.

Senator Bleakly asked unanimous consent to have Senate File No. 20 made a special order for Saturday at 10 o'clock A.M.

Consent granted.

The President announced the following communication from the Governor, which was read:

To the Senate of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

GENTLEMEN—I return to you Senate File No. 169 without my approval. I am constrained to withhold my approval from this bill for two reasons:

First. It takes away from the Secretary of State a most important duty, and relieves him of a serious responsibility, and imposes both upon a new office or department, created by the bill.

If you will examine Section One (1), Chapter V (5) of the laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, you will observe that its second sentence begins with the word "he." This word now refers to the Secretary of State, and that which follows in the section relates to his powers and duties. If the amendment proposed by the bill is made, the word "he" will refer to the "document librarian," and thus the whole plan of the care and custody of our public documents will be overturned. If I believed that it was the deliberate purpose of the General Assembly in passing this bill to introduce so radical a change, I would not substitute my own views in the place of those held by the Legislature; but inquiry has made it plain to me that it was not the intent of the author of the bill, nor of the members, to make the change which the amendment will bring about. Therefore, I have less hesitation in returning the bill to you for further consideration.

Second. It has been, for a long time, the policy of the State to leave with the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform the regulation of the salaries of such of the employes about the Capitol building as were not years ago fixed by statute. The policy is a wise one, and should be maintained. Properly speaking, there is no document library, and there can be no document librarian. The Secretary of State is the custodian and distributor of the public documents. He must employ, of course, a sufficient number of persons to enable him to do the work imposed upon him by the law; but there is no reason for putting one of these employes beyond the power of the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform that would not apply with equal force to every employe about the State House.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT B. CUMMINS.

March 20, 1907.

Senator Gilliland moved that the consideration of the communication from the Governor be deferred until tomorrow.

Carried.

The time having arrived for the special order, Senate File No. 18, a bill for an act regulating the sale of agricultural seeds, concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs and the materials from which they are manufactured; defining concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs, and what shall constitute purity in various kinds of seeds; prohibiting the adulteration and providing for the correct weighing and marking of agricultural seeds and concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs; and providing for the collection of samples, analyses of the same, and fixing penalties for its violation, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the Committee on Appropriations adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Amend Section One (1) Number One (1), fifth item, of the substitute bill, by inserting after the word "fifth" the following: "except in the case of condimental stock food; patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock and poultry foods, claimed to possess medicinal or nutritive properties, or both."

Adopted.

Senator Elerick offered the following amendment as a substitute for the amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations to Section Two (2):

Amend Section Two (2) by adding the following: "except in case of condimental, patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock or poultry foods, every barrel, bag, pail, parcel or package shall bear a statement in the manner and form prescribed in Section One (1) showing the names and percentages of all mineral ingredients and of ingredients used as a dilutant or base."

Senator Turner moved the previous question.

Carried.

On the adoption of the substitute amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the substitute amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Eckles, Elerick, Foley, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Wade, Young—17.

The nays were:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, DeWolf, Dowell, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Mattes, Maytag, Saunders, Seeley, Stirton, Taylor, Turner, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton—21.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dunham, Ericson, Gale, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Moon, Stookey, Stuckslager, Whipple—12.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Mattes moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Amend Section Two (2) of the substitute bill by adding thereto the following:

"Except condimental stock food; patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock or poultry foods, claimed to possess medicinal or nutritive properties, or both; and these shall be labeled or branded so as not to deceive or mislead the purchaser in any way, and the contents of any such package shall not be substituted in whole or in part for any other contents.

"Any statement, design or device upon the label or package regarding the substances contained therein, shall be true and correct, and any claim made for the feeding, condimental, tonic or medicinal value shall not be false or misleading in any particular.

"The name and percentage of any deleterious or poisonous ingredient or ingredients shall be plainly stated upon the outside of the package or container."

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, Clark, DeWolf, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Saunders, Seeley, Stirton, Taylor, Turner, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton—23.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Eckles, Elerick, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Wade, Young—14.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Gale, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Lambert, Moon, Stookey, Stuckslager, Whipple—13.

So the amendment was adopted.

Senator Elerick moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Add to Section Two (2), as amended, the following:

"The name and percentage of the dilutant or dilutents, or bases, shall be plainly stated on the outside of the package or container."

Senator Bruce raised the point of order that the amendment is exactly the same as the amendment offered by Senator Elerick as a substitute for the amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations, which was defeated by the Senate.

The President ruled that the point of order was not well taken.

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, DeArmand, Eckles, Elerick, Frudden, Gilliland, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Newberry, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Wade, Whipple, Young—23.

The nays were:

Senators Bruce, Dowell, Ericson, Gale, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Mattes, Maytag, Saunders, Taylor, Turner, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton—17.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bleakly, Clark, Crossley, DeWolf, Dunham, Foley, Jamison of Clarke, Moon, Nichols, Stuckslager—10.

So the amendment was adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Amend Section Five (5) of the substitute bill as follows: Strike out of Section Five (5) of the substitute as it appears in the Journal, after the semicolon in the sixth line thereof, the words: "except in the case of condimental stock or poultry foods, the fee paid shall be One Dollar ($1.00) per ton," and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Every manufacturer, importer, dealer or agent for any condimental, patented, proprietary or trade-marked stock or poultry foods, or both, shall pay to the State Food and Dairy Commissioner, on or before the fifteenth day of July of each year, a license fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). Whenever the manufacturer or importer of such foods shall have paid the fee herein required, no other person or agent of such manufacturer or importer shall be required to pay such license fee."

Adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Also strike out of Section Five (5) of the substitute bill, as it appears in the Journal, after the word "provided," the semicolon and the remainder of the section, and insert a period.

Adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Amend Section Five (5) of the substitute bill by adding: "provided, that any dealer who sells at one time to any other person one ton or more of concentrated commercial feeding-stuffs shall be held to have complied with the provisions of this section if he delivers to the purchaser the tax tags herein required, even though they may not be attached to the various packages."

Adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Amend Section Sixteen (16), line eleven, by striking out the figures "95" in the substitute bill, and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "94."

Adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Amend Section Eighteen (18) of the substitute bill by adding thereto the following: "provided, that no one shall be convicted for violation of the provisions of Section Ten (10) of this act if he is able to show that the weed seeds named in Section Ten (10) are present in quantities not more than one in ten thousand, and that due diligence has been used to find and remove said seeds."

Adopted.

Senator Newberry moved the adoption of the following amendment recommended by the Committee on Appropriations:

Amend Section Nineteen (19) of the substitute bill by striking out of the second and third lines thereof the words "a sum not exceeding the amount of fees collected under its provisions," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "a sum not exceeding Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) annually."

Adopted.

Senator Newberry moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—43.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bleakly, Crossley, DeWolf, Gale, McManus, Taylor, Turner—7.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

The President announced that he had signed, in the presence of the Senate, House File No. 104.

The Senate resumed consideration of Senate File No. 212.

President Pro Tem. Smith was called to the chair at 11:45 o'clock.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend line forty-eight, Section Fourteen (14), of the printed bill, by striking out the word "commission" in said line and inserting in lieu thereof the word "council," and also by striking the word "council" before the word "shall" in line fifty-two of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "commissioners."

Adopted.

Senator DeArmand moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section One (1) of the bill by striking out the figures "15,000" after the word "of" in line two of the bill, and insert in lieu thereof the words "Fifty Thousand."

Senator Jackson moved to amend the amendment by changing the words "fifty thousand" to "twenty-five thousand."

By consent the amendment to the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Frudden moved to amend the amendment by changing the words "fifty thousand" to "forty thousand."

On the adoption of the amendment to the amendment a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment to the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bruce, Burgess, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Hopkins, Jones, Kimmel, Maytag, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Stuckslager, Wade, Warren, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton—18.

The nays were:

Senators Bleakly, Clark, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dunham, Eckles, Gilliland, Hughes, Jackson, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Mattes, Moon, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Turner, Whipple, Whiting, Young—22.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, Dowell, Elerick, Gale, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Kinne, Newberry, Seeley, Taylor—10.

So the amendment to the amendment was lost.

Senator Saunders moved to amend the amendment by changing the words fifty thousand to twenty-five thousand.

By consent the amendment to the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Jackson moved as a substitute to strike out all of Section One (1) and enact in lieu thereof the following:

Move to amend by striking out all of Section One (1) of the bill and substituting therefor the following:

SECTION 1. That any city of the first class, or with special charter, having a population of Twenty-five Thousand (25,000) or over, as shown by the State census of 1905, may become organized as a city under the provisions of this act by proceeding as hereinafter provided.

On the adoption of the substitute amendment offered by Senator Jackson a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the substitute as an amendment to the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Kimmel, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Young—38.

The nays were:

Senators DeArmand, Jones, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Wilson of Clinton—6.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, Eckles, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Kinne, Newberry—6.

So the substitute amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Senator Lambert moved that the time for adjournment be extended until the amendment under consideration be disposed of and that the Senate have an afternoon session.

Carried.

The amendment as amended was adopted.

Senator DeArmand moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Two (2), line one, by striking out the words and figures "ten per cent (10 per cent)" and insert in lieu thereof the words and figures "twenty-five per cent (25 per cent)."

Adopted.

Senator DeWolf moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Two (2) of the bill by striking out the word "ten" after the word "to" in line seven of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the words "twenty-five."

Adopted.

Senator DeWolf moved the adoption of the following amendment:

I move to strike out of Section Ten (10) of the printed bill the words: "In cities having from 15,000 to 25,000 population by the last preceding State or National census, the salary of the mayor shall be $2,000 and each councilman $1,500.

Adopted.

Further consideration of the bill was deferred until the afternoon session.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON ENROLLED BILLS.

Senator Seeley, from the Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills respectfully report that they have examined, and find correctly enrolled, House File

No. 104, a bill for an act to provide for the preparation of new jury lists where, for any cause, a lawfully constituted grand jury cannot be obtained, or lawfully qualified talesmen cannot be selected under the law from those persons who are returned by the election officers to serve as jurors.

W. B. SEELEY,
Chairman Senate Committee.
PAUL E. STILLMAN,
Chairman House Committee.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Turner moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

Carried.

Senate adjourned until 1:30 o'clock P.M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Senate met pursuant to adjournment at 1:30 o'clock P.M., President Garst presiding.

Senator Smith of Mitchell offered the following resolution, which was laid over under the rules:

Resolved, That the President of the Senate shall, at his discretion as to time, appoint a sifting committee, to consist of seven members, to which shall be referred all bills, except appropriation bills, and that thereafter no bills, except appropriation bills, shall be considered unless reported by said committee.

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS.

Senator DeArmand presented petition of citizens of Davenport protesting against the passage of House File No. 396, known as the bucketshop bill.

Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

Senator Turner presented petition of citizens of Clearfield, Iowa, asking that the voters of the state be given an opportunity to decide at the polls the question of the enfranchisement of women.

Referred to Committee on Constitutional Amendments and Suffrage.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Senator Maytag, Senate File No. 333, a bill for an act to amend Chapter Eighty (80) of the acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, relating to state hospitals for inebriates and to furnish additional provision in regard to commitments to and release from hospitals.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Charitable Institutions.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Senate resumed consideration of Senate File No. 212.

Senate McManus moved the adoption of the following amendment:

That the words "or with special charter" in the first line in Section One (1) be stricken out.

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?" ,

The yeas were:

Senators DeArmand, Eckles, Jamieson of Page, McManus, Nichols—5.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Burgess, Clark, Dowell, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Kimmel, Mattes, Maytag, Peterson, Saunders, Smith of Mitchell, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Young—21.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator DeWolf moved the adoption of the following amendment:

I move to amend Section One (1) of the bill as amended by inserting after the word "charter" and before the word "having" the following: "now or hereafter."

Also to insert after the word "the" and before the word "State" the following: "last preceding."

Also to strike out the words "of 1905" after the word "census" and before the word "May."

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend the bill by adding thereto the following as Section Twenty two (22):

SEC. 22. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

Adopted.

Senator Dowell moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—43.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, DeArmand, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, McKlveen, Moon, Nichols—7.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

MR. PRESIDENT—I vote "aye" on Senate File No. 212 for the reason that many citizens of Des Moines desire an opportunity to vote upon its adoption or rejection at a special election called for that purpose. The reservation that I entertain in reference to this measure is the fear that it contains in its provisions the temptation to place the government farther from the people, which should not be attained under our form of government. But since my vote does not establish such a system without the consent of the people so governed, I vote for the measure, relying upon the wisdom and intelligence of the people to reject or adopt the provisions hereof as they may finally determine.

J. L. WARREN.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Peterson, Senate File No. 38, a bill for an act prohibiting any corporation doing business within the State, or any officer, agent or representative thereof acting for such corporation from giving or contributing any money, property, labor or thing of value, to any member of any political committee, party or employe thereof to any candidate for any office, for campaign expenses or political purposes whatsoever, and prohibiting any member of political committee, party or employe from receiving any contribution from any corporation for campaign expenses and providing a penalty therefor, was taken up and considered.

On the motion filed by Senator Allen to reconsider the vote by which the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Senate File No. 38, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the vote be reconsidered?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Burgess, Clark, DeWolf, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stuckslager, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—40.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bruce, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, McKlveen, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Taylor—10.

So the motion to reconsider prevailed.

Senator Peterson moved that the Senate concur in the following House amendments:

The House Judiciary Committee report that the same be amended by striking out the period at the end of Section One (1) and inserting in lieu thereof a comma, and adding thereto the following: "but nothing in this act shall be construed to restrain or abridge the liberty of the press or prohibit the consideration and discussion therein of candidacies, nominations, public officers or political questions."

On the question, "Shall the Senate concur in the House amendments?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stuckslager, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—42.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, DeArmand, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, McKlveen, McManus, Stookey, Taylor—8.

So the amendments were concurred in.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Smith of Mitchell, Senate File No. 5, a bill for an act defining wife desertion and failure to support wife or family, providing punishment therefor and permitting a husband or wife to be a witness in such cases, was taken up and considered.

Senator Smith of Mitchell moved that the Senate concur in the following House amendments:

Amend Senate File No. 5 by striking out the word "illegitimate" in the fourth line of Section One (1) of the original bill.

Amend Senate File No. 5 by striking out all of Section Five (5) thereof.

On the question, "Shall the Senate concur in the House amendments?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hughes, Jackson, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—43.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, Hopkins, McKlveen, Jamieson of Page, Jamieson of Clarke, Turner, Stuckslager—7.

So the amendments were concurred in.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Stookey, Senate File No. 290, a bill for an act to amend Sub-division Sixteen (16) of Section Six Hundred and Sixty-eight (668) of the Code, in relation to the duties of city council, and amending said Sub-section Sixteen (16) and making the same apply to cities of the second class, was taken up and considered.

Senator Stookey moved that the Senate concur in the following House amendments:

Amend by striking out the word "subsection" in line one of Section One (1) and inserting the word "subdivision" in lieu thereof; by striking out the word "subsection" in line three of Section One (1) and inserting the word "subdivision" in lieu thereof; by striking out all of Section One (1) from and including the word "and" in the third line thereof.

Amend the title by striking out the word "subsection" in line three and inserting in lieu thereof the word "subdivision."

On the question, "Shall the Senate concur in the House amendments?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith

of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—44.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Crossley, Hopkins, Jamison of Clarke, McKlveen, Stuckslager, Turner—6.

So the amendments were concurred in.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Senator Saunders, Senate File No. 30, a bill for an act to revise the law relating to the sentence and commitment of persons convicted of crime, and providing for a system of reform and parole and to create the necessary officers therefor, defining their powers and duties, and to fix their compensation, and appropriating the money necessary to carry the same into effect, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith, with report of Committee on Judiciary recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the report of the Committee on Appropriations.

Adopted.

President Pro Tem. Smith was called to the chair at 2:55 o'clock.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend by inserting the following as Section Four and One-half (4½):

SEC. 4½. If it shall appear at any time after conviction and incarceration in the reformatory, that a prisoner was over thirty years of age at the time of commitment, he shall be at once transferred to the prison at Fort Madison, and he shall likewise be transferred if it shall appear that he had, prior to the last conviction, been convicted of a felony in Iowa or elsewhere.

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend Section Six (6) of said bill by inserting after the word

"reformatory," and before the comma in the second line thereof, the words "and the prison at Fort Madison is overcrowded."

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend Section Fourteen (14) of said bill by striking out of line twenty-three thereof the words "with some suitable employer," and insert in line twenty-two after the word "employment" the words "or maintenance."

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend said bill by adding after Section Fourteen (14) the following as Section Fourteen and One-half (14½):

SEC. 14½. The Board of Parole may institute any inquiry it may deem expedient in regard to any prisoner or application for pardon, final discharge or parole; but said board shall not receive, unsolicited by them, any petition or communication or argument in regard to said application, unless provided for in their adopted rules.

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend Section Fifteen (15) of said bill by adding thereto after the period, the following: "All papers and documents relating to the pardon of any person shall, upon the granting of such pardon, become a part of the files of the Governor's office."

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

Amend Section Sixteen (16) of said bill by striking out the words "the laws and" after the word "under" in the second line of said section; also by inserting before the word "constitution" in the same line the word "the." Also, that before the word "pardon" in the third line of said section there be inserted the word "reprieve," and that the word "pardon" be made to read "pardons," and that the words "commutation" in the same line be made to read "commutations."

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following amendment:

F. M. HOPKINS,

Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Hopkins, from the Committee on Railroads, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred Senate File No. 237, a bill for an act providing for scales and weighing of commodities transported in carload lots, and furnishing certificates of weight by common carriers, and providing penalties for the violation of this act, in addition to Chapter Seven (7), Title Ten (10) of the Code, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the bill herewith presented be substituted therefor:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 237.

A BILL for an act providing for scales and weighing of commodities transported in carload lots, and furnishing certificates of weight by common carriers, and providing penalties for the violation of this act, in addition to Chapter Seven (7), Title Ten (10) of the Code.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That Chapter Seven (7), Title Ten (10) of the Code be, and the same is hereby amended, by adding thereto the following:

SEC. 2. That every person, firm or corporation engaged in operating any railroad within the State of Iowa shall equip the line of its track, and thereafter maintain thereon in good order, track scales of sufficient capacity to weigh all carloads of coal that may be transported over the said railroad, and shall weigh the same at the request of any owner, consignor or consignee of such commodities, and furnish written certificates of such weights to such owner, consignor or consignee as hereinafter provided. Such track scales shall be so installed and maintained at all division stations along the line of such railroads within the State of Iowa, and at such other stations as the Board of Railroad Commissioners shall from time to time direct.

SEC. 3. That every person, firm or corporation engaged in operating any railroad within the State of Iowa, over which coal, in carload lots shall be transported for hire, shall weigh such coal at point where such shipment originates, unless covered by weight agreement between consignor and the railway company; provided, such point is equipped with track scales. If not so equipped, it shall be weighed at first practicable point en route where track scales are provided. Said person, firm or corporation shall furnish to said shipper a bill of lading showing date and place weighed, also the gross, tare and net weight for each carload of coal so weighed. The tare weight will be determined by using actual weight of empty car at loading station, provided track scales are maintained at such point.

SEC. 4. Such coal shall be weighed at destination upon request of consignee when there are track scales at such point. If not equipped with track scales at such point, then at nearest practicable point en route where such scales are maintained, and certificate of weight showing actual gross, tare and net weights, shall be furnished to consignee and settlement of freight charges based on these weights. A reasonable charge of not more than $1.00 per car may be made for such weighing on request.

SEC. 5. Cars when weighed on track scales shall be uncoupled, clear and unhampered at both ends, carefully weighed by competent weighmen, and certificates issued upon request of consignees, showing gross, tare and net weights.

SEC. 6. Certificates mentioned in this act shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein recited in any action arising between consignors and consignees and common carriers.

SEC. 7. Any common carrier operating in this State violating any of the provisions of this act by neglecting or refusing to weigh cars or to furnish certificates of weights as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be, upon conviction thereof, fined in the sum of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each and every such violation.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

F. M. HOPKINS,
Chairman.

Substitute read first and second time and passed on file.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred House File No. 65, a bill for an act to safeguard the traveling public and employes upon railroads by limiting the hours of service of employes thereon, providing for the filing of complaints, the investigation thereof, and the securing of evidence thereto, additional to Chapter Five (5), Title Ten (10) of the Code, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the bill herewith presented be substituted therefor:

SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE FILE NO. 65.

A BILL for an act to safeguard the traveling public and employes upon railroads by limiting the hours of service of employes thereon, additional to Chapter Five (5), Title Ten (10) of the Code.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any railway company within the State of Iowa, or any of its officers or agents, to require or permit any employe engaged in or connected with the movement of any rolling stock, engine or train, to remain on duty more than sixteen (16) consecutive hours, or to require or permit any such employe who has been on duty sixteen (16) consecutive hours to perform any further service without having had at least ten hours for rest, or to require or permit any such employe to be on duty at any time to exceed sixteen (16) hours in any consecutive twenty-four (24) hours; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to work performed in the protection of life or property in cases of accident, wreck, or other unavoidable casualty, or prevent train crews from taking a passenger train, or freight train loaded exclusively with live stock or perishable freight, to the next nearest division point upon such railroad; and, provided further, that it shall not apply to that time necessary for the trainmen to reach a resting place when an accident, wreck, washout, snow blockade or other unavoidable cause has delayed their train; and, provided further, that this section shall not apply to employes of sleeping car companies.

SEC. 2. Any superintendent, train master, train dispatcher, yard master or other official of any railroad in the State of Iowa, violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each offense.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Railroad Commissioners to receive written statements of violation of this act, and when so requested, to hold the same without disclosure of the name of the person making such statement, and to investigate each and every complaint filed, alleging such violation. The board, in making such investigation, shall have the power to administer oaths, interrogate witnesses, take testimony, and require the production of books and papers, and must file a report of such investigation in writing, with a full statement of its finding, to the Governor.

In all cases of violation of this act, the Board of Railroad Commissioners, through the Attorney-General, must at once begin the prosecution of all parties against whom evidence of violation is found; but this act shall not be construed to prevent any other person from beginning prosecution for violation thereof.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

Senator Jamison of Clarke, from the Committee on Schools, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Schools, to whom was referred Senate File No. 271, a bill for an act amending Section Two (2), Chapter One Hundred and Forty (140), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to the issue of school and refunding bonds, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the following substitute be adopted for the bill:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 271.

A BILL for an act to repeal Chapter One Hundred and Forty (140), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relative to bonds of school corporations, and enacting a substitute therefor.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That Chapter One Hundred and Forty (140), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, be, and the same is hereby repealed, and the following sections enacted in lieu thereof:

SEC. 2. The boards of directors of any school corporation may issue the bonds of said school corporation to pay any judgment against said school corporation or any indebtedness represented by bonds heretofore lawfully issued. Said bonds shall be known as school funding bonds and shall be authorized by resolution of the board. The proceeds derived from said bonds shall be applied in payment of any such outstanding judgment or bonded indebtedness, or said bonds may be exchanged for outstanding judgments or bonds, par for par.

SEC. 3. For the purpose of borrowing money necessary to erect, complete, equip, furnish or improve a school house, or to purchase sites therefor, the board of directors of any school corporation, when they have been heretofore or when they may hereafter be authorized by the voters at the annual meeting, or a special meeting called for that purpose, may issue the negotiable interest bearing bonds of said school corporation; said bonds to be known as school building bonds.

SEC. 4. All of said bonds shall be substantially in the form provided for county bonds, but subject to changes that will conform them to the action of the board providing therefor, shall run not more than ten years, and may be sooner paid if so nominated in the bond; be in denomination of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each, to bear a rate of interest not exceeding six (6) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, to be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the board of directors, and shall not be disposed of for less than par value, or issued for other purposes than this chapter provides. All of said bonds shall be registered in the office of the County Auditor. The expenses of engraving and printing of bonds may be paid out of the contingent fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever the amount in the hands of the treasurer, belonging to the fund set aside to pay bonds, is sufficient to redeem one or more bonds, which by their terms are subject to redemption, he shall give the owner of said bonds thirty (30) days' written notice of the readiness of the district to pay, and the amount it desires to pay. If not presented for payment or redemption within thirty days after the date of such notice, the interest on such bonds shall cease and the amount due thereon shall be set aside for its payment whenever presented. All redemptions shall be made in the order of their numbers. The treasurer shall keep a record of the parties to whom bonds are sold, together with their postoffice addresses, and notice mailed to the address as shown by such record shall be sufficient.

SEC. 6. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

Also amend by striking the comma following the word "Supreme" in the seventh line of Section Four (4) and inserting in lieu thereof the word "and;" and by striking the words "and Superior" following the word "District" in the same line of the same section.

Also amend Section Four (4) by inclosing the words "except judges of the Supreme and District Courts," as they occur in line six of the bill, within parentheses; also to strike out the word "and" where it appears before the word "for" in the seventh line of said section.

Amend by striking the blank line after the comma following the word "street" in the sixty-fourth line of Section Ten (10); and by inserting in the place of the last comma in said line the word "of;" and by striking the comma following the word "county" in the sixty-fifth line of the same section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "of" and a blank line one-half inch in length.

Also amend by striking the letter "s" from the word "ballots" in line three of Section Fifteen (15).

Also by striking the word "thereof" in line four thereof and inserting in lieu of such word the words "of each of such ballots."

Also amend by inserting between the word "office" and the word "of," immediately following in the fifteenth line of Section Nineteen (19) the following: "to be filled by the voters."

Also amend by inserting between the word "offices" and the word "for," immediately following in the twenty-third line of Section Nineteen (19) the following: "to be filled by the voters of a county."

Also amend by changing the comma following the word "offices" in the sixth line of Section Twenty (20) to a period, and by striking the remainder of the sentence, to-wit: "except judges of the Supreme, District and Superior Courts."

Also amend by changing the period following the word "Assembly" in the ninth line of the same section to a comma and adding the following: "except in cases where said offices are filled by the voters of one county and no nomination resulted in the last preceding primary election as shown by the canvass by said board."

Also amend by striking out all after the semicolon following the word "represents" in the twenty-fourth line of Section Twenty-two (22) down to and including the last word of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and shall also forthwith prepare a certificate as to the offices, separately, for which no candidate was nominated, together with the names of the several candidates for each of such offices voted for at the primary election and the number of votes received by each of such candidates and deliver such certificate to the chairman of the party central committee for the State, in case of offices to be filled by the voters of the State, and to the chairman of the party central committee for a district of the State, in case of offices to be filled by the voters of any such district of the State composed of more than one county, and if no such chairman is known to, or cannot be ascertained by, the said board, then such certificate may be delivered to any member of the party central committee for the State, or for any such district of the State, as the case may be."

Also amend by inserting between the comma following the word "council" and the word "his" in the eighth line of Section Twenty-three (23) the following: "or as certified to him by the proper persons when any person has been nominated by a convention."

Also amend by striking out of the sixth line of Section Twenty-five (25) the words "2 o'clock P.M." and to insert the words "11 o'clock A.M."

Amend by changing the period following the word "committee" in the third line from the top of page 939 of the Journal to a comma and adding the following: "and of the offices for which no nomination was made in the primary election."

Also amend by striking the word "county" from the seventh line from the top of said page and by inserting between the word "office" and the word "where" in the same line the following: "to be filled by the voters of a county."

Also amend by inserting between the word "hereof" and the word "and" in the ninth line from the top of the same page the following: "and shall nominate candidates for the office of Judge of the District Court in counties comprising one judicial district of the State."

Amend by adding to Paragraph One (1) of Section Twenty-six (26) the following: "In case no nomination was made in the primary election for the office of Senator in the General Assembly in districts composed of more than one county, or for the office of Representative in the Congress of the United States, as shown in the certificate issued by the State Board of Canvassers in manner and form provided in Section Twenty-two (22) of this act, then in any such districts the chairman of the party central committee therefor shall forthwith issue such call for a convention in such district and deliver the same to the County Auditor of each county in the district and in such case said call need not be published as aforesaid."

Also amend by striking out the period at the end of the first paragraph of Section Thirty-five (35) and adding "and cities acting under special charter, having a population of over fifteen thousand (15,000)."

Also amend Senate File No. 280 as printed in the Journal by adding at the end of Section Thirty-five (35), as a new paragraph, the following: "the entire expense of conducting a primary election provided for in this section shall be audited by the city council, and paid by the city."

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

The President announced that he had received the following communication from the Governor:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Thirty-second General Assembly:

A few years ago, the State purchased the southwest quarter of Section 27, Township 78, North of Range 24, West of the 5th P. M., for a camp ground for the Iowa National Guard, paying therefor in round numbers Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00).

This quarter section lies just north of the United States Army Post. The site was selected largely to make it convenient for the members of the guard to use the post rifle range, which is situated a little further south. Since the purchase was made the Federal government has arranged an appropriation for the acquisition of rifle ranges in the various States for the use of the National Guard, and Iowa's allotment of this appropriation is about Thirteen Thousand Dollars ($13,000) per year. It has become my duty under the law of Congress and order of the War Department to recommend to the Secretary of War one or more sites for rifle ranges.

It is impossible to acquire one approximate to the camp grounds the State already owns and it is obvious that the camp ground and rifle range should be adjacent to each other. Investigation has developed two or three locations about ten miles northwest of Des Moines near the interurban railway and along the Des Moines river that can be secured and join the range and camp ground. The quarter section the State has can be sold for considerable more than was paid for it. The proceeds of such a sale, together with the appropriation of the general government available now, will enable the State and government to buy each for itself a camp ground and rifle range lying side by side and to improve both so that the guard would be much better served than with the present grounds. Options have been taken upon the land desired and it can be bought for substantially Eighty-five Dollars ($85.00) per acre.

I therefore recommend the passage of a bill that will authorize the Governor, with the approval of the Executive Council, to sell the present camp grounds above described, and use the proceeds in the acquisition and improvement of another site. Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT B. CUMMINS.

March 25, 1907.

The communication was read and referred to the Committee on Military.

Senator Whiting moved that the rules be suspended for the consideration of Senate File No. 237.

Carried.

On motion of Senator Whiting, Senate File No. 237, a bill for an act providing for scales and the weighing of commodities transported in carload lots, and furnishing certificates of weight by common carriers, and providing penalties for the violation of this act, in addition to Chapter Seven (7), Title Ten (10) of the Code, with report of committee recommending passage as amended by substitute, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Whiting moved that the committee substitute be substituted for the original bill.

Carried.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Whiting moved that the rule be suspended and the reading just had be considered its third reading.

Carried.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

So the bill was indefinitely postponed.

The motion of Senator Bleakly to reconsider the vote by which Senate File No. 45 passed the Senate this morning was taken up and considered.

On the motion to reconsider, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the motion prevail?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Gillilland, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Taylor, Wade—15.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Crossley, Ericson, Foley, Hughes, Kimmel, Kinne, Mattes, Maytag, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Young—19.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bruce, Clark, DeArmand, Frudden, Gale, Hopkins, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Saunders, Seeley, Whipple, Wilson of Clinton—16.

So the motion to reconsider was lost.

Senator Dowell moved that the rules be suspended for the consideration of Senate File No. 341.

Carried.

On motion of Senator Dowell, Senate File No. 341, a bill for an act to amend the law as it appears in Section Eight Hundred and Fifty-two (852) of the Supplement to the Code as amended by Chapter Thirty-four (34) of the laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, authorizing the levy of an additional tax of one mill on the dollar on all taxable property for park purposes, relating to park commissioners, their powers and duties, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Hopkins, from the Committee on Railroads, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Railroads, to whom was re-referred Senate File No. 287, a bill for an act to aid in the acquisition of terminal facilities and power for interurban railway companies, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the substitute attached hereto be adopted for the original bill and the substitute heretofore reported to the Senate:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 287.

A BILL for an act to authorize and require street railways, and interurban railroads operating street railways, to permit interurban railroads to use their tracks and terminal facilities, and to furnish power to interurban railroads in cities, and providing for fixing the compensation therefor, and authorizing street railways to furnish power to interurban railroads.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all persons, firms or corporations now or hereafter owning or operating electric street railways in any city (including cities organized under special charters) or town of this State, are hereby authorized and required to permit the use for interurban business only but not for local street railway business, of such of their terminals, tracks, poles and wires as are located in the streets, alleys, and public places of said cities and towns, and such portions of their tracks, poles and wires as may cross property owned by said street railway companies in such cities and towns, by the passenger and combination baggage cars of interurban railway companies, for the transportation of passengers, mail, express and baggage; and said street railways shall furnish to said interurban railways, electric power for the operation of their cars and the transaction of their said business in said cities and towns; but said street railways shall not be required to furnish electric power except during such hours as their street railway cars may be in operation. Said interurban railways shall pay a reasonable compensation for the privileges and power that may be furnished them as above mentioned under this act. If an agreement for the use of the facilities so furnished and the compensation for the same cannot be made between the interested parties, the question as to the amount of such compensation and the conditions under which said facilities shall be furnished, used and operated, shall be heard and determined by the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Iowa, on application to the said board by either party to the controversy, ten days' notice in writing of such application being served upon the opposite party, and any order entered by said Board of Railroad Commissioners, or court upon appeal, shall be subject to modification or review from time to time, as conditions change, by said Board of Railroad Commissioners upon notice being given as herein provided.

SEC. 2. Each party to the proceedings shall have the right to appeal to the District Court of the county where the street railway in question is located, from any order made by the Board of Railroad Commissioners under this act, which appeal shall be taken within twenty days from the date of the order appealed from, and shall be perfected by serving a notice of appeal upon the other parties to such proceeding and filing the same with the Secretary of the Board of Railroad Commissioners, and by filing within twenty days from the date of such order a petition in the said District Court, stating the facts and asking the court to determine the matter in controversy. The court, or a judge thereof, if the petition is filed in vacation, shall thereupon appoint a commission to examine into the necessity of such proceeding and report the facts and his recommendations in such time as the court or judge may direct, and as soon as possible thereafter the court or judge shall appoint a time and place for the hearing of such petition. The proceedings shall be in equity and subject to all the rules of equity practice, except that the court shall require the issues to be made up at the first term after the petition is filed and give the proceedings precedence over other civil business and try the same thereat if possible. The action shall be triable de novo upon said appeal. No such appeal shall suspend the order appealed from if the interurban railway company on whose behalf said order is made shall file such bond for the payment of damages and costs as the District Court to which such appeal is taken, or a judge thereof, may order and require.

SEC. 3. Street railroad companies desiring so to do shall be authorized to furnish to interurban railway companies power for the operation of the cars of interurban railway companies outside of cities and towns, but no street railroad company shall be required to furnish such power.

SEC. 4. This act shall apply to those portions of the terminals, tracks, poles and wires of interurban railway companies which are located in the streets, alleys and public places of cities and towns and which are used by such companies for the transaction of a local street railway business; and where an interurban railway company has heretofore built tracks in a city or town used for street railway purposes, it may acquire the use of such tracks as may be necessary to complete a terminal loop, under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 5. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. The provisions of this act shall not affect any pending litigation.

SEC. 7. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

And when so substituted the bill do pass.

F. M. HOPKINS,
Chairman.

MR. PRESIDENT—The conference committee appointed by the Senate and House to confer on disagreements arising on amendments to Senate File No. 280, beg leave to report that they have reached an agreement as to all matters in dispute and as to all amendments that shall be made to Senate File No. 280, as it passed the Senate, as follows:

1. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for the House amendment to Section 1 of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That Section One (1) be amended by striking out after the word "offices" and before the word "which" in the second line of the original bill the words: "except judges of the Supreme, District and Superior Courts," and by striking out the word "and" between the words "November" and "for" in the fourth line of said section and by inserting in lieu thereof between said words the following: "(except candidates for the office of Judge of the Supreme, District and Superior Courts)," and by inserting the word "county" immediately before the word "conventions" in the seventh line and immediately before the word "committeeman" in the eighth line of said section.

2. That Section Three (3) be amended by striking out the period at the end of the section and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and following said comma the words: "provided, that such other political organizations as may, under Sections One Thousand Ninety-eight (1098) and One Thousand Ninety-nine (1099) of the Code, nominate and certify candidates and have their names placed upon the ballot for the November election, shall have the right so to do in the manner and under the conditions therein prescribed."

3. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for the two House amendments to Section Four (4) of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That Section Four (4) be amended by striking out the words: "except Judges of the Supreme, District and Superior Courts and" that are now placed between the word "ensuing" and the word "for" in the seventh line of said section and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "(except candidates for the office of Judge of the Supreme, District and Superior Courts),"

4. That the House amendment to Section Ten (10) of the bill in words and figures following, to-wit:

Amend by striking the blank line after the comma following the word "street" in the sixty-eighth line of Section Ten (10); and by inserting in the place of the last comma in said line the word "of"; and by striking the comma following the word "county" in the sixty-ninth line of the same section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "of" and a blank line one-half inch in length, be adopted as an amendment to said section of the bill as it passed the Senate.

5. That the House amendment to Section Fifteen (15) of the bill in words and figures following, to wit:

Amend by striking the letter "s" from the word "ballots" in line three of Section Fifteen (15); also by striking the word "thereof" from line four thereof and inserting in lieu of such word the words "of each of such ballots," be adopted as an amendment to said section of the bill as it passed the Senate.

6. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for the two House amendments to Section Nineteen (19) of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That Section Nineteen (19) be amended by striking out all of said section after the semicolon following the word "county" in the eleventh line thereof and by inserting in lieu thereof after said semicolon the following: "and the candidate or candidates of each political party for each office to be filled by the voters of any sub-division of a county having received the highest number of votes shall be duly and legally nominated as the candidate of his party for such office; and the candidate or candidates of each political party for each office to be filled by the voters of a county having received the highest number of votes, and not less than thirty-five per centum of all the votes cast by the party for such office, shall be duly and legally nominated as the candidate of his party for such office; and each candidate so nominated shall be entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot to be voted for at the general election without other certificate, and the board shall prepare and certify a list of the candidates of each party so nominated, separately, and deliver to the chairman of each party central committee for the county a copy of the list of candidates nominated by the party he represents; and shall also prepare, certify and deliver to such chairman a list of the offices to be filled by the voters of a county for which no candidate of his party was nominated, together with the names of the candidates for each of such offices voted for at the primary election and the number of votes received by each of such candidates."

7. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for the two House amendments to Section Twenty (20) of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That Section Twenty (20) be amended by striking out the comma and the words "except Judges of the Supreme, District and Superior Courts" following the word "offices" in the sixth line of said section and by inserting a period after the said word "offices" in lieu of the comma.

8. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for the House amendment to Section Twenty-two (22) of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That section Twenty-two (22) be amended by striking out the word "third" before the word "Monday" in the first line of said section and by inserting in lieu thereof the word "second," and be further amended by striking out all of said section after the semicolon following the word "represents" in the twenty-first typewritten line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof after said semicolon the following: "and shall also forthwith prepare a certificate as to each office, separately, for which no candidate was nominated, together with the names of the several candidates for each of such offices voted for at the primary election and the number of votes received by each of such candidates and send such certificate to the chairman of the party central committee for the State, in case of offices to be filled by the voters of the entire State, and to the chairman of the party central committee for a district of the State, if known, in case of offices to be filled by the voters of any such district of the State composed of more than one county, and to the County Auditor of each county in any such district, and to the County Auditor and the chairman of the party central committee for the county, in case any such district is composed of one county."

9. That the House amendment to Section Twenty-three (23) of the bill as it passed the Senate in words and figures following, to-wit:

Amend by inserting between the comma following the word "council" and the word "his" in the ninth line of Section Twenty-three (23) the following: "or as certified to him by the proper persons when any person has been nominated by a convention," be adopted as an amendment to said section of the bill as it passed the Senate.

10. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for all the House amendments to Section Twenty-five (25) of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That Section Twenty-five (25) be amended by striking out the word "second" before the word "Saturday" in the fifth line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "third," and by striking out the words "2:00 o'clock P.M." in the sixth line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the words "11:00 o'clock A.M.," and by striking out the period following the word "committee" in line forty of said section as it appears in the original bill and all of said section following said period and inserting in lieu of said period a comma and after said comma the following: "and a list of the offices for which no nomination was made at the primary election. If any precinct shall not be fully represented, the delegates present from such precinct shall cast the full vote thereof, but there shall be no proxies. The said county convention shall make nominations of candidates for the party for any office to be filled by the voters of a county when no candidate for such office has been nominated at the preceding primary election, as shown by the canvass of the returns provided for in Section Nineteen (19) of this act, and shall nominate candidates for the office of Judge of the District Court in counties comprising one judicial district of the State, and shall select delegates to the next ensuing State and district conventions of that year upon such ratio of representation as may be determined by the party organization for the State, district or districts of the State, as the case may be, but no delegates shall be so selected to any of the district conventions referred to in Section Twenty-six (26) of this act, except judicial conventions, unless a call therefor has been issued as therein provided.

The said county convention shall also elect a member of the party central committee for the senatorial, judicial, and congressional districts composed of more than one county."

11. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for the House amendment to Section Twenty-six (26) of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That Section Twenty-six (26) be amended by inserting after the period following the word "committees" in line nineteen of the original bill the following: "In case no nomination was made in the primary election for the office of Senator in the General Assembly in any district composed of more than one county, or for the office of Representative in Congress of the United States, as shown by the certificate issued by the State board of canvassers provided for in this act, then in any such district the chairman of the party central committee therefor shall forthwith issue such call for a convention in such district and deliver the same to the County Auditor of each county in the district, and in such case said call need not be published"; and by inserting after the word "office" in the second line of Senate amendment attached on page twenty of the bill the words: "to be filled by the voters of the entire State"; and by striking out the word "votes" in the line following and inserting in lieu thereof the word "returns"; and by striking out the period after the word "hereof" in the last line of said Senate amendment and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon and after said semicolon the words: "and shall nominate candidates for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court."

12. That the following amendment be adopted as a substitute for the two House amendments to Section Thirty-five (35) of the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

That Section Thirty-five (35) of the bill be amended by striking out the period at the end of the first paragraph of said section and adding thereto the words: "and the cities acting under a special charter having a population of over fifteen thousand, except all such special charter cities and cities of the first class as have by vote of the people adopted a plan of municipal government which specifically provides for a non-partisan primary election."

And by adding to said section after the period at the end thereof the following:

"The entire expense of conducting a primary election provided for in this section shall be audited by the city council and paid by the city.

"This section shall not be held to repeal any law which provides for the adoption of a plan of municipal government by vote of the people and which embraces a non-partisan primary election."

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Senator Taylor, Senate File No. 361, a bill for an act to authorize and direct Boards of Supervisors in the State of Iowa in counties adjoining and bordering upon the state line of Missouri, directing the said Boards of Supervisors to agree with the supervisors in the adjoining counties in the state of Missouri as to the portion of highways on said state line which should be kept in repair by the authorities in each of the said states.

WHEREAS, Public highways have been established by prescription and otherwise, located upon the state line between the states of Iowa and Missouri; and,

WHEREAS, The said public highways are not kept in repair by or properly worked by the authorities upon whom such duties devolve, because the said authorities do not agree as to the portion of said highways to be kept in repair by the authorities of Iowa, and of Missouri; and,

WHEREAS, The said states are mutually interested in said public highways and the repair thereof, and there should be a mutual understanding between said states in regard to the repair of said highways; and,

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors in the State of Iowa have general supervision of highways in their respective counties and similar bodies or commissions have supervision in the state of Missouri; and the said officials, in adjoining counties in Iowa, should be directed, in the event the Legislature of Missouri adopts similar directions, to meet the authorities of the adjoining counties in Missouri, and mutually agree and assign the parts and portions of said public highways upon said state line of Iowa and Missouri.

Read first and second time and referred to Committee on Highways.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Highways, to whom was referred House File No. 404, a bill for an act to amend Section One Thousand Five Hundred and Thirty (1530) of the Supplement to the Code, relating to county road fund and how it is paid out, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and recommend that the same be amended as follows:

Amend the title by inserting after the word "amend" and before the word "section" in the first line thereof the words "the law as it appears in"; further amend the title by inserting between the word "is" and the word "paid" in the third line thereof the words "to be."

Amend Section One (1) by inserting after the word "be" and before the word "amended" in the third line thereof the words "and the same is hereby"; further amend by striking the last three lines from Section One (1) of the bill.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

GEO. KINNE,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Kinne, from the Committee on Highways, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Highways, to whom was referred Senate File No. 311, a bill for an act to amend Chapter One (1), Title Seven (7) of the Code, relating to the improvement of main roads, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and recommend the adoption of the following substitute:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 311.

A BILL for an act to amend Chapter One (1), Title Seven (7) of the Code, relating to improvement of main roads.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. This act shall be amendatory to Chapter One (1), Title Seven (7) of the Code.

SEC. 2. For the improvement of the main roads the Board of Supervisors, upon the petition of the owners of a majority of the acres of lands contiguous to any road or part thereof mentioned in said petition as described in Section Two (2) hereof, may order the improvement, making construction or re-construction of such part described in the petition as provided in this act. Said petition shall be filed in the office of the Auditor of the county.

SEC. 3. Upon the filing of said petition the Board of Supervisors, at a regular or at a special meeting called for that purpose, shall determine whether such improvement shall be made; provided, the petition is signed by the owners of the requisite number of acres of land, within two miles of said road described in said petition; said two miles shall be construed to mean two miles parallel on each side and at the point of beginning and ending of said road.

SEC. 4. If the Board of Supervisors shall determine it to be advisable or necessary to make contract or re-construct any road improvement authorized in this chapter it shall, in a resolution, declare such necessity or advisability, stating the method of construction and the kind of material to be used and the contiguous property to be assessed therefor, and designate the location, and shall publish twenty days' notice of its intention to make such improvement in two official newspapers of the county for three consecutive issues of said newspapers, stating generally the nature of the improvement, its location, the terminals thereof; the last of said publications shall be at least five days before the time fixed for the decision of the Board of Supervisors, that said improvement shall be made, at which time the owners of the property subject to assessment for the payment of said improvement may file objections to the contemplated improvement; the Board of Supervisors, after the consideration of all objections made, shall determine what changes, if any, shall be made and may order the improvement to be made and order the County Surveyor or other surveyor, at its discretion, to prepare a plat and specifications showing the location and general nature of the improvement, the terminals thereof, the kind of materials to be used, estimate of the cost thereof, and the amount assessable to each tract of land liable to assessment for the payment of said improvement.

SEC. 5. Contiguous property referred to in this chapter shall mean all lands and right of way of any railway company lying within three miles of the terminals and outer lines of said proposed road to be improved.

SEC. 6. After such improvement is ordered the Board of Supervisors shall provide for the publication of a notice to be signed by the Auditor of the county asking proposals for doing such work, prescribing generally the general nature of said work, the location and terminals thereof, the kind of material to be used, when the work shall be completed, and the terms of payment, and the time said proposals shall be acted upon. The supervisors, at their discretion, at any time may divide the said improvement into parts and sections and may allot said work to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders or may reject any and all bids. All bids must be accompanied with a certified check acceptable to the Board of Supervisors to be made payable to the order of the Treasurer of the county as security that the bidder will enter into a contract for doing the work contained in his bid according to the plans and specifications in the amount of ten per cent of the amount of the bid; all such checks, when the bid is not accepted, shall be returned to the respective bidders. The check of the successful bidder shall be retained until the completion and acceptance of the work by the Board of Supervisors and returned to the said bidder.

SEC. 7. When the bid for the construction or reconstruction of the improvement of any highway is accepted the Board of Supervisors shall enter into a contract in the name of the county for the construction of said improvement, according to the plans and specifications, and to keep same in repair for one year after acceptance and to require a bond to be approved by the Board of Supervisors with sufficient indemnity for the faithful performance of the contract.

SEC. 8. When the said improvement is accepted by the Board of Supervisors the said board shall file a plat and schedule in the Auditor's office of the county of the said highway improvement and the description of the land contiguous thereto and subject to assessment and the names of the owners as appears from the last preceding assessment book for taxes, and giving the number of acres and the amount of each lot or parcel of ground subject to assessment, and the amount the same is subject to be assessed for such improvement and against any railway, which plat shall be subject to public inspection.

SEC. 9. After filing the aforesaid plat and schedule the Auditor of the county shall give notice by two publications in each of two official newspapers published in the county and the posting of four notices in conspicuous places along the line of the highway improvement, that said plat and schedule are on file in the office of the Auditor, and within ten days after the first publication all objections to the prior proceeding must be made in writing and filed with the Auditor, and the Board of Supervisors having heard such objections and made the necessary corrections shall then make the special assessments as shown in said plat and schedule as corrected and approved for the payment for said improvement as follows: To the county, one-third; to the township or townships in which the highway is located, one-third in proportion to extent of improvement in each township; to the land and railroad right of way located within two miles of the terminals and sides of said road, one-third. The assessments so made shall be a lien on the said properties subject to general taxes until paid.

SEC. 10. All objections to the prior proceedings not made to the Board of Supervisors at the time and in the manner herein provided shall be waived, except where fraud is shown.

SEC. 11. The assessments made in said plat and schedule as corrected and approved shall be levied at one time by resolution against the contiguous property on such improved highway, and when levied shall be certified to the County Treasurer and by him placed upon the tax books. When levied the Board of Supervisors shall issue certificates to the contractor, which shall be issued for said improvement for the proportion to be assessed against the contiguous lands and railroad right of way. The proportion levied against the county and townships shall be paid in cash. If the owner of any parcel of land or railway, the assessment against which is embraced in any certificate provided for herein within thirty days from the date of such levy of such assessment, declare their option in writing to be filed with the Auditor to pay the said levy of assessment in ten allotments such levy of assessment against the parcel of land or railway of such owner shall be payable in ten equal installments, the first of which with interest on the whole assessment not to exceed six per cent per annum, shall mature and be payable the following March or October after the date of levy and the other installments with interest as aforesaid on the whole amount unpaid annually thereafter at the same time and in the same manner as the March or October semi-annual payments of ordinary taxes. All such assessments with interest from the date of levy shall become delinquent on the first day of March next after their maturity and shall bear the same interest with the same penalties as ordinary taxes.

SEC. 12. Each installment of any special assessment shall bear interest from the date of the levy not to exceed six per cent per annum which shall be due and payable at the March semi-annual payment of ordinary taxes. Upon the payment of all installments there shall be computed and collected the installment and interest on the whole assessment remaining unpaid up to the date of payment; provided, at any time the whole amount of the assessment and all the installments may be paid by the owner of the land or railway company with interest to date of payment.

SEC. 13. The Auditor shall place the installments due and the whole amount of the assessment on the tax books each year before the same are delivered to the Treasurer the same as ordinary taxes, and the Treasurer shall collect the said assessments as ordinary taxes.

SEC. 14. The collection of any assessment shall be made as of ordinary taxes and all laws for the collection of ordinary taxes shall apply to all levies and assessment for special taxes provided for herein.

SEC. 15. The Board of Supervisors are hereby empowered to levy at the same time it levies other taxes not to exceed five mills special road tax to carry out the provisions of this act.

SEC. 16. The Township Trustees are hereby authorized to determine the amount necessary for the construction and improvement of highways in their respective townships provided for in this act not to exceed in any one year five mills and certify to the Board of Supervisors the said amount, which amount shall be levied by the Board of Supervisors at the same time other taxes are levied on the property of the township.

And when so amended the bill do pass.

GEO. KINNE,
Chairman.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Senate File No. 280, a bill for an act providing for the nomination, by political parties or organizations, of candidates for various offices, and the election of delegates to conventions of said political parties or organizations, and the election of party committeemen, by a primary election, and for the holding of conventions by such political parties or organizations, and repealing Chapter Forty (40), laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, and Chapters Forty-Five (45) and Forty-six (46), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to primary elections, was taken up and considered.

On the adoption of the report of the conference committee, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the report of the conference committee be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Kimmel, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—42.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, DeArmand, DeWolf, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kinne, McKlveen—8.

So the report of the conference committee was adopted.

Senator Crossley moved that the amendments recommended by the conference committee in its report on Senate File No. 280 be adopted, and that the amendments as therein set forth and read be made a part of the bill as it passed the Senate.

On the question, "Shall the amendments be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Kimmel, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—41.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, DeArmand, DeWolf, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kinne, McKlveen, Saunders—9.

So the amendments were adopted.

Senator Burgess moved that House File No. 341 be recalled from the Committee on Cities and Towns and referred to Committee on Railroads.

Carried.

Senate resumed consideration of Senate File No. 203.

Senator Hopkins moved the previous question.

Carried.

On the adoption of the substitute recommended by the Committee on Judiciary, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the committee substitute be substituted for the original bill?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, DeWolf, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, McManus, Saunders, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Wade, Whipple, Whiting—19.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Kimmel, Lambert, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Turner, Warren, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—28.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Dowell, Kinne, McKlveen—3.

So the motion was lost.

Senator Ericson moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section One (1) by striking out the comma after the word "corporations" in the first line thereof and insert the following: "except for mutual telephone companies."

Senator Dunham moved to amend the amendment by adding thereto the following words: "and farmers' co-operative creamery companies".

The amendment to the amendment was lost.

On the adoption of the amendment a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted".

The yeas were:

Senators Bruce, Erierson, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Maytag, Nichols, Stuckslager, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—10.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Foley, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Kimmel, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Taylor, Wilson of Fayette, Young—31.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Frudden, Kinne, McKlveen, Saunders, Smith of Des Moines, Turner, Wade, Whipple—9.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Stookey moved the adoption of the following amendment:

I move to amend Section Three (3) of the printed bill by striking out of line five the words "five dollars on capital stock up to ten thousand dollars."

Adopted.

Senator Young was called to the chair at 2:20 o'clock.

Senator Jackson moved the adoption of the following amendments:

Amend by striking out Sections Four (4), Five (5), Six (6), Seven (7), Eight (8), Nine (9), Ten (10), Eleven (11) and Twelve (12) of the bill and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 3. Any corporation which shall fail or refuse to make such report to the Secretary of State, within thirty days after demand therefor, shall be subject to a fine of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each offense, to be recovered in a suit brought by and in the name of the State of Iowa, and the proceeds derived from such suits shall, after collection, be paid to the Secretary of State. As an additional and further penalty, the charter of such corporation shall be subject to forfeiture, and any County Attorney shall, upon instructions from the State so to do, bring suit in the name of the State against such corporation to forfeit its charter; provided, however, that no forfeiture shall be decreed if, before the decree of forfeiture, the corporation shall pay to the Secretary of State all amounts which may be due the State for fine theretofore accrued by reason of the failure of such corporation to make the reports herein provided.

SEC. 4. This act shall not apply to corporations organized for religious, educational, scientific or charitable purposes.

Senator Allen moved the adoption of the following amendment as a substitute for the amendment offered by Senator Jackson:

Amend the bill by striking out the figures "12" following abbreviation "Sec." of Section Twelve (12) and insert the figures "13" and insert the following, to be numbered "Section 12": "That the Secretary of State shall at any time within two years after the forfeiture of the certificate of incorporation or permit, reinstate and reissue charters to such corporations of this State whose charters have been forfeited under the provisions of this act, and reissue permits to transact business in this State to foreign corporations whose permits have been revoked under the provisions of this act; provided, that such corporations shall first have paid the annual license fee, provided for herein, and such expenses as the State may have incurred in forfeiting the charters or permits.

The President resumed the chair at 2:40 o'clock.

Senator Jamison of Clarke raised the point of order that the amendment to the amendment offered by Senator Allen to the amendment of Senator Jackson is not germane, and therefore out of order.

The President ruled the amendment to the amendment was germane and in order.

On the adoption of the amendment to the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the substitute amendment to the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Dowell, Dunham,

Eckles, Ericsen, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Kimmel, Lambert, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Turner, Wilson of Fayette, Young—23.

The nays were :

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, DeArmand, Gilliland, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, McManus, Nichols, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Taylor, Wade, Whipple—14.

Absent or not voting :

Senators DeWolf, Elerick, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Kinne, McKlveen, Saunders, Seeley, Stuckslager, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—13.

So the substitute amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The amendment as amended was adopted.

Senator Ericsen moved that the vote by which the amendment offered by Senator Whipple to Section Three (3) be reconsidered.

On motion to reconsider, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the motion to reconsider prevail?"

The yeas were :

Senators Allen, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, Eckles, Ericsen, Foley, Hopkins, Hughes, Kimmel, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Turner, Warren, Wilson of Fayette, Young—21.

The nays were :

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, DeArmand, DeWolf, Dowell, Dunham, Gale, Gilliland, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, McManus, Nichols, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Wade, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—22.

Absent or not voting :

Senators Elerick, Frudden, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, Saunders, Seeley—7.

So the motion to reconsider was lost.

Senator Allen moved the adoption of the following amendment :

Amend Section Four (4) by adding after the word "fee" and before the word "provided" in line two of the printed bill the words "or make the report."

Adopted.

Senator Allen moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Three (3) by adding after the period following the word "office" in line ten of the printed bill the words "provided, however, that nothing in this section shall require any corporation in process of liquidation to pay the annual license fee provided for herein."

Adopted.

Senator Ericson moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Gilliland, Hopkins, Kimmel, Lambert, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Turner, Warren, Wilson of Fayette, Young—26.

Senators Allen, DeWolf, Dunham, Ericson, Foley, Gale, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Kinne, Lambert, McKlveen, McManus, Saunders, Smith of Mitchell, Wade, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—18.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

Senator Dowell moved that the rules be suspended for the consideration of House File No. 408.

Carried.

House File No. 408, a bill for an act to amend Section Three Hundred and Ten (310) of the Supplement to the Code, relating to qualification for admission to the bar, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Dowell moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend by adding as Section Two (2) the following:

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after July 1st, 1909.

Adopted.

Senator Dowell moved that the rule be suspended and the bill read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gilliland, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kimmel, Lambert, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—37.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Dunham, Gale, Hopkins, Jamison of Clarke, Kinne, McKlveen, McManus, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—13.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

Senator Bruce moved that the rules be suspended for the consideration of Senate File No. 201.

Carried.

Senate File No. 201, a bill for an act to repeal the law as it appears in Section One Thousand Three Hundred and Forty-seven-a (1347-a) of the Supplement to the Code, and Chapter Forty-eight (48), acts of the Thirtieth General Assembly, relating to the vocation of peddlers, defining the term peddlers so as to include transient merchants and itinerant vendors selling by sample or by taking orders for immediate or future delivery, and to enact a substitute therefor, was taken up and considered.

The motion to reconsider the vote by which the Senate concurred in the House amendments, filed by Senator Bruce March 23, prevailed.

Senator Bruce moved that the Senate do not concur in the following House amendment:

Amend by striking the period at the end of line sixteen of the printed bill and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and adding the following: "not to local country merchants bona fide residents and taxpayers of the region in which they are doing business."

Carried.

Senator Bruce moved that the Senate concur in the following House amendments:

Amend by striking from the title thereof the following words: "the law as it appears in Section Thirteen Hundred and Forty-seven-A (1347-A) of the Supplement to the Code and." Also the same words as they appear in Section One (1) of said bill, and the dollar marks and figures and parentheses wherever they appear in said bill.

Amend by adding following the word "production" in the last line of Section One (1) of said bill the following words: "either by themselves or employes," and to strike the word "Daily" from Section Two (2) of said bill.

On the question, "Shall the Senate concur in the House amendments?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, Dowell, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Mattes, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Turner, Warren, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—30.

Carried.

Senate File No. 349, a bill for an act to repeal Section Thirteen Hundred and Forty-six-d (1346-d) of the Supplement to the Code, relating to the assessments of express companies for taxation, and to enact a substitute therefor, was taken up and considered.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Smith of Mitchell moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Lambert, Mattes, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Taylor, Warren, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—40.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Burgess, DeWolf, Dunham, Jamison of Clarke, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, McManus, Turner, Wade—10.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

The hour having arrived for the special order, House File No. 379, a bill for an act to prohibit common carriers of passengers from issuing, furnishing, or giving free tickets, free passes, free transportation or discriminating reduced rates, except to certain described persons; to prohibit the acceptance or use of such free tickets, free passes, free transportation or discriminating reduced rates by any except certain described persons; providing a penalty for the violation of the act; also for annual reports, and for the repeal of Chapter Ninety (90), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, with report of committee recommending passage as amended, was taken up, considered, and the report of the committee adopted.

Senator Hopkins moved the adoption of the following committee amendment:

That Section Two (2) of said bill be amended by striking out all the words between Subdivision (a) and Subdivision (b) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The officers, agents, employes, attorneys, physicians and surgeons of such common carriers of passengers, whose time is solely devoted to the service of common carrier of passengers, and the families of such officers, agents, employes, attorneys, physicians and surgeons; local attorneys not exceeding one attorney or firm of attorneys in each county of the State, except in counties where sessions of the Superior and District Court are held in two or more cities or towns and in counties where division stations are located at points other than the county seat, two attorneys or firms of attorneys, local physicians or surgeons not exceeding two in each county of the State and not to exceed one eye specialist for each railroad division, whose time may not be solely devoted to the service of common carrier of passengers; provided, no person shall be held to be a physician, surgeon, attorney, agent or employe for such common carrier unless he is in good faith employed to render necessary service within the legitimate scope of his profession or employment; and in any prosecution under this act, if it be claimed that a free ticket, free pass, or free transportation was wrongfully issued or given to physician, surgeon, attorney, agent or employe it shall be incumbent upon the defendant to prove the character of the professional services rendered or to be rendered."

And that Section Two (2) be further amended by striking out the period at the end of the section following the word "companies" and inserting a semicolon in lieu thereof and by adding after said semicolon the following: "(o) school children to and from public or parochial schools; provided, that the provisions of this act shall not be construed to prohibit the interchange of passes for the persons to whom free tickets, free passes or free transportation may be furnished or given under the provisions of this section."

Senator Peterson moved the adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment recommended by the Committee on Railroads:

I move to amend the committee amendment to Section Two (2) of the bill by striking out the words "time is solely devoted to the service of," following the word "whose" in the fifth line, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "chief and principal occupation is to render service to;" and by striking out the comma following the word "attorneys" and before the word "local" in the twelfth line, and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon.

Adopted.

Senator Elerick moved the adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Amend Section Two (2) by striking out the word "one" in the seventh line and insert the word "two;" also add the letter "s" to the word "firm" in same line.

By consent, the amendment was withdrawn.

Senator Mattes moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment recommended by the committee:

Amend Section Two (2) by striking out the word "one" in line seven of the amendment, and inserting the word "two" and add the letter "s" to the word "attorney" in line seven.

Also amend by striking out all after the comma following the word "State" in line eight to the word "local" in line eleven.

Senator Dowell was called to the chair at 10:35 o'clock.

On the adoption of the amendment to the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment to the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, Clark, Crossley, Dowell, Dunham, Elerick, Foley, Gale, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clarke, Jones, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Moon, Nichols, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Taylor, Wade, Warren, Wilson of Clinton—26.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Bruce, DeArmand, Eckles, Ericson, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Kimmel, Newberry, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stuckslager, Turner, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Young—20.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Kinne, McKlveen, Maytag—4.

So the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Senator Lambert moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment recommended by the committee:

Insert after the word "surgeons" in the seventh line of Section Two (2), as it appears in the Senate Journal, the following:

"The State Fish and Game Warden and his car, and the necessary assistants therewith, when engaged in the performance of official duties."

On the adoption of the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment to the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, DeArmand, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gale, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jones, Kimmel, Lambert, McManus, Mattes, Moon, Saunders, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Whiting—26.

The nays were:

Senators Allen, Crossley, Gilliland, Hughes, Maytag, Nichols, Peterson, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Warren, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—14.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Dowell, Hopkins, Jamison of Clarke, Kinne, McKlveen, Newberry, Taylor, Wade, Whipple—10.

So the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The amendments recommended by the Committee on Railroads, as amended, were adopted.

Senator DeArmand moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Two (2) by adding thereto the following: "Nothing in this act shall be construed to invalidate an existing contract between a street railway company and a city when a condition of a franchise grant requires the furnishing of transportation to police, firemen and city officers while in the performance of official duties."

Adopted.

Senator Clark moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Four (4) by striking out the words "and the officer, agent, employe or representative guilty of such violation shall, in addition to the fine," in lines three and four, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "or in the discretion of the court shall."

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Strike out the words "in uniform" in subdivision (e) of Section Two (2) and insert in lieu thereof the following: "wearing the insignia of their departments."

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Move to amend by striking out Section Five (5) and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of every common carrier of passengers, within the provisions of this act, to file with the Executive Council, whenever it shall order, a sworn statement, showing the names of all persons to whom during such period of time as the council may require, but not to exceed one year preceding, such common carrier gave or issued a free pass, free transportation or discriminatory reduced rate from any place in Iowa to any other place in Iowa in disclosing such information as will enable the Executive Council to determine whether the persons to whom it was issued were within the exceptions of this act.

Senator Gilliland moved the adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

I move to amend the amendment by striking out the words "from any place in Iowa to any other place in Iowa" in the eighth line.

On the adoption of the amendment to the amendment, a roll call was demanded.

On the question, "Shall the amendment to the amendment be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Dunham, Ericson, Foley, Gilliland, Hughes, Newberry, Peterson, Smith of Mitchell, Turner, Wilson of Fayette, Wilson of Clinton, Young—14.

The nays were:

Senators Bruce, DeArmand, Frudden, Gale, Jones, Lambert,

Mattes, Nichols, Saunders, Smith of Des Moines, Stookey, Wade, Warren, Whiting—14.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeWolf, Dowell, Eckles, Elerick, Hopkins, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Jamison of Clark, Kimmel, Kinne, McKlveen, McManus, Maytag, Moon, Seeley, Stirton, Stuckslager, Taylor, Whipple—22.

So the amendment to the amendment was lost.

The amendment offered by Senator Saunders was adopted.

Further consideration of the bill was postponed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

The following message was received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has receded from its amendments as recommended by conference committee and adopted conference committee report and amendments to Senate File No. 280, a bill for an act providing for the nomination, by political parties or organizations, of candidates for various offices and the election of delegates to conventions of said political parties or organizations, and the election of party committeemen, by a primary election, and for the holding of conventions by such political parties or organizations, providing penalties for the violations thereof and repealing Chapter 40, laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, and Chapter 45 and 46, laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to primary elections.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Senator Whipple, from the Committee on Insurance, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Insurance, to whom was referred House File No. 273, a bill for an act to require an annual apportionment and accounting of surplus of life insurance policies, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the same be amended as follows:

Section One. Strike from lines two and three the words "in which policy-holders are entitled to share in the profits or surplus."

Strike from line six the words and figures "January 1st, 1908," and insert in lieu thereof the words and figures "December 31st, 1907."

Section Two. Strike from lines two and three the words "contributed by its stockholders" and insert in lieu thereof the words "held for stockholders, and an amount equal to any apportioned surplus held as a liability on deferred dividend policies issued prior to January 1, 1908."

Section Three. Strike out the entire section and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SEC. 3. The holder of each and every participating policy issued after December 31, 1907, shall, on or before the end of the third policy year, and annually thereafter, have submitted to him the following options for the application of the apportioned surplus as hereinbefore provided, and upon or in payment of any premium then due shall be permitted to determine under which of such options the surplus shall be applied:

"1. Paid in cash, or

"2. Applied toward the payment of any premium or premiums, or

"3. Applied to the purchase of paid up additions to the policy, or

"4. Remain with the company, subject to the right of the insured to withdraw the same with all accumulations thereon at any anniversary of the policy.

"Companies may require policy-holders desiring to select option number three to furnish evidence of good health, but shall not require such evidence where the selection has once been made and continuously adhered to.

"If within thirty days after the end of any policy year the insured fails to designate the manner of the application of the surplus as herein above provided, there being no premium then due, the surplus shall be paid to him in cash."

Section Four. Strike out the entire section and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"SEC. 4. In event of default of payment of any premium due on any policy other than a term policy of twenty years or less, provided that not less than three full years' premiums shall have been paid, there shall be secured to the insured without action on his part, either paid up or extended insurance as specified in the policy, the net value of which, except as to return premium policies, shall be at least equal to the entire net reserve held by the company on such policy, less two and one-half per cent ($2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent) of the amount insured by the policy, or twenty per cent (20 per cent) of the reserve, whichever is greater, and less any outstanding indebtedness to the company on the policy at the time of default.

"The insured shall have the right to surrender his policy to the company at its home office at any time within one month after date of default and shall receive therefor the cash value otherwise available for the purchase of paid up or extended insurance as aforesaid. Payment of such cash value may be deferred by the company for a period not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made."

And when so amended the bill do pass.

W. P. WHIPPLE,
Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

Senator Turner moved that when the Senate adjourn it be until 1:30 o'clock P.M.

Carried.

HOUSE FILE NO. 462.

A BILL for an act to release and convey to Mary A. T. Sanders all right, title and interest of the State of Iowa in or to the following described real estate, to-wit: A strip of land situated in west end of lot three (3), in section three (3), township seventy-nine (79) north, range six (6) west of the fifth P. M., in Johnson county, Iowa, and lying between the public highway known as the "Foster road" and the bank of the Iowa river, and extending north 150 feet from the east end of the Terrill dam, situated between lots three (3) and six (6) in said section three (3) and south 150 feet from said dam.

WHEREAS, On the 20th day of August, 1903, Mary A. T. Sanders and her husband, Euclid Sanders, conveyed by warranty deed recorded in book 84, page 558, Deed Records of Johnson county, Iowa, to the State of Iowa for the use and benefit of the State University of Iowa the property described below, a copy of granting clause of said deed being as follows, to-wit:

Know all men by these presents: That Mary A. T. Sanders and Euclid Sanders, her husband, of Johnson county, State of Iowa, in consideration of the sum of one dollar and other valuable considerations in hand paid by the State of Iowa, do hereby sell and convey unto the said State of Iowa, for the use and benefit of the State University of Iowa, the following described premises, situated in the county of Johnson and State of Iowa, to-wit:

All right, title and interest in and to the dam and water-power on the Iowa river, known as the Terrill dam, situated between lots 3 and 6, section 3, township 79, range 6 west of the 5th principal meridian; also the cribbing and rock-work at the west end of said section 3 above mentioned, and lying between the public highway known as the Foster road and the bank of the Iowa river, and extending north 150 feet from the east end of said dam and south 150 feet from said dam. The conditions of said conveyance are that said water-power shall be for the use and benefit of the State University of Iowa and for no other purpose, and that no steam plant or other than water or electric-power plant shall be erected or used on said premises without the written consent of grantors, their heirs or assigns, and in case of violation of these conditions, or abandonment, or non-use of said water-power for a period of three years, or for the purpose above mentioned, then this conveyance is to be void and the property herein granted is to revert to the grantors, their heirs or assigns: Provided, however, if the said grantee construct a dam within a distance of two miles and below the present site, and of such height as to maintain the level of the water in the river at its present level above the dam herein conveyed, in that case the present site may be abandoned by said grantee and only the title to the strip of land herein conveyed shall revert to the grantors, their heirs or assigns, and the grantee shall have the right to remove within a reasonable time any buildings, fixtures or machinery located on said grounds; and,

WHEREAS, The said dam and water-power have been destroyed and a new dam has been constructed across the Iowa river within a distance of two miles below the site of said old dam, and by the terms of said deed the strip of land above described reverts to the grantors, their heirs or assigns; therefore,

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. The State of Iowa hereby relinquishes and conveys to Mary A. T. Sanders all its right, title and interest in the following described real estate, to-wit: A strip of land situated in the west end of lot three (3), in section three (3), township seventy-nine (79) north, range six (6) west of the 5th P. M., in Johnson county, Iowa, lying between the public highway known as the "Foster road" and the bank of the Iowa river, and extending north one hundred and fifty (150) feet from the east end of the dam and water-power on the Iowa river known as the "Terrill dam," situated between lots three and six (3) and (6) in said section three (3) and extending south one hundred and fifty (150) feet from said dam.

SENATE FILE NO. 365.

A BILL for an act authorizing counties having a population of fifteen thousand (15,000) or over to construct and maintain a hospital, and authorizing a levy to pay for the erection, construction and maintenance thereof.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. In all counties having a population of fifteen thousand (15,000) or over the board of supervisors may, by a two-thirds vote of said board, on petition of two hundred (200) citizens of the county, submit to the voters of said county at the general election, or a special election held for the purpose, a proposition to purchase real estate and to erect thereon a hospital. If said proposition shall receive a majority of all the votes cast upon said proposition the board of supervisors shall have power to purchase real estate and provide for the maintenance of said hospital, and to formulate rules and regulations for the government of the same and the admission of inmates thereto. They shall also fix the compensation to be paid by persons received therein; and they shall have the power to provide for the admission for treatment of those who are county charges.

In the submission of the proposition to the voters of any county the supervisors of such county shall, as a part of the proposition, state the maximum sum which it shall be authorized to expend in the purchase of real estate, hospital building and such other buildings as may be necessary to properly maintain said hospital.

SEC. 2. The hospital shall be located at the county seat of said county, or within one-half mile thereof. Whenever any county shall authorize the purchase of real estate, the board of supervisors, if authorized at said election so to do, may issue bonds of the county, drawing interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent, in the aggregate amount authorized at said election, and may from year to year levy a tax for the payment of the same.

SEC. 3. After the erection of the said hospital the board of supervisors may levy a tax not to exceed one mill for the support and maintenance of the same, the said tax to be known as the hospital tax, and the said tax when so levied and collected shall not be used for any purpose other than for the payment of the expense of the equipment and maintenance of said hospital.

SEC. 4. The superintendent of said hospital shall be the executive officer and hold his office for a term of.....years; he shall be appointed by the board of supervisors and shall have entire control of said hospital, under the direction and supervision of the board of supervisors, and shall employ attendants, nurses and servants and such other persons as shall be necessary for the efficient and economical administration of affairs, and shall annually, in the month of December, make a report to the County Auditor of said county of all receipts and expenses of said hospital. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties the said superintendent shall give bond in the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), duly conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and the accounting for all funds and property that may come into his hands, whether the same shall be the property of the county or of any patient or employe therein. Said bond shall be approved by the board of supervisors and deposited with the Auditor of the county for safe keeping.

SEC. 5. In the management of said hospital no discrimination shall be made against the practitioners of any school of medicine recognized by the laws of Iowa.

SEC. 6. Any person may receive treatment in said hospital upon such terms and conditions as the board of supervisors may fix.

Carried:

By consent the substitute amendment to Section Five (5) was withdrawn.

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Amend Section Five (5) by striking out the entire section and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SECTION FIVE.

SEC. 5. Every common carrier of passengers within the provision of this act shall, on or before the first day of February of each year file with the Executive Council of the State of Iowa a sworn statement showing the names of all persons to whom during the preceding calendar year it issued, furnished or gave a free ticket, free pass, free transportation or a discriminating reduced rate within this State, except wage-workers of common carriers in their ordinary employment and the families of such wage earners, and disclosing such further information as will enable the council to determine whether the person to whom it was issued was within the exception of this act.

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendments to subdivision (a) of Section Two (2) were adopted.

Carried:

By consent, the amendments offered to subdivision (a) of Section Two (2) were withdrawn:

Senator Saunders moved the adoption of the following amendment to subdivision (a) of Section Two (2):

That Section Two (2) of House File No. 379 be amended by striking out all the words between Subdivision (a) and Subdivision (b), and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The officers, agents, employes, attorneys, physicians and surgeons of such common carriers of passengers whose chief and principal occupation is to render service to common carriers of passengers, and the families of such officers, agents, employes, attorneys, physicians and surgeons; local attorneys, not exceeding one attorney or firm of attorneys in each county of the State, except in counties where sessions of the District Court are held in two or more cities or towns, or counties in which a Superior Court is held in a city other than a county seat, and in counties where the common carrier operates two or more lines, two attorneys or firms of attorneys, local physicians or surgeons not exceeding two in each county of the State, and not to exceed one eye specialist for each railroad division, and not to exceed one sanitarian in the State, whose time need not be solely devoted to the service of the common carrier of passengers; provided no person shall be held to be a physician, surgeon, attorney, agent or employe for such common carrier, unless he is in good faith employed to render the necessary services within a legitimate scope of his profession or employment; the State Fish and Game Warden and his car, and the necessary assistants therewith, when engaged in the performance of official duties; and in any prosecution under this act, if it is claimed that free ticket, free pass or other transportation was wrongfully issued or given to physician, surgeon, attorney, agent or employe, it shall be incumbent upon the defendant to prove the character of the professional services rendered or to be rendered.

Adopted.

Senator Saunders moved that the rule be suspended and the bill be read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

House Files No. 244 and 460 were returned by the committees to the Senate and re-referred to the Sifting Committee.

Senate File No. 355, a bill for an act authorizing the State Board of Control of the State of Iowa to grant the right of way for an interurban or other railway over and across the lands of the Iowa State Hospital for the Insane at Mt. Pleasant, Henry county, State of Iowa, and to fix terms and conditions therefor, was taken up and considered.

The motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed the Senate, filed by Senator Seeley, prevailed.

The motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed to its third reading prevailed.

Senator Seeley moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for Senate File No. 355.

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 355.

A BILL for an act authorizing any interurban or other railway company to acquire a right of way for an interurban or other railway over and across the lands of the Iowa State Hospital for the Insane at Mount Pleasant, Henry county, Iowa, and authorizing the Executive Council to fix the terms and conditions thereof.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Any interurban or other railway company is hereby authorized to acquire a right of way over and through the lands of the State used in connection with the Iowa State Hospital for the Insane at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, upon the terms and conditions herein provided.

SEC. 2. The said interurban or other railway company shall furnish to the Executive Council a plat, showing its proposed line of road through said premises, and upon the approval of such location by said Council it shall issue a certificate to that effect, which certificate shall confer upon said railway company the right to acquire the said right of way, as provided in Chapter Four (4), Title Ten (10) of the Code, but no such right of way shall be acquired without the approval of said Council. In the event of approval of location, as aforesaid, the Council is authorized to negotiate for and agree upon the damages sustained by the State by reason of taking said right of way. No such certificate shall issue until the said interurban or other railway company shall have filed with the Executive Council an agreement in writing, binding itself, its successors and assigns, to construct and maintain, without expense to the State of Iowa, a side track, extending to the heating plant of the said Iowa State Hospital for the Insane, as the same now is or may hereafter be located; and said agreement shall also require the said railway company to erect and maintain a station or stations, suitable in character, size, and design, at such place or places on said hospital grounds as the Executive Council may designate.

The poles upon the right of way shall be of iron or steel, ornamental in design and painted, or of such other material as may be required by the Executive Council.

SEC. 3. Upon payment by said company to the State Treasurer the compensation and value fixed by agreement, or by condemnation, as the case may be, and upon filing of the agreements required in Section Two (2) of this act, the Governor of Iowa shall execute and deliver to said company a deed, conveying to said railway company, its successors and assigns, said right of way, but such deed shall not operate to convey the fee title of said right of way.

The substitute was read first and second time.

Senator Seeley moved that the substitute be substituted for the original bill.

Carried.

Senator Seeley moved that the rules by which no bill shall be read a second and third time on the same day be suspended.

Carried.

Senator Seeley moved that the rule be suspended, the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed, and the bill was read a third time.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

Senators Bleakly, Bruce, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Elerick, Ericsen, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Kimmel, Lambert, McKlveen, Mattes, Maytag, Newberry, Nichols, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Des Moines, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Taylor, Turner, Wade, Whipple, Whiting, Wilson of Fayette, Young—36.

The nays were:

None.

Absent or not voting:

So the motion was lost.

Senator Mattes filed the following motion:

I move to reconsider the vote by which House File No. 460 passed the Senate today.

JOSEPH MATTES.

Senator McKlveen, from the joint committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the life, character and public service of the late Hon. Samuel Lucius Bestow, submitted the following report:

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

MR. PRESIDENT—Your committee appointed on the part of the Senate to draft suitable resolutions on the life, character and public services of the late Hon. Samuel Lucius Bestow of Chariton, Lucas county, Iowa, would respectfully submit the following report:

Samuel L. Bestow was born in Erie county, New York, March 8, 1823. He attended the public schools of that county in his boyhood and later alternated between farm work in the summer and school teaching in the winter until he became of age. He then entered active business life and was for some time engaged in manufacturing. He attended an academy in Rochester, New York, and served as superintendent of public schools before leaving his native state.

In 1870 he removed to Iowa, making his home on a new farm near Chariton, Lucas county. At the beginning of the Civil war he volunteered to go into the army, but was rejected on account of physical disability.

In the early years of the slavery agitation he was a member of the Republican party. In 1875 he was nominated by the Republican party of Lucas and Clarke counties for State Senator and was duly elected, and served in that body during the Sixteenth and Seventeenth General Assemblies. He was the author of the resolution providing for an investigation of the affairs and management of the Fort Madison penitentiary and was made chairman of the commission.

Soon after, for various reasons, mainly on account of the stand the Republican party took on the liquor and tariff questions, he left the party and allied himself with the Democrats. In 1893 he was their nominee for Lieutenant-Governor and was elected to that office with Governor Boies. In the administration of his duties as presiding officer of the Senate he was uniformly courteous and careful. With the membership so evenly divided between the two great parties, it was no easy matter to preside in such a manner as to please all, but he managed it so skillfully that the resolution of thanks passed at the close of the session was heartily endorsed by every member of the Senate. He showed no favoritism and all recognized an honest and successful effort to give every member his full rights.

It should be remembered that this was the first time since the creation of the office that a Democrat had been chosen to the position of Lieutenant-Governor and the first time since the extra session of 1856 that a presiding officer of the Senate had been a Democrat, a period of thirty-six years.

At the time that the Hon. John H. Gear was first elected to the United States Senate, Mr. Bestow received the full vote of the minority for that place, which was a fitting tribute to his abilities and standing. The division in the Legislature was 71 for Bestow and 77 for Gear, a passage in the political history of the State not generally remembered.

We owe to Mr. Bestow a debt of gratitude that we can never hope to repay. Regarding a public office as a public trust, he has given to the State honest, efficient and faithful service; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of this patriotic citizen, the State has lost an honored, influential and upright man.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the Journals of the House and Senate and that an engrossed copy be presented to the family of the deceased by the Secretary of the Senate.

J. A. MCKLVEEN,

THOS. LAMBERT,

JAS. H. JAMISON,

Committee on part of the Senate.

J. H. DARRAH,

W. P. ALLRED,

G. W. KOONTZ,

Committee on part of the House.

Senator McKlveen moved the adoption of the resolution and spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT, SENATORS—It was my good fortune to have known Mr.

Bestow from the time he located in Lucas county, in 1870. I soon became intimately acquainted with him, and for many years was his family physician. I am enabled to bear testimony to the many virtues which adorned his life and secured for him the sincere respect of all with whom he came in contact. Upon his arrival in Lucas county, he settled on a farm and devoted himself exclusively to agriculture and stock raising, a calling always congenial to his taste, and when approached and solicited to become the standard bearer of his party, like Cincinnatus, he was found at the plow. He accepted the nomination of the Republican party for State Senator of Lucas and Clarke counties and was duly elected to that office in 1875 and served in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth General Assemblies. He was diligent and painstaking in the performance of every duty and was especially vigilant in looking after the interests of his constituents. He was a man of unusual modesty, never intruding his opinions, but at the same time he was possessed of large common sense, sound judgment, and very positive convictions. He accorded to others the right to think and act as they saw fit, but he never permitted differences of views to affect his personal associations. He abhorred treachery, deception, untruthfulness, and he never made a promise that he did not regard sacred and to the best of his ability tried to perform. His wife died seven years ago. Two daughters and a son survive him. His domestic life was a very happy one.

The career of Mr. Bestow was rounded out fittingly in the manner of his death, which was as peaceful as his life was beautiful. He had ever lived so as to be ready to meet the final summons calmly when it came; his spirit marched trustingly over the silent river, secure in the assurance of the final good reward of the Christian soldier who had lovingly and loyally obeyed the orders of the great Captain of Salvation. A noble man, loving husband, a kind father, a true patriot, and a sincere, faithful Christian passed away when the Angel of Death touched Samuel L. Bestow.

There is nothing more fitting than that when men die, some note should be made of it, something should be said of it,—something that perchance may bring consolation to the sorrowing and that may aid the mind in the contemplation of the mysteries of life and death.

There is no death: what seems so is transition.
This life of mortal breath
Is but the suburb of that life Elysian,
Whose portals we call death.

"The things which are seen are temporal: but the things which are not seen are eternal." Death we see, but life is unseen. The roots of life lie deep among the dead: its nourishment comes from decay. The brightest colors and the sweetest perfumes are brewed in dismal swamps. The pond lily rests upon the most stagnant pool. Without death there could be no life. And so, immortality is but the bloom of life, and death is perpetuity.

So when one who was loved and honored by a great people puts on this bloom of immortality, it is an eminently proper thing that we should turn aside from the ordinary duties of life and give expression in our feeble way to the questioning of the human mind and our realization of the answer made by the Divine Mind.

So I have come to lay a garland upon the bier of my friend. "There's rosemary, that's for remembrance; and there's pansies, that's for thoughts." His was a manhood that respected honor, truth, integrity, virtue, candor and righteousness as sacred as life, as priceless as eternity.

"The stars may fade, the sun's bright beams expire,
Creation sink on Nature's funeral pyre.
But Virtue's gifts, unfading, shall endure,
When stars and skies and suns shall be no more."

His integrity of character, his fidelity to duty, his sturdy manhood, his distinguished public services, his commanding ability, and his kindly heart won him a place in the affections of his people, and he leaves behind him the memory of a life well lived as a sweet fragrance, a blessed benison. It was these excellent qualities that gave him high preferment in affairs of State and that made his memory a precious heritage to those who remain behind. May the influence of a noble life ever remain with us, as bright, as shining, and as clear, as on that day, when he laid down his burdens, gazed out upon the shoreless sea, and felt "upon his wasted brow the breath of the eternal morning."

Senator Jamison of Clarke spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND SENATORS—One of the tenderest traditions of the human race is the habit of cessation of public duties;—pausing long enough in our daily toil to say farewell in fitting terms over the graves of our fellow countrymen. The age in which we live is so thoroughly dominated by a greedy, hurrying, time-running spirit that public men sometimes forget the veneration due the departed fellow citizen.

The Senate finds it becoming today to lay aside legislative cares and with the accustomed dignity do honor to the memory of one who was once a member of this body, and who also served as presiding officer. Fifteen years ago, the chair now occupied by our worthy President was filled by the subject of this resolution, in the vigor of physical and mental manhood, and today we are called upon to perform for our departed friend the last sacred honor that the living can perform for the dead.

In the Twenty-fourth General Assembly of the State of Iowa, Samuel L. Bestow enjoyed the distinction of having been elected by his party as Lieutenant-Governor of this State. It being a distinction extremely rare, as it was the only time within the last half century that his party had succeeded in placing a man in that position. It was a time when the political parties were evenly divided in this chamber and when the political turmoil was such that to preside required a man of skill, integrity and sterling worth. His individuality was pointed, strong, frank and manly. In his personal bearing there was mingled a firmness, gentleness and integrity which attracted even those of the opposite political faith to him and rendered him at once a social favorite. He was a man of brilliant intellectual gifts and requirements, and in his investigation of legislative subjects be allowed nothing short of the bed rock to satisfy him. He was kind and genial, and soon gathered around him a score of friends from both political parties. He was wise, judicious, generous, and fair to all. His political career ended shortly after his retirement from the position that he occupied in this chamber, and he lived a quiet and happy life on his own homestead in Lucas county, Iowa.

In looking over this body, I see but one familiar face, beside myself, who had the honor to serve in this body when it was presided over by this distinguished man. Our present presiding officer, together with myself, had the honor to be members of this body at that time. Samuel L. Bestow was a man, citizen and statesman, beloved by all who knew him. While this noble man has left us, his memory will be cherished by those who knew and loved him, as long as love and patriotism are passions that ebb and flow in the human heart. Like a gentle rippling river with green and shaded banks, this noble man, statesman and citizen quietly laid down his burden and passed to eternal rest on the 10th day on January, 1907, leaving the State of Iowa to mourn the loss of one of her most respected citizens,—a grand and noble man.

Senator Moon spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT—It is fitting and proper that we should devote this time to the honor and memory of those who have served the State as members of the Senate and who have passed away since the last meeting of the General Assembly.

The memory of Samuel L. Bestow has recently been properly honored by those who were nearest to him, and it is appropriate that the State which he served should, through its representatives, add its tribute.

Mere tenure of office can not add much real dignity and honor to the life of any man, but preferment through the choice to high office, by a sovereign people, is worthy of the ambition of any man. Samuel L. Bestow reached that preferment and, as in his public service, he vindicated the judgment of those who chose him. It is fitting that we should here make record of the fact by the adoption of these resolutions and that the tribute that we pay to his memory should become a part of the recorded history of our State.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Senator Gilliland moved that the remarks made by Senators McKlveen, Jamison of Clark and Moon be printed in the Journal.

Carried.

Senator Dowell, from the joint committee appointed to draft appropriate resolutions on the life, character and public services of ex-Lieutenant-Governor Frank T. Campbell, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your committee appointed on the part of the Senate to draft suitable resolutions on the life, character and public services of Frank T. Campbell, ex-Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Iowa, would respectfully submit the following report:

To the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

WHEREAS, Frank T. Campbell, Lieutenant-Governor of Iowa from 1878 to 1882, departed this life after a lingering illness, at his home in Lima, Ohio, on the 6th day of March, A. D. 1907; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the State of Iowa has heard with deep sorrow and regret of the death of Iowa's distinguished son and former Lieutenant-Governor, and that in his death this commonwealth mourns the loss of one of her honorable and patriotic sons.

Frank T. Campbell was born in the state of Ohio in the year 1836, and died at the ripe age of seventy-one years. At the age of twenty he moved to Iowa, and settled at Newton, in Jasper county, where he became associated with his brother in the management of the Newton Journal. Governor Campbell was a member of the State Senate and served during the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth General Assemblies, and was active in shaping the important legislation of that period, particularly the legislation referring to the regulation of railway passenger and freight rates. In March, 1888, he was appointed a member of the Railway Commission, and at the November election in the same year was elected to that position, the tenure of that office having been changed from appointive to elective.

Governor Campbell served as captain of Company "A" of the Fortieth Iowa Infantry during the War of the Rebellion, and performed able and patriotic service in behalf of his country; be it further

Resolved, That the General Assembly takes this occasion to testify its high appreciation of the exalted character and distinguished public services of Frank T. Campbell, and hereby extends to his bereaved family its sincere sympathy in their sorrow and affliction; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be properly engrossed, authenticated by the President and Secretary of the Senate, and the Speaker and Clerk of the House, and sent to the members of his family.

JOHN B. SULLIVAN,

C. A. MEREDITH.

E. J. SIDEY,

Committee on part of the House.

C. C. DOWELL,

GEO. W. DUNHAM,

A. F. FRUDDEN,

Committee on part of the Senate.

Senator Dowell spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND SENATORS—In rising to move the adoption of the resolutions just offered by your committee, I feel it my duty to say a word relative to the life and character of Governor Campbell.

He was a soldier of the Civil War, having entered the service shortly after its beginning, and was promoted to the captaincy of Company "A" of the Fortieth Iowa Infantry. For two terms he served as a member of this Senate, and afterwards was called to preside over it for two terms.

Under the administration of Governor Larrabee, when the office of Railroad Commissioner was appointive, Governor Campbell was appointed a member of this board and was afterwards elected to this office. In all his political acts, he was an earnest and persistent advocate of what he believed to be for the best interests of the people of the State. He was uncompromising in his position against what he believed to be wrong. His record as a legislator, as the presiding officer, and as Railroad Commissioner of this State showed clearly the character and worth of the man.

After his retirement from public life, he came to the city of Des Moines, where he resided until a little while prior to the date of his death, which occurred on March 6th of this year.

As a private citizen, he always took an active part in the affairs which in any manner affected the public. He was an honest, honorable, and upright man. The State has received great and lasting benefits from his services as an official. It has received more benefits from the influence of the character of the man.

Mr. President, I move the adoption of the resolutions.

Senator Ericson spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT—I wish to add a few words of commendation respecting the life and public services of the late Lieutenant-Governor Frank T. Campbell.

I had the honor of serving with him in the Fourteenth General Assembly and the extra session of 1873. I learned to respect and honor him as an able legislator, a man of strong character and individuality, honorable and upright in all his dealings.

His record as a public servant is one of a clear purpose to serve the best interests of the State, and especially for the interests of the common people, which was always uppermost in his mind during his whole career as State Senator, Lieutenant-Governor and Railroad Commissioner.

During the latter years of his life, as a private citizen, his voice and pen were always employed in the interest and betterment of the common people of our State, and I believe that through the services rendered to our State and people by him, their interests have been better served for the part he has taken in the affairs of the State.

The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

Senator Young moved that the remarks of Senators Dowell and Ericson be printed in the Journal.

Carried.

By consent the motion filed yesterday by Senator Gilliland to reconsider the vote by which the concurrent resolution relative to the parole of Betsey Smith was withdrawn.

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS.

Senator Dunham presented the following memorial of Lenox College of Hopkinton, Iowa:

To the Honorable the Members of the Senate of the Thirty-second General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Gentlemen:

WHEREAS, Lenox College at Hopkinton, Delaware county, Iowa, sent her president and ninety-two of her students (all but one) into the Civil war, twenty-eight of whom, including the president, fell in the service of the nation; and,

WHEREAS, Immediately upon the close of the war a handsome monument was erected on the college campus in honor of this patriotic service, which has been found by the State Auditor to be the oldest, by a period of eighteen months, of any monument of its kind in the State of Iowa; and,

WHEREAS, Lenox College has reached the fiftieth milestone in her history and is arranging to celebrate the occasion in connection with the coming commencement week; and,

WHEREAS, One day in connection with this celebration has been set apart as a National day and speakers of national distinction are being secured to pay tribute to the remarkable service which Lenox College rendered to the nation in the time of her greatest peril; therefore,

We respectfully solicit the presence of the members of your honorable body to participate in the exercises of this day, thus giving recognition to the worth of true patriotism.

Very respectfully submitted,

E. E. REED,

President of Lenox College.

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 100.

A BILL for an act to repeal Sections Fifteen Hundred and Thirty (1530) of the Code, Fifteen Hundred and Thirty (1530) of the Supplement to the Code, and Chapter Fifty-six (56) of the laws of Thirty-first General Assembly, relative to the levy of taxes for roads and highways, and enact the following in lieu thereof:

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That Sections Fifteen Hundred and Thirty (1530) of the Code, Fifteen Hundred and Thirty (1530) of the Supplement to the Code, and Chapter Fifty-six (56) of the laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly be and the same are hereby repealed and the following enacted in lieu thereof:

The Board of Supervisors of each county shall, at the time of levying taxes for other purposes, levy a tax of not more than one (1) mill on the dollar of the assessed value of the taxable property in its county, including all taxable property in cities and incorporated towns, excepting in cases provided for in Section Twenty (20), Chapter Sixty-eight (68) of the laws of the Thirtieth General Assembly, the Board of Supervisors shall levy not to exceed one (1) additional mill, which shall be collected at the same time, and in the same manner as other taxes, and be known as the county road fund, and paid out only on the order of the board for work done on the roads of the county in such places as it shall determine; provided, that on written petition of a majority of the electors who are free holders of any township in any county, the Board of Supervisors may levy an additional mill in said township, to be expended by said Board of Supervisors on roads in township where same is levied; but so much of the county road fund as arises from property within any city or incorporated town shall be expended on the roads or streets within such city or town, or on the roads adjacent thereto, under the direction of the city or town council. Excepting in cases where the Board of Supervisors make an additional levy for payment of drainage benefits assessed against roads and highways, the entire amount arising from such levy shall be covered into the county road fund. The County Treasurer shall receive the same compensation for collecting these taxes as he does for collecting corporation taxes. Moneys so collected shall not be transferable to any other fund nor used for any other purpose. In case the Board of Supervisors do not make a levy for county road fund or levy less than one (1) mill for said county road fund, the Board of Supervisors shall levy such an additional fund for the benefit of such townships as shall have certified a desire for such additional levy, as provided for in Section One Thousand Five Hundred and Twenty-eight (1528) of this chapter; but the amount for the general township fund and the county road fund shall not exceed in any one year five (5) mills on the dollar.

SEC. 2. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in the city of Des Moines, Iowa.

Substitute was read first and second time.

Senator Allen moved that the rules by which no bill shall be read second and third time on the same day be suspended.

Carried.

Senator Allen moved that the substitute be substituted for the original bill.

Carried.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Bruce moved that further consideration of the bill be postponed.

Carried.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Senator Wilson of Fayette, Senate File No. 372, a bill for an act legalizing the acts and proceedings of the city council of the city of Oelwein, Iowa.

A BILL for an act legalizing the acts and proceedings of the city council of the city of Oelwein, Iowa, in purchasing grounds for park, and appropriating money from the park fund in partial payment of the same, and any and all acts of the City Treasurer of said city in the payment of warrants drawn on the park fund by the City Clerk of said city.

WHEREAS, At a meeting of the city council of the city of Oelwein, held on the thirteenth (13th) day of March, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Three (1903), a resolution was adopted by said city council to submit to the qualified electors of said city of Oelwein the question of voting a two mill tax levy upon the assessed property within said city, for the purpose of purchasing suitable real property for a public park for said city, said levy to continue for five (5) years from date of levy; and,

WHEREAS, Proper proclamation was made and notice given of an election upon the question of making said tax levy for the purpose of purchasing suitable real property for a public park for said city; and,

WHEREAS, Said proposition was submitted to the qualified electors of said city, at the city election of said city, held March 30, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Three (1903); and,

WHEREAS, A majority of the legal voters voting at said election voted in favor of said tax levy; and,

WHEREAS, On the 8th day of September, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Three (1903), said city council levied, in pursuance of said election, a two mill tax for public park fund, which public park fund tax has annually thereafter been levied; and,

WHEREAS, On the 30th day of July, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six (1906), the city council of said city, by resolution duly adopted, instructed the mayor and clerk of said city to enter into a contract with one G. A. Oelwein for the purchase of the following described real property for park purposes: The north two-thirds' (2-3) and the east one-half (1-2) of the southwest one-fourth (1-4) of Section Thirty-three (33), Township Ninety-one (91) North, Range Nine (9), West of the Fifth P. M., in Fayette county, Iowa, and to pay for the same in the following manner: One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) at the time of signing the contract and Seven Thousand One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($7,150.00) on the 31st day of May, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-one (1921), and instructed the City Clerk to draw a warrant on the park fund in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) as first payment on said contract; and,

WHEREAS, On the 30th day of July, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six (1906), the Mayor and Clerk of said city did enter into a contract with the said G. A. Oelwein for the purchase of said above described real property for a public park for said city; and,

WHEREAS, The City Clerk of said city did, on the 30th day of July, A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six (1906), draw a warrant on the park fund of said city in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in favor of the said G. A. Oelwein; and,

WHEREAS, Said city warrant drawn on the park fund was duly presented to the City Treasurer of said city and by him paid out of said park fund; and,

WHEREAS, There are doubts as to the legality of the proceedings and actions of said city council in purchasing said ground for park purposes in the way and manner hereinbefore set forth; and,

WHEREAS, There are also doubts as to the legality and validity of the action of said City Treasurer in the payment of said warrant drawn on the park fund in the way and manner hereinbefore set forth; therefore,

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That all proceedings of the city council of the city of Oelwein, Iowa, with reference to the purchase of the real property for park purposes, as set out in the preamble hereto, are hereby legalized and made of the same validity, force, and effect as if all the requirements and provisions of the law applicable thereto had been fully complied with, and that the purchase of said real property for park purposes is hereby declared to be valid and legal, and that the action of said City Treasurer in the payment of said warrant in the way and manner set forth in the preamble hereto is hereby legalized and validated so as to be of the same force and effect as if each and every provision of the statute of the State of Iowa, with reference thereto, had been strictly complied with.

SEC. 2. Nothing in this act shall in any manner affect pending litigation.

SEC. 3. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Des Moines Register and Leader, a newspaper published in Des Moines, Iowa, and the Oelwein Register, a newspaper published in Oelwein, Iowa, without expense to the State.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Senator Smith of Mitchell, Senate File No. 376:

A BILL for an act to define the duty of common carriers of freight, respecting the speed of cars of live stock, conferring additional powers upon the Board of Railroad Commissioners with relation thereto, and providing for the enforcement of the orders, rulings and regulations of the board.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That it is hereby made the duty of all common carriers of freight within this State to move cars of live stock at the highest practicable speed consistent with reasonable safety.

SEC. 2. In order to enforce the duty prescribed in Section One (1), the Board of Railroad Commissioners shall immediately and from time to time investigate the practice of the common carriers with respect to the movement of live stock; and if it ascertains at any time that the common carriers or any of them are moving cars of live stock with the proper speed, then upon notice to any such common carrier or carriers, the said board shall prescribe the speed at which and the conditions under which cars of live stock shall be moved within this State by any such carrier or carriers. The order shall specify the time at which it shall go into effect, which shall be as soon as, in the judgment of the board, the carrier or carriers affected can, with reasonable diligence, readjust its or their time tables. The power to prescribe speed and determine conditions for the movement of cars of live stock within this State is hereby expressly conferred upon the said Board of Railroad Commissioners.

SEC. 3. Any order, ruling or regulation made by the board under this act shall be enforceable as provided in Section Two Thousand One Hundred and Nineteen (2119) of the Code.

SEC. 4. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect upon its publication in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa.

Read first and second time and referred to Sifting Committee.

So the bill having received a constitutional majority was declared to have passed the Senate and its title agreed to.

The President announced as committee to prepare and submit suitable resolutions on the death of Hon. Geo. F. Wright, Senators Saunders, Whiting and Crossley.

Senator Saunders, from the committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Hon. Geo. F. Wright, submitted the following report:

Your committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions upon the death of the Hon. George F. Wright, late of Council Bluffs, Iowa, beg leave to submit herewith the following report:

George F. Wright was born in Warren, Washington county, Vt., December 5, 1833, and was the eldest of a family of four children of the late Franklin Asher Wright, born in Hanover, N. H., September 17, 1801, and of Caroline Susanah Wright, nee Tillottson, born in Berlin, Vt., November 3, 1807.

George F. Wright was reared and spent his boyhood on a farm in his native State and at the age of seventeen he commenced his academic education at West Randolph, Vt., under the tutorage of the late Hon. Austin Adams of Dubuque, Iowa. During his academic training he taught in the district school during the winter, as was the custom of many New England boys. He completed a preparatory course but did not enter college. In the spring of 1855, when he attained his majority, he came to Iowa and settled in Keosauqua, where he commenced the study of law in the firm of Wright, Knapp & Caldwell, a law firm composed of the late ex-Senator George G. Wright, the late Hon. Jos. C. Knapp of Keosauqua and Judge Henry C. Caldwell, now of Little Rock, Ark. In 1857 George F. Wright was admitted to the practice of law by Judge H. H. Hendershot. Immediately after his admission to the practice of law George G. Wright retired from the law firm because of his election to the Supreme Bench of Iowa, and George F. Wright became junior partner. His education, founded in the old-fashioned New England schools was rounded under the training received from his association with these eminent lawyers and jurists. Aided by their ripe business experience and by his extensive acquaintance with business affairs he became an active, persevering and successful lawyer.

In 1861 he enlisted in response to President Lincoln's call for 75,000 volunteers and in connection with Captain (afterwards General) James H. Tuttle, raised a company of volunteers in Van Buren county, of which he was elected the first lieutenant, receiving his commission from the hands of Governor Kirkwood, at Davenport, Iowa. His company rendezvoused at Keokuk and after being some time in camp it was accepted in the second call for volunteers and became a part of the Second Regiment of Iowa Volunteers. Just before this regiment was mustered Judge Caldwell was elected major of the Third Iowa Cavalry and the business of the law firm required Mr. Wright's return to Keosauqua. On his return, at the request of Governor Kirkwood, he raised a company of State militia, was elected captain thereof and his company was accepted by the Governor for the protection of the Iowa border in Van Buren county. This organization was frequently called to the border and into the State of Missouri until the rebels and guerrillas were driven out of the northern part of the State, when most of the company enlisted in and became a part of the Fifteenth Regiment of Iowa Volunteers.

On October 26, 1863, he was married in the city of Chicago to Ellen E. Wright, nee Brooks, of Northfield, Vt. Six children were born of this marriage and five survived after his death. In the spring of 1868 he moved to Council Bluffs and formed a law co-partnership with Judge Caleb Baldwin. After the retirement of Judge Baldwin from the firm Mr. Wright became the senior member of the firm that was then organized and remained such to the time of his death. In the practice of the law he was subsequently associated with the Hon. John F. Baldwin, now general counsel for the Union Pacific Railroad and Amos J. Rising.

Mr. Wright identified himself from the time of his advent into the State of Iowa with the politics of the State and Nation. He was always a staunch Republican and for many years a leading worker in his party, being frequently tendered a nomination as a member of the Legislature from his county and he invariably declined the honor. In 1875 he was elected as a member of this body from the Ninth Senatorial district of the State, the same being composed of the counties of Pottawattamie and Mills. After serving as a Senator in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth General Assemblies, he was again elected Senator in 1879, in the Nineteenth Senatorial district, composed of the county of Pottawattamie. He served from this district in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth General Assemblies. During his senatorial career his reputation as a lawyer and his energy and ability won for him substantial influence in this body. He was from the first a member of the Judiciary Committee and an active and industrious worker. He was ever vigilant and faithful in the trust imposed upon him, never allowing his personal feelings to swerve him from the path of duty and justice. He rendered the State faithful and competent service and his career reflected credit upon himself and honor upon his State. For many years he was Commissioner of the United States Circuit Court for the State of Iowa.

In 1870 he became actively engaged in business and from that date on he was prominently connected with large business enterprises. In 1886 he was prominently connected with the organization of the Omana & Council Bluffs Railway and Bridge Company, the first electric railway line in the State of Iowa and the second constructed in the United States.

As a lawyer Mr. Wright was prominent, leading and able and ever loyal to the rights of his client. Gifted with sound judgment, endowed with great common-sense, possessed of a large knowledge of men and affairs, he was ever ready to meet his adversary in court or in the field of compromise, confident in his resources and ability to secure better results for his client by negotiation rather than by prolonged and expensive litigation.

He died at Council Bluffs, Iowa, on the 13th day of December, 1906, surrounded by his wife and children.

WHEREAS, George F. Wright, a member of this body in the regular sessions of the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth General Assemblies, departed this life in his home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on the 12th day of December, 1906; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate has learned with great sorrow and regret of the death of the Hon. Geo. F. Wright, and it recognizes that in his departure the State has lost an honored and distinguished citizen, who served his State and generation with honor and credit. In his career as a member of this body he was a valuable public servant and distinguished by his ability and devotion to public duty;

Resolved, That the Senate joins with his neighbors and friends in sorrow at his loss, and it hereby tenders to his family its sincere sympathy in this hour of their bereavement; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Senate and that an engrossed copy, authenticated by the President and Secretary, be sent to the widow and family of the deceased.

C. G. SAUNDERS,
JAMES J. CROSSLEY,
WILL C. WHITING,
Committee.

President Pro Tem. Smith was called to the chair at 10:30 o'clock.

Senator Turner, from the joint committee appointed to secure chair and gavels for the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House, submitted the following report:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives, Thirty-second General Assembly:

Your committee appointed for the purpose of securing chairs and gavels for the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, beg leave to report:

That the chair occupied by the President of the Senate and the gavel used by him in presiding over the deliberations of the Senate be presented to him, and that

The chair occupied by the Speaker of the House and the gavel used by him in presiding over the deliberations of the House be presented to him.

Very respectfully submitted,

F. F. JONES,
G. H. VANHOUTEN,
JOHN C. DEMAR,
D. W. TURNER,
J. A. DEARMAND,
F. M. HOPKINS,

Adopted.

Senator Crossley moved that a committee of three be appointed to escort the President of the Senate to his desk.

Carried.

The chair announced as such committee Senators Crossley, Peterson, and Frudden, who performed that duty.

Senator Turner announced that the committee had requested Senator DeArmand to make the presentation. Senator DeArmand spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT—The very pleasing duty devolves upon me of representing the minority party on the committee that was honored by this body in the commission to procure a chair and gavel, to be presented to you, I am more than proud of the opportunity to have this opportunity of thanking you, Mr. President, for the very fair and impartial manner in which you have presided during the session now rapidly drawing to a close. In a few hours we will be on the way to our homes, not altogether certain, may be, whether we will be met by a brass band or a section of artillery. With our munificent salaries in our grips, we will seek to re-establish ourselves in the good graces of our constituents, more by a show of gain than by a defense of our course that we hope will stand the scrutiny of deliberate thought. Whatever may be our success in justifying our votes there never can or will be any diversity in our judgment as to the brand of considerate treatment passed out by our presiding officer. At all times courteous, blind to our embarrassment over new environments, every man in this Senate has been made to feel that he was at home and among friends. The vicissitudes of life may make our meeting again a matter of uncertainty, but we leave this assembly with the warmest feelings for you, hoping that life and plenty may be yours and that you may ever have the warm love of your co-laborers as you have earned and received here by your royal treatment of this Senate.

On behalf of the Senate of the Thirty-second General Assembly, I beg of you, to accept the chair and gavel. With them go the best wishes of every Senator.

President Garst responded, saying that he had been deeply touched by the gift and kind words spoken. He thanked the Senators for having overlooked his short-comings, and the officers and employes for their assistance. He said he felt that he had not a personal enemy in the Senate. He first alluded to the efficiency of the pages and his remarks were greeted with applause. He then paid tribute to the committee clerks, the sergeant-at-arms, the veteran doorkeepers and spoke particularly of what he denominated his official family, the force at the desk, no unpleasantness of any character and not an unkind word having been spoken during the entire session. He felt himself under a special obligation to each and every one for their assistance and cordial support. And finally he addressed himself to the Senators themselves. "I thank you," he concluded, "from the bottom of my heart for your consideration and attention during the session."

A gavel was also presented President Garst by Senator Turner, from Capt. Amos Brandt. The handle of the gavel was made from a piece of wood taken from a tree at Washington's tomb, and the mallet from Philippine wood. Lieutenant Governor Garst responded by appropriate reference to the historical significance of the relic.

Senator Stirton spoke in behalf of the Senators and the employes. Speaking of Governor Garst he said: "Few men within the borders of the State are more greatly beloved than he." Of the character of the session's legislation he said: "We have not gone far enough rather than gone too far." He closed by remarking to the Senators that he trusted their constituencies would say upon their return: "Well done, thou good and faithful Senators; enter thou into another term."

Senator Gilliland took the floor to praise the character of the Senate during the present session, and Senator Smith arose to laud the seven legislative assemblies of which he has been a member. "There is no foundation," said he, "for the funny newspaper man's joke about the legislator. I have known their aims and intentions in seven sessions and they are as high as any body of men could hope to reach."

Senator Dowell was called to the chair at 11:10 o'clock.

HOUSE MESSAGE CONSIDERED.

House has adopted conference committee report and amendments as recommended by conference committee on House File No. 379, a bill for an act to prohibit common carriers of passengers from issuing, furnishing, or giving free tickets, free passes, free transportation, or discriminating reduced rates, except to certain described persons; to prohibit the acceptance or use of such free tickets, free passes, free transportation, or discriminating reduced rates by any except certain described persons; providing a penalty for the violation of the act, also for annual reports and for the repeal of Chapter Ninety (90), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly.

Passed on file.

Senator Hopkins, from the conference committee on House File No. 379, submitted the following report:

To the President of the Senate: The undersigned, a conference committee to whom was referred House File No. 379, a bill for an act to prohibit common carriers of passengers from issuing, furnishing or giving free tickets, free passes, free transportation or discriminating reduced rates, except to certain described persons; to prohibit the acceptance or use of such free tickets, free passes, free transportation, or discriminating reduced rates by any except certain described persons; providing a penalty for the violation of the act, also for annual reports and for the repeal of Chapter Ninety (90), laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, beg leave to report that they have had the same, and all matters upon which no agreement was reached between the House and Senate, under consideration and have agreed that the amendments hereinafter set out be made to said House File No. 379 and said committee respectfully recommend that said amendments be adopted by both houses.

That the following be adopted as a substitute for the Senate amendments to Section Two (2) to wit: that Section Two (2) be stricken out and the following be substituted therefor: "The persons to whom free tickets, free passes, free transportation and discriminating reduced rates may be issued, furnished, or given are the following, to wit: (a) The officers, agents, employes, attorneys, physicians and surgeons, of such common carriers of passengers whose chief and principal occupation is to render service to common carriers of passengers; (b) to the families of the persons included in sub-division "a" hereof; (c) the general officers of any such common carrier; (d) employes on sleeping cars, express cars, and linemen of telegraph and telephone companies, railway mail service employes, postoffice inspectors, customs inspectors and immigration inspectors, newsboys on trains, baggage agents; (e) persons injured in wrecks and physicians and nurses attending such persons; (f) passengers traveling with the object of providing relief in cases of railroad accident, general epidemic, pestilence, or other calamitous visitation; (g) necessary care takers of live stock, vegetables and fruit, including return transportation to forwarding station; (h) the officers, agents or regularly accredited representatives of labor organizations, composed wholly of employes of railway companies; (i) inmates of homes for the reform or rescue of the vicious or unfortunate, including those about to enter and those returning home after discharge, and boards of managers, including officers, and superintendents of such homes; (j) superannuated and pensioned employes and members of their families and widows of such members; (k) employes crippled and disabled in the service of a common carrier of passengers; (l) policemen and firemen of any city, wearing the insignia of their office within the limits of such city; (m) ministers of religion, traveling secretaries of Railroad Young Men's Christian Associations, inmates of hospitals and charitable and eleemosynary institutions, and persons exclusively engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work; (n) indigent, destitute and homeless persons, while being transported by charitable societies or hospitals, and necessary agents, employes in such transportation; (o) school children to and from public or parochial schools; (p) the State Fish and Game Warden, and his car and necessary assistants therewith, when engaged in the performance of official duties.

In any prosecution under this act, if it is claimed that a free ticket, free pass or other transportation was wrongfully issued or given to physicians or surgeons, attorneys, agents, employes, it shall be incumbent upon the defendant to prove the character of the service rendered, or to be rendered.

The provisions of this act shall not be construed to prohibit the interchange of passes for the persons to whom free tickets, free passes, or free transportation may be furnished or given under the provisions of this section.

Nothing in this act shall operate to repeal the provisions of Section Two Thousand One Hundred Fifty (2150) of the Code so far as said section refers to the members of the National Guard, nor shall it operate to repeal Section Two Thousand One Hundred Fifty-one (2151) of the Code.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to invalidate any existing contract between a street railway company and a city where a condition of a franchise grant requires the furnishing of transportation to policemen, firemen, and city officers, while in the performance of official duties.

That the Senate amendment to Section Four (4) be adopted, the same being as follows: "amend Section Four (4) by striking out the words 'and the officer, agent, employe or representative, guilty of such violation shall, in addition to the fine,' in lines three and four, and inserting in lieu thereof the words 'or in the discretion of the court shall.'"

That the following be adopted as a substitute for Senate amendment to Section Five (5): that Section Five (5) be stricken out and the following substituted therefor: "Every common carrier of passengers within the provisions of this act, shall, on or before the first day of February of each year, file with the Executive Council of the State of Iowa, a sworn statement showing the names of all persons within the State to whom, during the preceding calendar year, it issued, furnished or gave a free ticket, free pass, free transportation or a discriminating reduced rate, except wage earners of common carriers in their ordinary employment and families of such wage earners, and disclosing such further information as will enable the Council to determine whether the person to whom it was issued, was within the exception of this act."

GEO. W. DUNHAM,

Conference Committee on Part of Senate.

GEO. E. GRIER,

N. J. LEE,

CHAS. W. HACKLER,

F. F. JONES,

Conference Committee on Part of House.

Senator Hopkins moved to adopt the report of the conference committee on House File No. 379, and also to adopt and include in the bill the amendments recommended by said committee.

Senator Gilliland moved the previous question.

Carried.

On the question, "Shall the report of the conference committee and the amendments recommended by said committee be adopted?"

The President resumed the chair at 11:20 o'clock.

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Burgess, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jamieson of Page, Lambert, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Seeley, Stirton, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—23.

The nays were:

Senators Bruce, Clark, DeArmand, Foley, Gale, Jackson, Jamison of Clarke, McKlveen, Saunders, Smith of Mitchell, Stookey—11.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bleakly, Crossley, DeWolf, Elerick, Frudden, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, McManus, Mattes, Nichols, Smith of Des Moines, Taylor, Wade, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—16.

So the motion to adopt the report and amendments was lost.

Senator Turner raised the point of order that a constitutional majority was not necessary to adopt the report and amendments recommended by the conference committee.

The President ruled the point not well taken.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTES.

This bill discriminates between railway employes and is calculated to destroy the medical departments of the railway of Iowa and it thereby strikes a blow at every man who is engaged in the operation of trains. The transportation issued to railway employes is not free and to discriminate between employes is unjust. I favor the law enacted on this subject by Congress and I regret that I have not an opportunity to vote for such a measure.

For these reasons I vote "no."

C. G. SAUNDERS.

I vote "no" for the reason that I do not believe any self-respecting attorney or physician should support the report of the conference committee.

JOHN H. JACKSON.

MR. PRESIDENT—I vote "no" because the measure is so at variance in the multitude of its exceptions from what an anti-pass bill, deserving of the name, contemplates.

J. A. DEARMAND.

Senator Smith of Mitchell filed the following motion:

I move to reconsider the vote by which the report of the conference committee on House File No. 379 failed to pass the Senate.

JAS. A. SMITH.

On motion the Senate took a recess subject to the call of the President.

The President called the Senate to order.

House has passed Senate joint resolution approving estimates of costs, plans, and specifications of an annex hall of agriculture, an addition to Margaret Hall, an engineering laboratory, and dairy and poultry farm buildings and authorizing the erection of said buildings.

Passed on file.

Senate File No. 241, a bill for an act to amend Section One (1) of Chapter Eighty-nine (89) of the laws of the Thirty-first General Assembly, relating to actions against joint carriers.

Passed on file.

Senator Smith of Mitchell called up the motion filed by him for reconsideration of the vote by which the report of the conference committee on House File No. 379 and amendments recommended by said committee failed to pass the Senate.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Hopkins moved to adopt the report of the conference committee on House File No. 379, and also to adopt and include in the bill the amendments recommended by said committee.

On the question, "Shall the report and amendments be adopted?"

The yeas were:

Senators Allen, Bleakly, Bruce, Burgess, Clark, Crossley, DeArmand, Dowell, Dunham, Eckles, Ericson, Foley, Frudden, Gilliland, Hopkins, Hughes, Jackson, Jamieson of Page, Lambert, McKlveen, Maytag, Moon, Newberry, Peterson, Saunders, Seeley, Smith of Mitchell, Stirton, Stookey, Stuckslager, Turner, Warren, Whipple, Wilson of Fayette, Young—35.

The nays were:

Senators Jamison of Clarke, Nichols—2.

Absent or not voting:

Senators DeWolf, Elerick, Gale, Jones, Kimmel, Kinne, McManus, Mattes, Smith of Des Moines, Taylor, Wade, Whiting, Wilson of Clinton—13.

So the report of the conference committee was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

MR. PRESIDENT—I desire to explain my vote. I have favored the retention of a provision in the anti-pass law allowing two attorneys and two physicians in each county, but that seems now impossible. Rather than defeat all anti-pass legislation for this session, I vote "aye."

JOHN FOLEY.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

The following messages were received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following bill, in which the concurrence of the House was asked:

Senate File No. 375, a bill for an act to make appropriations for the payment of State and judicial officers, State and other expenses.

C. R. BENEDICT,

Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has failed to pass the following bill, in which the concurrence of the House was asked:

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Senator Smith of Mitchell Senate File No. 376, a bill for an act to provide for the general levy for State purposes for the years 1907 and 1908:

A BILL for an act to provide for the general levy for State purposes for the years nineteen hundred and seven (1907) and nineteen hundred and eight (1908).

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That the Executive Council shall, in the year nineteen hundred and seven (1907), fix the rate per centum to be levied upon the valuation of the taxable property of the State necessary to yield for general State purposes approximately the sum of Two Million Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand ($2,250,000) Dollars; and in the year nineteen hundred and eight (1908) shall fix the rate necessary to yield approximately the further sum of Two Million Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand ($2,250,000) Dollars.

SEC. 2. The Executive Council shall certify the rate necessary to the Auditor of each county.

SEC. 3. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

Read first and second time and taken up for consideration.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Senate File No. 376, a bill for an act to provide for the general levy for State purposes for the years 1907 and 1908.

Senator Smith of Mitchell moved that the rules by which no bill shall be read a second and third time on the same day, be suspended.

Carried.

The bill was read for information.

Senator Smith of Mitchell moved that the rule be suspended, that the bill be considered engrossed, and the reading just had be considered its third reading, which motion prevailed.

On the question, "Shall the bill pass?"

The yeas were:

HOUSE MESSAGES CONSIDERED.

Senate File No. 375, a bill for an act to make appropriations for the payment of State and judicial officers, State and other expenses.

Passed on file.

House has failed to pass Senate File No. 366, a bill for an act to authorize and empower the Executive Council to redecorate and refinish the Senate chamber at the Capitol building, together with the Lieutenant-Governor's rooms, and committee and cloak rooms connected therewith, and to make an appropriation therefore.

Passed on file.

On motion the Senate stood at ease subject to the call of the President.

The President called the Senate to order.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

The following messages were received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following joint resolution, in which the concurrence of the House was asked:

Joint Resolution No. 8, approving estimates of costs, plans and specifications of Law building, Physics building and addition to Engineering building at the State University at Iowa City, Iowa, and authorizing the erection thereof.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has adopted the conference committee report and concurs in the amendments as recommended by the conference committee on House File No. 402, a bill for an act to limit the expenses, other than losses, of State mutual hail insurance associations and to limit the compensations to be paid to officers, agents and employes of such associations.

C. R. BENEDICT,
Chief Clerk.

HOUSE MESSAGES CONSIDERED.

House has passed Joint Resolution No. 8, approving estimates of costs, plans and specifications of law building, physics building and addition to engineering building at the State University at Iowa City, Iowa, and authorizing the erection thereof.

Passed on file.

House has adopted the conference committee report and concurs in the amendments as recommended by the conference committee on House File No. 402, a bill for an act to limit the expenses, other than losses, of state mutual hail insurance associations and to limit the compensations to be paid officers, agents and employes of such associations.

Senator Bleakly raised the point of order that the report of the conference committee on House File No. 402 not being signed by a majority of the committee from each body, could not be considered.

The President ruled the point of order well taken.

The bill was ordered passed on file.

The President announced that he had signed, in the presence of the Senate, Senate Files No. 373, 360, 301, 350, 61, 358, 198, 26, 339, 227, 349, 367, 372, 162, 47 and 357.
